Friday-Tue Remains to be Interred In the West Point Cemetery,

Ror's Horse, West Point, May 29,-Liquity unnt-General Winneld Scott died at this house to day at tive minu es past eleven. He departed peacefully. No struggle indicated the passage of the old hero's soul from its earthly tenemen Although his demise was anticipated, yet his death was comparatively sudden. Upon his arrival here on the evening of the 10th inst., by special boat from New York, it was observed that he was very teeble. Upon descending from the carriage be tottered a field, and had to pause upon every susp as he mounted to the hotel.
After a few days, however, he railled cognidarably, and as late as Saturday, at half-past two, was out to the library ami the village, riding. The same day he wrote some letters to irrend but a few onys before he requested General Ca lum, commandant of the post to indue a letter for him, which he franked himself, mongu in an almost illegible hand.

He appeared to suffer from no specific ailment, but rather a general decline or physical strength.

His mind was clear to the last. So little expectation was there of his immediate demise that his daughter, Mrs. Hoyt, of New York, who had been staying with him for some days, left here for home yesterday. Last night the General was taken with a calil, and the assistant surgeon of the post, Dr. Marsh, was immediately sum moned. Even then there appeared to be no danger, and at nine o'clock this morning Dr Marsh assured General Calliam that he had mapprehension of immediate dissolution; but in short time in became evident that the evently and weful life of the patriot soldier was drawing

The Chaplain, Rev. J. A. French, was called in, and toking the General's hand, recited a prayer. Though quite conscious and countrant that death was upon own the power of speech was gone, but the dying soldier pressed the hand of the cierry man and bowed his head repeatedly in token of his consciousness of the last solemn rices which hir, French was performing according to the rules of the Episcopal Church At precisely live minutes after 11, quietly as if in a slamber, the parriet whose life has been so int maisly associated with the military his tory of his country passed away.

There were present with him, at the last moment, General G. W. Callinn, Commandant of West Point, and for many years Ald to General Scott; Surgeon Head, Assistant Surgeon Marsh, Chaplain French, and the General's faithin body servant, General Callium telegraphed Mrs. Hoyt, who arrived tiers at five o'clock this afternoon. THE SECRETARY OF WAR AND GENERAL GRANT

All scademic and unitary discipline was at once suspended, and the days were noisted to ball-stati. General Callon, also telegraphed to the War Department and to General Grant into ligence of the sad event. He has received reply from Mr. Stanton, expressing deep sorro at the death of the great soldier, patriot, and statesman, and approving of all that General Callon bad done. General Grant's reply was of a smalar character. He requested to know at what time the fineral would take place, and it is probable he was come on to attend it.

THE PLACE OF BUBIAL. At the desire of the deceased General's daughter, Mrs. Floyt-and it is thought the old her. himself had the same wish-the remains will be interred to the Wast Point Cemetery.

LYING IN STATE.

The remains now lie in room No. 12 of this hotel, where he expired. They are placed in a shell lined with zinc, and partially filled with ice. The General is dressed in a civilian's suit of black, and looks in the repose of death almost as he did in life. No expression of pain is visi-ble in the face; but the exit has assumed a jaundiced tint. The remains will probably be removed to-morrow to the chapel of the Aca-demy. Meantime a guard of honor, composed of the following officers, in full dress and wear-ing crape on the left arm, are in attendance

Colonel H. M. Black, 7th United States In fantry, Commandant of Cadet Corps: Lieutenant-Colonel A. Piper, 3a Artillery: Lieutenaut-Colonel J. McL/Hildtt, 3d Infantry: Major James McMillan, 2d Litautry; Captain F. A. Davies, 16th Intautry; and Captain A. B. Arnold, 5th Insted States Cavalry.

General Scott had only been confined to bed for the last three days, but during that time his strength was gradually failing, and he seemed to have a presentment that this was his last visit to West Point, in which mistitution he took an intense interest, and at which he spent every summer for the last forty years. When coming from the boat on the 10th of May, h remarked to a Irlend that he had come to the old sendemy to die; and in conversation with Captain Boyston a few days ago, he replied t some remark concerning his visit to West Point. that he came there to be buried. It seems ap propriate that the great military academy of the nation should be the dying place of the nation?

THE FUNBRAL will take place at I o'clock on Friday, with such military pound as the post can afford. It is expected, however, that there will be a large accesion of emment personages from Washington

I have heard that President Johnson expressed a desire to visit General Scott before his death, but the suddenness of his demise at course pre-

ARBIVAL OF THE GENERAL'S DAUGITER. Upon the arrival of Mrs. Host this evening the was conducted by General Callium to the room where the remains of her honored father lay. The officers on guard altiumediately with-drew, with uncovered heads, and the living and the dead were left together in that eilent com-munion whereof no eye or ear witnesses. The religious ceremonies at the funeral will be conducted by the Rev. Mr. French, according to the rites of the Episcopai Church, of which the General was a life-time member. Academic studies will be resumed to-morrow, as the examination commences on Monday; bu judging from the general gloom that pervades all things here, it is not likely the old spirit will enter very deeply into the scholastic contest.

The last words of General Scott are worth remembering. About twenty-five minutes before his death he addressed his hostier, Allen, saying; "James, how is the horse?" "He is we General." "Take care of him, James," said the dving hero, and these were the hat intelligible was over, and General Scott had become immortal.—N. F. Herald.

SALE OF EINE PAINTINGS .- Connoisseurs SALE OF FINE EAINTINGS.—Collidorselled of pathlings will bear in mind the important fact that the sale of pictures at the Art Galery of B. scott Jr. in Chennul street, below Tenta, comes off during the present wook. They are at present exposed to view in the galery, and are daily attracting crowds for their inspection. Some of the specimens are gams of art which any one would be froud to hang upon their walls. Almost every European school is represented by its principal artists. The pieces have been brought to this country by a genture, and consequently there can be no doubt of arts, and consequently there can be no doubt of their penuin ness. It is also proper to say that this is the last of the art sales until the coming fall, so that persons desiring to procure fine pictures will do well to be on hand when the sale occurs. At the procures are framed in elevant style, and ready to be bung up at the shortest notice. The sale will conring three evenings, and will doubtless be as uccessius as those that have preceded it.

HARD-UP THIEVES,-Amos Tucker, aged cighteen years, and another injuvidual were at Wil-masten, Delaware, yesterday, and had no money to get to the r homes in this city. Officer Luke, of Winnington, placed them on a freight train, under charge of Conductor Joseph Barnard, for transporcharge of Conductor Joseph Barnard, for transpor-tation to this city. When the train was between Bell road and Gray's Ferry the "dead head" and negrateful us seegers broke open a box and stole eight pair of shoes. Tacker was subsequently arrested, and Officer Corkrey visited his residence and found some of the shoes under a bed and mother pair on the feet of a woman who resides in the muce house with Tucker. Alderman Lutz com-acted him in dataset of ball.

A DESPERATE CHARACTER.-Last evening man named James Wilson went to the residence an acquaintance named Jack Powell, against whom he (Wilson) had a grudge, and commenced marreting with him. A CURIOUS ANDMAL -A CURIOUS ANDSAL —
Along the sea coast m some parts of the world there is found a singular creature, whose unanormed figure accounts resembles the sole of an old shoe. This animal is not provided by nature with any shell of his own, but when the crustaceous minimizants of the sea cast their according to crawls to the shore, packs out a stell that he thinks will such tim, wriggles himself into it, and walks off with great completency. This we believe the only animal that condescends to put on second-hand Cloth us, and if there was a supply of new constantly awaiting him, at such low prices as has man at Tower Hall, the practice would so in he discontinued.

The first business in order being the call of committees for reports—

Mr. Blaine (Me.), from the Select Committee on the War Debts of the Loyal States, reported a bill to reimburse the States which have inrushed troops to the Union army for advances unde and expenses incurred in raising the same. He said that, after a conference with the members of the Committee and fit ads of the bill, he found as indisposition to consider the bill at tast time. Lie therefore yielded his own judament, and moved that the bill be recommitted to the select Committee, and that the bill be recommitted to the select Committee, and that the same be ted to the select Committee, and that the same be contuned as now organized, with leave to report during the next session. The motion was agreed to On motion of Mr. Blame, the Select Committee on War Debts was di charged from the further consideration of the bill to reimburse the State of Kansas for moneys expended in furushing troops, and it Mr. Stevens (Pa.), from the on Appropriations.
Mr. Stevens (Pa.), from the Select Committee on a Minary and Postai Estirond from Washington to New York, reported back a bill to anthorize the fulleting of a Military and Postal Railroad from Washington to the city of New York, which was recommitted, with a notice by Mr. Stevens that he would call it up in a week.

Mr. Stevens also, from 1/c same committee, resorted back a bill introduced by Mr. Garde doe the ported back, a bill introduced by Mr. Earlie doe the both of April, to promote the construction of a line of railways beyone the city of Washington and the Nor bwest for national purposes, and moved the previous question, which was seconded.

Mr. Ekridge (Wis.) demanded that the engrossed bill should be read, and as the bill was in print, and not engrossed, it went over till after the morning bone.

Mr. Garfield (Ohio), from the same Committee, reported back a bill introduced by him on the 3 to of April, to authorize the Cleveland and Mahoning of April, to authorize the Cleveland and Mahoning Railread Company, a corporat on created and extense under the laws of the states of this and Pennsilvania, to coatinue and construct the railroad of the said Company from the village of Youngstown, Mahoning county, in the said State of Ohio to and into the said state of Pennsylvania, and then by the most advan ageous and practical round to the city of Pittabirg, in the said State of Pennsylvania and to establish the said state of Pennsylvania and to establish the said road as a mailtary, postuland communical railroad of the Umited States. He said that this was a part of the relief provised for in the till just ac el upon, and he provised for in the till just ac el upon, and he provised for in the till just ac ed upon, and he pro-ceeded to give a detailed history of the railfoads in

Mr. O'Neill (Pa.), after putting some questions to Mr. Garifeld, protested that there was no need for the passage of the bill, and that the people of Penn-sylvania did not ask for any such Congressional The morning hour having expired, the bill went over till co-morrow.

The House resumed the consideration of the bill to provide for restoring to the States labels in mean-restoration their full political rights. Mr. Brownell (III.) addressed the House, LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

United States District Court-Judge Cadwalader.—The United States vs Jacob Cripps The relendant is charged with having in his possession sendant is charged with intent to pass it, and acting antarien inquey with intent to pass it, and acting a concert with counterfeiters. On the might of the little of April he and a man who, on his arrest, gave the name of Wilham Harrison, went to a saloon on Girard avenue. Defendant there met a certain John Hart, a hotorious counterfeiter, and they went out together. In a few moments Harrison was called out, I have the descriptions of counterfeiters. Defendant had a package of counterfeit money, 250 50, in 25 cent notes, and gave it to Harrison as they thought it saiest. They cleared out, out were so n after arrested. They dropped the money on the pavement, but if was taken care of by the officers. I be detected allege that notendant was employed by Tryon, a detective of the Mayor, to find out this man tiart, in order to arrest and convict him. Tryon tes-ified that he had given him twenty dollars with which counterfeit money was to be bought from thart, so that he could be found. Still on trust. The Grand Jury came in, and having stated that there was no other business before them, were disharged from further attendance. District Court No. 1-Judge Hare,-Goorge Birstrict Court No. 1—Judge Haro.—George Barnes to Barnes vs. Dannes Buck. An action against de-endant as endorser of a certain promissory note, Selvic reported. Verdict for defendant.

GENERAL MCCLELLAN, -The Gincinnati Folksblott, of May 25, says: - From our items of Euro-pean news to-day our readers will observe that pean news to-day our readers will observe that a rumor is circulatine in Germany that in case of war the ci-decont "Little Napoleon," McClei-lan, who at present solourns in Dresden, will be appointed Commander in Chief of the Saxoz army. We would propose to appoint him as drill-master of the Federal contingent which the principality of Lichtenstein-Vacuz will have to broads. Be would certainly make a ditter drillsergeant than general.

"The dealings in Eric con inne large, and the street is full of rumors. The s atemont that there as an over-issue of stock is denied with emphasis by its leading Director and by other members of the Board. A meeting is called for to-day (Wednesday), and it is as stated that important business will be presented to the Board. The road has a large floating debt, and its may treffic is reperted as worse than that for April. The Company is at issue with the Fennsyl, vanis Ceal Company, its leading outdoner in 1836, and, though it has made a large reduction in its facer bill, is probably not carbing money enough to continue dividence. Upon the common stock they have not been sarned for some time, and it will not be a matter of surprise if the dividend upon the pre-teried shares is omitted. The corporation is in what way, and needs a thorough overhauling by a new direction.
