MATTERS OVER THE RIVER.

New Jersey Conference.

New Jersey Conference.

EVENING SESSION—SIXTH DAY.—The Conference met at hall-past seven. Reading of the Scriptures, and prayer by Thomas Sergeant, who occupied the chair by appointment of Bishop Scott.

The report of the Bible Society was then read. It was an interesting document, as it gave full particulars of the operations during the past year. The report was received, and ordered to be printed in the minutes.

Hev. Mr. Ashbrook was ordered to forward the moneys in his hands to Dr. Shelden, Bible agent.

The Committee on Temperance made their report, strongly discountenancing the practice of drinking domestic wines, as it was a prolific source of evil. The Committee urged the necessity of observing a strict desire to further the cause of temperance, and of organizing the colidren into temperance societies. This report elicited much discussion.

A resolution was offered to instruct the children against the use of in, excepting liquors. An amendment was offered and carried, also instructing them to abstain from the use of tobacco. The report was then adopted.

The report of the Committee on the State of the then adopted.

The report of the Committee on the State of the Union was then read, regretting that all of the notorious trairors who plunged the nation into war remain unwashed of the blood of the slaughtered thousands of freemen.

An entnest effort was made to prevail on all members of the conference to be careful to bring only large and good money hereafter, in reporting their

The present clerical Stewards were directed, by vote, to continue to fili their offices, viz.:—G. R. Snyder, E. H. Stokes, S. Vansant, and P. Chino.

The Presiding Elders were instructed to associate two persons from each district with themselves in appointing and arranging for Conference Centenary Camp-Meetings some time during the month of Angest. Angust. Adjourned.

SEVENTH DAY-MORNING SESSION,-The Conference convened at 81 o'clock, Bishop Scott presiding. The exercises were conducted by R. w. Mr. Ballard. Minutes of the evening session were read and adopted.

The Committee on Statistics made their report, which was adopted. It coutains many interesting facts connected with the progress of the Cauron, giving the amount of increase, decrease, etc., of the various charges in the Conference districts.

Rev. W. Forry made a indication in reference Rev. Mr. Perry mage a juli explanation in refer-

Rev. Mr. Perry made a full explanation in reference to the progress and condition of the Fennington Seminary, and represented its affairs in a invorable light. The conference passed a vote of thanks to Mr. Perry for the faithful performance or his duties in connection with the Seminary, and having succeeded in paying the debt of that institution.

At the close of the report, Rev. Mr. Stokes made a very feeling and touching speech, and then presented Mr. Ferry with a splendid gold American manufactured hunting-case watch, with an engraving of Pennington Seminary, and the proper graving of Pennington Seminary, and the proper inscription. It was feelingly responded to by its recipiont. The watch was the gift of the members of the Conference.

The Finance Committee made their report, repre senting that in some instances some pastors did not get salaries enough to pay their way, and asked some a rrangement to obviate the difficulty. Adopted, and ordered to be printed in the menutes.

The exhibit of the Methodist Book Concern was received and read. It shows that the assets of the Concern are $866,213. The establishment was represented in a flourishing condition. The place of no ding the next Annual Conference was fixed at Keyport, in Monmouth county.
A large number of monons, reports, etc., were presented and adopted.

It is thought that the Conference will so far get through with the business as to be able to adjourn

VINELAND,-In this prosperous settlement it is said that from eight nundred to one thou-sand buildings are under stipulation to go up the present season. A large amount of fruit will come to the Philadelphia market the present season from Vineland.

CITY INTELLIGENCE

[For Additional Local Items see Third Page.]

THE FINE ARTS .- The great sale of paintings at the Academy of Fine Arts yesternay attracted a large and distinguished audience. The bidding was animated, and the sale was managed admirably by Mr. B. Scott, Jr., the well-known art auctioneer. The prices obtained were fair, and the bidding showed a great demand for paintings among our leading citizens. Ordinary works do not bring unusual prices. Not five of the works sold last evening brought more than their cost. This evening a better and choice collection will be offered, numbering seventy-eight pieces in all. We would urge on all to go and see the remaining pictures at the Academy, as there may be some which they would like to possess at the current rates. The demand for so has grown up in this city for the fine arts, and after carefully scrutinizing the paintings before and during the sale, we can only express our pleasure that so correct a taste has been formed, and that the verdict announced in the sale agrees so well with the opinions of those who have the advantages of a thorough art education. Here are some of the prices obtained, with the agrees so well with the opinions of those who have the advantages of a thorough art education. Here are some of the prices obtained, with the names of the purchasers:—

Mist Backhuyzen's group of fruit and flowers was sold for $80, to Mr. Bodine. H. Earl took Van Elten's "Canal at Haarlsem" for $130; Bodine, Vandeventer's "Sunset," at $100; G. Walker, Waugh's "Lineoin," at $30; Bohen, Biel's "Foggy Morning in the Baltic," for $100; Baldwin, Bosch's "Newfoundland Dog," for $125—the last two were among the best works for sale. Mr. Baldwin also bought Bosch's "St. Bernard," for $125; and Lambdin's "Signal from the Mountain Top," for $65; Mr. Bonneil, Horgnie's "Bird Fanciers," for $220; Bodine, Van Starkenburgh's "Cattle and Landscape" near Amsterdam, for $105; Baldwin, Hoguet's "View of Heilgoland," for $186; Pitt. "The Criff near Havre," by the same artist, for $180; and McCreary, Miss Bonner's "Princess' Pcis," for $115. The "Feeding of the Rabbits" was sold to Mr. Calvert, for $175, "The Flower Girl," by Boser, to J. E. Cope, for $195; "The Little Milk Dealer," to Jessup, for $200; Mr. Walker, Lewis' "Castle Ely," for $100; Mr. Houston, Russell Smith's "Ossipee Valley," for $200; Mr. Calvert, E. D. Lewis' "Valloy and Falls of the Amonoosack River," for $40; Mr. Earle, Van Starkenburgh's "View on the Hudson" for $400; Mr. Bennett, Boker's "Preparing for Dinner" for $220, and Sommler's "Unlucky Shot' and "Watenful Hunter" for $75 each. Mr. Jenks bought Kauffman's "Winter in the Woods" for $205; Mr. Harris, Voitz's "Leading Cattle to Water" for $400; Mr. Jessup, Jordan's "Proposal of Marriage" for $400; Mr. Jessup, Jordan's "Proposal of Marriage" for $400; Mr. Jessup, Jordan's "Proposal of Marriage" for $600; Mr. Waiker, Vandeventer's "Harvesting in Holland" for $95; Mr. Mann, Triebel's "First Cigar" for $400; Mr. Vileon, Von Bremer's "Coming from Market" for $600; Mr. Wright, Brueckl's "First Cigar" for $150; Mr. Plumnere, Veron's "Forest of Fontainebleau" for $170; Mr. Walker, Sonntag's "View in the Shenandoah"

ATTEMPT TO ROB A DRUG STORE. - James Hutchinson is a colored individual who lately Hutchinson is a colored individual who lately arrived in this city from Kentucky. After being here for a short time, he obtained employment at Blair's drug store, S. W. corner of Eighth and Walnut streets. Last night the officer who patrols that neighborhood, while looking through the cut in the door of the store to see that all was right within, discovered a colored man inside moving around in a very suspicious manner. The officer rang the bell of the store in order to arouse the attendants of the place and get the door open, when the fellow, taking and get the door open, when the fellow, taking the alarm, escaped by getting out the back way. He was arrested, however, when he proved to be Hutchinson. Alderman Swift committed him for a further hearing.

A COLORED "KNUCK,"—James Griffiths, a colored man, went up stairs in a hotel on Market street, above Thirtieth, and picked the pocket of a man he found lying asleep in a room there. James was arrested and taken before Alderman Allen, who held him to bail. The stolen money was found on the person of the FAST DRIVING .- Baptist Shebo was before Alderman Allen for fast driving yesterday after-noon, in the neighborhood of Thirtiesh and Chesnut streets. The Alderman fined him.

STIGHT FIRE,-About 7 o'clock last evening the Exchange Hotel, situated on Callownill street, above St. John street, was slightly damaged MUNIFICENT FENIAN .- On Saturday night last, at the Academy of Music, Mr. A. Wynne contributed $500 to the Fenian cause. He had already contributed $2700.

FIME IN THE FOURTH WARD THIS MORN-ING-A FAMILY IN A PERILOUS POSITION—ARREST OF THE SUPPOSED INCENDIARY.—Between 12 and 1 o'clock this morning a fire was discovered in the tobacco store of Mr. H. B. Plate, No. 308 South street. The building is an antiquated frame structure, three stories in height. Owing to the combustible nature of the building, the flames spread with great rapidity, and were not long in communicating to an adjoining frame building, two and a half stories in height, west of the building where the fire originated, and at the corner of Ball alley. The latter building was occupied by Adolph Indig as a clothing store, the upper portion being used as a dwell-ing. This building was entirely burnt out, but, owing the theory of the firemen and owing to the exertions of the firemen and others, a large portion of the stock of clothing was, saved. Mr. Indig has an insurance of $2000, and his loss will be covered by his insurance.

The cigar store was considerably damaged, but the loss of Mr. Plate is more than covered by the store was considerably damaged.

by insurance. Another building, No. 306, was occupied by Morris'H. Nathanson, and was also a clothing store. The upper part of this building and also that of No. 308 was occupied as a dwelling by Mr. Nathanson. The goods in Mr. Nathanson's store were nearly all saved, but the upper por-tion of the building was considerably damaged.

Mr. Nathanson has an insurance of $4000, which will fully cover his loss.

No. 304 was occupied by Mr. Mooney, bootmaker, and he sustained some damage, by water entirely. Mr. Mooney has no insurance. Mr. Anthony Gurtzer owns this property, and his loss is not serious. While the conflagration was at its height, a scene of great excitement took place, it being made known that the family of Mr. Indig were all in the second story of this house, and that their retreat was cut off by Ladders were at once procured, and the entire family of Mr. Indig, consisting of his wife and three children, were rescued by this means and safely landed in Ball alley. Officers Pew and Lyons deserve great credit for the active part taken by them in rescuing the family of Mr.

Indig from their perilous position.

Mr. Plate has been arrested on the charge of setting fire to his own premises. He was in-sured for at least ten times the amount of his loss, and there are other suspicious circumstances against him,

Poison!-In these days, the once innocent and salutary process of eating appears to have become a dangerous business. First, we hear of poisonous pork, then the reputation of beef is attacked, and terrible things are proved against veal. Lastly, comes deleterious butter, though this horror, we believe, is confined to New York, where most of the butter, indeed, resembles poison more than food. But since the days of Hercules, and his fatal shirt, we have heard of no such thing as poisonous Clothing, and if there was any such danger, nothing but fair dealing would be apprehended by those who purchase at
