

SUMMER FASHIONS.

Ladies' Bonnets, Dresses, Cloaks, and Shawls—Styles for the Season. The milliners have produced more novelties than usual in the styles of bonnets this season.

BONNETS. The fashionable bonnet appears to have reached the smallest possible size, if it is to remain a bonnet, and in truth is now little more than a tuft of hair and a pair of gossamer lace.

SUMMER DRESSES. Gored dresses are still the prevailing style, even in thin and such material which needs stiff lining.

CHILDREN'S DRESSES. The styles for children's dress are more becoming than formerly, and are better adapted for the preservation of health.

ROBES. There is now quite a variety of novelties in froulards for robes. The froulard Patti, with a border of musical notes; the froulard Oriental, with a double palm-leaf upon a rich colored or black or white ground work.

CLOAKS AND SHAWLS. In the styles for summer cloaks there are many shapes, and various modes of trimming. The burnous cloaks are very graceful and stylish.

American Machinery Abroad. The London Times and the largest English newspapers are printed by Hoe's presses, American reapers and other agricultural implements take the lead in England.
