Revolutionary Movements Growing Fast at the Late Outbreak—The Town of San Cristobal, Haiti, and San Jose de Ocoa Surprised by the Insurrectionists—Military Measures and Success of the Government, Etc.

HAVANA, April 28.—By the steamer Mail, which arrived yesterday, we have news from St. Domingo to the 14th instant, a synopsis of which is subjoined:—

The morning of the 24th of March states that a revolutionary movement, which occurred lately on the south frontier, was generally disapproved of by the people, as was shown by the spontaneousness with which they had come forward to suppress it.

While these proceedings were being carried forward Colonel Jose Joaquin Sanchez took command of an organized body of the citizens of Maniel, and succeeded, subsequently, in restoring order among the inhabitants of San Jose de Ocoa.

On their way the rebels ascertained what had occurred at Maniel and Maniel, and they had proceeded into the mountains, with the intention of giving fight to the Government forces.

The arrival of these troops on the bank of the river opposite San Cristobal, instead of being attended with a fierce conflict, proved a great surprise in one sense, in that the rebels in arms, and who were on the point of setting out for the object of defense, were met by the Government troops, and shouted vivas in a highly friendly and lively manner.

The commanding general of Azua has been reinforced with troops sent from La Provincia del Seybo and with all needful munitions of war. At last accounts it was promised that the difficulties arising from party purposes would be settled, that compromises would be made, and that peace would ensue.

In a later number of the San Domingo Monitor (of the 7th ult.) we find a paragraph to the effect that the Government troops had taken permanent possession of San Juan and Neyba. The well-disposed portion of the inhabitants of both places, who fled to the mountains for safety, were returning to their homes.

In continuation of the military operations on the part of the Government, two columns were sent out, one moving to the right via San Juan, under command of Generals Baez and Guzman, and the other to the left via Neyba, the latter being commanded by General Blas Molandao.

The column which moved on the right demonstrated against Coroso, and the other against the rebel forces. Both columns of these places are situated on the left bank of the river Yaque.

ADAMS EXPRESS COMPANY—THEIR NEW QUARTERS—SPLENDID ESTABLISHMENT—Most Philadelphia will remember the old Mason House, Eleventh and Market streets. When built, years ago, it was considered a palace, and fully equal to the requirements of the traveling community, as far as Philadelphia was concerned.

The new portion of the immense building is used by the companies, and the new companies, occupied respectively by Adams, Howard's, and Hazard's Express Companies. While all are separated, yet each can communicate with the others, the spacious apartment is magnificently fitted up with massive counters and desks of oiled walnut.

The entrance for cars is from Market street, as before, but the platform has been greatly enlarged to the west, and the building is now a magnificent structure, occupying by the Pennsylvania Railroad the whole of the interior has been remodeled and arranged to suit the business.

The whole interior has been torn out and changed. From the Market street front there is a wide entrance opening into a spacious apartment, which is to be used as the office. Communicating with this is a large hall, and from this a staircase leads to the second floor, and is covered with the use of ladies exclusively.

The building is a hollow square, 150 by 180 feet, fronting on Market, Eleventh, and Marble streets. It is six stories in height with a basement, being arranged as a restaurant, with every convenience for that business.

It is expected that the hotel will be opened about the 1st of July, and will be in charge of Curless & Davis, Esq. It is the intention to build a new building at the corner of Market street, and his intention is a guarantee that he will fulfill his promise.

THE BUILDING TRANSFORMED FROM UNDESIRABLE INTO A REAL ORNAMENT TO THE PORTION OF THE CITY. The whole improvement was made by John Trump, Esq., the architect, and was done under the personal supervision of Mr. R. M. Gibbon, and is creditable to both.

AN OCK-DOWN ARGUMENT.—Three men, named C. H. Deer, Thomas White, and William Loughlin, were arrested last evening for fighting and disturbing the public peace. It is alleged that some of the men were in Loughlin's tavern, in Fourth street, below Lombard, when some difficulty ensued with the proprietor about the payment of some drinks.

CAUGHT IN HIS OWN TRAP.—About 4 o'clock this morning a man named George Remond, who resides at No. 184 Frankford road, was injured by the discharge of a spring pistol he had fired, which he had fired for the purpose of accidentally touching the spring of the pistol with his elbow, when it exploded, and shot him in the shoulder, inflicting a painful wound.
