BRITISH INVASION OF VERMONT.

The British Troops Across the Line-Statement of Colonel Livingston, United States Army, on the Subject-An American Woman Shot by the British-The Fenian Prisoners at St. John's Maltreated, Etc.

St. Albans, June 11.-The aworn statements of George W. White, of North Cambridge, and Bernard Manning, of Sommerville, Mass., to the effect that the British crossed the line and cap-Fenian stragglers, are corroborated. Hart's statement that one man was killed on this side of the line needs confirmation. The whole number of Fenians captured was seventeen, five of whom were of Captain Grace's company, Colonel Livingston, United States Army, in his report to Major Gibson, does not positively denyithe crossing, bu it is his impression that they did not. The following is the substance of Colonel Livingston's report to Major Gibson:-He states that he had his men stationed about five yards on this side of the line. There reed behind a considerable number of straggling Feniaus upon the Canadian side of the line after the withdrawing of the main forces, and these men evidently remained for the pur pose of plundering. Some of them stationed themselves on the road, and prevented citizens from crossing either way.

During the afternoon they were charged upon by a company of Canadian cavalry, upon whom the Fenians fired, and then throwing away their muskets, endeavored to get upon the American side of the line. Some of them suc-ceeded in reaching it, but others took to the woods, and one was captured by the British. As the cavalry neared the United States troops they were compelled to rein in, otherwise all of the Fenians would have been taken. The Fenians only reached the line a few yards in advance of the English troops. Colonel Liv-ingston reports that the main body of the Fenians were quiet and orderly; but the few who remained did so purposely to pillage. The stragglers were loaded with spoils, which Colonel Livingston took possession of, and which will be returned, so far as possible, to the proper owners. The goods are now in the hands of responsible citizens on the American side, and will be given up to parties proving John Reynolds, of Cheisea, Mass.; John Mc-Geary, of Bos'on; and Captain Kennedy, 3d Cavalry, saw Thomas Madden shot by citizens of Canada on the other side of the line, and saw him pursued and captured on this side of the line, on Saturday atternoon, between 3 and 4 o'clock. The man who had his hand cut off was a member of Captain Grace's company, trom Lowell.

The number of prisoners captured by the Canadians from General Spear's command is re-ported to be sixteen. Mrs. Eccles, an American woman, the wife of John Eccles, at whose house General Spear established his headquarters while at Camp Sweeney, Canada, was shot dead last night by a British soldier on her way to a well to draw water. The Canadians, suspicious that Femans were still lurking about that vicinity, and imagining that some were concealed in the house, set a strong guard around the house, and when Mrs. Eccles attempted to cross the field to the well she was challenged. Not answering, she was mistaken for a Fenian and shot dead. She was a native of Massachusetts. Her husband is an Irish Canadian. While Gene ral Spear occupied their premises as headquar

Two companies 3d Artillery, United States regulars, consisting of one hundred and twenty-five men, under command of Colonel Wildrick, left here at noon to-day for Malone. A well-known citizen, residing in Vermont, near Canada, named Mulloney, has made affidavit that he saw British troops on the American side of the boundary line capturing Fenians, and carrying them back to Canada. Mulloney's veracity is vouched for by ex-Governor Smith and other responsible citizens. The Fenian prisoners were carried from St. Armand through St. John's for Montreal this morning. They were strongly guarded, and subjected to many rude taunts and insults from the Canadians. One boy was badly maltreated. Nine bundred British troops went into St. John's Nine hundred British troops went into St. John's this morning from Montreal. It is the impression that the prisoners will be tried, and either shot or hung.

Colonel O'Neill arrived to-night and has had consultations with Generals Sweeney and Spear and other Fenian officers. At a general meeting of officers this atternoon General Sweeney made a feeling address, which was cordially responded to by all the officers present. General Meade, Major Gibson, and other United States officers are still here, watching the interests of the Government. General Sweeney's examination will be fixed in a day or two. The question of international comity and neutrality may be discussed in a novel and interesting form.

Terrible Catastrophe - Seven Children Killed and Nine Wounded.

From the Charleston Courier, June 7.

One of the most heart-rending and appaling catastrophes which we have ever been called upon to record occurred at the village of Bam berg, on the Augusta branch of the South Caro lina Railroad, seventy-siximiles from Charleston, between three and four o'clock Tuesday afternoon, by which nearly every family of that village has been thrown into the deepest gloom and mourning. The scene of this distressing occurrence was about three hundred yards from the depot, in a two-story frame building, known as Allen Lodge of Freemasons, lately used as a school-house by Mr. Robert Seabrook and his sister, the former having charge of the male, sister, the former having charge of the male, and the latter of the female department.

Into this building some eighteen of the scholars, boys and girls, had assembled about three o'clock for the purpose of joining in a festive party given by the young misses to their youthful male friends. While in the act of spreading a table with refreshments, candies, cakes, etc., the building was struck by a violent gale of wind or tornado from the west, which passed over the village taking a porthessially passed over the village, taking a north-easterly direction, sweeping trees, fences, and everything else before it. The chimney was carried away at the same time that the roof was rent asunder An attempt was made by George W. Patrick, one of the older boys, to open the door, but that was found to be so jammed as to defy removal. Another of the youths, Charles Stewart, then proposed to escape by the windows, and jumped out for the purpose of assisting the others, when the whole building fell, killing young Stewart and five others instantly, and wounding ten others, one of whom expired shortly after reachme. The following are the names and ages of the killed:-Master Angus M. Brabbham, aged 15 years, son of Major J. J. Brabbham; Miss Hattle Brabb ham, aged 14 years, daughter of Hampton Brabbham, Esq.; Master Charles Stewart, aged 16 years, son of Hansford Stewart, Esq.; Miss Urbanna Rentz, aged 10 years, daughter of Mrs. Emma Rentz, lately removed from Orangeburg; Miss Euphrasia Hoffman, aged 15 years, daughter of E. G. Hoffman, Esq.; Master Ellmore Sanders, aged 16 years, son of Jabez Sanders, Esq.; Master Charles Simmons, aged 6 years, son of A. E. Simmons, Esq. The following are the names of the wounded:—George W. Patrick, severely; James Rennett, severely; Miss Annie Rennett, severely; Miss Sallie Brabbham, severely; Miss Little Stater Julia Slater, severely; Miss Hoffman, severely; Thos. Rivers, severely; and two others slightly, whose names we did not learn. Only two of the party escaped entirely unburt. Most of those who were saved were found where they had crept under the school benches upon which the timbers had rested after the alling of the building.

The bodies of both the living and the dead were either covered or wedged in between the heavy timbers, and required the use of axes to

WALNUT STREET THEATRE—A New Way to Pay Old Debts besongs to the Shakespean an age. The play, in power, in distinct delineation of character, has Shakespean an poetic imagery of the Elizabe han age. "Sir Glies Overreach" is a new revelation of Booth's genius—the greatest and most artistic of all we have seen. The supendous villany, so intense, so utterly remorseless, becomes so imposing as to wrench forth admiration even while we are shuddering. Booth gave all the power of Luc for to the character—all the fearlessness Ye, after all, he was but a man of the world trampling down all obstaces for one ambition—the meanest of all—rank and sehemes, a mere child defeas him. Booth's expression of face was appaining as it expressed the contending passions which swayed him; the changes in his manner wonderful, but in the last act, where all is over, where he is folied. Booth rose to what, according to the Greeces, is the grandest effect of tragedy-ter or. The very audience shrunk from the tornado of passion, stopped only by the terrific visitation of paralysis, which brought the vaunting, righless, re-entless bold, bad man to the dust. Never was this horrible visitation pessented in its truthfulness and distortion as Boota represented it. Truly Booth has genius, troly he is an artist and never was he more fully appreciated than last might. This evening he will play 'Hamlet' for the twentieth time.

TEUTONIC FESTIVALS,- Yesterday was TEUTONIC FESTIVALS.— 1 esterday was devot d to amusements by our German population, and lager beer and Rhine wine flowed plenicously, as usual on such occasions, but we observed but few intexicated persons, which is not usual when Americans congregate in large bodies. These Sængerfests are simply held to revive the recollection of Faderland. Early in the morning large numbers repaired to Washington Betreat, where they spont the day in innocent diversions. A similar scene was presented at $\pi\text{mith's Island}$, where Mr. Lakemyer had made preparations to make his guests comfortable. There was a usic (both vocal and instrumver had made preparations to make his quests com-fortable. There was a nice (both vocal and instru-mental) during the course of the day, and the island was visited by great numbers, especially in the after-noon and evening. This, conducted upon the excel-lent principles adopted at present, will be a popular place of resort during the summer. Mr. Lakemyer gives it his own personal supervision, and sees to is that perfect order is observed in all the departments. No improprieties of any kind are permitted.

THE EMANCIPATION PROCLAMATION .-Some weeks ago we published a minute description of Mr. Carpenter's great national picture of our martyred President reading his Emancipation Proclamation to his Cabinet. An exquisite steel engraving, by A. H. Kichie, of New York, has just been issued by the Derby & Miller Pub ishing Company, and Mr. T. B. Push, at Sixth and Chesnut streets, has been selected as the agent for this city. The correctness of the munificative vonebed for by the The correctness of the painting is vouched for by the certificates of Secretaries Seward, Stanton, Welles, and all who were present in that memorabe conclave. The city will be thoroughly canvassed, so as to give all an opportunity to secure a copy of this fine work of art. It will be disposed of only to succribers, and as it is placed at an exceedingly low price, it should meet with a large and. price, it should meet with a large sale. Every family

The interior of the structure is tastefully decorated with various floral devices, among which a large bouquet, some eight feet high, formed on the most elegant and fragrant flowers, is a prominent object. Several articles will be voted for during the continuance of the festival, conspicuous among which are a full regalia of the United American Mechanics, and a silver-mounted base hall hat. AN UNMITIGATED NUISANCE.-A citizen pelled to wait several times to allow a long train of pelled to wait several times to allow a long train of carriages and wagons to pass along the sidewalk. Should a person attempt to pass quickly, the chances are ten to one that he will, as a gentemen was this morning at Second and Chesnut streets, be splashed with mud from head to foot. This practice of driving vehicles without any intervening space is directly contrary to the city ordinance, and the police offi-cers are often derelict in their duties for not strictly enforcing the salutary restrictions. The right of the crossing belongs to foot passengers, not to wagons, though many drivers will, doubtless, have to pay the fine before they practically act on this judicial de-

THE GRAND FAIR AT CONCERT HALL. Last evening was a memorable day for the Metho-dist Church of this city. For many days the congredist Church of this city. For many days the congregations have been busy preparing goods for the opening. Their efforts were beautifully apparent last night in the richly decorated departments, and in the tables that groaned beneath the weight of the many offerings. A fine band was present, and the thousands present for hours promenaded past the offerings of the various churches. The opening address of Bishop Simpson was a peculiarly felicitous and humorous one. The inauguration was as it deserves to be—a perfect success.

ROBBERY OF A COLORED VETERAN .- OD ROBBERY OF A COLORED VETERAN.—On Saturday morning a colored man, belonging to Mercetsburg, Pa., who had served over three years in the army at the ironi, came to this city for work. Not familiar with the streets, he was conducted to a house which he cannot now describe. Here his trunk was broken open on Sunday morning; $165 and a new suit of clothes were stolen. Cornelius Brown, a white man, was discovered attempting to escape with the clothing. He was pursued and arrested at Sixth and Chestnut streets. He was held in $1500 to answer the charge of larceny by Alderman Beitler.

CUNNING TRICK OF A SNEAK THIRF .-CUNNING TRICK OF A SNEAK THIRF.—
The dwelling No. 1828 Spruce street was yesterday being repainted and refitted. In the morning a man stepped into the entry, and doffing his coat spoke to the servant girl about being ready to paint the whole house. Suspecting nothing, she allowed him to jern the painters above. He did so, and as he there rambled about the door locks they thought him a lock-smith. He managed to pass unobserved into a servant's room, and to burst open a trunk. He stole fifty-nine dollars in cash, a go d ring, a couple of gold studs, and a lot of small articles, and escaped undetected with his plunder.

DEMISE OF A JOURNALIST.-It is our painful duty to record the death of Mr. Benjamin Mifflin, which occurred on Sunday even ng, at his late residence, S. Twenty-first street. Mr. Mifflu hate residence, S. Twenty-list street. Mr. Miffin was sixty-nine years of age. In early life he was a partner with the Hon. Simon Cameron, in the pablication of the Doylestown Democrat, and afterwards for several years was one of the publishers of the Daily Pennsylvanian. Mr. Miffin was an excellent pentieman, and leaves many friends who will delight in doing honor to his memory.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY IN A TAVERN .-John Puzer and Theodore Baker, in company with two others, were carousing yesterday in a tavern in Poplar street, near Twelth Becoming drunken with the fiery liquor dealt out to them they assaulted the landlord and his wife and severely beat them. The two individuals named above were arrested and held to answer the charges of assault and battery and waitelous mischlet.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH FAIR, WEST PHILADELPHIA—I his Fair comm-need last evening and was very fully attended, almost too much so for comfort. It will continue during the whole of the present week, with constant additions to the stock in trade. Those who wish to visit this exhibition of articles can take the Market street cars to Thirty-ninth street, thence to Walnut, where they are upon the spot.

No Honor Amone Thirves.—Last evening a testive company gathered at the dwelling No 1221 Poplar street. Among those present vere a squad of four persons who, taking advantage of the gateties of the occasion, found their way to the upper stories. One of the gang, Andrew Long, was caught white attempting to abscend with a quancit clothing, but his companions all escaped. He was held in $1000 bail by Alderman Bowsell.

A NUISANCE.-An inlet situated at the not hwest corner of Sixteenth and Swain has been choked up for this week past, and a green scum has collected on the surface of the water. In these days when the advent of an epidemic is dreaded by many, the highway authorities cannot be too vigilant in all measures affecting the health of the residents of all sections of our city. sections of our city.

THIRTEENTH WARD.—Subscriptions are solicited to procure uniforms for Company £ 1924 Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers, who are about to reorganize, and intend participating in the cole-bration on the coming 4th of July. This company was credited to the Thirteenth Ward, and were the means of filling up the quota in the list draft. The officers intend to make the company permanent; it is to be attached to Colonel William B Thomas' Regiment, now being reorganized. Subscriptions received at this office.

SELLING LIQUOR TO MINORS.-In every community there is a class of men who are too lazy to work for a hying, too afraid of the punishments of the law to become daring criminals, and yet who will riolate the dicates of humanity without the least compunction. Among these latter may be classed those who sell their vile laquor compounds to young boys. Yesterday for thus offending, Frederick Lesser, of No. 1635 Ridge avenue, was committed by Alderman Fitch.

CAUTION TO STORRKEEPERS.—The police officers on the night patrol frequently find the doers of stores upon their beats left entirely unfastened. Were it not for their patient efforts night after night, in carefully pretecting these beedless merchants, the proprietors would find their shelves well night empty by morning. Last night, with'n a few squares on Market street, three stores were found unsecured, offering temptations to would-be burglars.

Latest Fenian News.

BUFFALO, June 12 .- A grand mass meeting o Fenians will be held at St. James Hall, this evening. The meeting is occasioned primarily by the introduction of the resolution in Congress yesterday, to instruct the Committee on Foreign A ffairs to inquire into the expediency of reporting a bill to repeal the neutrality act of 1818. This action gives new life to the Fenian movement, and a very enthusiastic meeting is expected. The Fenian Senator Scanlan, of Chicago, arrived here yesterday. The revolutionary committee of the Irish Republic have published a stirring appeal to the Irish of Buffalo, and to ;all lovers of republican liberty.

"Let the Irish t itizens in particular send in commissary stores . such as bread, meat, coffee, sugar, etc .- just wh'at each man would like at home. We want all the money we can raise for other purposes. What these purposes are the people can guess. La it no person imagine that the cause is defeated, or that men who have sworn to free their , sative land, or die, will abandon their cause be cause a few over-zealous officials have placed som a obstacles in our way. The voice of the great American people is at last heard in the halls of Congress-not from a single individual, but from representatives of thirty millions, and true to their natural instincts they have raised their voice s for the oppressed. God bless them! They will rouse many an anxious spirit throughout the world, and make tyrants tremble on their thro ne as the cry goes forth :- 'America is the defea der of liberty ! Let the people take heart thron ghout the land. call meetings, pass resolutions, and pledge their support to men who lascribe upon their banners 'Universal liberty.' Be patient, but work! work! Collect money, have your men ready, and when the cry of battle goes forth, let them come as individuals, if they cannot come as companies or regiments. A large number of Fenians from Malone have trived here, having been furnished with transportation from there to Buffalo by General Meade. Our citizens are beginning to feel uneasy at the collection of such a large body of Fenians here, though they have behaved exremely well se far. General Barry, late yesterday afternoon, received authority to give transportation to the Fenians who desire to go further West and could not pay their passage, on their giving their parole not to attempt the invasion of Canada. We understand very few availed themselves of the offer.

Important to Ship Captains.

RESTORATION OF NAUTICAL INSTRUMENTS CAP -TURED BY THE REBEL PIRATE "SHENANDOAH. The Navy Department announces that shipmasters or owners, whose chronometers were captured by the Anglo-Rebel crusier Shenan-doah, can obtain them by filing certificates of ownership at the office of T. S. Negus & Co., Chronometer makers to the U.S. Navy, No. 100 Wall street, New York City. When the Shenan-doah was surrendered at Liverpool, Captain Waddell turned over to the British authorities fifty-one chronometers and a number of sextants, and other nautical instruments, which our Consul forwarded to the United States to be returned to the original owners. The list of owners furnished by Waddell seems to be incomplete, as several shipmasters have laid claim to instruments not mentioned in his list, which they assert were taken from their vessels by order of Capt. Waddell. It is possible that he may have disposed of them before reaching Liverpool. Claimants must present an affidavit at the office of Messrs. Negus, setting forth the time and place of the capture, the number of the instruments, maker's name, which, if correspond-ing instruments be found among those in pos-

the Navy Department, and an order will given for the restoration of the property. - Colonel W. E. Buckner died at his residence. New Oxford, Miss., a few days ago, after an ill-session of the Government, will be forwarded to ness of several months. -Memphis city warrants are selling at sixty cents on the dollar. Two or three months ago they commanded ninety to ninety-five.
