RELIGIOUS NEWS .- Interesting Southern Mission.—The following letter will fully account for the interest felt by many of our citizens in ler the interest felt by many of our citizens in the work of the American Union Commission of Pennsylvania and New Jersey. It comes from their agent, E. B. Adams:—

ATLANTA, Ga., May 21. 1806.—Joseph Baker, Esq., Secretary—Sir;—The schools at Atlanta are giving universal satisfaction. This morning I visited them in company with two prominent gentlemen of this cuy. They were highly picased: they eulogized the enterprise, and encouraged the teachers and scholars. One remarked thus:—"Mr. Adams, your schools have saved its tale disgrace of a dozen gallows." Other remarks were, "We are more than pleased." "I never saw such order." "Tiuly there are many jewels thus taken from the dist."

I received a letter from the Rev. A. Gladivin, mis-sionary sent into the Souta from the American Bap-tist Publication Society. I forward you an exact ATLANTA, May 18, 1866.—J. B [Adams, Esq., Act. Ast. for A. U. C. of Pa and N. J.—Dear Sir:—After vis ting the schools of your Society on Monday mat. I returned to my hotel astonished and pleased. The work so successfully and firmly established reflects work so successfully and firmly established reflects much credit upon you as its auchor, upon the people of Pennsylvania and New Jersey as its supporters, and upon the citizens of Atlanta as its wise recipients. The schools are excellent. I was perfectly captivated while visiting them. The new and commodious buildings, the present and efficient teachers; the aige throng of happy children, in themselves be-peak success. But the delightful exercises; the single gette gymensics the reading, the spelling, the peography and arithmetic, all so thoroughly learned and so promptly recited, are incis conclusive and interesting. In all my travels through the south I have seen no enter, rise that appears to be doing more good.

The social importance of your work is great. But greater still is its bearing upon the narmonizing and reconciling of the discordant sections or our reconciling of the discordant sections of our country.

I am satisfied that reconciliation can only be brought about by such acts of kindness. I have conversed with many citizens on your work. It appears to give perfect satisfaction, and evokes frequent expressions of gratitude. Christianity and humanity are your advocates. Let me say again, you have been wonderfully successful in organizing and starting this work. Considering the time these schools have been in operation. I think they excel almost any schools, North or South, which I have ever visited. In conclusion, I must allude to that last scene, so beautiful and so lovely.

After the song. "I ought to love my mother," and the few remarks made by myself touching the same point, I saw several little children weeping, and alterwards learned from their good teacher, sits C., that it was because "they had been unkind to mother in the morning." Ho v good the advice of the teacher to them:—"Go and ask her forgiveness!" how pleasant such a heart work! You are doing a noble work.

the teacher to them: - "Go and ask her forgiveness!" how pleasant such a heart work! You are doing a noble work, my brother. Go on; may God bless you and all your colaborers, and especially the noble society you represent in its great effort of educating and elevating the poor. Our country will owe her a great debt. May the donors stil continue to give. The country demands it, and God loves the cheeriul giver. Please, sir accept this sight testimonial of my appreciation of your work.

Yours, truly.

Missionary of American Baptist Publication Society, Phradelphia.

It is a crenit to Pennsylvania and New Jersey that five schools, with five hundred children, are at this time being educated in one Southern city alone at their charge. Young Men's Christian Association .- The regu lar monthly meeting will be held on next Monday night, in the Baptist Church, Broad and Arch streets, at 8 o'clock. Hon, Judge Turner, of California, will deliver a lecture on "The new El Donado; or the Golden Shores of the Pacific." Delegates to the National Convention will be elected. There will be music by the choir of the association. Tickets may be obtained gratuitously at the rooms of the Association, No. 1210 Chesnut street.

Presbyterian.—The receipts of the Presbyterian board of Foreign Missions during the last year amounted to $207,526.65, and the expenditures to $210,376'38, leaving a balance against the treasury of $849'73. The Rev. D. A. Cua-ningham, Pastor of the Scots' Reformed Presbyterian Church, of this city, has received a call to the Spring Garden Presbyterian Church The Richmond Presbyterian Church, of Philadelphia, has given a unanimous call to the Rev. A.

Roman Catholic .- St. Mary's Catholic Church, in this city, is to be immediately renovated at a large cost. Among the improvements to be made will be the erection of an altar in honor of St. Philomena. Fairmount Catholic Church, under charge of Rev. Father Magtnn, has been much improved and beautified. It is flow one of the finest churches in the city. Catholic Church, Marriott street, below Eighth, has been much improved since the institution of the present pastor, Father Sarrantino. A new altar has been erected and a fine fresco painting has been placed over it. A marble statue of the Blessed Virgin has been presented to the church and one of St. Joseph is now in the hands of the sculptor.

Heorew .- The Rodef Sholem congregation, of Philagelphia, nave entered into negotiations with Rev. Dr. Jastrow, formerly of Warsaw, now of Worms, to become their Pabbi. He is offered a salary of $4500 per annua. Mr. Joseph Einstem has been re-elected President of the congregation.
Protestant Episcopal.—A: Grace Church at, 101

o'clock to morrow morning, the Rev. Charles Clarke Harris will be ordained to the priesthood. B shop Vail, of Kansas, will officiate. The cere-man of ordination is a most beautiful and impressive one, in accordance with the eloquent ritual of the Protestant Episcopal Church. In the atternoon, at 4 o'clock, the Rev. Mr. Harris will preach. An interesting service, the last op-portunity of hearing Bishop Vall, of Kunsas, will be at Tribity Church, Southwark, Sunday afternoon. Bishop Vall confirmed 208 persons in the various Protestant Episcopal churches, from the 1st to the 10th of May.

Methodist Episcopat.—The Ladies' Union Aid Society of this city intend holding a grand Fair next month, for the benefit of the Home for Aged Methodists. The congregation connected with Asbury M. E. Church, West Philadelphia, have purchased a parsonage, on Market street, above Thirty-tourth, at a cost of $1000. The Centenary M. E. Church, in the same ward, have also purchased a parsonage on McAlpin street, above Locust.

POLICE ITEMS .- At the Central Station, yesterony, Wilham Curter had a hearing, charged with being concerned with John Brown in the robbery of John Hagy's dry goods store, North / Second street. Brown was arrested several weeks ago and was held for trial, Cutter was only arrested yesterday. Several witnesses testi-fied that Brown, Catter, and another young man were seen in the neighborhood of the store on the night of the robbery, and two of the wit-nesses noticed that they were light clothes and high hats in the early part of the evening, and black clothes and caps at a later nour. This was the substance of the testimony. Cutter was held in $1500 for a further hearing to-day.

Alary Milligan was arrested at Germantown, with a carge number of articles in her possession. supposed to have been stolen. They can be seen at the Germantown Hall. The accused was held for a further hearing.

Susan Brady, cotored, was held by Alderman Tittermary to answer the charge of stealing a piece of calico from a dry goods store on South street.

William Watkins, alias Captain Squills, arrested two weeks ago by Detective Stephens, on a charge of being a professional pickpocket, and sent to prison by Alderman Beitler under the ninety day act, was before Judge Peirce yesterday morning, on habeas corpus. Since he was committed he has been identified by Judge Murray, of Harrisburg, as a man who stole from him a valuable gold watch just before his arrest, on a Ridge avenue car. The Juige enarrest, on a Ridge avenue car. The Judge en-tered complaint at the station on May 5th, with a description of the thief, and Mr. Stephens ultimately captured Captain Squills. Judge Murray sailed to be present at the first hearing, and the accused was committed under the ninety day act. His counsel, L. C. Cassidy, terday, at the private office of the Judge in question. The defendant was remanded on the ninety day commitment. When these days have expired he will be rearrested on the charge of stealing the time-piece from the feb of Judge Murray, of Harrisburg.

The Recorder yesterday bound over William McEiwee, the City Pastor, to answer the charge of embezzlement. Before coming to a decision, the magistrate gave the defendant an opportunity to show that he had been authorized by the donors of the charity to Mrs. H. D. to band over all, or only a portion of the contribution to her, as he saw proper, adjourning the case over from 10 to 3 o'clock. At the last-named hour Mr. McElwee appeared, and stated that he had not been able to find the letters, and that the donors were not all in the city.

MUST BE STOPPED.—The owners of freight cars have been notified by High Constable Clark that they must not permit such cars to remain upon the tracks on Market street. The com-plaints to the Mayor of the blockading of the street in this manner led to the order to the High Constables. The practice must at once
