Depredations on American Commerce by Privateers.

From the annual report of the Chamber of Commerce of New York city, for the year 1885, we learn that, from the outbreak of the Rebei-lion in 1861 to the surrender of the Shenandoah, November 6, 1865, there were 25 Rebel priva-teers engaged in the work of destroying American vessels. Of these privateers, there were 14 steamers, 5 barques, 1 brig, and 5 schoolers. The Alabama captured 2 steamers, 34 ships, 22 barques, 5 brigs, and 8 schoolers. The Faorida capture d 1 steamer, 10 ships, 20 barques, 8 brigs, and 7 schoolers. The Shenandoah 10 ships, 25 barque, 1 brig, and 2 schoolers. The Georgia barque, 1 brig, and 2 schooners. The Georgia 8 ships and 2 barques. The Sumler 4 ships, 10 barques, 8 bries, and 5 schooners. The Tultahassee 1 seamer, 4 ships, 4 barques, 2 bries, and 13 schooners. The Tacony 3 ships, 1 barque, 7 bries, and 9 schooners. Total number of steamers, ships, barques, bries, and schooners captured, 283—tonnage, 132,507, and estimated alue of the versels and cargoes, $25,546,000. The bonded, released, and recaptured steamers, ships, barques, brigs, and schooners were 48—tonnage 29,275, and estimated value of vessels and cargoes, $5,458,000. The number of vessels actually destroyed was 235—tonnage, 191,032; and estimated value of vessels and cargoes

AN IMPORTANT ELECTION .- There is a significance attached to the election in Camden county, which is now approaching, of a most im-portant character. Besides the usual county officers and members of the Legislature, there is a member of Congress to be selected, and a State Senator in place of the renegade Scovet, whose term has expired so disgracefully to nimself In view of these important circumstances, the Union party have already begun to display considerable interest in aready began to deplay considerable interest in casting about for candidates of known integrity and availability for the blaces designated. This is imperative, because of the scenes which were enacted last winter in the Senate, in Scovel's refusal to go into joint meeting to elect a United States Senator; and it is necessary, therefore, that true and trustworthy members should be returned to take Legislature, in order to have such a majority in both branches that one nor two men will not be able to accomplish what scovel did last winter. There will, evident y, be two United States Senators to elect next winter, which makes it important for the Unionists to go to work early and earneatly in the matter. The context will be a warm and animated one and The contest will be a warm and animated one and every effort should be put forth for securing the suc-

OPENING AND READING LETTERS .- Mr. Webber, the Postmaster at Milvile, who was con-victed of opening and reading letters, has been sentenced to pay a fine of $200 and costs by the court. He had formerly occupied a prominent position in the Eaptist church. During the day he paid the fine, and went on his way acain, having paid dearly for his curiosity in prying into the contents of letters passing through his office, and learned a lesson that ough to be of use to him during the rest of an internal court in the rest of an internal court in the contents of the court in the court the cour ought to be of use to him during the rest of als die.

FROM WASHINGTON THIS AFTERNOON.

Special to The Evening Telegraph

WASHINGTON, May 28. Santa Anna on the M xiena Question. There is no disguising the fact that the unexpected arrival of General Santa Annain the United States, at this juncture in Mexican afters is creating quite a consation among the real and pretended friends of that country. The former took upon his coming as significant and opportune, and are beginning to express in strong terms their hopes that he will add the prestige or his name, and the weight or his sourse's, to those who are ba time for the liberation of Mexico from French invasion and indemnifity. tion. The pretended friends of Mexico are divided among themselves. As their aims and purposes take ro higher range than personal profit or aggrandizement, they look suspiciously upon any one whose advent threatens to eclipse their own brilliancy or thwart their soroid purposes. All manner of charges and counter charges are already being put affoat inst this and other cities, and studied attempts are being made to misrepresent the object of Santa Anna's mission and to underrate his influence among his countrymen. The statement in yesterday's Washington Chronicle that the friends or Gen. Santa Anna who are at present in the city solicised from Senor Romero an official interview and were refused is pro-- anced entirely erroneous. They called upon him merely as triends of Santa Anna, and in representation of him as a Mexican citizen, and were not only admitted at once, but cordially and courteously received Mr. Romero also assured them that no such publication as that in the Chronicle would be made by his authority, nor any unkind word said of General Santa Anna, as both would be improper under the circumstances in a foreign country, and derogatory to the dignity of the Mexican Legation. Santa Anna's friends, on the other hand, have observed a discreet silence and circumspection from the be ginning. Quidnanes and Bohemians have been held at a respectful distance. They cailed upon Mr. Seward in a tody, but in a private manner, and on behalf of Santa Anna expressly as a Mexican citizen. The usual courtesies were exchanged, but no other or further significance is attributed to the visit by either party, or by those best informed on the subject. The Mexican gentlemen who are now abusing Santa Anna so roundly through the press of the United States are merely giving a new and and clustration of the mistoriume of Mexico in having so many tons who waste their energies in domestic quarrels and personal jealou-ies, instead of employing them against a common enemy. No matter what faults Santa Anna may have committed, Fexico owes to him some giorious pages of history connected with the proclamation of the republic. It is also a damaging fact to thos : patriots par excellence that the Liberals who are now fighting in Mexico have written hundreds of letters to Santa Auna, invoking his assistance, while these censorious critics have contented themselves with venting noisy abuse at a sate distance. On reading the profest or these gentlemen Santa Anna remarked, jocularly, that he was nental has arrived at this port from Mazatlan, happy to know that there were so many Mexican patriots at hand, and that he hoped they would be as ready to fight for their country, now that it was a prey to foreigners, as they were to write against him and others who desired to assist in Mexican regeneration. As they were young and energetic, he hoped they would not herstate to follow the example of an old man like himself, and devote the future to their country's defense. As to his errors, he asks what Mexican there is who, after a long public ca-

icer, can throw a stone at him on account of inconsistency? The supposition that Santa Anna is in the interest of the French, or of Maximilian, is considered too,preposterous by hem for serious denial. He says the Mexican squabblers are the only ones who are playing into Maximilian's interests. These are some of Santa Anna's arguments and professions,

and are urged with great zeal and apparent sincerity

by his friends in Washington. They have had no interview with President Johnson, and expect none,

but are preparing to leave.

WASHINGTON. May 28. Messrs. Wilson (Mass.), Henderson (Mo.), Van Winkle (W. Va.), Johnson (Md.), and Buckalew (Pa.) were appointed a committee to investigate the Condition of the National Banks.

General Grant Interceding for the Pardon of D. L. Yuice.

From the Fernandina Courier. The following letter to the President, recommending the release of Hon. D. L. Yulee, then in confinement at Fort Pulaski, was written by Lieutonaut-General Grant, on the urgent solution of Hon. Wilk. Call. United States Senator. It effected the immediate release of Mr. Yulee, by which act General Grant has gained the respect and hearty good-will of the people of Florida, and will be honored throughout the whole South:—

HEADQUARTERS ARMIES OF THE UNITED STATES
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 22—His Excellency A.
Johnson, President of the United States.—Sir:—I would respectfully recommend the release, on parole,
of D. L. Yulee, late or the United States Senate.

The state of the states of the United States Senate. would respect the property of D. L. Yulee, late or the United States Senate. I make this recommendation on the supposition that no special charges have been made against him.

In making this recommendation I would give it as my opinion that no good is to be accomplished by the confinement, without trial, or at least the prospect of a trial and legal conviction of conspirators against the Government who are not directly tors against the Government or with holding tors against the Government who are not directly charged with heinous offenses, or with holding positions of great power or influence in the Rebelion.

Mr. Yulee has already been long confined. I would arge this in his behalf, unless, as before stated, charges exist against him of which I know nothing. I have the honor to be,

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

U. S. Grant, Lieut. Gen.

Mysterious Affair.

THE DEAD BODIES OF THERE FEMALES FOUND ON THE CONEY ISLAND BEACH.

On Friday the dead bodies of two females were found on the Coney Island beach, and on Saturday another is male body floated ashore. No elue has yet been ascertained as to their identity or the cause of death. Some suppose they were victims of the cholera on board one of the vesselsjin quarantine, and were thrown into the water. The inhabitants of Coney Island have been much excited on the head of this supposition, as they deem it rather dangerous to have the bodies of those who died of choiera thus transferred to their immediate vielbity.

The fact that the bodies were in sacks, with ropes around their waists, gives plausibility to the story that those females were cholera victims and thrown overboard after death. A coroner's inquest will be held upon the bodies, although it may be difficult to get the requisite number of men to aftend on the jury under the effective in the Coney Island beach.—
