A NEW BAPTIST CHURCH.—Germantown bids fair to be rich and beautiful in churches. No one in that charming suburb need complain of the madequacy of accommodation or public worship. We chronicled the other day the commencement the ereation of a new Unitarian church there. On Saturday was la d he corner stone of the chapel of the new Baptist church upon the Chew estate ocation is the corner of Germantown road and

I he ceremony of laying the stone was participated The ceremony of laying the stone was participated in by a number of prominent divines of the Baptist decomination, and attracted a gathering comprising most of the Baptists of Germanown. The building has been eracted by private parties, who look for their reimbursement to the Baptists of the place using it as a place of worship. The material is near at hand. It is the same as that to be used in erect at hand. It is the same as that to be used in erecting the Unitarian church—the substantial and picturesque stone quarried out of the hills at the adjoining Falls of the schuckfil it will be taid in rubble work throughout, in Gothic architecture. The dimensions are to be 43 by 85 feet, with seat room for 600 persons. They pay $7500 to the ground, and will spend $12,000 more upon the structure. will spend $13,000 more upon the stru ture. CONNUBIAL FELICITY .- Some months ago CONNUBIAL FELICITY.—Some months ago notice was nace of an application of one incode or W. Lee, New York, to secure, through a habeas corpus, the possession of his child. The fact was then developed that Mr. Lee had married Mess Fannie Grigg, of this city; but owing to certain family disagreements the parties had separated. Mr. Lee obtained the child, and there the matter was supposed to rest. It has, however, been revived in anoth r shape in the Supreme Court of this city. Mr Lee has filed a bill against Mrs Kanev M Grigg and John W. Grigg, administrator of the estate of John Grigg, late of this city, deceased, and Mrs. Fannia A Grigg, late of this city, deceased, and Mrs. Fannie A

Lee.
The case came up for argument before Justice I hompson on bill and answer I he bill in equity fied avers that complainant is the husband of said Fannie, they having been married on the 8th of October 1856, at the house of her father, the late John trigg; that they lived tozeth r until the 27 h of September, 1860, when she left his house without any reasonable or lawind cause, and has since reliased to live with him; that while the were living together two children were born, one of whom after wards died, and the other, John Grigg Lee, is still living, and about eight years of age. The complainant also avers that, since the desertion his wife has been living principally in New York city, and refuses to return and live with him, although he has offered to receive her again, and use her as a good husband ought to do.

The complainant further avers that John Grigg omered to receive her again, and use her as a good husband ought to do.

The complainant further avers that John Grigg died on the 2d of August, 1864, intestate, seized of a large real and personal estate, leaving surviving him a widow, the said Nancy M. Grigg, a son, the said John W. Grigg, and two daughters. Emily, wife of Horace B Fly, and the said Fannie, wife of complainant; that Mr Grigg left behind him no debts of any importance, and that his personal and real estate under proceedings in the Orphans' Court has been parted and divided, and the said Fannie's share of the personal es ato is now in course of distribution to her by the said administrators; that her share of the real estate anotted to her consists of eight houses and lots and several ground-rents, together valued at $100,000 and yielding an annual rentation $11,000, and that her share of the personal estate amounts to more than $150,000; that, independent y of this, she ho dis a bond given to her by her rather, in his lifeho ds a boad given to her by her rather, in his life-time, obtiging him and his representatives to pay her the sum of $5000 annually, during the term of her natural life in monthly instalments of $500. This bond was given while complanant and his wife were living together in this city, in a house furnished for them by Mr. Grigg, and complanant avers that it if was not given for the superstance of his wife. it was not given for the separate use of his wife, but was intenced and designed by the said John Gring for the support and maintenance of complainant, his wife, child, and household

The complainant avers that his wife caims to re-ceive the said yearly rental of $11,000, her share of the personal estate of her fatuer, and the said anthe personal estate of her father, and the said aumunty of $6000 for her own separate use, without any participation therein of complanant, or of their child, for whose benefit the said Fannie contributes nothing. That complanant has not means enough of his own, independently of his wife's estate, from which he receives nothing, to support a household, and properly to maintain and educate his infant child. The complainant fur her shows that all mid. The complainant fur her shows that a large cortion of the said personal estate in the hands of the said administrators consists of cash and coup bonds, which bass by delivery, and that his wife makes her residence out of the State, and, if the per-sonal estate passes into her hands, the same would tass beyond the jurisdiction and control of this

He further charges that the administrators are from time to time, without his consent, making large payments of money to the said Fannie, and are about to pay to her ner full proportion of the personal estate of ner father, the late John Grigg, regardles or the prohibition of complainant, or of any right of his as her hus and, and of his legal and equitable claims to the enjoyment of a fair and reasonable share of her fortune for the benefit of himsen and their child.

He there cre prays that the administrators be enfined and restrained from paying or distributing to the said Fannie any sum of money as her propor-tion and share of the personal estate of her late lather or any part thereof, without the knowledge, consent, and co-operation of complainant.

2. That it may be decreed that he is entitled to a reasonable and just allowance from and out of the personal estate coming to his wile, for the mainte-nance of himself and their child, and the education of the latter, and for the supply of a proper home; and that the said allowance be paid to him by the said administrators.

3. That the said Fannie A. Lee may be restrained and enjoined from claiming or receiving any portion of the said personal estate of her la e rather, except from and through this complainant, so long as she continues to desert and leave him and his home without lawful cause.

The answer of the administrators admits that the said Fahme did leave the residence of her husband, and sull refuses to live with him. Of the cause of her leaving they say they have no personal know-ledge; but they do not admit that she has wilfully and maliciously descried him. That the complainant as the care an has the care and custody of said child, having de-prived her of him by legal proceedings, she then and still expressing herself as willing to maintain and educate him if he be put under her care.

The answer further admits the fact of Mr. Grigg having left a rarge real and personal estate, and the partition of the real estate under proceedings in the Orphans' Court. It then avers that on the 30th of August, 1864, they filed their first account, which was referred to an auditor; and pending the audit they filed a second, which was rejerred to the same auditor. That on the third of March last the auditor filed a prehimmary or intersecutory report, a warding to the said Nancy M. Grige, widow of John W. Grige, and Emily L. Fry, their respective shares of the cash and securities in the hands of the administrator for distribution, and also setting apart securities to the amount of $120,000 rs a principal for the payment to the said Fannie A. Lee of the annual sum of $6000, for the payment of the annual sum of $6000, for the payment of which, during her inte-time, Mr. Grigg rave his bond, as before mentioned, but reserved for a final report the question how and to whom the share of the said Fannie and the said annual sum of $6000 should be awarded. That before the auditor, I head or e Lee, the complainant appeared by compact, setting up claims against his wife's estate, and particularly asking that the said annual sum of aucitor. That on the third of March last the auditor sel, setting up claims against his wife's estate, and particularly asking that the said annual sum of $6000, or a portion thereof, should be awarded to him. After a full hearing of the claim, the auditor, on the 16th of June last, made his report, awarding to the said Fanuy her entire share of the said personal estate of the said John Grigg, and direc ing the administrator to pay to her the whole of the said annuity of $6000, to which report the said Theodore Lee excepted, and the exceptions are now pending.

The answer then alleges that the proper tribunal for the adjudica ion of the complainant's caim was the Orphans' Court before its auditor, and that, after appearing and presenting the claim which he now makes, he is concluded by the report of the auditor.

The answer also says that the value of the eight houses and lots and seven grounds is $190,000, yie d-ing an annual rental of $12,860, and that the proportionate part of the personalty so far distributed amounted to $184 019

The answer also denies the right of the com-plainant to have any control over this property, and asserts that the said Fanny does, and, as respond-ents believe, rightfully, claim the right to use, hold and enjoy the same to her own scharate use; but that they will make no final disposition of the prin-cipal of the said personal seate only used the cipal of the said personal estate only upon the order of the proper court. the proper court.

The answer of Mrs. Lee denies that she wilfully deser ed her hus and, but asserted that she was compelled to leave him, owing to his barbarous treatment, which "made life burdensome."

The case was argued, and held under advisement.

A BOLD ROBBERY .- Mr. Ginn, a citizen A BOLD KOBBERY.—Mr. Ginn, a citizen of means started from h s home in this city, yesterday morning, with his family, to attend church. A niece, residing with him, went out also, but to another church. When he returned, with h s immediate family, he found his niece upon the dood-step. She had been ringing the bell for some minutes, but the servant, who had been left at home, had not responded. Mr. Ginn went round to the back ga'e and got into the house. He found that the upper part had be n thoroughly ransacked. There was no dinner prepared, and a' first the girl was not to be found. The cellar door at the nead of the stairs was botted. Mr. Ginn went down; and at the foot of the flight found the s rvant girl lying insensible upon flight found the s rvant girl lying insensible upon the floor. She was taken up-stairs and examined. She appeared nervous and agitated, but at last gave her story as thus her story as thus: - her story as inus:—

About 11 o'clock two well-dressed men, one short the other tall, had inquired at the door for Mr. Ginn. Mr. Ginn has a good deal of real estate in Maryland. Learning that Mr. Ginn was at church, the men said they were friends of his from Ma yland, and desired to wait until he returned. The girl showed them to the 'liting room and went about her work. She says that afterwards she went to the cellar to bring up the mest, etc. for dinner, when she was struck a blow upon her nead that left her senseiess. She protessed to know nothing more.

blow upon her nead that left her senseless. She protessed to know nothing more.

Chief Franklin examined the girl subsequently, and is a little puzzled to find that there is no mark ocontusion upon the head of the girl, where she claims to have been struck. The authorities know of no thieves at all corresponding with the description given by her. Air Ginn kept little money in his house, and the thieves obtained, after all their rummagins, only about $500,a ve ret cloak and a mo other wearing apparel, and a tea dollar bil, belonging to the girl herself. Chief Franklin will further investigate the case.

AN ATTEMPTED ROBBERY .- An occurrolee took pine a lew nights ago at the Black Horse hotel; a farmer, inn,on North Second street, which should serve as a causion to tersons who have charge of piaces of business. Two men entered the bar-room, while the atteneant was closing up the place, and asked for lodgings, which the were rold they could not have bey then called for drinks, and each took mixed liquors. While the proprietor's son was preparing them, one of the fellows took from his pocket a small box, containing apprarently total his of perfumery and remarked that he had bought them at auction. He then, in a playrul manner, put a jortion of one of the bottles on a handkerchief, and held it to the nose of Mr. Gerbart, who drew his head back to avoid it.

Gerbart, who drow his head back to avoid it.

The next moment it was repeated, and the effect of it was almost instantly feit in pan at the forehead and a peculiar sensation about the eyes, he statisman now entered the bar-room, and the strangers left suddenly, but they has hardly got out of the door before Mr. Ger, art felt ack insensible, and remained in that coudt on for sometime. The har-room contained a fire proof, in which there was a teral 'bousand dol ars, the property of lodgers in the house, and young Mr. werhart had the key on his person. It is follows had no doubt obtained information of the fact, and had supplied themselves with chloroform to not obtaining lodgings at the hotel, in the event of not obtaining lodgings at the hotel.

YEARLY MEETING .- The yearly meeting of the Hicksite branch of the Society of Friends, commonly called Quakers, began yesterday, at the large meeting house on Race street, just above Fif teenth. This meeting embraces the eastern part of Fenusylvania, and portions of New Jersey, Delagrance of the Company of New Jersey. ware, and Maryland, and thousands of Friends from those parts of the country are altending it. Yesier-day the meeting opened by worship, and to-day the business begins and will be continued until Wed ies-day. On Thursday meetings for worship will again be held, and on Fricay business will be resumed and concluded the Friends on that day generally dis-

persons to their nomes

The Hicksites are the most numerous branch of the Quakers, and they have at Friteenth and Race streets what is said to be the largest Friends' meeting house in North America. It was built in 1858, fronts on Sace street, and rups through to Cherry street, and will commortably accommodate over 4000 people. The schools and grounds connected with it will accommodate as many more. The great crowds of well-to go people who assemble at these annual gatherings make a Friends' yearly meeting quite an attraction, and many persons congruents in the neighborhood to see them. The meetings for worthin are open to the rubble, the hosteness restricts. ship are open to the public; the business meetings however, are closed to all but members.

CENTENARY ANNIVERSARY,-Yesterday the Centenary Jubilee of the Zion Lutheran Chur in was celebrated in the old church edifice, Fourth and Coerry streets. The interior of the church was tastefully decorated with evergreens and natural flowers Wreaths were placed at intervals along the walls and in the centre of each was the name of a clergy man Over the pulpit the portraits of Dr. Muhlen-berg and Dr. Demme were placed, and at the oppo-site and of the church a banner containing the inscription, "Peace be in thy Name," was suspended from the gallery.

The collection of bouquets was very large, and;the The collection of bouquets was very large, and the distribution or these about the pulpit added greatly to the display. In the morming the services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Krotel, assisted by Rev. Drs. Mann and Spaeth, Professor Schaeffer, and others. The regular choir of the Church was reinforced by that of the church at St. John and Brown streets, and the music given by the united chorus was very fine. In the afternoon the Sunday School children were assembled in the sparse. children were assembled in the church. Over one thousand juveniles were present.

ARRIVAL OF SHIPWRECKED HAYTIANS. -Captain Hewitt, of the ship Linda, waich arrived here vesterday from Cientuegos, brought, as ordinary seamen, Peter Piene and Charles Buano, natives of Hayti, who were blown to sea from the coast of Hayti, and after severe suffering were picked up by a Durch vessel and taken to Cientuegos, where the local authorities placed them in juli for three or tour menths. They came to this country in bopes of reaching their native land, where one of them left a wife and five chi dren. They are en-tirely destitute, and desire the captain to send them home. Any persons disposed to assist them can leave contributions for defraying their expenses to Hayti with Mr. Michael Dunn, Superintendent of the Merchants' Exchange.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING. - During the STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—During the thunderstorm yesterday afternoon, a fine elm tree in Frankin Square was struck by lightning. A strip of the bark eight of ten inches wide was torn away, and a portion of the trunk of the tree spintered in a curious manner. Some of the foliage was driven into the wood. The Superintendent of the Square, Mr. Smethers, and a friend were standing in the small house about fifty yards distant. They were not injured. A number of the residents on Race street were looking at the square at the time of the shock. Some of them describe the scene as beautiful as it was temporarily blinding. as beautiful as if was temporarily bunding.
