AMUSEMENTS.

ARCH STREET THEATRE -Sam is decidedly a sensation. We like "Sam," not Sam the place, but "Sam" the man. Mr. Chanfran's is a capital creation in far better taste than Sothern's "Dundreary," full of formery, polite s'ang, absordity, fan, and joviality. But there is nothing mean or valgar; on the contrary at the right time, he becomes dignified and manly in the midst of a i his idosversaies, so that we quite love "am," with his unconscious fur, his queer savings, has hits at the times, his love of America, his good looks, and his daindy veivet coats.

Mr. Pars on delighted the andie non by giving a capital representation of the circus. He is agile, light, graceful, and evidently to the manor born. Once on a time there was a great and celebrated English clown of the same name. Even of cus talent can be inherited.

English clown of the same name. Even ci-cus talent can be inherited.

Miss Logan is handsomer than ever she was, has hair that, like Berenice's, deserves to be taken to Heaven; magnificent dresses, that fit well, and a therough conviction that, possessing all these advantages, she can dispense with any others. Mr. De Walden played "Bid Crockett," but we do not like Mr. De Walden's attempt at acting; the character he plays should be the strongest in the place; as he played it, it disappeared entirely. Mr. Marlowe and Mr. Mackay had both unimportant parts, of which not even their fatent could make anything. Mr James and Mrs. Worrall were satisfatory. Mrs. Theyer was capitally made up. Mrs. crease looked especially pretty, and was dressed with simplicity and good taste. Sam will have a run—it is fall of well-known shane, popular aliusions, old jokes, and funny imitations, a thing of "saieds and palcaes;" tunny imitations, a thing of "shieds and palcous;" but without the slightest pretension to plot or com-mon sense, it required no effort of intellect to write it—no effort of intellect is necessary to comerch and it—bence it appeals to the masses, and will draw fine houses. The piece was, of course, well put on the

DR. CHAS. M. CRESSON,

(Late Manacing Engineer of the Philadelphia Gas Works, possessing GREAT DELICACY of adjustment by the use of a peculiar form of valve and gas holder, governing accurately a single light, with a capacity to pass gas enough for the full number of lights, and the ability within the instrument itself, to increase the pressure, when the greater quantity of gas is required. Among the peculiar advantages of this Regulator that make it preferable to instruments of more contracted size, which require the use of MFRCURY or FLEXIBLE DIAPHRAGMS, the following deserve

Where the use of MERCURY in regulators is avoided by the substitution of a FLEXIBLE DIAPHRAGM, the resulting difficulties are also numerous; one is the liability to LFAKAGE and EXPLOSION OF GAS: another, the loss of Flex bility and consequent inefficiency by age and exposure to cold, and thirdly, the inherent vice of want of aclicacy of adjustment, and range of To remedy these faults, the "CRESSON REGULA-

From Rev. W. D Seigrited, Pastor of Twelfth Baptist Church, Philadelphia. From Rev. W. D Seigried, Pastor of Twelfth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

Gentlemen:—I have recently been laboring under the discressing effects of indigestion, accompanied by a prostration of the nervous as stem. Numerous remedies were recommended by friends, and some of them tested but without relief. Your Hoofiand's German Bitters were recommended by persons who had tried them, and whose involable mention of these Bitters induced me to try them. I must confess that I had an aversion to Patent Medicines from the "thousand and one" quack "Bitters," whose only alm seems to be to pain oil sweetened and drugged ilquor upon the community in a sly way, and the tendency of which. I fear, is to make many a confirmed drunkard. Upon learning that yours was reasily a medicinal preparation, I took it with happy effect. Its action not only upon the stomach, out upon the nervous system was prompt and stratifying. I feel that I have derived great and permanent benefit from the use of a few bottles.

Very respectfully yours.

From Rev. D. Merrige, Pastor of the Passyunk Baptist Church, Philadelphia. Church. Philadelphia.

From the many respectable recommendations given to Dr. Hoofand's German litters. I was induced to give them a trial. After using several bottles I found them to be a good remedy for deblifty, and a most excellent tonic for the stomach.
