OUR NEW YORK LETTER.

The Weather-Opera-Edwin Booth-Interesting Libel and Scan. Mag. Case-Receipts of Theatres-Records of Crime -The Mexican News, Etc.

Special Correspondence of The Evening Telegraph. NEW YORK, January 22.

The weather here yesteday was extremely cold and to-day there is some difficulty met by the upper Brooklyn ferry-boats in getting through the floating ice. At daylight the mercury stood at ten degrees above zero.

The latest bit of scandal is to be found in the arrest, on Saturday, of George W. Matsell & Co., of the Police Gazette, on a charge of libel preferred by Mr. Alexander T. Stewart, the wellknown importer and millionaire of this city. I send you the full particulars of the matter.

We are to have another season of opera here by Maretzek's company, to commence next week and continue for four weeks. L'Africaine and L'Etoile du Nora are annoanced.

Mr. Booth still draws tremendous houses in Hamlet. It will be wuhdrawn shortly. Mr. J. H. Taylor, Miss Rose Evtinge, and Miss Effic Germon will support him in Ruy Blas next Wednesday. Wednesday, Here are the gross taxable returns made for

Here are the gross taxable returns made for the past six months by the various theatres of this city:--Winter Garden, $55,443; Wood's Min-strels, $22,210; Wallack's, $111,114; Olympic, $61,350; New Bowery, $42,633; Niblo's Garden, $169,939; Old Bowery, $44,192; Broadway, $50,798; American, $85,996. There was considerable trouble on Saturday among the hide merchants and tanners, owing to the free that the Custom House authorities to the fact that the Custom House authorities here have received instructions from the Treasury Department at Washington to prevent the import of any nides supposed to be those of cat-tle which have died of the plague so long prevalent in Europe. The case of Martin, the alleged Confederate hotel-burner, was argued before United State Commissioner Osborne, on Saturday, by Mr. Courtney on behall of the Government, and by Mr. Larocque, counsel for the prisoner. The Commissioner reserved his decision as to the holding of Martin.

Still another counterfeit of the 25-cent frac-tional denomination made its appearance on Saturday at the redemption division of the Treasury Department at Washington, and was promptly rejected. Its general appearance was decidedly bad.

David Schiff and George Boyce, aged respectively twenty-four and twenty-seven, were ar-rested on Stanton street, on Saturday evening, on suspicion of being the persons who,on Friday lust, in midday, robbed a messenger of the Farmers' and Citizens' Bank of Williamsburg, of eighteen thousand dollars in notes and checks, on the corner of Beekman and William streets. The prisoners are detained for examination at Police Headquarters, where they have been identified by the messenger. None of the stolen money has been recovered.

The outer door of a safe on the second floor of the steel warehouse Nos. 91 and 93 John street, was blown open by burglars about eight o'clock yesterday morning. The noise of the explosion attracted the police, who, on their arrival, found the rooms filled with smoke and burgtarious imlements strewn on the floor; but the burglars had fled, and without having succeeded in penetrating the inner safe door, and consequently without any booty.

Early yesterday morning two thieves effected an entrance to the sleeping-room of a man named Thomas Hearn, on the corner of Tenth avenue and Twenty-seventh street, and while on for them stood threateningly over Mr. Hearn with a large knife, the other packed up such portable valuables as the room contained, after which both scoundrels made their escape. Business is dull here yet, but preparations are making for a very brisk spring trade. Gold may be quoted at 1383 - nominal. We are anxiously awaiting the arrival of three European steamers now due. The news from Mexico this morning is deemed quite significant among our financial kings here, FULTON.

LETTER FROM BALTIMORE.

Singular Coincidence - The Maryland Legislature-The Registry Law-Pardon of a Murderer, Etc. Etc.

MATTERS OVER THE RIVER.

MELANCHOLY SHIPWRECK AND LOSS OF LIFE.—A telegraphic despatch from Fortress Monroe announces the loss of the schooner Pattie Martin, Captain Daniel Smith. The ressel belonged to Philadelphia, and has bet-trading South since last September, freighted by Mr. John S. Lee and Mr. B. F. Archer, of this city. She was lost at Hatteras on the 7th Instant. Captain Smith, of Camden, and a colored cook, were frozen to death. Two of the crew, one of whom was the captain's brother, were saved, after remaining on the wreck five days and feed-ing on the body of the dead cook the last twenty-four bours. Captain Smith was one of our most esteemed citizens, and leaves a wife and family of small children to mourn his loss.

BURGLARY .- At a late hour on Friday night, a colored boy, named George Washington Johns, forcibly entered the house of Mr. Boley, also colored, and stole iffy-eight dollars. He was arrested by Marshal Campbell before morning. Some days before Johns had been paid a trifle by Boley for some service, and the former saw where the latter kept his money. Mrs. Boley was in the house when the robbery was committed, but being helplezs from affliction she could make no resistance, and the fellow "took'd no 'count ob de ole 'oman."

SENTENCED .- On Saturday, Judge Van-years in the penitentiary; Josiah Cashat, stealing a horse and carriage, five years; William Julius, for housebreaking and robbery, one year; William Clay, for an outrageous assault and bat-tery, one year; George W. Haines, for bigamy, two years; Bobert Roberts, for stealing twenty turkeys, one year.

NEW FERRY BOAT. - A splendid ferry boat, built of iron, was placed on Cooper's Ferry on Saturday. She is highly spoken of as all that could be desired for durability, speed, and ca-pacity. She is named the Allantic, and will greatly add to the facilities for cros-ing passengers to and from the Camden and Atlantic, and the Raritan and Delaware Bay Railroads. This s the third new boat put in service at this terry within three months.

CRUEL.-On Sunday morning the body of a male child, about two weeks old, was found in the graveyard on Fifth street, above Plum. It was frozen stiff, and in almost a nude condition. Coroner Roberts took charge of the body. The mother who could have consigned her offspring to this horrible death, on such a cold night, must have sunk to the lowest depths of de pravity, unless it was the result of insanity.

PROTRACTED MEETING CONTINUED .- The protracted meetings held in the Tabernacle Baptist Church, on Stevens street, during the past week, will be continued this week. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Davies, and other divines will be in attendance.

ANOTHER BAILBOAD .- The new railroad from Pemberton to Hightstown will be com-menced when the season opens. This will bring the produce of a rich section of country to the Philadelphia market, and materially add to the growing wealth of South Jersey.

STATE NORMAL SCHOOL .- The State Normal and Model Schools at Trenton, under the efficient supervision of Professor Hart, formerly of the Philadelphia High School, will commence their next term on the 5th proximo, under renewed and favorable auspice

ST. AGNES' DAY-THE EVE OF ST. AGNES -THE FESTIVAL AND ITS TRADITIONS-ITS POETRY AND QUAINT SUPERSTITIONS.-Yesterday was St. Agnes' Day, and Saturday was, of course, St. Agnes' Eve, a festival of unwonted interest to all unmarried and marriageable ladies. St. Agnes, than whom there is no saint more revered by the Catholic Church, has always been considered as the paironess of purity, chastity, and maidenly modesty. St. Jerome, writing in the fourth century, says that "the tongues and the pens of all nations have been employed in her praises;" homilies, hymns, and other effusions have been written in her honor in all languages. St. Ambrose, St. Austin, and other Fathers have indited her panegyric; St. Martin of Tours was singularly devoted to her; and Thomas a'Kempis

A BOLD BURGLARY.—On Sunday morning, between 12 and 3 o'clock, a most daring burglary was committed in the repairing room of the tai-loring establishment of William & James Neill, in the fourth story of the Press building, at Seventh and Chesnut streets. The room was used entirely as a workshop, and only such gar-ments as were in hands to be repaired were there at the time of the robbary. The door was opened with faise keys, and from the indications the thieves remained for some time, and enjoyed themselves to their heart's content. They left their pipes, half filled with tobacco, upon the table, but completely stripped the establishment. It is supposed that the burglats were alarmed by the entrance of a lodger as a portion of the cloth-A BOLD BURGLARY .-- On Sunday morning, the entrance of a lodger as a portion of the clothing abstracted was found upon the starway. It adds somewhat to the boldness of the robbery to know that the attaches of the Sunday Press were in the building at the time, and that the locality is one of the most public in the city. There have been several attempts made to break into the store of the Messrs. Neill, but as a private watchman always remains in the room at night they have not heretofore been successful. It becomes all business men to look carefully after their interests, as the hordes of scoundrels who infest our city are always upon the look-out for a tavorable opportunity to relieve some one of their property. In the present case no clue has been obtained calculated to fix the felony upon any individuals, but our sharp detectives are on the qui vive.

CHASE AFTER A PRISONER,-About a week since four roughs went into a tavern kept by a one-armed man, in the Twenty-fourth Ward, and after beating him, one of them striking him over the head with a pitcher, they robbed the till of all the money it contained and left, A warof all the money it contained and left. A war-rant for their arrest was issued by Alderman Johnson and placed in the hands of Officer Prit-ner. The offenders field to Kellyville, where they were followed by the officer. Hearing that they were being pursued by an officer of the law they next left for Leiperville, a short distance this side of old Chester. The officer still continued the chase, and following after them succeeded in arresting one of the gang, who gives the name in arresting one of the gang, who gives the name of Abin Dougherty. The officer started to return to the city, and not being able to meet the train, walked with his prisoner the whole distance. Both prisoner and captor were pretty well tired out upon their arrival here. Dougherty was committed for trial.

DOUBLE CHARGE .- John Schaick, the proprietor of a lager beer saloon at Ninth and Pop-lar streets, was arrested yesterday morning, charged with larceny and assault and battery. A party of young men were playing cards in Schaick's saloon. One of them lost the game, and not having the money to pay the proprietor, it is alleged, tore the coat from his back and kicked him into the street. The accused was held to answer by Alderman Fitch.

LARCENIES .- John Dell was arrested on Saturday, charged with the larceny of two drafts valued at $494, from the store of Mr. Abel, No. 8 Water street. The defendant was com-mitted for trial by Alderman Toland.

Daniel Blackburn, who keeps a tavern in South street, below Front, has been held by Aldermon Pottinger to answer the larecny of $240.

DEATH OF AN OLD SHIPMASTER.-Captain Shankland, one of the oldest shipmasters of this port, died this morning in the 73d year of his age. He was for a number of years a member of the Shipmasters' Association, and was widely known and esteemed.

STABBING AFFAIR. - Joseph Lourmiller was arrested at Fourth and Coates streets, on Saturday night, upon the charge of having stabbed a man in the arm. The accused was held to answer.

PASSING COUNTERFEIT MONEY. - Frederick Hyatt has been committed by Alderman Toland to answer the charge of having passed seven counterfeit fifty cent notes.

Special Correspondence of The Evening Telegraph. BALTIMORE, January 21, 1866.

A most singular coincidence in reference to the case of Mrs. Grinder, who was executed at Pittsburg, on Friday last, for murder by poisoning, is the fact that one of her victims, Mrs. Caruthers, is the same name of an entire family of Caruthers, including father, mother, sons, and daughters, who were poisoned about fifty lyears ago in Carlisle, Pennsylvania, by a young girl named Rachel Clark, a domestic in the house of Mr. Caruthers.

If we are not mistaken, two, three, or more of the family died. Andrew Caruthers, an eminent lawyer of Carlisle, who had a very large practice and died a few years ago, it may be re-collected, was very lame and much deformed. the muscles and sinews of his arms, hands, and legs being contracted and drawn up to a painful legree. This was the result of the poisoning referred to, from which he never recovered. It was alleged that jealousy caused the youthful murderess, who was represented as very hand-some, to perpetrate the crime.

I have often seen notices in the public prints since the execution of Mrs. Surratt, and now, in commenting on that of Mrs. Grinder, that only a certain number of women have been hung in this country. The case of Bachel Clark, however, was always overlooked. She was publicly executed in Carlisle some fifty years ago. Her body was got possession of by Dr. Geddis, of Newville, Pa., who had the bones put on wires, and set up in a box in his office, where they remained for many years, and possibly may yet be seen in the same town. The general outlines of what I have here narrated are true, and will be sustained by refer-ence to the history of the court proceedings in Carlisle. The whole case was a most singular and romantic one.

One of the most agreeable entertainments which I have seen for a long time took place here yesterday, at the formal opening of a new hotel in Fayette street, near Barnum's. Not less than two thousand persons, embracing our most prominent buginess men and merchants, participated.

Our Legislature has gone to work in real earnest, passing tills to encourage internal improvements, such as railroads, manufactures. etc. etc.

The new Registry law, which severely pinches all who have been disloyal, and operates sorely against the Democratic party, is causing much talk, but, we are informed, the members of the Legislature are not disposed to change it, at least for the present. Lieutenant Offley, of the 1st Delaware Cavalry, who, unfortunately, when under the influence of liquor shot and killed a person named White, for which offense he was tried and sentenced to imprisonment in the city jail, has had his petition for pardon granted by Governor Swann. He presented a very strong petition for clemency. The fact is no malice could be proved, por any intention to kill. It was wholly the result of being crazed by liquor. I learn that Hon. John L. Thomas, member rom this city, had be been in his seat when the vote was taken tranchising the colored inhabitants as voters of the District of Columbia, would have voted in the negative.

General Woolley, our Provost Marshal of the sthyA. C., Middle Department, purposes resigning soon and entering into business in Baltimore.

selected her as his spiritual guardian, which his works amply testify. The legend does not tell who were her parents, or what their rank in life, but takes up her biography abruptly thus:

"There lived in the city of Rome a maiden whose name was Agnes; she was not more than thirteen years old, but having followed Christ from her inyears old, but having followed Christ from her in-fancy, she was as distinguished for her gracious sweetness and humility as for her surpassing beauty. It charced that the son of Sempronius, the Preject of Rome, teneld her one day as he rode through the oity, when he became violently enamored, and de-sired her for his wife; but the maiden repelled his advances, and rejected his cos'ly presents, replying that she had associated herself to a heavenly sponse. On which the young man was seized with such jealousy and rage that he went home, fell upon his bed, and became sics almost unto death. His father, being informed of the cause of his malady, repaired to Agnes, and to her parents, and besought them to to Agnes, and to ber parents, and besought them to accept his son; but all his entreatles were unavail-ing. Having boldly protessed herself a Christian, Sempronus resolved to subject her to the most savare and revolting outraces, under the authority of the bloody edicis of the Emperor Dioclesian. Having borne their fortures, and successfully resistmaying borne merriror dress, she was eventually con-demned to die. Overjoyed on hearing her sentence, St. Ambrose says 'she went to the place of execution more cheerially than others to a wedding.' The spectators wept on seeing her loaded with fatters, and fearless under the very knife of the execu-tioner, who, with a trembling hand, cut off her head with a single place "(Januare 21 A D 204) with a single blow." (January 21, A. D. 304) It appears from "Ribadeneira," that "she was to have been burned and was thrown into the fire for that purpose, but the flames were sud-denly extinguished, and she stood unharmed; while the executioners were slain by the force of the fire, which had no power over her. But the wicked deputy and the idolatrous priests commanded the executioner to ascend the pile and end her life with the sword. Looking up to heaven, she yielded up her pure spirit, and fell, bathed in blood, in the thirteenth year of her

Her legend further states, that "Eight days after her death she appeared to her parents (who were praying by her sepulchre', all radiant of aspect, arrayed in robes of white, attended by virgins with garlands of pearls, and a lamb whiter than the driven snow." Hence she is usually portrayed with a lamb by her sidewhich, in Christian art, is the emblem of inno-cence, meekness, modesty; in this sense it is given to St. Agr.es, of whom Massillen said so beautifully, "Where there is no religion there is little modesty; where there is no modesty, there is little religion." The connection of her name with the Latin term for a lamb (Agnus) has pro-bably led to the association of this animal with her memory. On this anniversary there still is a procession in Rome, when a lamb, highly deco rated, is led through the principal streets, St. Agnes is the favorite saint of the Roman

The traditional reverence paid to her women. memory has been kept alive to this very hour y their local associations, and by two famouchurches at Rome bearing her name-one within and one without the walls. The first stands on the west side of the Piazza Navona, on the very spot where stood the house of infamy to which she was dragged by the soldiers. "Often," obshe was dragged by the soldiers. "Often," ob-serves Mrs. Jameson, "have I seen the steps of this church so crowded with kneeling wors" ippers that I could not make my way among them. They were principally market women, and others of the lower orders with distaffs, who came to pray for the blessings of meckness and chastity —rare grits in these regions." The other church of St. Agnes is outside the "Pious Gate;" it was erected by Constantine the Great, at the request of his daughter, and is one of the most venerable of the older churches in Rome. THE "FLORENCE" SEWING MACHINE, we find, is being bought in preferience to all others. The reasons for this are at once cogent and numerous. It does better and finer work than any of its rivals; is the only machine capable of making the lock and knot stitches; the only machine having a uniform tension of upper and lower thread : the only machine that has the reversible feed motion enab ing the ope-rator to fasten the ends of sears, thereby saving much labor, and owing to its simple construction. it rarely, if ever, gets out of order.
