Burning of a Negro in Georgia.

An Augusta (Ga.) dispatch of the 2d instant stated that a negro had been burned at the stake near Macon. The following order from General Woods throws a light on the affairs:-HEADQUARTERS DEPATRMENT OF THE SOUTH,

MACON, GA. July 5, 1866—It has been officially reported to the Comman ing General that one Pompey O'Banuon, confined at Toomsboro, Wilkinson county, Georgia on a charge of murder, was taken from legal custody by a mob. and put to death with

THE CASE OF SPANGLER. - The Washington correspondent of the Boston Post writes:-

"In consequence of the new developments regarding the testimony given in the assassination trial, efforts are about being made to obtain the release of Spangler, of Ford's Theatre, who was sent to the Dry Tortugas, being found guilty of being accessory after the fact in the murder Mr. Lincoln. Spangler, however, is known to ask for a civil trial rather than a pardon, being more desirous, he says, of establishing his innocence than of merely obtaining his release. It would be a rich treat for those who love to follow the intricacies of conflicting testimonies to see the witnesses who swore at the old peniten tiary under protection, subject to an unfettered cross-examination in a free court of law."

A BUTTER MACHINE. - A machine for making butter is one of the new inventions in England. It consists of a movable metal cylinder, suspended from a small cast iron frame. The bottom of the cylinder is a loose piece of galvanized iron, and above it the cylinder is perforated by a number of small holes. The cylinder is sus pended in a bowl of water, and the butter is placed in the cylinder and pressed by a screw piston, the result of which is that the butter is forced through the holes into the water in the shape of vermicalli. By this means all the buttermilk is excluded, and the butter is found to be much closer and sweeter than when made

The Squibs Murder.—One of the supposed murderers of the Squibb family, whose name is Jackson Clarke, and who is at present has established his innocence, and will be for mally discharged in a short time. He was arrested in the vicinity of the murder, mainly because about $250 were found on his person. It has been ascertained from several disin-terested persons that on the night of the murder he was in Towsontown, Md.; and the money, it has been discovered, is his own. The prisoner hails from the State of Virginia.

THE PORTLAND FIRE.

Appeal from the Sufferers.

Contributions for the homeless inhabitants of the burned city are forwarded from all parts of the country. The following appeal has been issued from Portland:-

"The inhabitarts or Portland, smitten by a more terrible disaster than has ever fallen upon any American town of like population, are constrained to at peal to their countrymen, whom God has prospered, to help them in this great calamity.

"The undersigned are a sub-committee appointed by a representative committee or all the religious societies in the place, to solve and receive contribu-tions for the relief of our suif rers.

"We would fain have waited a day or two till we could present more format and counite statements of our losses and our wants out already we are cheered by many generous gifts from accord, an inpating our appeal, and earnest inquiries come to us from our sister cities and towns, in this state and beyond, to know want we want, and what they can do to belp us.

"We hasten to answer, respectfully but implor-ingly, that we need contributions of money in targe amount, and as soon as may be.

"Many housands or our people are home.ess. The first necessaries of look and temporary she ter were supplied by the activity of our own citizens and the prompt kindness of the neighboring towns, great veaded by the use of quartermaster's stores, uncer the immediate and generous sanction of the Secretary of War. But every hour is revealing a thousand dis-tressing wants, which can only be supplied by the judicious application of cash resources in large aggregate amount.

"I bousanes of the sufferers have not a change of clorbing, nor a bed nor a bianket. Never was a conflagration so completely destructive, wreat numbers of families have nothing left. Large quantities of household goods and other property were ren oved again and again to places of supposed salety, but devoured by the flames at ast.

"Our hearts bleed for the aged men and women, for the many hundreds of little children, and for the helpless sick, who has to pass through the horrors of that dreadful night, and now have

We cannot exaggerate this calamity. Sympaone friends, who have come in from other places declare that all rumors of the disaster were far short of the frightful ren ity.

"A space of more than one hundred and fifty acres in the very heart or our city, but yesterday covered with beautiful dwellings, with warehouses, stores, manufactories, and a far e number of public edifices, is now a desolate and appalling waste. This conflagration raged more than twelve hours without connagration rigot more than sweet hours without any check, and stopped only when it reached the vacant lands outside of the city. More than six miles of streets, but yesterday closely lined on both sides with buildings, and through by a busy, happoy people, now scarcely afford lootpaths through the universal ruin. We attempt to find where the homes of our friends were standing three days ago, and we less questions in a wilderness, without one lose ourselves in a wilderness without one inmiliar object for a guide.

"To relieve the innumerable distresses of our homeless women; to sustain our lavoring men and women while they are waiting employment; to prevent, as far as possible, the separation of families to cheer the hearts of hundreds who at this moment can do nothing but hover over their groups of intto children; to assist those who will soon erect numble owellings on the sites of their lost homes, and to the burden of restoring these wastes, we need ail such pecuniary contributions as the charity and good judgment of those who see this appeal may prompt them to give.

"Such is the activity of our people, and their disposition to take care of themselves, that, with friendly help for a time, they will soon rise above this calamity; but the great number of cases to be reheved demand large contributions.

"Countrymen! Friends! Christians! We know that you will help us. We rely on the impulses of your patrione brotherhood—on the mercles of your Christian sympathy. Humbly and thankfully we acknowledge that we are still under the lavor of Almighty God, and we are still under the lavor of Almighty God, and we are sure that He will dispose your hearts to work with him for our relief, stemmetz were before the Court this morning on a charge of forcible entry.

Einsthau Petit, the prosecutor, having made a contract with Bernard H Hulseman for the purchase of a property in the Twenty-third Ward, moved on the place about the 2d of April, during the absence of Hulseman. The contract was, that on the 1st day of April the deed for the property abould be given, and the money should be peremptorily paid down.

should be given, and the money should be peremptorily paid down.

The deed was presented, but Mr. Petit had failed to raise the money. However, he moved his annity and furniture on the premises. He commenced to make large improvements on the place costing some $700 or $800. At was alleged that Mr. Hulseman knew that this was going on, and even aided Mr. Petit in arranging affairs on the place and getting settled. On the 27th of April, it was alleged, Bernard H. Hulseman and the other deiendants proceeded to the place while Mr. Petit was absent, and forcibly entered the house, and placed his family and furniture out in the road.

The defense is that Mr. Petit had possession, but not right of possession. That there had been certain agreements made between the parties, the fulfilment of the conditions of which would entitle the prosecutor to right and legal ownership. But the prosecutor failed to comply with the conditions, and, notwithstanding proceeded to take possession
