MATTERS OVER THE RIVER.

DEAD.—The little child, a son of Mr. Carter, who was run over by a heavily loaded wagon yesterday afternoon, and so dreadfully crushed, died this morning about four o'clock from the effects of his injuries. He was only three years and the woother bodd. and six months old.

ROBBERS AT WORK .- A series of robberice have been recently perpetrated in the lower part of Burlington county, a game of that class of villams having been prowing about for some time past, and all efforts to apprehend them have thus far proved RIVER THIEVES .- Several persons were arrested a day or two since near the mouth of Cooper's creek, and taken before Justice Cassady, who committed them on the charge of river thieving. The race in pursuit of them was one of a very interesting character, but the police were successful.

CITY INTELLIGENCE

1 For Additional City Intelligence see Fifth Page. 1

INQUEST IN A HOMICIDE CASE,-The inquest on the body of Jeremian ting took place at the Coroner's office yesterday afternoon. This person did at St. Joseph's Hospital, on Thursday evening, from the effects of a beating received at Engle & Wolt's place, near the Reading Railroad Bridge, the afternoon of the same day.

Charles C. Wolf, of the firm of Engle & Wolf. Charles C. Wolf, of the firm of Engle & Wolf, testified that he was on his way with king to see about some work to be done, when they met Leary coming towards them; Ring, he said, struck Leary in the face with his fist, when the latter picked up a stone and threw it at Ring, who fell over senseless; Leary then kicked Ring twice on the head while he was down; the witness then tried to interiere, but Leary threat ened to serve him in the same way it he did so; witness then went after helo; on his return he had Ring conveyed to a house, and thence to St.

Joseph's Hospital. Catharine Barth testified that she was standing some distance off, but that she saw Ring raise his hand as if to strike Leavy; she did not see Leary knock Bing down, but heard him fall; after Mr. Wolf left she saw Leary kick Ring twice on the head.

No other witnesses were examined. The prisoner, on being allowed, stated that previous to the last occurrence Ring beat him very much about the body, and that when be hit him with the stone it was done in selfdefense.

jury rendered the following verdict:-That the said Jeremiah Ring came to his death from injuries received at the hands of William near Fountain Green, Twenty-first Ward April 12, 1866, from the effects of which he died at St. Joseph's Hospital the same day.

Leary, the prisoner, was committed by the Coroner. He is an Irishman by birth, twentyseven years of age, is married, and resides at Fountain Green. He expressed himself as being very sorry for what had occurred.

THE CONNELLY THEFT .- John and Mary E. Connelly, arrested for heavy larceny some days ago, were on final hearing yesterday after-noon before Alderman Beitler. Mr. George W. Hunter, No. 34 South Twenty-first street, testified that about two weeks ago Mary stole from him a beautiful gold watch, left him by a deceased grandmother. It was sold by the hus-band of the woman to a barkeeper in Chesnut street. The latter identified the prisoner as the seller of the watch.

Mrs. Margaret Mitchell, No. 216 Lombard street, testified that last December Mary lived with her under the name of Mary E. Stevens. She remained but half an hour, when she decamped with a silver watch and five table-cloths. The latter were recovered, the watch was not. Mrs. Atkinson, No. 215 Spruce street, and Mrs. McAfee, No. 341 South Third street, testined to corresponding losses. The prisoners were com-

NEW MILITARY ORGANIZATION .- A arge meeting of the officers and men of the old fist Regiment Veterans, P. V., was held on Thursday evening, at the Court House, Sixth and Chesnut streets. Lieutenant-Colonel Charles S. Greene presided. The name selected for the new corps is "Sedgwick Veteran Guard." The object is to renew friendships formed on the battle-fields of the late war.

CASUALTIES. - John Long, aged twenty-three years, had one of his toes mashed by a piece of iron falling on it at Merrick's toundry. He was taken to the hospital.

William Kooker, aged five years, was admitted into the hospital last evening with his thigh badly injured, caused by the wheel of a wagon

SUDDEN DEATH .- A man named Francis Hopkins, late a soldier, employed in Harrison's foundry, dropped dead at Twenty-first and Shinpen streets, yesterday morning. The Coroner was sent for to hold an inquest.

RELIGIOUS,-The new German Lutheran Church in Germaniown will be dedicated tomorrow. Rev. S. K. Brobst, of Allentown, and other clergymen are expected to preach.

THE RESULT.—The voting for the hand-some set of Base Ball Implements, at St. Paul's Far resulted as follows: Expert, 4289; Creighton, 33(9; Fleetwood, 451. Majority for the Expert Base Ball Club of 980.

NEW STEAMER .- The Franklin Engine Company, of Germantown, will house a new steamer on Monday.

INSPECTION OF FLOUR AND MEAL for the week ending April 12:-Barrels of superfine, 6283; do. Corn Meal, 74. Total, 6357.

To CLOTHIERS -Our purchases for this season having been delayed, waiting the expected decline in goods, we have now on hand the largest and bestassorted stock of Clothing in Philadelphia, purchased for each exclusively, at the very lowest rates of the season, which enables us to realize a fair profit and sell at prices less than the cost of same goods in most other establishments. We can supply clothers doing a fine city trade, with goods adapted to their sales, at prices so much lower than the cost of their present stocks, that, by making an average of the whole, they will be enabled to dispose of their goods at prices covering the average cost, and even paying BENNETT & CO., a profit.
