WAR TAXES.

From the Tribune. We deprecate all avoidable war, but we intensely loathe a dragging war. A nation involved in war should always fight as though it fully intended and expected to fight its way to peace within the year ensuing.

Yet, whenever we happen to speak of additional taxes, we are sure to invoke a shower of remonstrances. Every body seems to deprecate at any rate any increase of taxation that is likely to fall on him.

So far as this country is concerned, the case is in a nutshell. If Judge Courser's action in this case defines the position and action of the Canadian Government, then Southern Rebels are quite at liberty to organize raids on Canadian soil against the United States.

When Mr. Courser, the chief legal adviser of the Government for the Province, was in Washington the other day, his professed mission was to confer with the Government on the best means of preventing these raids.

If Mr. Justice Courser found that his jurisdiction in questions of an international character were limited by the terms of the Extradition Treaty, his discharge of the prisoners may not be liable to be called in question.

Let us accept Mr. Justice Courser's decision as technically correct. The Imperial act, as he puts it, may override the local enactments for the guidance of committing magistrates in the colony.

BUSINESS ITEMS.

Do not allow your child to take his own course. Two-thirds of the victims of Consumption owe their ailments to the fatal mistake of waiting for a cough to get well itself.

Mr. J. M. Hill, of Hester, N. Y., says:—I was troubled for some years with a severe cough and pain in my left side. After consulting the best physicians in my reach, with no effect, I was eventually restored to good health by the use of Dr. Jayne's Expectorant.

Mr. C. W. Whitaker, of New York, writes:—Your Expectorant has entirely relieved me of a very painful Cough, accompanied with a sore Throat.

Rev. Dr. Dowling, of New York, writes:—From my own experience, I believe the Expectorant to be one of the best remedies for coughs and colds.

Mr. J. C. Taylor, New Liberty, Illinois, writes:—Last fall, while a refugee from Kentucky, I contracted severe cold, which terminated in Bronchitis. The accompanying cough was so constant, I could obtain but little rest, day or night, though I tried several remedies which were recommended to me.

If you are suffering from Bronchitis, use Jayne's Expectorant. This wide spread disease, which may be generally regarded as an inflammation of the air cells which line the inside of the wind tubes or air vessels spreading through every part of the lungs, is often mistaken for Consumption.

Rev. K. D. Fenwick, Pastor of Baptist Church, at Moorestown, N. J., writes:—Some time since I recommended Dr. Jayne's Expectorant to a lady who had been suffering from Bronchitis for some time. An entire restoration to good health was effected after taking two bottles, and she is now a hearty and vigorous woman.

Mr. Samuel C. Dawson, of No. 1217 Clarion street, Philadelphia, says:—After suffering for months with Bronchitis, I am happy to say that Dr. Jayne's Expectorant, I am sure more than any other, has cured me.

Mr. John B. Minton, No. 1102 8th street, Philadelphia, says:—Having suffered for two years with Bronchitis, I find it a city to state, I have, so far as I am told, been personally cured by the use of Dr. Jayne's Expectorant.

Mr. L. L. Hill, of Weaick, Green county, New York, writes:—By the very best use of Dr. Jayne's Expectorant, I have recovered from a severe attack of acute Bronchitis.

If you are Consumptive, use Jayne's Expectorant. It cleanses the lungs from all irritating matters, while at the same time soothes and invigorates them.

Rev. A. Wilberg, of Wittenberg, Hannover, writes:—A friend who was troubled with an obstinate Cough, and who had been removed by some physicians to a sanitarium, recovered his health through the use of Dr. Jayne's Expectorant.

For Asthma or Phthisis use Jayne's Expectorant. It will overcome the spasmodic contractions of the wind tubes, and cause them to eject the mucus or matter which clogs them up, and by an easy and free exhalation, remove all difficulty of breathing.

Mr. F. Prater, of Avoca, Steuben county, New York, writes:—Having tried various remedies for Asthma, without finding relief, I procured a bottle of Dr. Jayne's Expectorant, and obtained so much benefit from its use, that I continued its use, and am now perfectly cured.

Mr. Reading, of Warren county, Ohio, says:—I had recently another attack of Asthma, and for a third week I was unable to get any relief. I procured a bottle of Dr. Jayne's Expectorant, and obtained so much benefit from its use, that I continued its use, and am now perfectly cured.

Mr. Jos. Robinson, of Fletcher, Vermont, writes:—My wife was afflicted for years with the Asthma, and used various medicines, but all to no purpose, and was given up to die. She commenced taking Dr. Jayne's Expectorant, and soon began to mend. I cheerfully recommend it to all afflicted.

For Fevers, Croup, Whooping Cough, and all Lung Affections, the Expectorant will be found equally efficacious. All we ask is that a fair trial be given it. Read what is said of it.

Mr. W. Hosking, of South Yarra, Australia, writes, October 8, 1863:—I have much pleasure in bearing my testimony to the efficacy of Dr. Jayne's Expectorant. I was afflicted for several months with an attack of Acute Phthisis, so that I could not breathe without great pain. I tried two or three bottles of Dr. Jayne's Expectorant, and was hourly getting well, and I was induced to procure a bottle of the Expectorant, and soon found me in a condition to say that I experienced most instantaneous relief, and in a short time I was entirely cured.
