

MATTERS OVER THE RIVER.

CAMDEN COUNTY COURTS.—The May term of the Courts for Camden county commences next Tuesday. Judge Woodruff, who was appointed during the session of the late Legislature, will preside. It is thought that this will be a considerably protracted term, as there is a full list of cases to dispose of in addition to those which will be presented by the Grand Jury.

The following named gentlemen compose the jury:—Albert W. Mackley, William P. Tatum, George W. Carpenter, Cooper P. Browning, Jesse Townsend, Charles Albertson, John P. Bodine, Stephen Parsons, Thomas Loftis, Samuel Tatem, Thomas A. Wilson, John Kirkbride, Joseph M. Cooper, John S. Wood, Edward S. Ireland, Isaiah Workman, John W. Downs, Samuel H. H. Knicker, John H. Knicker, Shivers, Francis Boggs, Edward J. Oles, John Lickler, John Shreve, Mr. Jenkins, the Prosecutor of the Peace, is actively engaged in arranging matters, so that not a moment's delay will be experienced in disposing of the cases.

THE NEW APPOINTMENTS.—Information from Washington announces that Jim Seavey's recommendation, the Judge Woodruff, for Postmaster and Collector for Camden will be made to-day. If a change is at all made upon the influence of such recommendation, there is not much probability that the Senate will confirm it for personal hostility against Mr. Seavey's treasury has been given to a degree in which members of Council refuse to vote licenses to hotel-keepers on whose petition Seavey's name is found. Such is the power of his recommendations in the national and his influence is completely ignored, except with the Democratic party, with whom he is now acting. Ais, 1007 York!

SANITARY.—The Sanitary Committee has instructed Marshal Campbell to see that the ordinance respecting the removal of filth, etc., from yards, alleys and lanes, and the cleaning and purification of premises shall be rigidly enforced. It has also directed that the instructions of the Committee by the 1st of May, the work will be done by the city at the owner's expense.

AMUSEMENTS.

NEW CHESNUT STREET THEATRE.—Miss Marie Mitchell has decided to play this evening for her benefit once more The Pearl of Samoa. The part of "Marie" has many situations which suit her, but as a whole it is decidedly too fragile, too heavy for her. One of her best points is the reading of her letter. Her dance, too, is pretty, but not characteristic, for it is operatic; it should have been the Savoyard bouquet, a dance which she has read in the French Le Tour du monde. Her dance, too, is pretty, but not characteristic, for it is operatic; it should have been the Savoyard bouquet, a dance which she has read in the French Le Tour du monde.

ALICE SHERIDAN THEATRE.—The Flying Dutchman, notwithstanding its admirable scenery has given place to The French Spy, a part in which Miss Cooke has no equal; indeed, it is impossible to imagine who the French spy really is, how full of poetry, how witty, how from all that is bold and crumpled. Miss Cooke's "French Spy" should be seen by all, for it will be one of the traditions of high art.

WALNUT STREET THEATRE.—Mr. Booth will this evening play "Boisjoc," a part the depth and difficulty of which will be certainly not to be found in any of the Italian acts of the Alps; but the piece, as to its scenery was well put on the stage.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—La Sphère, a lovely ballet; Saints in Exile, by George Revere, and Young America on the El Financero, form the attractions of this evening. To-morrow afternoon the celebrated Jeanette and Jeanette will be given.

THE GERMANIA ORCHESTRA.—The following is the programme for the public rehearsal to-morrow afternoon at the Walnut Fund Hall:—Overture, Stradella (by request); Flotow's Duet (by request); Joseph J. Gault's March; Concerto for Piano by Donizetti; Performed by G. H. Jarvis and Germania Orchestra; A. Allegro appassionato; 2. F. No. 10; 3. F. No. 10.

A Starling Story from Utah.

ASSASSINATION OF A "GENTLEMAN." The Salt Lake Union Vindicator of April 14 comes to us with its columns in mourning, and the following startling statement:—

"Last Monday evening the community was astounded with intelligence of another foul assassination committed on Theatre street, only a few steps east of Main street. The man who was assassinated was known throughout Nevada, and more particularly at Austin and Reese river, as one of the best citizens of that State, and was engaged in the trading business between his place and Reese river. His conduct, while here, was that of a good, quiet, peaceable citizen, violating no law of the land, interfering in no way with the legitimate business of any person, and honored and respected by all who knew him.

"A few days ago he was lawfully joined in marriage by Judge McCurdy, one of the associate judges of the United States courts in and for this territory, to a lady of the city, who was claimed by the Mormon leaders as the wife in polygamy of a Mormon now absent on a foreign mission. This lady, by the sanction of law and by the authority of one of the highest legal officers of the territory, abandoned the position in which she had been placed, and legally joined herself in marriage with Squire Brassfield. Charges of resisting the police on the night of his marriage were instituted against him, and his wedding night was passed in one of the cells of the city prison.

"Brassfield, conscious of having done no wrong, quietly went into court with his counsel, gave the bonds required of him, and in every respect conformed to every requirement of the courts in the premises.

"In the meantime, the lady fearing that efforts would be made to take her children from her, caused a writ of habeas corpus to be issued from the United States Court, in order to ascertain whether she was entitled to the custody of them or not. The writ was issued last Friday, returnable and triable before Judge McCurdy. This issue brought up at once the question of polygamy and its position under the law. By request of the opposing parties the hearing was postponed from time to time until Monday evening, April 2, 1886. Mr. Brassfield was in court with the counsel for himself and wife.

"Judge Snow announced to the Court that the case in issue involved the legal and constitutional right of polygamy, and that he thought it better to state the case in plain words, for which we give him full credit. He did not appear at all desirous of evading the issue. Additional time being required, and by mutual consent of both counsel, the case was further postponed until 10 A. M. this morning, and the Court adjourned. Within half an hour thereafter, Brassfield, when within a few steps of the hotel where he resided, and when in company of the United States Marshal, was shot in the back, and within one hour from the time he left the Court House he was a dead man.

"We cannot close without referring to the publicly expressed opinion of certain Mormons in this city, that Brassfield was justly punished by death, and that the balance of the Gentiles here would be served in the same way if they were not careful."

It would be useless to deny the fact that in the opinion of the Gentile community of this city, the killing of Mr. Brassfield was a deliberately planned scheme, concocted and executed by men high in authority in the Mormon Church.
