RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.—The Centenary of Methodism—Re-opening of a Methodist Church—Dedication of a New Church—A List of Anniversaryes.—In accordance with a resolution adopted in the November last, by the General Conference...

On May 12th, 1790, the foundation of the first Methodist Church in this city was laid, with prayers and songs of praise, at Bristol, England. The hundredth anniversary of English Methodism took place in 1839. The English Methodists appointed the 25th of October as a day of festive religious observances throughout their churches in all parts of the world.

The St. George's M. E. Church, Fourth street, near New, which was partially destroyed by fire on the twelfth day of August last, was reopened yesterday with services appropriate to the occasion. In the morning the Rev. Bishop Simpson delivered a very able sermon on the subject of "The Church of the Future." A collection, amounting to $1700, was taken up. In the afternoon a grand reunion of the old pastors, members, and friends of the church took place.

Yesterday the Central Congregational Chapel, the third of that denomination in this city, situated on Eighth street, between Locust and Vernon, was dedicated. The building cost about $40,000, and will hold between four and five hundred persons, and was well filled.

The anniversary of the Sunday School connected with Zion Congregational Presbyterian Church, Broad street, below Spruce, took place yesterday afternoon. The exercises opened with singing by the school, followed with prayer by Rev. Dr. Wyle. A portion of the Scriptures was then read by Rev. Dr. Perkins. After the singing of another psalm, a statement of the progress of the school was made by the Assistant Superintendent.

St. Paul's Church, on Third street, below Walnut, was crowded yesterday afternoon on the occasion being the fiftieth anniversary of the Sunday Schools of that church, and the final sermon of Rev. Dr. Goddard, the rector, who has accepted a call from Staten Island. Besides the decorations of evergreens, flowers, and garlands, the pulpit had upon it two missionary ships, one under full sail. On the table in front of the pulpit was a pyramid, arranged with holes to receive the bouquets, offerings of the different classes, and this was surrounded by a wreath of evergreens. Monday the infant school presented a magnificent basket of natural flowers. The total contributions are as follows:—Female school, $751.86; Male school, $535; Bible societies, $402.63; Infant school, $708.42; Miscellaneous, $100.00.
