Union State Convention.

A State Convention will be held in the Hall of the House of Representatives in Harrisburg, Pa., on WEDNESDAY, THE SEVENTH DAY OF MARCH, A. D. 1866, at 12 o'clock M., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Governor, to be supported by the friends of the Union.

The New Reciprocity Treaty.

On the 17th of next month the Reciprocity Treaty between the United States and the British Provinces will expire, and all commercial relations between the two countries nominally cease. We say nominally, for there can be no question but that a vast system of smuggling will at once commence.

without caring for hire, seeking for victory. Many of them fell; many of them have come back to their homes as veteran heroes. But the heirs of the dead, or the purses of the living, have not been enriched by one cent of bounty money.

The end of 1864 and the opening months of 1865, however, revealed a different tale. The patriotism of the North had been drained during the first three years. The bravest had gone without inducement, except that of duty. They had fallen; the future looked dark and doubtful; the men of the free States held back, some through inability, others through cowardice, others again through mercenary greed and gain.

By the proposed equalization it does not follow that any injustice will be done to those who, by contract, have secured $700 as a purchase of their services. But it does follow that the veterans who have done the work deserve at the least an approximation to the sum given to those who came after them.

moralists of treason and rebellion. Doubtless there are some who would gladly contribute to a memorial of JOHN WILKES BOOTH, if his worthless carcass could be found. History informs us that some unknown hand daily laid a wreath of immortelles on the fresh grave of ROBESPIERRE.

There are certain newspapers in the loyal North where books of subscription could be profitably opened for the advancement of the cause of glorifying the Southern bravos. The New York News is one. The number, if we remember aright, is Four—Eleven—Forty-four. It would be a pity if men who stole so indefatigably, and fought so carefully, should not have their names embalmed in alabaster.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

SUPREME COURT OF PENNSYLVANIA.—Chief Justice Woodward and Justices Brainerd and Phillips, sitting in court this morning, and the following cases were disposed of: Yeager vs. Wallace. Certificate from Nisi Prius. Argued by H. Hubbel, Esq., for plaintiff, and E. H. Neal, Esq., for defendant in error.

have been printed, were published exclusively in the Herald of the 8th inst. The following evidence was given yesterday: R. R. Lowell, sworn—I am a detective for the Treasury Department, to detect persons for counterfeiting Treasury securities; I recognize the prisoner; I saw her first on the 6th of February, in the evening about half-past 7, in the Bowery; I arrested her; I saw her going along; I said, "My lady, I want to get what counterfeit money you have got?" she said, "I do not know what you mean?" Mr. Brodie, who was in company with me, said, "There is no one talking; we want those things; if you do not give them we will search you;" she said, "You are going to search me! Well, here it is," and she handed to Mr. Brodie a package which she took from her pocket; it was made up in paper, and contained the plate product; we took her and the package to the National Hotel, and there, in the parlor, showed her the plate which I took from the package; she said that a man named Abrams gave it to her to take to a man named in the Bowery, and that a man would meet her there to receive the package from her; she said she did not know where the plates had been used; she expressed herself ready to tell where the stamps were printed; she then handed to Mr. Brodie a note for $200, and she said she pulled out a package and gave it to me; she said when she gave me the package that it had been given to her by Abrams right on the spot where we arrested her; at the hotel Mr. Lowell cross-examined her, and she then stated the manufacture of the currency was carried out; she said she did not; she gave me her name as Abrams; she did not state what relation she was to the man Abrams.

Branch of Promise of Marriage. ACTION BY A NEW YORK LADY AGAINST A FORMER STATE PRISON INSPECTOR.—VERDICT OF FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS DAMAGES.

Cornelia N. Wiggin vs. William A. Russell.—The plaintiff in this action is a lady about thirty-two years of age and a resident of New York, being engaged as a dressmaker for several years. Defendant, Mr. William A. Russell, as appeared on the trial, was formerly State Prison Inspector, and now resides at Salem, Washington county, N. Y. An action was brought by the lady against the gentleman for breach of promise of marriage, damages being set at ten thousand dollars.

RETROUVEY'S TURKISH BANDOULENIAN HAIR TONIC. THE DRESSING AND RESTORE OF THE AGE. TURKISH BANDOULENIAN. RETROUYE'S TURKISH BANDOULENIAN. Retrouvey's Turkish Bandoulenian. What can be more acceptable than anything that will beautify that will restore nature's decay by stopping the hair from falling out, restoring its natural color, making it to grow in luxuriance and beauty, assist in putting up according to the present style and fashion and keep it in place? This, Retrouvey's Turkish Bandoulenian Hair Tonic will do, and for proof we refer you to any person who has tried it. It is acknowledged to be the beautifier of the age, the only Hair Tonic and Restorer worthy of the name. In Turkey, in France, in England, in America, everywhere where the Bandoulenian is known, it is pronounced the "me plus ultra" of Hair Preparations. Remember, it is free from all metallic poisons that are contained in most Hair Colors and dressings. It is the extract of many flowers and herbs, beautifully put up, an ornament to the Toilet.

On the Equalization of Bounties to Soldiers. THE whole history of the events of the war are too vividly impressed upon our readers to need any repetition here. They all remember how five years ago the sound of rebellion first broke upon the supine indifference which had bound the North for thirty years.

THE PRESIDENT AND HIS DELEGATIONS.—Mr. JOHNSON has an amiable way of disposing of committees and State delegations, and were it not that they are as numerous as the locusts of Egypt, we should consider his task a light one. He has but one answer to all who come charged with axes that need to be ground without any delay.

STERN'S COPY.—Chief Justice Woodward and Justices Brainerd and Phillips, sitting in court this morning, and the following cases were disposed of: Yeager vs. Wallace. Certificate from Nisi Prius. Argued by H. Hubbel, Esq., for plaintiff, and E. H. Neal, Esq., for defendant in error.

THE CHOLERA CONFERENCE IN THE EAST.—The following appears in the Levant Herald, of Constantinople:—"The nominations to the forthcoming Cholera Conference are now nearly completed, and the conference will, we learn, hold its first sitting early in the coming month. The Hon. W. Stuart, her Majesty's Secretary of Embassy, with a medical associate not yet named, will be the British representatives; Count Lalemand, as already stated, will be the French member; the Italian, Belgian, and Swedish ministers will respectively represent their several Governments. Persia will also be admitted to the hygienic concert, and will contribute the wisdom and science of Teheran through the Malaccan Khan, Dr. Samsud-Dein Bey. The other powers, including the United States, have also appointed their delegates, but the names have not yet been announced. In the meantime, it is sufficiently plain that the conference is to be rather diplomatic than medical, and that the result will perhaps put a degree of pressure on the Porte which Alali Pasha hardly foresaw when he so readily fell in with the French proposal."
