Resignation of Postmaster-General Denison-His Reasons for Taking this Step. WASHINGTON, July 12 .- It is now positively ascertained that Postmaster-General Denison yesierday tendered the resignation of his office to the President. This was done in writing. The reason for this course, as stated by Mr. Denison himselt, is a difference of political views. It will be recollected that he was the President of the Union Republican Convention which renominated Mr. Lincoln for the Presidency at Baltimore, never intending otherwise than to adhere to the party whose principles it represented; and as the call for the Philadelphia Convention is in antagonism to that organiza-tion, there was no other course left to him toan to retire from the Cabinet. While his personal relations with the President are undisturbed and friendly, the separation is entirely because of a conflict of political views."

THE GREAT FIRE IN NEW ORLEANS. Burning of the Odd Fellows' Hall-Intersecial Courtestes-Generous Action of the Masonic Brotherhood, Etc.

Our readers will recollect that the magnificent Odd Fellows' Temple at New Orleans was totally destroyed by fire on the 4th inst. The loss was $400,000, upon which there was an insurance of $80,000. The New Orleans Times of the 7th inst. says:-

The ball-room of the Masonic Hall was filled last evening by the members of the I. O. O. F., pursuant to a call issued by the M. W. Grand Master. After a prayer by the R. W. Grand Chaplain, the meeting was declared open by the Grand Master for such business as might be lawfully brought before it. The following correspondence was then read:-

OFFICE OF THE M W. GRAND MASTER I. O. O. F., STATE OF LOUISIANA, NEW ORLEANS, July 5—10 M. Perkins, Esq. M. W. Grand Master, F. an t. A. W. M., State of Louisiana.—Sir:—I have the honor to acknowledge the rece p. of your esteemed favor of this date, and in behalf of the I. O. O. We should not have hesitated to avail ourselves of your considerate offer, had we not been able to secure rooms for the meeting of all Lodges. able to secure rooms for the meeting of all Lodges lately meeting in Odd Fellows' Hall. We accept your offer, however, in the same spirit in which it was tendered, and will call a general meeting of the Order in your Hall to morrow evening, at half-past 7

Rest assured we shall ever cherish with feelings of fraternal affection the kindness which prompted your action on this occasion. Receive, sir, the as-surances of my esteem and believe me very truly GEORGE NUNGESSER, Grand Master.

The Grand Master then stated that he had engaged rooms temporarily for the accommoda-tion of all the lodges lately meeting in the Hall, and that he would, during the evening, assign to the several lodges their several places of meeting. The following letter was then read from the President of the Home Mutual Insu rance Company:-

FROM THE RIO GRANDE.

Later from Matamoras -Arrival of Escobedo - Northern Mexico Redeemed

Harmony among the Liberals. MATAMORAS, June 25.—Yesterday, Escobedo, with his victorous troops, entered Matamoras, and was welcomed by the population in the midst of the wildest excitement, bells ringing, cannon firing, and amidst a great jubilee. The reign of the empire has passed forever from Northern Mexico. The republic, by one blow, has re-covered from the confines of Chihuahua to those the Gulf. Chihuahua, Coahuila. New Leon, and Tamsulipas are entirely without a foothold to the Imperialists, with the single exception of Tampico, in Tamaulipas, and Monterey, in New Leon, and these two places can hardly hold out but a few days longer.

The great advantage to the country will be the opening of the roads to supply all Northern Mexico with merchandise, and we may confidently look to a brisk trade, as from these States goods will spread into the interest. goods will spread into the interior.

Great credit is due to General Escobedo, who unceasingly has fought the invaders. His outmanœuvering the famous French General Donet, his late crushing defeat of Melia (the trump card of the Empire) at Camargo, and a natural consequence of that defeat, the surrender of Matamoras and the Rio Grands.

General Mejia, to save himself from the mordenoral siena, to save nimself from the mortification of surrendering to Escobedo, made arrangements with Carbaial, and got terms from him which would have been refused by Escobedo, who had him in a trap. Escobedo is master of the situation, and the greatest harmony prevails in the ranks of the Liberals.

The greatest order prevails, and bids fair to continue so. A new field for enterprise is open, and for; the Liberals a rallying point, from which we will soon see the issue of great events in the history of Mexico. General Escobedo has with him about 3000 well-armed men, and a very heavy park of artillery. In a short time this force will be doubled.—N. O. Times.

End of the Revolt at Puerto Principe-Proclamation of the Governor-General of Cuba-The Sugar Plantations-Commercial News.

HAVANA, July 7.—The public anxiety has been somewhat allayed by the insertion in the official organ of the Government, the assertion that the so-much-dreaded insurrection at Puerto Principe had been quelled and order restored. We give

OFFICE OF THE CIVIL AND POLITICAL GOVERN-MENT OF THE EVER-FAITHFUL ISLAND OF CUBA — In consequence of the cerebration of the vearly teast about this date, there has taken place an occurrence shout this date, there has taken place an occurrence which, although of little consequence, has an unple asant bearing to all concerned Public order was threatened on the afternoon of the 24 instant, at Puerto Principe. Fortunately the energy and well-taken measures of the Governor, as displayed in this emergency, were sufficient to preserve the public peace without recourse to extraordinary measures. People bore themselves in a very commendable way, as well as the individuals composing the garrison, therefore law and order will prevail

By order of his Excellence is the above inserted in the official organ of the city for general intelligence.

MANUEL PORTILLA, becretary, HAVANA, July 3, 1896.

It is universally known how to interpret similar documents issued by such a Government, under like circumstances, and it should go for what it is worth, especially when we bear in mind that the section of the country in which the revolt took place bore itself gloriously in freedom's cause in 1851. - N. #### THE SIOUX SUN DANCE. Description by Major-General Curtis-Barbarons and Horrible Rites-Stokening Details of Self-Torture.

Major-General Curtis writes to his wife, from Fort Sully, the following account of one of the horrible demonstrations of the Sioux Indians, which he witnessed recently near that Fort:-"FORT SULLY, June 2.—The whole of the three thousand Sioux encamped above us gave me early information of their design to have their annual sun dance at this time and place, the season of the year, the trees in rull lear, having now arrived; and they wished me to inform Colonel Recor, the commander of the soldiers, that however boosterous their demonstrations might be, they would all be peaceable and of a pious character.

"On yesterday, June 1, the dancing was de-layed at intervals to allow tortures to be indicted. Two or three men stood over the devotee with needle and knife, very quelly performing penance according to the customs of all these sacerdotal rites as follows:-"First, they cut the arms in several places by striking an awl in the skin, raising it and cutting out about balf an inch. This is done on both arms, and sometimes on the breast and back. Then wooden setons (sticks about the thickness of a common lead pencir) are inserted through a hole in the skin and flesh. Then cords or ropes are attached to these sticks by one end, and to the pole at the other end, the victim pulling on the ropes till the scient state terms. pailing on the ropes till the seton sticks tear out the flesh and skin. I saw one with two setons thus attached to his breast, pulling till it seemed to draw the skin out three inches, and finally requiring nearly his whole might to tear out the seton. One painted black had four ropes attached at once. The pulling out is done in the dance, the pulling carried on in the time of the music by lerk, jerk, jerk, and the eye, head, and front all sacing the sun in the form of supplication. One had four setons attached to four dry buffalo head bones.

"These were all strung and suspended to his flesh by ropes that raised each head some three feet oil the ground. He danced hard to sear them out, but they would not break the skin. One came off the stick accidentally, but it was again tastened. Finally these heavy weights (each at least twenty-ave pounds weight), not tearing out by their own weight and motion, the devotee gave a comrade a horse to take hold of the rope and tear out the setons. While these man were being thus toutened their own weight and more were being these toutened their own were being these toutened their own. men were being thus tortured, their female re-lations came in and had pieces cut out of their arms, to show their appreciation and valor, and devotion to their kinsman. Still, as soon as the victim could be prepared, the music was renewed and the dismal dance went on; the vic-tims' bodies now mingled with blood, paint, and

"There being several steamboats and many great crowd of spectators rathe embarrassed the performers, so they concluded the performance at 12 o'clock, having only danced twenty-tour hours instead of forty-eight, as they usually do. All the devotees gave away all their ponies and other valuables to their friends, had their wounds carefully dressed by attendant medicine men, and sat down to an abundant feast of dog soup and buffalo meat.
"So ended this most barbarous and painful ex hibition of savage idolatry. The picture is still deeply impressed on my senses, but I cannot give halt the norror of the scene, either by pen or pencil.

Murder Will Out-A Mystery Cleared Up. Over thirty years ago there was considerable excitement in Cecil county, Md., on account of the sudden disappearance of a widow lady, named Patty Pols, who resided about four miles from Elkton. She was last seen going into a thicket near her house where two men had just passed. All search for her was fruttless. After a reasonable time had elapsed, letters of adminstration on her effects were issued, and in settling up the estate, the administrator was unable to find a note drawn by one of the men who had been seen to go into the thicket. The note was known to have been in her possession a short time before her disappearance. This aroused the suspicions of some of the people, and the two men were arrested; but nothing could be proved against them, and they were discharged.

A number of years ago one of the suspected parties died, and last week it is reported that the other, being very ill, sent for a minister, to whom he made a free confession. According to popular rumor, the confession was to the effect that he, with the other party, sent to Mrs. Polk to meet them in a certain place, where they would pay the money on the notes, and they then failed to meet her. That they saw her on her way home, and knowing that she would pass through the thicket, they went into it and laid in ambush, and as soon as she appeared one knocked her on the head with a stick of wood, killing her. That they then placed her body in the midst of a wood pile, where they intended to let it remain, but it becoming noxious, they went to the pile with a box to remove the body, and found that the dog of the deceased had taken his place to watch over the corpse, and they were compelled to kill him before they could get the body, and that, after succeeding, they carried it in the box to where the Philadelphia Wilmungton and Feliciere Ferilage. phia, Wilmington, and Baltimore Railroad was being built, and placed it in the embankment. It is also stated that as soon as the man had made this disclosure he commenced to im-prove, and that he is now in a fair way of re-
