

MATTERS OVER THE RIVER.

CAMDEN AMUSEMENTS.—Following the "Old Folks," at Odd Fellows' Hall, came the magician Norwood, with a gift exhibition, offering every description of prize, from a pig to a needle.

IMPUDENT BEGGARS.—Camden is daily visited by beggars, whose importunities have become very annoying. They ring or knock at front doors with impunity, and some of them use no choice language when refused.

NEW CHURCH.—The M. E. Church congregation at Bordentown are about taking measures to erect for themselves a handsome edifice in which to hold divine service.

SCALDED.—Two men were quite badly scalded by the drum-head to the boiler in Leonard Repplier's box manufactory on Monday afternoon, thus throwing considerable quantities of boiling water over them.

AMUSEMENTS.

Mrs. F. W. HARPER.—The fourth lecture of the series under the auspices of the Social, Civil and Statistical Association of the Colored People of Pennsylvania, will be delivered on Thursday evening next at Concert Hall, by Mrs. Harper.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—"La Diavola" was given to a large audience. Mr. Habe man, the favorite tenor of the ladies, was enthusiastically welcomed.

Madame Jonannson, who is a very fine versatile actress, made a great deal of "Lady Alenash," a part which in medicine hands she had not had since she was a child.

WALNUT STREET THEATRE.—Mr. Clarke has found a treasure in "The Member from Fiko," an American comedy, which, though free from faults, has a great attraction in our people.

NEW CHESNUT STREET THEATRE.—"The Ice Witch," with its splendid scenery, is still on the wave of popularity.

"MARRIA DE ROHAN."—This most dramatic opera will be given on Friday night next, with a new prima donna, Mr. Ferrell has more prime talent than many of our theatres.

NATIONAL HALL.—"The Old Folks" are at home at the National Hall. Their strange costumes and their quaint music are very attractive.

READ WHO SAYS SO. From Rev. W. D. Seigfried, Pastor of Twelfth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

Gentlemen—I have recently been laboring under the distressing effects of indigestion, accompanied by a prostration of the nervous system. Numerous remedies were recommended by friends, and some of them used, but without relief. Your Hooiland's German Bitters were recommended by persons who had tried them, and whose favorable mention of these Bitters induced me to try them. I must confess that I had an aversion to Patent Medicines from the "thousand and one" quack "Bitters," whose only aim seems to be to pain or to sweeten and dragged liquor upon the stomach in a slow way, and the tendency of which I fear, is to make many a confirmed drunkard.

Upon learning that yours was really a medicinal preparation, I took it with happy effect. Its action not only upon the stomach, out upon the nervous system, was prompt and gratifying. I feel that I have derived great and permanent benefit from the use of a few bottles.

Very respectfully yours, W. D. SEIGFRIED, No. 24 SHADAMONX Street.

From the Rev. E. D. Fendall, Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philadelphia.

I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hooiland's German Bitters, and it is my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from general debility or from diseases arising from over-exhaustion of the liver.

Yours truly, E. D. FENDALL.

From Rev. D. Mergie, Pastor of the Passyunk Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

From the many respectable recommendations given to Dr. Hooiland's German Bitters I was induced to give them a trial. After using several bottles I found them to be a good remedy for debility, and a most excellent tonic for the stomach.

Yours truly, D. M. MERGIE.

From Rev. William Smith, formerly Pastor of the Vincentown and Millville (N. J.) Baptist Churches.

Having used in my family a number of bottles of your Hooiland's German Bitters, I have to say that I regard them as an excellent medicine, specially adapted to remove the diseases they are recommended for. They strengthen and invigorate the system when debilitated, and are useful in disorders of the liver, loss of appetite, etc. I have also recommended them to several of my friends who have tried them, and found them greatly beneficial in the restoration of health.

Yours truly, WILLIAM SMITH, No. 90 HATCHISON Street, Philadelphia.
