UITY INTELLIGENCE | THE TEMPERANCE REFORM.-Yesterday

[For Additional City Intelligence see Eighth Page.]

EAF,TER SUNDAY .- Yesterday being Easter Bund ay, the day was observed in the Catholic and other churches in a becoming manner. M'ost of the places designated were filled with 'attentive hearers. At the Cathodral, long before the hour announced for the morning services, the hour announced for the morning services, thousands of persons had entered the spacious edifice, and by 10 o'clock pews, aisles, and every available space was occupied by an im-mense congregation. Seats were indiscrimi-nately taken possession of by visitors to the Church, and a large portion of pewholders were left to do the best they could for places. By direction of the Reverend Chancellor of the placese several pews had been reserved for the Diocese, several pews had been reserved for the use of those to whom invitations had been extended, but these, too, had early occupants. Although some inconvenience resulted from the demand for seats, the strictest decorum was observed during the splendid ceremonies. Near 11 o'clock A. M. the grand march by Lind-painter was commenced by the Germania Orchestra, and soon the procession entered the Cathedral from the Episcopal residence, and took places within the sanctuary. The Bight Reverend Bishop, James Frederick Wood, was robed in the magnificent dress of his office, with mitre and crozier, and after the singing of Haydn's "Te Deum" by a fine combi-nation choir, he ascended the altar and began the celebration of Pontifical Mass, assisted as follows:-Assistant Priest, Rev. James O'Connor; Deacon of the Mass, Rev. Aug. J. McConomy, Chancellor of the Diocese; Sub-Deacon, Mr. Samuel Mattingly, Seminary of St. Charles Bor-romeo; Deacons of Honor, Revs. James O'Roil ly and John J. Elcock. The following seminarians were subordinate officers of the Mass:-Master of Ceremonies, Messrs, F. O'Neill and J. McElroy; Thurifer, Mr. J. Mellon; Acolytes, Messrs, D. Brennan and D. McDermott; Torch Bearers, Messrs, O'Brien, Kelly, Reilly, Lawler, O'Hara, and Boyle. The choral portion of the services consisted of Hummel's Chorus Mass in B flat with instrumental accompaniment, opening with the "Kyrie Eleison" in excellent style. Every Every part of the grand chorus was sung with fine musical effect. The Duo, in Mendelssohn's "Song of Praise," was splendidly sung by the Misses Welsh, at the offertorium.

The altar presented a rich and brilliant a pearance during the services, and was decorated with art and natural beauty. At its rear was a grove of evergreens, and distributed among elaborate candelabras were clusters of lilies, japonicas, and other rare flowers and twinings of ivy, myrtle, and laurel. Above were arches of light, wound with green branches, and in addition to innumerable candles upon the altar, two beautiful groups of gas jets were fixed at its sides. A gorgeous effect was produced as the noon-day sun, reflected from the rich-colored skylights, fell upon the vestments, lights, and ornaments used within the sanctuary. An elo quent sermon was preached by the Rev. J. J. Sbanahan, from the text prescribed for the day. After the Mass, the Papal Benediction was im-parted by the Right Reverend Bishop, and the morning services closed with the overture to Mebul's Joseph by the orchestra. In the after-noon Pontifical Vespers was sung, and the attendance was as large as during the earlier part of the day.

Easter was also observed in St. Augustine's Church, N. Fourth street, by the celebration of a Grand Deacon and Sub-deacon Mass, the cele-brant being the Rev. Father Pergolesi, of the Sistine Chapel, Rome, and the sub-deacons, the Rev. Fathers Stanton and Mark Crane, The main altar was splendidly decorated with natural flowers in great profusion, and other appropriate adornments, and when lighted up with innumerable wax tapers arranged on it, pre-sented a most beautiful and striking appearance. The church was densely crowded with worshippers, many no doubt having been attracted by the announcement that Hammel's Grand Mass in D would be performed for the first time in Philadelphia on this occasion. The mass was admirably rendered with the utmost precision and effect by the choir, which numbered upand effect by the choir, which numbered up-wards of forty excellent voices, and included some of the best professional and amateur talent in Philadelphia. The amplest justice was done to the splendid work, and reflected great eredit on all engaged in its performance, as well as upon Professor Thunder, under whose auspices it was so creditably produced. Hum-mel's "Alma Virgo" was sung at the Offertory with great power and effect. Miss Blackburne sustaining the solo portions in the most credit-able manner. The Rev. Fa her Crane delivered an appropriate and eloquent discourse on the an appropriate and eloquent discourse on the occasion, and the celebration throughout was of a highly impressive and interesting character.

a large and interesting meeting of the triends of temperance took place, in the Eleventh Street Methodist Church, under the anspices of the Franklin Division, No. 6, 8, of T. Brief but interesting addresses were made by W. J. Mul-lin, J. N. Morrison, and Rev. R. J. Carson. Another temperance meeting, under the auspices of the Crystal Fount and Silver Spring Divisions, S. of T., was held about the same time, in the church at Twentieth and Fitzwater streets. Remarks were made on the occasion by N. M. Pratt, Alexander Sloan, and others. The meeting was an interesting one, and pro-ductive of much good.

And the second s

RECEIVING STOLEN GOODS,-A man named Levi Bernheimer, who, at a previous hearing, was held for a further examination on Saturday, 24th ultimo, upon the charge of receiving stolen goods, was held in $2000 bail on Saturday afternoon to answer at court. The piece of goods was found in the house of the accused, and two pieces of other blue cloth which were 10 covered at 'a dychouse were tully identified by George Campbell, of the firm of Campbell & Pollock, Twenty-first street and Washington avenue, as their property. Mrs. Bernheimer, who was charged with a similar offense, was discharged from custody. Bernheimer claimed that he knew notning about the illicit purchase.

RUNNING CARS ON SUNDAY .- The report which was received from Harrisburg last week, by telegraph, to the effect that the Union Passenger Railway had been made a post-route, and would, therefore, be authorized to ran its cars on Sunday, appears to be founded on fact. The officers of the railway have purchased, it is stated, a contract for carrying mails across the city every day of the week, which has been ap-proved by the Postmaster-General, and they have been authorized to carry the contract into execution. This gives them the right, however, to run only at the arrival of the mail trains, and not at other hours.

LIBERAL BEQUESTS .- The following are among the bequests of Mr. John P. Crozer, re-cently deceased :--Unland Church, at Chester

n's	Pennsylvania Colonization Society
he .	Baptist Educational Society 1500
· · · · ·	Idiotic Asylum, Media 1000

AFFAIRS AT THE NAVY YARD .- The new frigate Chattanooga has been ready for her contract trial for several weeks past, and is now at the Philadelphia Navy Yard, awaiting the orders of the Navy Department. The conditions of the trial are as follows:-She is to make a three days' sea trial, during which the performance of her machinery must be satisfactory, and during a part of the time it must be shown that her boilers can burn fourteen thousand pounds of coal per hour, and that her engines will work off in an efficient way the steam produced by this coal. It is expected that the Chattanooga will fully come up to, if not exceed, these requirements requirements.

TO BE IMPROVED,-The building belong-To BE IMPROVED.—The building belong-ing to the Gas Works, in Seventh street, above Chesnut, by order of the trustees is about to be fitted up in a more commodious style. The wings of the building will be extended, and another story added. About $20,000 will be spent in the improvements in question. The old building was once in the possession of the German Library Company of Philadelphia, by whom the second story is still occupied. The enlargement of the building is deemed indispen-sa' is for the order accommodation of the emsa' le for the proper accommodation of the employes of the gas office and for the public. The work will be commenced during the present

CHARGED WITH HIGHWAY ROBBERY .--A person by the name of Oscar Willis was be-fore the Recorder on the charge of highway robbery. A few evenings since John McDermot, of Norristown, was robbed in the neighborhood of Ninth and Green streets. He was about taking the cars when he was enticed away by a crowd and taken to a drinking saloon, and after leaving and taken to a drinking saloon, and after reaving that was robbed of a gold watch, worth three hundred dollars, and forty seven dollars in money, and a certificate of stock. Willis, it is alleged, committed the thett. The watch was recovered, and the prisoner committed in default of $3000 bail to answer.

-The late Captain Gronow, author of four volumes of "Personal Recollections" recently published in London, left his family in destitute circumstances. A subscription has been opened for their benefit. Captain Gronow was disin-herited by his father in favor of his brocher, a clergyman, and the small income which he de-rived from the interest of a sum charged on the family estate ceased with his life.

-The Imaum of Muscat, who has just been assassinated by the tribes settled on the shore of the Persian Gulf, was at the head of one of he richest and most powerful states of Arabia. His possessions comprised, independently of the territory of Muscat, a part of Moghistan, the islands of Kischm and Ormuz, the island of Zanzibar, and the eastern coast of Africa trom Cape Cardafou to Querimbo.

-The Eldora (Iowa) Ledger gives an account of a man living in Hardin county, who is said to be stronger than the celebrated Dr. Windship, His name is Walter Hadlock. He was a member Company C of the 6th Iowa infantry. During the march of Sherman's army to the sea he lost his right arm in a skirmish near Macon. He seems to suffer but little inconvenience from the loss, and chops wood with his left arm. It is no unusual effort for him to cut and cord two and a half cords per day, and he offers a wager of fifty dollars that he can split one hundred and fifty rails a day.

-Paris is not keeping Lent, says a correspondent. The Church itself has razed all the old bar-riers which separated this season from the rest of the year. The Tuileries gives a concert every Monday night, which is really a party in every respect but the absence of dancing. The Sun lay service at the Tuileries is likewise a sort of festservice at the fulleries is fixewise a sort of festi-val, to which thousands try to go. I think I told you Abbe Deguerry preaches there, and the music is by the best performers of the Opera, Opera Comique, and Theatre Lyrique, under the direction of Mons. Auber. Fridays Count De Nieuwerkerke (pronounced Newkirk), the keeper of the Louvre, gives in his magnificent saloons in this palace a musical entertainment, exhibits the last pictures by our artists, the latest works of art from our sculptors' and carvers' hands. All the world of literature and art are to be seen there. He is, however, so ungallant as to ex-clude ladies; efforts are making to melt him into more chivalry, and it is whispered he will repeal the sort of Salic Law he has published. Sunday night the Princess Mathilde receives company, and here, too, literature and art are in the ma jority. All the Ministers, and most of the Diplo matic Corps, receive once a week; dinners and concerts are numerous. You see, though we are in Lent, we are not without varied entertainments every night of the week.

If anything was wanted to prove the absolute purity of this Whisky, the following certificates should do it. There is no alcoholic stimulant known commanding such ecommendation nom such high sources :---Thitabeling and any sources --Thitabeling. September 5, 1858. We have carefully tested the sample of CHESNUT GROVI. WHISKY which you send us, and find that it contains store of the poisonors substance known as yusit. oil. which is the characteristic and injurious in-gredient of the whiskies in general use. BOOTH, GARRETT & CAMAC, Analytical Chemists. NEW YORK, September 3, 1858. I have analyzed a sample of CHIESNUT GROVE y HISKY received from Mr Charles Wharton, Jr., of Phindelphia: and having carefally tested it, I am piessed to state that it is entire y preception proponous on peletricious substances. It is an unusually pure and fine-flavored quality of whisky. JAMES B CHILTON, M. D., Analytical Chemist. BOSTON, March 7, 1859. I have made a chemical analysis of commercial sam-pes of CHESNUT GROVE WHISKY, which proves to the tree from the heavy Fusil Olis, and perfectly pure and unadulterated. The fine flavor of this whisky is derived it om the grain used in manufacturing it. Respectfully, A. A. HAYES, M.
