FEBRUARY 13, 1838,

To the President and Members of the Alumni-Genflemen: The undersigned, a committee appointed at the last annual meeting of the Alumni, for the purpose of protecting the interes so the Central High School from t'e attacks of its fees, beg leave to submit the following report:

For many years it has been the custom of the enemies of the institution to make in our City Councils, the same stereoty ped motion to strike out the necessary appropriation for the continuance of the school Heretofore the vote in favor of such an action has been so slight as to pass unpotend, or at least unfeared. In January last, however, when the usual routine was enacted, both the advoortes and opponents of the measure were astonished to find that is out of 41 members of the Common Council were in favor of the abolition of the school. Had rour (4) of the gentlemen changes their votes, the clause would have been expunded, and its release, four randered a matter of difficulty, if not impossibility.

In view of these facts, your committee deem that the time has arrived when it behooves every friend of the Central Eigh School, eage ally those who can term her their aima mater, to take active steps to protect her frem the auteons which, through ignorance and digotry, have a summed the most formidable projorilens. With a view to accomplishing the end for your action the preamble and resolutions appended to this report.

During the debate in the Common Council certain charges were made, of which, having been extensively circulated through the medium of the press, it is neces-

Inis report.

During the debate in the Common Council certain charges were made, of which, having been extensively circulated through the medium of the press, it is necessary some rotice be taken. It is mot our intention to control the very statement of them being a sufficient refutation; but there were three assertions made, which nearly effect our honor as former pupils of the school. It was said that seventy per cent. of the graduates were drong on the community." It was declared that "few, if any, of the graduates were qualified for teachers." It was ann unced that the common school system had been so improved that the thigh concelled with rich men's sons to the detriment of the working classes, and its original design thus frustrated. To these we would reply. First, that to assert that seventy out of every one hundred members of this Alumni are "drones" is not to prove its truth. We appeal to the records and not to the bia-sed a gertions of foces of the institutions. In the war which has just closed, we find that the graduates of the Higs. School in the marine corps, as officers, numbered twenty-two; in the regular may seventy six, and in the samy three hundred and sixty four. a large proportion of whom heid rank as field officers. The data thus given does not include the militia, and is compiled from personal observation, there being some five hundred more names which will be added to the roll of honor in the course of a few weeks.

the militia, and is compiled from personal observation, there being some five him bred more names which will be added to the roll of honor in the course of a few weeks.

That the leading business men of our city do not view the holders of her diploma as "drones" is shown by the fact that there are standing orders from many of our mercartile houses for any young man who has passed through her course of stady, and that the fact that an aspirant for a position is a graduate is. In many cases, a sufficient guarantee for a successful application. We find her children occupying the pulpit, speaking at the bar, healing the sick, sitting on the editorial chair, wielding the author's pen, cashing their thousands as bankers navigating the globe with their ships, designing as draughtsmen, and executing as mechanics. The charge that the whole course of study fits only for a professional life is controverted by the testimony of the mechinists of our own and sister cities, for almost every work hop has its representatives of High School education. In all of the busy walks of active life we fit d men who hall her as their aima mater asting their part as good citizens, and proving the falsity of the charge of drones, which is as uncharitable ast its untrue.

The second accusation is easily answered. There are twenty-six grammar schools in our city; of these, thirteen have for their principals former pupils of the High School; while the roport of the B ard of Control tor 1864 shows that sixty one out of ninety-six applicants to whom were granted certificates of fitness to act as teachers were graduates; while in Rovember, 1865, every male to whom such a certificate was given was a member of this Alumni. What farther proof is necessary to show the utter fability of such a charge?

The last complaint is raber a recommendation. We are at a loss to perceive how it is incompatible with our committee cannot descend and only the pretex and the population of the paret essence of democracy, and that both wealthy and indicate t striving. We, therefore, hold that the arguments of the opponents of the school are only the pretext and not the cause of their hostility, which, we fear, lies rather in prejudice than in their reason.

Your committee cannot be bind to the fact that the system is far from perfect, that there are many faults that need correction many evils for which there should be a remedy; yet we hold that the evils can be reformed by proper action of the Board of Control, and without the abolition of the institution. Reformation is needed in the system, and reformation will not injure the Board itself. It is rather through the neglect of the gentlemen whose duty it was to direct the plan of education in the right channel, than beause of any radical defect in the school itself.

While we would not advise the Alumni to precipitate an issue where none exists, yet at the same time way would soggest that we assume such an attitude as will show that we do not fear, or deairs to avoid both meeting and settling the question whenever our opponents may compel us so to do. This body holds in its hands an immense political power; and while we do not hostiste to a sert that it is a duty we owe, as citizens and voters, to yield our suffrage and support only to those whose views are not diametrically opposed to what we esteem the cause of reason and education.

Whereas, The attacks on the Central High School of Whereas, The attacks on the Central High School of Philadelphia have assumed a proportion cangarous to the existence of the institution; and whereas it is a duty which those who have received an education from her owe it to their fellow citizens to lessify to the condition of that school, with the internal working of which we, of all others, are best acquaiated; therefore, Besolved, That we, the Alumni of the Central High School, do unanimonally declare, as our sincere conviction, that the existence of our alma mater is of incalculable benefit to the proper education of theyouth of our city, and that as a reward for meritorious scholarship its beneficial influence extends far beyond the immediate limits of tuose who tall directly benesth its care.

Resolved. That we call the stiention of our fellow citizens to the dangers to which the whole common school system is subjected by the unfitnees of many of the officers elected by them to superintend its working, and that we shall most neartily join, both as individuals and voters, in any effort hich may be made to secure the selection only of su h men as are fitted, both by probley and intelligence, for so important a stewardship.

both by problity and intelligence, for so important a stewardship.

Resolved. That unless some reform is speedily made in the class of pecsons selected to be the judges of our educational system, the question will arise whether the whole elective plan, as far as a choice of School Ontrollers is concered, is not a reducal syll, and, efforts be deemed necessary to secure the appointment of officers by the Courts.

Resolved. That we are of the pinion that the carelessness with wich such officers are chosen will result, if not corrected, in the overchrow of the entire public school system, as we last the destruction of that institution, whose existence we revers; and that we implore our fellow-citizens to join with us in removing the educational interests of our city from all political influence, which can only degrade and injure the cause of knowledge and advalenment.

The report and tesolutions were interrupted by frequent appliause.

The report and resolutions were interrupted by frequent appliause.

Before they were considered Mr. Alex. P. Colesberry submitted an additional resolution to appoint a committee of three to inquire if legislation cannot be obtained to raise the standard of the school to that of other colleges in the land.

Mr. Ashmead offered an amendatory resolution to appoint a committee to petition the Legislature to procure the abolition of the Board of School atrol, as now constituted, and to secure the appointment of a new Board in the same manner as the Board of Health and the Guardians of the Poor are now appointed. He made some very personal remarks, Mr. Thomas May Pierce sharply called him to order, and said that the Alumni did not meet to assail the character of public men in authority.

Mr. John D. Watson said it was fortunate that

Mr. John D. Watson said it was fortunate that the point of order was made, and that the Alumni had returned to the starting point, and that is the report which was submitted to the meeting, and which would prove eminently successful if presented without being embarrassed by any side action. That is a broad and simple platform apon which to go before the people. The question now before the Alumni is not whether the members of the educational board are political negatives—there are good men in those bodies peculators-there are good men in those bodies and there are bad men—but the question for the Alumni to ask of the people is that the power entrusted to the hands of these boards is being perverted and used for the destruction of our pub-

Mr. Jno. Rogers indorsed the remarks of Mr. Watson, and he moved that the President of the Alumni be authorized, at the request of the Committee on the Defence of the School, to increase the number of the committee to thirseen. The motion of Mr. Rogers was adopted.

first and second resolutions were adopted

Mr. Pierce moved to lay the third resolution on

The motion was lost.

Mr. Pierce said it was but the accident of the day that Philadelphia has good judges, and a similar accident that she has tad controllers. The two officers are elected by the people. They emanate from the same source, and we are just as likely to get good controllers are set only as likely to get good controllers as we are to get good judges. If the Board of School Control remain in the power of the people, the Alumni of the High School can exercise a great and a good influence upon the selection of controllers; but place the power of appointment in the hands of the judges, and the chance of getting good officers resus only with the judiciary, which can only be changed in

mr. Colesberry said that the Directors of the public schools, in all the wards of the city, with two exceptions, the Fourth and Seventeenth, are men of honor and intelligence. The enemies of the High School are not outside of the school but in it, and if the professors of the High School were men of classical attainments, the standard of scholastic ability would be raised far beyond the present range. The evil in the High School system is the appointment of fledgeling graduates to principals' chairs in the institution, graduates who are no more to be compared to classical scholars than a more to be compared to classical scholars than a lamp-post is to a broomstick.

Then let the course of instruction be varied. Let French be abolished; it is only necessary to those who go to dancing school or seek nonsense in the foyer of the Academy of Rusic. Let the whole course be Latin and Greek, subdivided into law be thoroughly instructed in that branch, and and physic—those who are students of law to those also who are students of medicine to be thoroughly instructed in physics. In connection with both these branches the professions of morals and elbics, and belies letters, higher mathematics, and astronomy, could be very easily arranged. By such a course the High School could graduate men capable of sustaining the reputation of a Latin diploma, capable of stunding without a biush before an alumnus of any collegs in our country. fore an alumnus of any collegs in our country.

The resolution was adopted. The closing resolution and the preamble was also adopted.

THE MONTGOMERY COUNTY MURDER-ADDITIONAL FACTS,—The account we yesterday published of the murder in Lower Merion was substantially correct in all its details. A few

The amendments were all tabled.

additional facts have transpired since.
Dr. Levering resided near Rosemont Station. close to the dividing line of Delaware and Montgomery counties, about nine miles from this city. t seems that the Doctor, on his return from a professional visit at seven o'clock, Tuesday even ing, passed his house and proceeded to his barn with his horse and wagon. His wife sent a person with a lantern to enable him to see how to put up the horse, and the messenger found the dead body of the Doctor lying underneath the horse. The wife heard the report of a gun, but supposed some one was shooting muskrats in the neighborhood, and paid no more attention to it. Little did she and her four children think that that shot sent her husband's soul into eternity, and terrible was her anguish when the horrible fact was communicated to her.

The news soon spread, and horsemen scoured the country in all directions in search of the assassin. Yesterday the Coroner of the county commenced an investigation. It was ascertained that a bullet and four buckshot had penetrated the body, and that the assassin discharged the murderous weapon he used from an angle of the barn, not ten feet distant from where the Doctor was taking the horse from the wagon. A number of prominent citizens, together with the authorities, communicated with Chief Detective Franklin, of this city; and, as the scene of the murder is but four miles from the line of this county, that official repaired thither, and is engaged in working up the case. During the day a large concourse of citizens visited the place, and as yet the cause of the shooting remains a mystery.

Dr. Levering was born in the neighborhood, and was a kind-hearted, pleasant, genial gentleman, and not at all the kind of man who would have enemies to seek such revenge. This family has been singularly afflicted within a thort time, Mrs. Levering having lost three children, a sister, mother, and husband, within two years. First, one of the children died suddenly of spotted fever, then a second was taken with the isease, and also died after lingering a short time. Not long after, a brother of Dr. Levering died, and then a third one of the children was sick a few weeks ago with scarlet fever. While this child was at the point of death, word came to Mrs. Levering that her mother was dying, and that she must go to her instantly, or she would not find her alive. Both ther third child and her mother died within a few days, and she passed from the funeral of one to the funeral Now comes this last crushing affliction of the murder of her husband at hi own door. A number of the residents of the neighborhood have offered the following reward for the discovery of the murderer:-

$1000 Reward.—The above reward of one thousand dollars will be paid for the detection and conviction of the murderer or murderers of Dr. Joseph H. Levering, near his residence, be tween White Hall and Rosemont stations, on the Pennsylvania Railroad, on Tuesday evening February 13, 1866. Signed:—Morris R. FUNERAL OF A MASON .- The funeral of Wilham H. Adams, Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge. A. Y. M., of Pennsylvania, took place vesterday afternoon.

The cortege consisted of one hundred and fifty carriages, eighty of them being occupied by the Grand Lodge. The Grand R. A. Chapter, Washington Lodge, No. 59, A. Y. M., Chapter No. 3, A. Y. M., and Friendship Lodge, No. 3, I. O. O. F., followed the remains to the grave. Rev. John Chambers, Chaplain of the Grand Lodge officiated. The deceased was laid out in full Masonic regalia. The coffin was a very handsome one, and was covered with black cloth, silver mounted. The name and age of the deceased was beautifully inscribed thereon. His remains were interred at Monument Cemetery.

THE ESCORT TO THE HIBERNIA.-An adjourned meeting of the firemen for the purpose of receiving the Hibernia Fire Company upon its arrival from Washington, on the 224 of February, was held at the Perseverance Hose House last evening. The Washington Hose Company sent delegates, which will make twenty-three companies in all represented. Colonel Fritz, the President, announced the following Special Aids to the Chief Marshal:—A. H. Ruhl, Fairmount Engine; Samuel Hamilton, Warren Hose; Charles McKinley, Southwark Hose; Joseph Hazard, iVgilant Engine; Samuel M. Clement,

A HAM TRIEF.-John H. Lee, colored, was arraigned yesterday afternoon, charged with the larceny of a ham belonging to Mr. Glenn, corner of Chesnut and Sixth streets. On Saturday last he left a ham, and shortly after returned, saying that he had made a mistake, as it belonged to another person. John is also accused with having appropriated to his own use the hind-quarter of a porker, which he delivered at the house of Sheriff Howell, and called soon after and obtained it, telling the servant he had made a mistake in the number. John was held to answer in default of $800 bail.

A NEW ORPHANS' HOME .- A number of ladies and gentlemen, impressed with the necessity of doing something for the orphan children of soldiers and sailors killed during the Rebellion, have commenced a movement, which has for its object the furnishing of a home for orphan boys alone, many of whom are now wholly unprovided for, and are left to take care of themselves. The movement has received the approvaof many soldiers, sailors, and civilians, and there seems to be no doubt of its success.

CATHOLIC INTELLIGENCE.-The annual meeting of the friends and benefactors of the Catholic Seminary in this city will be held this evening, at the Cathedral. Addresses will be delivered by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Wood and

A large lot has been secured at the corner of Twentieth and Christian streets, in tais city, for the erection of a new Catholic church.

It has steadily doubled its business annually for several years past, and is on the topmost wave of prosperity

FIRE LAST NIGHT .- About 11 o'clock last evening, a fire was discovered under a bench is the third-story room of the building back of Eansom street, above Sixth, occupied by Mr. Brown, a stereotype finisher. The Good Intert and America Hose Companies were speedly on the ground, and extinguished the fire with plug

DEER POISONED .- Since Friday last, three of the deer in Rittenhouse Square have died quite suddenly. It is supposed that they were joisoned, as those in Logan Square are in good health, though ted upon the same food. The Commissioner of City Property intends to have the dead animals examined.

ANOTHER WARD.-The Bepublican Asso ciation of the Twenty-tourth Ward held a meet ing on Tuesday evening, and adopted a resort tion asking the passage of a law to create an additional ward of the city by dividing the Twenty-fourth Ward.
