MATTERS OVER THE RIVER.

A LULL.-A lull seems to have taken place A LULL.—A luli seems to have taken place in reference to the proposed changes in the trovernment incumbents in Camden, the matter having gone as far as it can until Congress ra ifies the appointments, of the new nominees. The great aim and object seems to bave been it e removal of Mr. Porter, clerk under Mr. Shar, e, Internal Revenue Collector, by James M. Scovel, in consequence of a personal dislike the redon table James the Less has entertained for some time. As Mr. Sharpe refuses to remove him and the probability is that the senate will not confirm a successor to Mr. Sharpe, as well as the Postmaster here, it is very evident some time will empse before Mr. Scovel can carry out to the letter the terms of his bargain and sale with the Copporheads at Washington. A number of prominent genheads at Washington. A sumber of prominent gen-tlemen belonging to the Union party have gone to Washington, where the entire animus of Scovel will be explained, and his duplicity unveiled.

Boys, Bewars.—For a long time past a gang of rude and disorderly boys have been in the habit of visiting Ca adea on the Sabbath for the purpose of playing bail. They committed all kinds of depredations, knocking paings off fences, etc., and using the most profane language. They bring bottles of liquor with them and often become beastly drunk. The Police are determined to put a stop to this violation of the Sabbath, sud have in several instances enforced the ordinance against it. On Sunday afternoun about thirty arrests were made, Sunday afternoon about their arrests were made, and the old city jail last night was pretty well hied with these offenders. This morning the Mayor imposed a fine on them, and eave them some good advice, which it is to be hoped will be of future ser-

WALNUT STREET THEATRE.—Mr. Booth will this evening appear in one or his finest characters, that of "Ruy Blas" and afterwards in "Don Cæsar de Bazan" Ruy Blas was written by Victor Hugo for Frederick Lemaitre. It is one of the most beaufor Frederick Lemaitre. It is one of the most beautiful and powerful creations of the romantic school. Fascinsted by the character of "Don Casar," which is incidentally introduced in Ruy Blas, two French dramatists of interior fame to thuso, wrote the play of Don Casar, which Frederick Lemaitre likewise played with immense success "Don Casar" has a much onger part in the French Ruy Blas than in Mr Booth's adaptation; but we consider the curtailment judicious. Booth's "Ruy Blas" is as admirable in its own pecusar style as his "Hamlet," full of poetry, passion, and melancholy The combination of the two plays is a happy thought, and forms a most attractive programme. most attractive programme.

MAMERICAN TREATRE -1 he sensation of the week will be the evolutions of a 'emale acrobat named Mad'ile Forrests upon the flying trapeze. Mr. Fox certainly furnishes sufficient covelties to draw crowds. El Nino Eddie's engagement is drawing to a close, and he will shortly start for Europe. Leo Hudson is underlined, and will make her appearance next week.
