

MATTERS OVER THE RIVER.

THE SUPPOSED MURDER.—After a full and more searching investigation of the case of the old lady who was found dead on Tuesday morning near the Skating Park, Kaughn's Point, it is supposed that the most plausible cause of her death was from being run over while asleep by some passing vehicle. She had been drinking rather freely at the different groggeries in Centreville and Stockton, and on Monday night, evidently overcome by the effects of liquor, she was seen sleeping near the very place where her body was found the next morning, with her head entangled in a manner such as it would be had a wheel passed over it. Such is the present supposition; but the officers will use efforts to ascertain the guilty parties if any there are, who perpetrated the deed of murder, if it is ascertained that she came to her death by foul means.

ARREST OF A COUNTERFEITER.—Yesterday a man was arrested in Camden on a charge of being engaged in passing counterfeit money of the government, ten dollar bills, United States issue. He was taken before Justice Briggs, who committed him to answer at the October term of the County Court. There have recently been several of these notes in circulation in Camden and adjoining counties, and it is thought that parties are operating in disposing of them quite extensively.

AGAIN IN CUSTODY.—John Beck has again committed to jail, in consequence of his bail withdrawing. This boy stands convicted of having set fire to the barn of Mr. Hatch on the 15th of June, 1865, but his sentence was suspended with a view of using him as evidence in the implication of others by the State.

HANDSOME APPARATUS.—The Franklin Steam Fire Engine Company have procured a splendid new engine, which, on their reception of it in Camden, they housed with the Waccamoe Steam Fire Engine Company until it was polished up. It is a powerful machine, and susceptible of efficient service.

FIGHTING WITH RAZORS.—Two colored women were before Mayor Budd yesterday on a charge of a violent assault and battery on each other, and using razors in the fight. They were held in the sum of $200 each to answer at Court.

VACATIONS.—The public schools of Camden commenced their vacation on Monday, and will continue until the 1st of September. In the meantime some important repairs will be made to several of the school-houses.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

[For Additional Local Items see Third Page.]

CONNUBIAL FELICITY.—Late last evening cries were heard proceeding from a spot near the drove-yard at Hestonville. An officer rushed up to the spot, and round a cowardly braggart fellow, he found a wife, a son, a crying mother, etc., etc., and evidently had some shop of reason for so doing, as the man had a murderous-looking knife in his possession. Both of them were drunk. At the hearing before Alberman Allen they answered to the names of Thomas and Lizzie Hall. They had been married only seven months. His account of the affair was that his wife was drunk, and while walking along stumbled over a stone and went down in the road. That he thereupon undertook to take hold of her shoulder to help her upon her feet, but in mistake caught hold of her hair. He did not explain, however, how he could have known that his fist, and threatening to use his knife, and consequently held in bail by Alderman Allen to an amount of $100. Lizzie was fined for drunkenness. When released the "happy pair" went off together.

THE UNKNOWN DEAD—WHO ARE THEY?

Two unknown men died at the Eleventh Ward Station House on Tuesday. We give the following description of their appearance and dress in hopes that they may thus be identified by their friends:

One was aged about forty-five years; black hair, mixed with grey; goatee; wore black pantaloons and vest, linen coat, white shirt and undershirt, and low shoes. The other was about forty years old; 5 feet 7 inches in height; brown hair, and full whiskers; wore a striped coat and pantaloons, black vest, striped shirt, low shoes, and a Kossuth hat. He also wore a truss upon his body.

An unknown man also fell to the ground at Tenth and Vine streets last evening, from the effects of the heat. He was removed to a house near by, and soon after died. His hair and whiskers were grey; he wore two white shirts, woolen stockings, army shoes, and a Kossuth hat.

The Coroner has taken charge of all three of the bodies.

RIOTOUS BEHAVIOR.—Yesterday Thomas West, a rough-looking fellow, got into a speck of trouble at Cedar Hall, corner of Forty-first and Market streets. He was very violent in his language to those in the neighborhood, and had some difficulty with the bar-tender about paying for drinks. He got so outrageous finally that he was ordered out of the place. Instead of going, he commenced to demolish the glassware right and left. An officer was called in to arrest him, when he made a violent assault on him, and it was only after a severe struggle that he was secured and taken to the lock-up. This morning he was held in $700 to answer, by Alderman Allen.

COUP DE SOLEIL.—At 5 o'clock this morning, James Henry was found dead at the corner of Second and Master streets.

A man died suddenly at No. 1812 South Front street this morning, at 9:45 o'clock.

John Cooke, about seventy years, died suddenly at No. 1414 North Front street, at 9 o'clock this forenoon.

About 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon a very respectable looking young lady, while walking in the Park, fell from the effects of the heat in an insensible condition. She was taken to her residence, Shackamaxon street and Girard avenue.

OUTRAGEOUS CONDUCT.—An old man by the name of Conrad was arrested and taken before Alberman Hurley yesterday, charged with committing an assault, and attempt to outrage a little girl only 9 years old. The attempt was made in a solid wooden Camion Woods. Conrad is a man about 60 years of age, and gathers soap for a living, and is well known to the people in that neighborhood. The miserable wretch was held to answer in the sum of $200. It is to be hoped that he will be so severely dealt with, that there will be no such scenes in the future to disgrace our city.

HOUSE ROBBERY.—Yesterday morning, a youth named George Shock, only sixteen years old, and by profession a huckster, was taken before Alderman Cloud, charged with the larceny of a silver watch. It appears that this young man, in the pursuit of his calling, entered a house in Salmon street, above Oberlin, and finding the occupants temporarily absent, could not resist the temptation to possess the timekeeper. He was held in $600 bail to answer the charge.

PICKPOCKETS ABOUT.—Yesterday one of the light-fingered gentleman, named Monmouth, was arrested for picking the pocket of an old lady at the Vine Street Ferry wharf. When detected he had the pocket-book in his hand, but handed it to the woman. He was held to answer the charge.

James Pyne was arrested at Sixteenth and Aten streets on the charge of picking pockets. He was committed by Alderman Lutz in default of bail.

THE LIQUOR FRAUDS.—Charles A. Dolson and John Q. Rhoads, of No. 1616 Richmond street, against whom an information for forfeiture of property, on account of defrauding the revenue, was filed some time since, yesterday made their appearance in the United States District Court. They were each held in $1000 bail, to answer the charge of distilling without a license.

THE COMMERCE STREET FIRE.—A BRAGGART THEFT BY FIREMEN.—The building at No. 506 Commerce street, which was destroyed by fire this morning, was owned by Mr. J. K. Haskins, who resides outside the city. It was worth about $2,000, covered by an insurance in the Pennsylvania Fire Insurance Company. The loss of Mr. Robertis, the cooper who occupied the first floor, is about $1,000, with no insurance. Messrs. Mendenhall & Garrison, the carpenters who used the upper stories, have lost about $150, with no insurance. The damage to the neighboring buildings by the water is slight, and fully covered by insurance. The roof of the razed store of J. P. Marker, N.E. corner of Fifth and Commerce streets, caught fire from a spark in the American, $10,000 in the North American, and $5000 in the Delaware Mutual.

ROBBING HIS EMPLOYER.—J. McDermott was arrested last night at Fourth and Callowhill streets, charged with larceny. He had, it seems, been in the habit of pilfering small articles from his employer for several years past. He was held by Alderman Enue in the sum of $1000 to answer.

A REFRESHING SENSATION.—When at the air seemed hot as flame, What cooling influence then came, So sweetly o'er this languid frame? No ice-cream had I— Ice-water's charm had found to fail, Was this the time to dream? That, from the land of snow-drifts pale, Had I chance to fly? Or was it just the cooling power Of this new suit from the Tower?

She immediately went to the window, and called to a colored man for help, who happened to be near by. This was at 3 o'clock in the morning, and Mr. Raymond was not dead when she first saw him, but died a minute or two after she went into the room. The colored man was already up, and ready to go to his work. Mr. Raymond died before the colored man reached the house. The first words she spoke to the man on entering the house was to tell him that Mr. Raymond was dead.

There were no marks of a struggle in the room. He had evidently been struck in the temple while asleep, and almost instantly deprived of all sense or motion, and then his chin and throat cut sideways to add certainty to the fiendish deed.

Footsteps were observed leading from beneath the window down towards the river. At a short distance these footprints, which were those of a woman, were joined by others made by bare feet, which a little further on were encased in a pair of boots.

Some clothes, which were sent to a washerwoman in the neighborhood, may lead to a detection of the felon, whoever he may be.

The inquest will be continued to-day.

GRAND REGATTA.—The third annual regatta of the Boat Clubs of this city will take place on Monday, July 23. The boats will start from Poplar street wharf, on the Delaware, at 10 A. M. precisely, to sail to Torrardale and returning to starting place. Mr. W. W. Abel will be the Judge of the race. The boats will be arranged in classes. The first class will comprise all gulling skiffs twenty feet and under. Second class, all decked yachts of 16 feet and under. The winning boat of each class will receive a prize a splendid silver ice-pitcher. From the number and style of boats already entered, this promises to be one of the best regattas for several seasons.
