

General Grant's Visit to New York and Brooklyn.

The Lieutenant-General's Reception by a New York Regiment.

THE GENERAL'S FIRST WOUND.

Narrow Escape from Fatal Injury By the Explosion of a Rifle.

Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc.

Lieutenant-General Grant's column in the metropolis ended last evening. During the past week, since the arrival of General Grant in New York, the general public have been in a continual fever, fearing that the great chief of the armies of the United States would not receive the honors due his exalted rank and never to be forgotten services.

General Grant's first wound. A curious and most unforeseen accident happened to General Grant yesterday, which fortunately resulted in only a trifling wound. A gentleman called at the Metropolitan Hotel for the purpose of exhibiting to General Grant a rifle of an entirely new pattern. The rifle was about two feet in length, and resembled a pistol in construction, excepting that the cartridge was inserted at the breech.

General Grant's first wound. A curious and most unforeseen accident happened to General Grant yesterday, which fortunately resulted in only a trifling wound. A gentleman called at the Metropolitan Hotel for the purpose of exhibiting to General Grant a rifle of an entirely new pattern. The rifle was about two feet in length, and resembled a pistol in construction, excepting that the cartridge was inserted at the breech.

General Grant's first wound. A curious and most unforeseen accident happened to General Grant yesterday, which fortunately resulted in only a trifling wound. A gentleman called at the Metropolitan Hotel for the purpose of exhibiting to General Grant a rifle of an entirely new pattern. The rifle was about two feet in length, and resembled a pistol in construction, excepting that the cartridge was inserted at the breech.

General Grant's first wound. A curious and most unforeseen accident happened to General Grant yesterday, which fortunately resulted in only a trifling wound. A gentleman called at the Metropolitan Hotel for the purpose of exhibiting to General Grant a rifle of an entirely new pattern. The rifle was about two feet in length, and resembled a pistol in construction, excepting that the cartridge was inserted at the breech.

General Grant's first wound. A curious and most unforeseen accident happened to General Grant yesterday, which fortunately resulted in only a trifling wound. A gentleman called at the Metropolitan Hotel for the purpose of exhibiting to General Grant a rifle of an entirely new pattern. The rifle was about two feet in length, and resembled a pistol in construction, excepting that the cartridge was inserted at the breech.

General Grant's first wound. A curious and most unforeseen accident happened to General Grant yesterday, which fortunately resulted in only a trifling wound. A gentleman called at the Metropolitan Hotel for the purpose of exhibiting to General Grant a rifle of an entirely new pattern. The rifle was about two feet in length, and resembled a pistol in construction, excepting that the cartridge was inserted at the breech.

General Grant's first wound. A curious and most unforeseen accident happened to General Grant yesterday, which fortunately resulted in only a trifling wound. A gentleman called at the Metropolitan Hotel for the purpose of exhibiting to General Grant a rifle of an entirely new pattern. The rifle was about two feet in length, and resembled a pistol in construction, excepting that the cartridge was inserted at the breech.

General Grant's first wound. A curious and most unforeseen accident happened to General Grant yesterday, which fortunately resulted in only a trifling wound. A gentleman called at the Metropolitan Hotel for the purpose of exhibiting to General Grant a rifle of an entirely new pattern. The rifle was about two feet in length, and resembled a pistol in construction, excepting that the cartridge was inserted at the breech.

General Grant's first wound. A curious and most unforeseen accident happened to General Grant yesterday, which fortunately resulted in only a trifling wound. A gentleman called at the Metropolitan Hotel for the purpose of exhibiting to General Grant a rifle of an entirely new pattern. The rifle was about two feet in length, and resembled a pistol in construction, excepting that the cartridge was inserted at the breech.

General Grant's first wound. A curious and most unforeseen accident happened to General Grant yesterday, which fortunately resulted in only a trifling wound. A gentleman called at the Metropolitan Hotel for the purpose of exhibiting to General Grant a rifle of an entirely new pattern. The rifle was about two feet in length, and resembled a pistol in construction, excepting that the cartridge was inserted at the breech.

General Grant's first wound. A curious and most unforeseen accident happened to General Grant yesterday, which fortunately resulted in only a trifling wound. A gentleman called at the Metropolitan Hotel for the purpose of exhibiting to General Grant a rifle of an entirely new pattern. The rifle was about two feet in length, and resembled a pistol in construction, excepting that the cartridge was inserted at the breech.

General Grant's first wound. A curious and most unforeseen accident happened to General Grant yesterday, which fortunately resulted in only a trifling wound. A gentleman called at the Metropolitan Hotel for the purpose of exhibiting to General Grant a rifle of an entirely new pattern. The rifle was about two feet in length, and resembled a pistol in construction, excepting that the cartridge was inserted at the breech.

General Grant's first wound. A curious and most unforeseen accident happened to General Grant yesterday, which fortunately resulted in only a trifling wound. A gentleman called at the Metropolitan Hotel for the purpose of exhibiting to General Grant a rifle of an entirely new pattern. The rifle was about two feet in length, and resembled a pistol in construction, excepting that the cartridge was inserted at the breech.

Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them.

Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them.

Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them.

Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them.

Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them.

Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them.

Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them.

Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them.

Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them.

Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them.

Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them.

Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them.

Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them.

Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them.

Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them.

Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them.

Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them.

Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them.

Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them.

Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them.

Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them.

Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them.

Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them.

Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them.

Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them.

Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them.

Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them. Mr. Courtney—Would it be better if there had been any other in them.

THIRD EDITION

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE AT ST. LOUIS.

FOUR STEAMBOATS BURNED

LOSS OF HALF A MILLION DOLLARS.

St. Louis, February 26.—The steamers Dictator, Luna, Leviathan, and Peyton were burned at the levee to-night, together with a large amount of freight. The loss cannot be ascertained to-night, but will probably reach $500,000. The three latter boats belonged to the Mississippi Steamship Company.

LATEST FROM TEXAS.

Public Funeral of Hon. G. W. Smythe.—Temporary Exemption Law—Discussion of the Secession Ordinance—The Indian Treaty—Resistive Affairs—Ed Galvanon, February 24.—The funeral of the Hon. George W. Smythe was attended by the convention en masse. A resolution of condolence and respect was adopted. The deceased is pronounced to have been one of the ablest statesmen of Texas, and his death is regarded as a public calamity.

THE FENIANS.

New York, February 27.—The Herald's Toronto special despatch says that reports from an English detective at Pittsburgh state that General Sweeney's plan is to make a demonstration against Canada about the middle of March, with a small force, and strike New Brunswick via the Maine frontier, with his main column. Colonel O'Mahony in a card denounces as untrue the rumor that he was about to dismiss Mr. Killian, and declares that he considers the latter worth more to the Brotherhood and to Ireland than the whole so-called Senate together.

INDIGNANT NOTE FROM THE HEAD CENTRE.

HEADQUARTERS FENIAN BROTHERHOOD, No. 32 EAST SIXTY-SEVENTH STREET, NEW YORK, February 26.—I beg leave to call your attention to the following statement in your issue of this morning, and request your insertion in the Herald of to-morrow of my unqualified contradiction thereof, as it has not the slightest foundation in fact. It is there asserted that "O'Mahony is about to dismiss Killian, in response to a sentiment very general among the party."

HABES CORPUS IN KENTUCKY.

LOUISVILLE, February 26.—Writs of habeas corpus were issued to-day by Judge Ballard, of the District Court of the Southern States, for the bodies of Captains Reed and Lemmon, who were lately fined and committed to jail in Campbell county for the protection of the polls at the last election. The cases are important, and will present the whole subject of the powers of the military where martial law prevails. Eminent Union lawyers have volunteered their services to General Palmer to represent the accused.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

NEW YORK, February 27.—A collision occurred on the Erie road yesterday, at Lordville, between the express and a freight train. A brakeman was killed. The engineer and conductor of the freight train were arrested, and held to answer a charge of manslaughter.

ACCIDENT TO LIEUTENANT-GENERAL GRANT.

NEW YORK, February 27.—Lieutenant-General Grant was accidentally shot in the hand yesterday by the explosion of a new rifle, which was examining. The wound is not serious, and did not prevent his attending the reception at Brooklyn last evening. He left last night for Washington.

FROM PROVIDENCE.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., February 27.—The steamer Oceanus, which went ashore on Teguher's Island on Friday night, hauled off early this morning and started for New York in tow. Her cargo had previously been taken out in good condition.

JUDICIAL DECISION.

NEW YORK, February 27.—Judge Barnard has decided that the Courts have no authority to discharge minors from the army, that power resting alone with the Secretary of War.

CHANGES IN THE CABINET.

NEW YORK, February 27.—The Tribune says that three members of the Cabinet who contemplated resigning have concluded to await the action of the President, but it is not improbable that he will remove one of them in a few days.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

NEW ORLEANS, February 26.—Sales of Cotton today 1000 bales; low middlings 42@43; Middlings 42@43; Southern firm; sales at 82@83; Molasses, prime to choice, 50@52; Gold opened at 135@136, and closed at 135@135; Sterling Exchange, 145@146; France, 185. Freight to New York, 10 to Liverpool, 11-12.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE

OFFICE OF THE EVENING TELEGRAPH, Tuesday, February 27, 1866.

The Stock Market opened dull this morning, but prices are steady. In Government bonds there is very little doing. 7-30s sold at 93. 104 was bid for of 1851; 102 for 5-20s; and 93 for 10-40s. State and City loans are unchanged. Pennsylvania 5s sold at 86; new City 6s at 91@92; and old ditto at 87.

Railroad shares are the most active on the list. Catawissa preferred sold at 33@33 1/2, an advance of 1/2; and common do. at 26@26 1/2, no change; Pennsylvania Railroad sold at 57, an advance of 1/2; Reading at 50; Mitchell at 51, no change; and Philadelphia and Erie at 30@30 1/2, a slight advance. 117 was bid for Camden and Ambury; 30 for Little Schuylkill; 36 for North Pennsylvania; 63 for Lehigh Valley; 29 for Elmira common; 63 for preferred do.; and 43 for Northern Central.

City Passenger Railroad shares are without change. Spruce and Pine sold at 55; 73 was bid for Second and Third; 11 for Seventeenth and Nineteenth; 65 for West Philadelphia; 34 for Hestonville; 25 for Girard College; and 21 for Union.

Canal shares are unchanged. Lehigh Navigation sold at 62; 29 was bid for Schuylkill Navigation preferred; 114 for Morris Canal preferred; 12 for Susquehanna Canal; 30 for Delaware Division; and 57 for Wyoming Valley Canal. Bank shares are firmly held, but we hear of no sales. 204 was bid for North America; 140 for Philadelphia; 122 for Farmers' and Mechanics; 55 for Commercial; 23 for Mechanics; 62 for Girard; 75 for Western; 31 for Manufacturers' and Mechanics; 62 for City; 40 for Consolidation; 62 for Corn Exchange; and 55 for Union.

In OI shares there is little or nothing doing. The New York Tribune this morning says: "Balances late in the day were offered among bankers at 7 per cent.; but lenders among the banks and bankers had no lack of borrowers at this rate on call. In commercial paper there is no change for the better and some names pass at 7 1/2; good at 9@10; fair at 10@15 per cent.; and some as high as 18 per cent. The bank statement shows a further contraction of legal tender as a large decrease in deposits. Long engagements for money are cooled, and moderate interest with safety is the rule with lenders in and out of bank."

Currency has commenced to flow from the West to New York. There is a moderate coming, and indications are that rates for money in the western cities will be higher than have been quoted for some time."

The following is from the "Cotton Circular" of Nell Brothers & Co., dated New York, February 21: "The writer recently arrived from the South, and has for a few weeks, bring in receipts closely to the statistics of the trade. Our last circular was dated the 15th of January, at New Orleans. Up to nearly that time it had been supposed that a conjunction of open prices from all points might result in a few weeks, bring in receipts of 80,000 to 100,000 bales weekly, and greatly depress the market. But it then became evident that although the receipts might, for a few weeks, be maintained on their previous scale, the exhaustion of the main line of communication was such as to probably balance any further increase in the supply from the tributaries. This is just what has since occurred, although the New York market has then fallen, has since been up, and delivered some quantity. The total receipts amount to about 1,750,000 bales since the end of the war, and we see no reason to doubt that the further receipts will reach or exceed 350,000 bales, carrying the receipts up to, or perhaps rather over, our estimate of 2,100,000 bales."

The Chicago Tribune of Thursday remarks of monetary affairs:—"The money market to-day was very quiet. Notwithstanding the fact that all obligations due to-morrow and to-day are due, and that the pressure was felt on the market, and currency was reported to be easy at 10 per cent. per annum. Street rates were steady at 14@15 per cent. per month, but the transactions at such rates were very light. Eastern exchange is in active demand, and firm at par buying and 1-10 premium selling. Round lots were in demand among bankers at a premium of 50 cents per thousand. The supply is scarcely equal to the demand, and it is no wonder the bankers have had to express currency to New York within the past two days."

PHILADELPHIA STOCK EXCHANGE SALES TO-DAY

Table with columns for stock types and prices. Includes items like 81000 U S 7 30s, 81000 do., 81000 do., etc.

SALES AT PUBLIC STOCK BOARD TO-DAY

Table with columns for stock types and prices. Includes items like 100 sh Pa & C, 100 sh Pa & C, etc.

Philadelphia Trade Report.

TUESDAY, February 27.—Cloversed is dull, and prices have again declined. Sales of 400@50 bushels at 84@85. Timothy moves slowly, with small sales at 84@85. In Faxed wheat very little doing. We quote at 82@83. No. 1 Red Wheat is steady at 82@83 per ton, but there is very little doing. There is rather more inquiry for the better brands of extra family Flour for home consumption, but there is no demand for shipment, and commission lots are unobtainable, except at comparatively low rates. Sales of 1400 barrels good and fancy North-western extra family at 82@83. The same trade purchase sparingly at prices ranging from 80 to 85 per common superfine up to 81@82 for fancy brands, according to quality. Rye Flour is dull at 84 1/2, with sales of 100 barrels at this figure. Prices of Corn Meal are nominal. There is no perceptible change to notice in the West. The only sales reported were a few small lots of family and choice red at 82@83 1/2; white ranges from 82@83 1/2. Rye is dull, and cannot be quoted over 80. In Corn there is an advance of 2@3 bushel. Sales of 5000 bushels yellow at 70c, and 10,000 bushels in elevators at 82 cents. Oats are quiet, but steady at 47c. Wheat has advanced, and it now held at 84 1/2, with 60@62 for Pennsylvania and Ohio. At the close a 1/2 of 20@21 at 82 1/2.