FEARFUL RIOT IN CAMDEN - FOUR N SEVERALY WOUNDED -Two colored Sunday bria—yesterday atternoon visited the Diamond Cottage Garden, in Camden, on a picuic. The at-tendance for the most part was of the respectable ies, but there was a goodly sprinking of roughs, th back and white. A dispute arose among them the ber-room, about 7 o'clock in the evening, during which several blows were struck. The whole affair was of that free and-easy character that renders it almost impossible to tell exactly how it

Several colored men were also injured, two of them in a serious manner, these were Isaiah White and Edward Johnson. They we e both sent over to this city, by order of Mayor Budd, to have their wounds properly cared for in hospital. This morning the Mayor commenced an investigation into the affair, which, taken altogether, was one of the most discreceful and disastrous that has oc-curred in Camden in a long time.

THE FIREWORKS ON THE FOURTH .- It will be remembered that the place of exhibition of the Fireworks, on the evening of the Fourth of July, has been changed from Fairmount Park to July, has been changed from Fairmount Park to Bload and Market streets.

The programme has not yet been fully prepared, but the display will be magnificent. The concluding piece will be of unequalled spendor. It will extend entirely across the street, and will consist of a column on either side, surmounted with portraits of Washington and Lancoln.

A splendid American flag will adorn the centre, over which will appear the motto, "Our flag still waves" Beneath this flag will be a minute and claborate representation of the flag presentation in the Square.

THE JOHNSON CONVENTION A FAILURE. The State Johnson Conven ion was to have taken place this morning, at 10 o'clock, at Sansom Street Hall. Thither our reporter repaired, for the purpose of taking notes or proceedings. After waiting some time, a gathering of some twenty or twenty-five persons assembled, and the crowd not increas-ing, Mr. Martin, of Delawaie county, was called to the chair. He stated that a number of delegates ex-pected had not arrived, and after the transaction of a small amount of unimportant business, the meet-ling adjourned. ing adjourned.

THE ORPHAN GIRLS AND THE PARADE To-nonnow —In anticipation of a very warm day, and in order that the ore han girls of occeased soldiers should not be unnecessarily faligued, the general Committee of Arrangements decided this morning that these girls shall not take near an experimental decided the morning that these girls shall not take near an experimental decided the morning that these girls shall not take near an experimental decided the morning that these girls shall not take near an experimental decided the morning that the second statement of the second s ing that these girls shall not take part in the parade to-morrow, but will be privately conveiled to independence Square, and provided with sears. This is a very creditable arrangement, and will undoubtedly prevent much sickness among these children, who would otherwise be exposed to the burning ways of the way for several hours. rays of the sun for several hours.

LOOK OUT FOR THEM .- It is well known to the United States detectives that certain part e have been engaged for some time past in manufacturing counteriet: $10 notes on at least one National Bank, and that the first attempt to oass them in this city will take place this evening and during to-morrow, when the immense crows and great excitement will afford a fair field of operations. The name of the bank or banks used on these notes has not been as certained, but the public are cautioned to carefully examine all tens offered this evening and to morrow.

SPLENDID SUMMER RETREAT.-Those who wish to spend a few hours, days, or weeks at the seaside for recreation, can be handsomely and comfortably accommodated at the well-known Surf House, At antic City. The proprietor has recently purchased a new grand plane, which has been placed in the ladies' parlor, and the Satterlee General ticepital Band of this city has been regularly engaged to sive concert and cotillion music during afternoon and evening.

IMPORTANT TO FIREMEN.-This evening, at eight o'cloc's, there will be a meeting of the dele-gates of the several fire companies who are to parcompany, and is called for the purpose of complet-ing the arrangements for the parade.

"CRESCENT CITY."—A detached balloon ascension will be made from the Academy of Music lot, July 4 at 6 P. M. Cable ascensions, parachutes, small balloons, and a variety of other attractions will form a part of the day's programme at the enclosure. Admission twenty-five cents.

Panama, and in good condition. 3 A letter from the Guif Squadron, deted Jane 12, says: "I have reliably ascertained that the State forces of Tamaulipas are en route from the city of Victoria for Tampico, with about 1000 men of all arms, and judging from the weak condition of its detenses I have not the slightest doubt but that the expedition will be attended with success; and as the French predecessors of the present commandant had consigned so many Mexicans to the scaffold without a trial, or even the form of a trial, it has created a desperate sentiment of resenge in the minds of those who are soon expected to be masters of the city; and I am, therefore, apprehensive that fearful scenes of disorder will be witnessed." The reads from Tampico to the interior cities are entirely in the hands of the Liberals, and they have lately been extremely successful on the West Coast. It is said that General Carona new holds the important city of Guadalajara, with a torce of seven thousand men, in the name of Juares.

SENATOR LANE OF KANSAS. DETAILS OF THE TRAGEDY-HOW THE DEED WAS COMMITTED—THE NATURE OF THE WOUND—THE PATIENT MAY LINGER, BUT CANNOT RECOVER,
LEAVENWORTH, July 2.—Schafor Lane came up

In a packet-kine, learing it hight be used for the fatal purpose.

On Sabbath afternoon he desired to ride out, Mr., McCall brought up his carriage, and invited Mr. Adams to ride with them. After getting to the carriage, Lane expressed a desire to return to his room, for his cane, refusing to allow any one to go for him. Returning with his cane, they drove upon the heights overlocking the fort and city. Lane entered freely and cheerfully into the conversation, remarking

THE CAUSE OF THE SUICIDE.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—Jim Lane divid of Andy Johnson. He went from here to Kans' is, impressed with the delusion that his support of 'ne President was so acceptable to the people of that' is tate that he could carry it for Johnson's policy by 5000 majority. His first appearance upon the street of Lawrence shocked him with a sense of his terrible error. In the town where he had once walked a monarch, no man spoke to him. Old Monds passed him without recognition on the side owalk. On horseback, in the principal street, he rode unrecognized and rejected. He went to his house and sent for many of his old friends to cover and see him. They returned answer that they wished to have no intercourse with him. Two days after his arrival, Representative Clark came 170%. Washington. What a contrast and what a lesson 1 A vast crowd met and welcomed him with must, and flars. A public meeting applicated to him the love and the support of Kansas. Humiliated, smitten with remorse, and utterly desperate, he no terminated at once his life and his careez in Johnson politics.—N. Y. Tribune. Lane at present than ever shown.

from St. Louis on Friday last, and went directly to the residence of Mr. McCall upon the Government farms. Before leaving St. Louis, his conversation. most moderate terms. The bar will always be supp'ied with the choicest of wines, ! louors, and cigars, intimated a determination to suicide, causing him to te closely watched, his triends getting possession of his pocket-knife, fearing it might be used for the overiocking the fort and city. Lane entered freely and cheerfully into the conversation, remarking upon the beauty of the city and landscape.

On returning they had to pass through a gatew that separated two fields. McCail alighted to open the gate. I me stepped down from the carriage at the same imbo, passing around to its rear, said, "Good-bye, ser themen," and instantly discharged a pistol with its muzzle in his mouth. The ball passed out at the top of his head, near the centre of his skull, producing a fatal wound. There has been a consultation of six physicians at Lane's room to day. Nothing can be done for him. All he is gone. Mrs. Lane is with him. He may lingo', two or three days yet, but it is doubtful. He hi is not opened his eyes since last night, but prew less his wife's hand, and is furnished with small p' noes of ice when he puts his tongue out, this being ' he only sign of conscionsness he shows.

There is much feeling here, and more against Lane at present than ever shown.
