LETTER FROM BALTIMORE.

THE SOUTHERN PAIR-THE INTEREST THEREIN-IT IS THE ABSORDING THOUGHT OF SYMPATHIZES— MUNIPICENT SEQUESTS—LADIES GIVING THEIR JEWELS, STO—GESTLEMEN DONATING HOUSES AND LOTS, CARBLAGES AND HOUSES, OLD WINES, MTG. ETC.

Special Correspondence of The Evening Telegraph. BALTIMORE, March 25, 1868. The great Southern Fair, for the benefit of impoverished and suffering people in the South, which commences here in the Maryland Institute, on the 7th of April, has become the absorbing subject with those whose sympathies were and are in accord with their friends in the so called Southern Confederacy. It seems, indeed, to be the leading thought, and pro-mises unprecedented success. The same sentimen-tality and enthus asmwaich characterized affiliators with the Rebellion at the beginning and during the continuance of the war, is still manifest. They spare neither pains nor time nor money to alleviate what they conceive to be the sufferings of their Southern brethren. Day after day, and week after week, may they be found working and toling until the idea of this charity has grown into an absorbing passion. Ladies have given their diamond rings, bracelets, costly jewels, laces, etc., as donations. No other cause en earth could, I imagine, induce them to part with these cherished oreagine, induce them to part with these cherished oreagine. donations. No other cause en earth could, I ima-gine, induce teem to part with these cherished orna-ments and souvenirs. There is an evident emula-tion amongst them as to who shall give most and who out-do the other, in advancing the interests of this enterprise. It has, indeed, grown into a tash-ion—a ruling raid which takes expitive. A large proportion of the "old families" in city and coun-try, whose names have stood prominent in our society for many years, are among its leaders and managers.

Managers.

Numerous large and extravagant bequests have been tendered by gentlemen. Our millionaire, Thomas Winans, now in Europe, has authorized a subscription of twenty thousand dolars. Another gentleman gives a boses and a lot; another an elegant carriage and pair of horses; and another some demijohns of wine, fifty years old, and very valuable.

Merchants, traders, and manufacturers of every description are sending in or profibring endiess varieties of articles. All these are to be sold or raffled for. Various concerts, tab caux, tectures, etc., thave been given already, from which handsome sum have been realized. These go with the general fair fund. Many fine practices. fund. Many fine paintings have been presented, either as presents or for exhibition. There can be no doubt of its being an entire success. Say wha we will, the fact cannot be disguised that these sympathizers with those who were in rebellion agains our country are true to their friends. Their stead-fashess in this respect is worthy of admiration and fastness in this respect is worthy of admiration and emulation.

It is thought not less than two hundred thousand to aquarter of a million of dollars will be realized as the proceeds of this fair. If, therefore, the money is so appropriated as to alleviate distress and relieve suffering humanity, in order that it accomplishes the mission of true charity, no one can complain. Let the dead past bury its dead, and the living present take care of those whom they have caused to mourn. It should be realized, however, there is such a thing as compromise, and without cultivating this spiritall outward show of charity and benevolence may prove

AMUSEMENTS.

NEW CHESNUT STREET THEATRE.-The first dramatization of Miss Braddon's novel "Only a Clod," will be played at this theatre this evening. It is by Brougham, and has never been played in America before at any theatre. Brougham calls his play Caught in the Toils, and makes "Juha Desmond," instead of "Mande," the heroine. Mordaut plays "Frank Tredethlyn," Miss Orton will play "Julia Desmond," a character of great indi, viduality and power. The novel was excessively goodand if Mr. Brougham (as he is apt to do) has not lost the interest by the way, the play must be successful. the interest by the way, the play must be successful, ARCH STREET THEATRE.-Mr. Dillon devotes this ARCH STREET THEATRE.—Mr Dillon devotes this week to the legitimate, commencing with "Sir Giles Overreach," in Massinger's play of A New Way to Fay Old Debts. Mr. Dillon tells us that he has the praise of all the London papers. He has been in Australia of late years, wherejue has achieved great success. Mr. Dillon is a finished artist, with the power of portraying pathon, but we confess to remembering his "Beiphegor," and not thinking his conception of other parts (qual to his creation of this. The east at the Arch is a fine one, the parts leging all admirably suited to the performers cast for them.

WALNUT STREET THEATRE,—Miss Noemie de Margueraties will make her first appearance (almost her first on any stage) in the character of "Faucion." The voung many has been brought up in our midst, and her api earance creates considerable excitement. She played one might last autumn in Buttimer inches in a programme created the wild. Baltimore is the state of appearance created the wild-cot enthusigem. These of our critics was witnessed her pariormance sucek in the highest terms of her talent. She deserves and will receive a glorious weicome from our citizons.

MR. GOUGH'S LECTURES.—The sale of tickets for Mr. Gough's lecture at the Academy this evening on "Habit." and his new lecture on "Temperance" on Thursday evening, is progressing tapidly at Claxton's and Ashmead & Evans'. Persons wishing despiable seats have no time to one in procuring them. We are authorized to state that tickets remaining unsold can be had at the door on the evenings of the lectures, though it is hardly safe to depend on that contingency. MR. GOUGH'S LECTURES.-The cale of tickets for WOOD'S MINSTRELS.-This famous band, known as wood's ainestable.—This is amous band, known as the "premier," will commence an engagement at the Musical Fund Hall this evening. They will perform for six nights only. Under the management of Gool Whits they have won the most enthusiastic applicates of many communities. They have not appeared in this city for the space of five years.

ASSEMBLY BUILDINGS .- The great minstrel band of Messrs Burgess, Frendergast, Hughes & La Rue will open the second week this evening at Ienth and Chesnut streets. During last week they were greeted with full houses. This is probably the last week, Buxgerra .- This will be a great week for benefits all of which we shall note in their turns. The triends of all the beneficiares should exert themselves, especially as this is not a favorable week for the general public.

From Rev. W. D Seignied, Pastor of Twelith Baptis Church, Philadelphia.

Gentlemen:—I have recently been laboring under the distressing effects of indigestion, accompanied by a prostration on the nervous system. Numerous remedies were recommended by irrends, and some of them test ed, but without relief? Your Housand's German Bitches were recommended by persons who had tried them, and whose navorable mention of these Bitches induced me to try them. I must confuse that I had an averation to Patent Medicines from the "thousand and one" quack "Bitches," whose only nim seems to be to pain off sweetened and drugged liquor upon the community in a sly way, and the tendency of which. I can, is to make many a confirmed drunkard. Upon tearning that yours was really a medicinal preparation. I took it with happy effect. Its action not only appen the stomach, out upon the pervous system was prompt and gratifying. I see that I have derived great and permanent benefit from the use of a new bottles.

Very respectfully yours.
