SHORT METRE-ILLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS FOR THE February.

Monday, 26 - Inferior Artificial Wooden Legs engage the attention of the Lower House of Congress. Jack Rogers, Congressman from New Jersey, makes a speech, when attention is directed to the inferior wooden Heads lately introduced on the floor.

Tuesday, 27.—General Grant, with a 100,000, invests around New York City. The 100,000 being dollars and not men, it is supposed they will stay where they are put. Wednesday, 28 .- The arrival of the "good time coming.' Secretary Spinner receives $70 conscience money. President Johnson receives a few delegations and explains his murch.

Thursday, L.-City Councils-Billy Barlow illustrates the difficulty of cleaning he streets. It was proposed that people wipe their feet before they go into the streets and that the women wear fuller and longer skirts.

Friday, 2.—The Cattle Plague makes its appearance on a ferry-toat. Four oxen leave the care of a drover, jump into the river, and "strike out" for themselves, with 'all the world before them where to choose."

Saturday, 3.—Series Column Day. The Editor called upon the proprietor to explain his policy, when he was told that his policy was well understood, that his jokes were the only things needing explanation. This the Editor was unable to do.

COLD IRON AND STEAL ASSOCIATION.

INTERVIEW WITH THE PRESIDENT

He Explains His Policy for the Twenty-eighth Time that Day.

Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc.

This respectable Delegation from the "puddling" districts of our State made a call upon the President yesterday, just after the delegation from Baltimore got out, and before the delegation from Pittsburg, on the subject of Oil, got in, and as they were accompanied by Moorhead than most delegations that the President has the pleasure of explaining his policy to, they were received with marked attention. It was predieted that some of the more prominent of this delegation would make their mark in the event of a visit to the White House, which was true, for it was discovered, after they left, that some of the yellow satin chairs in the East Room were pretty badly marked with a composition of iron-rust and oil, proving that the chairs were sain to their detriment.

COLONEL MOORHEAD PRESENTING THE DELEGA-TION TO THE PRESIDENT.

Captain Ward, of Detroit, President of the Iron and Steel Association, formally presented the delegation to the President; but as he was not in want of any delegation just now, having a large stock on hand and more promised, he told them to be seated. SALLYS OF WIT.

Mr. Ward (the Iron President):-"We have come to tender you our respects." The President here interrupted by asking where they had left the Tender, it they had unhitched it from the Locomotive? The Iron man replied that they were not railroad men. President Johnson said, "What are you?" Mr. Ward answered, "I sell Iron and Steel for a living," "Oh," replied the President, "most of the delegations that come here to praise me do that: if they don't sell iron they sell something else, and invariably steal for a living." Mr. Ward made the remark that he thought the President was indulging in irony. "Yes," said the President, "flat irony." After a few more remarks in this lively and interesting vein, in which the President never failed to explain his

THE PRESIDENT EXPLAINING HIS POLICY. policy, Mr. Ward continued in his speech :- "We are a combination of workingmen. These work ingmen represent 50,000 employes, with their families, 750,000 people," This one fact convinced the President that an Iron and Steal employe was among the most prolific professions -averaging 15 persons to every family. After the Iron and Steal men had made some other remarks, in which they used other metallic substances, soft sawder, for example, which was the substance of their remarks, the President explained his policy.

MR. WARD GETS AN IMPRESSION. Mr. Ward here said, "We are under the impression that we have a Government." Where he 1 1 1 could have got that impression was a wonder to both parties. It was found out afterwards that it was an old impression he got at the Government Printing Office, and it was not a good one.

20,000 SPEECHES BY JUDGE RELLEY. The Iron and Steal men ordered 20,000 of Judge Kelley's Tariil Speech, as they liked to read it so much; they thought they could soon read 20,000 through, by each man on the Committee taking a certain number a day. FROM THE TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

Proposals have been received here from the Series Editor of your paper to have his portrait on the new Three Cent notes. Among other reasons, he urges that he has not only been in favor of a vigorous prosecution of the war, but is yet in favor of one; is in favor of the fractional currency, and doesn't think that he, for one, could have too much of it; and offers, if his portrait is adopted instead of Mrs. Swisshelm's, or any of the clerks in the Treasury Department, that he will urge the price of 3 cents for the chief articles of every day use, such as Car fare, Lager, and Italian Opera tickets. All of the newspapers shall be 3 cents, the same as Tun EVENING TELEGRAPH. It is thought his application will be successful.

THE CATTLE PLAGUE IN THE DISTRICT. The old Cavalry Horses at Glesboro are becoming a great piague. Not being attended to, they wander about the district, eating up everything Green they can see. A stranger from your city-an advertiser in the Age-came near being devoured from that cause this morning.

MR. RAYMOND. Mr. Raymond expects to make a speech to-day in the Senate indorsing the President's Policy. It is thought by some of our shrewd business men that so much "indorsing" by the gentleman from New York wilt break him.

A HORSE CAR-TOON FOR THE NEW COUNTY BUILDINGS.

1624 MIFFLIN STREET. Mr. Series Editor:-Why don't you urge the Horse Cars to run on Sundays? I have never yet seen the Chesnut Street Bridge, and I understand its case has been decided in the Supreme Court; but whether a decided good, or a decided bad case, it did not state. Next Sunday week Jim Maguire and Knuckle Ben are going to have a dog fight, with two 16 pound pups, out near the Falls. Now, how am I to get out there to breathe the fresh air, and be there in time for the fight? Besides, them as don't approve of dog fights could go to church, whereas, now, they can't go, unless they walk, if they are poor, as I am. All of our chaps are in favor of the cars, because when we goes to church we wants to ride, or we don't go. We don't much anyhow, but when we do go we wants to go right.

Meet-her-ullgic. The good ship Continental that sailed with the 300 fair damsels for Washington Territory, will soon arrive. The miners can now each have their pick. A miner without a Pick would make but poor progress. After striking a Lode of silver they can now strike for the load of gals, and perhaps reach the vain without much Heavy on the Lift.

Said OLD Hyson to Scheng-"I saw a man last night at the Gymnasium put up ten Fifty-Sixes with perfect ease."

"Poh," replied Scheng, "that's nothing. know a man on Third Street who, for a flyer, put up five-Twenties and ten-Forties to the top of the Market."
