UITY INTELLIGENCE

CENTENARY.—The Local Preachers of the Methodist Church are a body of citizens wielding an immense influence. While all, or nearly all of them are engaged in secular purmearly add of them are engaged in secular pursuits, many of them are gentlemen of large literary and spiritual attainments, with sufficient wealth to enable them to devote both talent and purse to no inconsiderable extent to the cause of religion. They supply the places of the regular clergy in their absence, and in all but the administration of the sacrament take their place when occasion requires. They celebrated their centenary on Wednesday night, at Samom Street Hall, with a supper, and with happy and cheerful religious exercises. Rev. William Rhoads presided. The 46th Psalm was read by the Rev. Richard Holt, after which the Rev. T. T. Tasker offered prayer. The president of the evening then made an opening address, replete with cloquent passages, which was warmly applanded. We regret that our space is so limited that we cannot give the speech to our readers; its beauty would be marred by a mere outline. An original hymn, marred by a mere outline. An original hymn, written for the occasion by Mr. James Nicholwritten for the occasion by Mr. James Nicholson, of Wharton Street Church, was then sung by the vast audience, who joined in it in good old-fashioned Methodist style. After this the meeting was thrown open for voluntary speeches of five minutes in length, which, said the chairman, applies to all except bishops. Bishop Simpson made the address of the evening. Its subject was an exposition of the immense advantages resulting from a combination of the vantages resulting from a combination of the labors of the clergy with the laity. Many times he was applauded as he spoke. The Bishop dweit at considerable length upon his subject.

THE VETERAN BOUNTY FUND,-The Commission appointed under an ordinance of Councils passed in May, 1864, to pay a "bounty of $25 to all re-enlisted veterans who had been credited to the city of Philadelphia, and who had not been paid by the wards, have had their report printed in pamphlet form. The report states that in May, 1864, Conneils voted $50,000, and on the 8th of July, 1864, $100,000 for the purpose of paying a bounty of $50 to each man volunteering for one hundred days, and a fur-ther appropriation of $250,000 has been made for the same object. To make sure that each man should receive the bounty, the Commission drew the money, visited the camps in Philadel-phia, Baltimore, Chambersburg, Bloomsburg, Harrisburg, and other places. The number returned as having enlisted was 2826, of which 2784 were paid. The Commission commenced paying the re-collisted veterans, and much diffi-culty was experienced, as most of the men had re-collisted in their regiments while in the field, and therefore had to be represented by their re-latives or agents. The Commission found that the whole number of re-enlisted veterans on their books sutified to bounty was 5969, of which 2286 had been paid by the wards to which they had been credited, and 2449 were paid by the Commission, leaving 1234 unpaid. The entire appropriations amounted to $400,000, out of which $139,200 was paid to one hundred days men, and $61,400 to re-enlisted veterans; $1625 returned to the Mayor, and $4246-38 expenses, making a total of $306,580-38; leaving an unexpended balance of $193,529 62.

WATER FROM THE PERKIOMEN. - The Chief Engineer of the Water Works having re-commended the plan of securing a better supply of water for Philadelphia from the Perklomen, the Committee on Water of Councils have prepared a further supplement to the Act of Consolidation, which was sent yesterday to Harris-burg, for the purpose of obtaining authority for making surveys, etc., and, if Councils think necessary, to enter upon the lands adjacent to the Perkiomen for the purpose of constructing the works. The bill provides that it shall be lawful for the City of Philadelphia to purchase and hold in fee simple, or for any less estate, any springs or streams of water, or any waterpower or privileges, or any lands, tenements, etc., to which any water-power may be appurtenant, situate, or being wholly or in part on any one or more of the counties adjoining the city and county of Pailadelphia, and to build and erect water works, reservoir, store lakes, etc., for the collection and parification of the water; also, that it shall be lawful for the agents of the city to enter upon and take possession of the lands, etc., to carry out the objects of the act. The bill also provides for the mode of as sessing and paying damages, etc.

DEATH OF A CATHOLIC CLERGYMAN.-The Rev. Cajetan Mariani, pastor of the Italian Roman Catholic Church, "St. Mary Magdalen of Pazzi," in Marriott street, below Eighth, died yesterday morning at the parsonage, in the seventieth year of his age. Though he had been falling for some time past, it was not until within a few days that apprehension of a speedy dissolution were felt. A few months since he fell from an elevation in the church, and the injuries then received he never recovered from. The decease of the venerable clergyman will be a source of sincere sorrow, not only to his congregation, but to a large number outside of the Catholic Church. He regarded it as one of the Catholic Church. He regarded it as one of the duties of his sacred office to administer to bodily ills, and so wide a renown had he acquired for the cures he had made that the sick flocked to the parsonage from all parts of the city, the rich and the poor alike seeking his aid. His memory will be not less cherished by the poor of his congregation for his charities, which were widely dispensed. He will be buried on Monday morning next, and the funeral services will take place at St. Paul's Church, Christian street, below Tenth. Church, Christian street. below Tenth.

THE MORAVIAN CHURCH ENTERPRISE .-Rev. Dr. Hoffman, who is pastor of the new Mo-ravian Church enterprise in this city, has been holding meetings for several months at the hall corner of Sixth street and Girard avenue. The congregation has increased in numbers so much that they have determined to build a church edifice. In order to aid in accomplishing which, they have secured the valuable services of Rev. Dr. Talmage, an eloquent divine of this city whe will lecture the even invine of this city, who will lecture this evening at Concert Hall in aid of this object. There are but two Moravian enterprises in this city, but the accessions to this church are being rapidly augmented.

SENT TO NEW YORK FOR TRIAL.-Lewis La Pierre, otherwise Robert Keefer, who was tried in the United States District Court last week on the charge of forgery and fraud, but acquitted, was yesterday ordered to be surren-dered to the United States Marshal of the Southern District of New York, with Thomas Day, both of whom were held here under indictment to answer a charge in that district.

NEARLY COMPLETED .- The tunnel for the Junction Railroad has been finished to the north side of Market street, and about forty feet more tunnelling will complete the work. It is probable that, by the first of May, cars will be able to pass through it. The work has been prosecuted with vigor, though, from the character of it, considerable time has been consumed in its construction.

BEAUTIFYING .- A number of rustic summer houses are now being constructed at Fair-mount Water Works. One will be on the second terrace overlooking the Wire bridge, and com-manding a fine view of the Schuylkill, and the surrounding country. Another one will be placed on the top of the reservoir, facing Spring Garden street, and a third one lust inside the Green street entrance to the grounds.

JEWISH HOSPITAL FAIR.-The treasurer of the Fair in aid of the Jewish Hospital, lately held at the Assembly Buildings, has paid over the net proceeds, $5073.84, to the Hospital Association. The Board of the Hospital Association has passed a vote of thanks to the Managers of the Fair.

ABRIVAL OF FRUIT .- 4120 boxes of oranges and 1250 boxes of lemons arrived in this city yesterday from Messina, by the barque Ann

A FINE BUSINESS ESTABLISHMENT.-Almost every citizen of Philadelphia will remem-ber the two aristogratic-looking mansions that have for years past occupied the northwest cor-ner of Thirteenth and Chesnut streets. They belonged to the Fotterall family and were unos belonged to the Fotterall family and were unos-tentatiously magnificent. The outside was modest, being composed of plain briek, but they were massive and substantial. Within, the ap-pointments were everything that wealth and cul-tivated taste could desire. The rapid march of business westwardly along Chesnut street ren-dered it profitable for the owners of these houses to dispose of them, and Mr. George J. Henkels, one of Philadelphia's most enterprising business men, became the purchaser. Mr. Hencels has remodelled the entire interiors and thrown the two establishments into one. As most residents remodelled the entire interiors and thrown the two establishments into one. As most residents of our city know, Mr. Henkels is largely engaged in the manufacture and sale of furniture. The immense building is filled with every variety of household furniture, and has been so constructed that the purchaser by passing through a variety of corridors and alcoves, can inspect the goods in detail. The structure to its numerous story is used for the alcoves, can inspect the goods in detail. The structure to its uppermost story is used for the storage of goods, and it is the special boast of Mr. Henkels that every article sold is warranted to be perfect in its kind. The alterations are not yet completed, as the proprietor has it in contemplation to erect immense buildings upon the tear of the lot of such a character as to more these deaths the correction of the warehouse. The than double the capacity of the warehouse. The show-windows on Chesnut street are only temporarily placed there for the purposes of business, and at no distant day will be replaced with others of artistic design. The entire building is fitted up as salesrooms, the proprietor having his manufactory in another part of the city. This is in all probability the largest furniture establishment in the United States, and the admirable quality of goods manufactured by Mr. Henkels are acknowledged wherever they are known. The enterprise of the proprietor is a credit to our city, and we are gratified to observe that our prominent merchants are paying especial attention. tion to the proper fitting up of their places of business. Within the past ten years we have greatly advanced in this matter, and Mr. Henkels' new store is a valuable addition to the splendid establishments of Philadelphia.

DEDICATION OF THE INSTITUTE FOR COL-ORED YOUTH.—This morning at 11 o'clock the Institute for Colored Youth, situated on the north side of Shippen street, above Ninth, was north side of Shippen street, above Ninth, was dedicated with interesting and appropriate ceremonies. The Institute, which is a fine three-story brick building, tity-one feet by eighty feet in extent, has been in process of erection for many months past, and is just completed. It is one of the most imposing structures in the southwestern portion of the city, and is admirably situated for the purpose intended. It cost at least $45,000, and was erected without aid from the public at large, but entirely by contributions and subscriptions from the Society of tributions and subscriptions from the Society of Friends.

The first floor is used in the southern portion as a library and reading-room, and at the north-ern end as a primary school for boys and girls. The second floor is to be used as the boys' and girls' high school, and is divided into two apartments, the southern portion being the girls' high school, and the northern portion the boy's. There are seals for about one hundred girls and eighty boys in the High School Department. It is intended that all graduates of the High School shall in the future be employed as teachers of the colored race abroad and home. Two ante-rooms adjoin the Boys' High School, which are used as a laboratory and a room to store instru-ments, etc. A massive double glass partition divides the Boys' High School from the Girls. The third floor is divided into six large and comfortable class-rooms for boys and girls. The entire school building has a capacity for three hundred scholars. The High School Depart-ment on the second floor presents a remarkably neat, tasty, and airv appearance. The wood work is painted in imitation of dark maple, and the desks and seats for the pupils are neat and convenient.

VILLAINOUS ATTEMPT AT WHOLESALE MURDER.—On Wednesday night last some heartless, God-forsaken scoundrels placed fifteen rails across the track of the Philadelphia. Wil mington, and Baltimore Railroad, a short dis-tance below the Beil road. The rails were placed in a cut in the road, and it was the svident intention to throw a train from the track, and perhaps sacrifice a number of lives. The through Washington train from New York came dashing along on Wednesday night, and the engine pitched into the obstruction, scattering the rails in all directions, breaking neighboring fences, etc. The engine and cow-catcher were much injured, but beyond this mishap no damage was done to property or individuals. Hanging is a light punishment for such outrageous conduct as the above.

THE SPECIAL SANITARY INSPECTORS .-The Special Sanitary Inspectors, appointed by the Board of Health last fall, to examine the yards, cellars, and all premises in the city, for the purpose of reporting upon such nuisances as would be detrimental to the health of the city, are still actively engaged. The report of their operations from November, 1865, to the 28th of February, 1866, has just been submitted to the Board of Health, and it indicates that a large number of nuisances have been abated.

FLAG RAISING .- The Sixteenth Ward Union League opened the Gubernational can-vass this morning by unfurling to the breeze an enormous flag, inscribed with the name of Major-Ceneral John W. Geary. This is the first flag affeat, and it is the intention of the members to keep it flying until General Geary is elected.

A SMALL BURGLARY .- Tyson & Co. Commission Merchants, Third and Callowhill streets, had their store entered this morning by means of false keys. The drawers were broken open and a number of counterfeit notes taken. The thieves then went up stairs and stole the sum of forty dollars in pennies.

STEALING MANILLA ROPE.-Henry Williams, colored, was arrested yesterday afternoon, charged with the larceny of nine fathoms of Manilla rope, cut from a vessel at Mead alley wharf. The rope was recovered by some officers. Williams was committed to prison.

THE CHESKUT STREET BRIDGE,-Workmen commenced yesterlay to set the iron work of the Chesnut street bridge.

BENNETT & Co. SHOPPING .- A lady who had made an unfortunate Shopping.—A lady who had made an unfortunate clerk tumble over all the stockings in the store, objected that none were long enough. "I want the longest hose that are made." "Then, madam," was the reply, "you'd better apply at the next engine house." If this lady is at a loss where to find the best Family Cosl, we would advise her to visit W. W. Alter's cosl yard, N. Ninth street, below Grard avenue. You there get the very best at the lowest rates. If more convenient, you may order at the branch office, Sixth and Spring Garden.

The New Drug Store — Helmbold's new store, next to the Matropolitan Hotel, has a very large assortment of drugs and chemicals, besides being the principal depot for the sale of Helmbold's well-known preparations. The assistants of this establishment are well qualified in all the branches of their profession, and physicians may depend that all their prescriptions will be conscientiously compounded. All varieties of drugs are here dispensed, of the first quality, and at the most reasonable raies.
