

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

[For Additional City Intelligence see P. 1, Col. 1.]

THE CHAPTER OF ACCIDENTS.—A child, three years old, named William Glasley, was run over yesterday by a car at Twenty-first and Pearl streets. He was badly hurt.

A young man, who lives in Unity street, and is named James Bromley, was caught, at Torresdale, between two cars, and was seriously hurt. His recovery is doubtful.

Alexander McGuigan, seven years old, was drowned yesterday in a brick pond, Twenty-third and Federal streets, where he went for a swim. The body was recovered. It was taken to the First Ward Station House, where the coroner held an inquest. Verdict, "accidental drowning."

William Bandall, a colored man employed as a hand on board of the schooner William O. Isak, of Boston, was drowned on Wednesday evening while bathing at Port Richmond.

A Grand Hop at Atlantic City.—The guests at the Grand Hotel, Atlantic City, are having a grand time. It is undaunted by such a furious heat as we are encountering in town, they indulge freely in such not-to-be thought-of-with-the-thermometer-at-ninety-odd pastimes as dancing. On to-morrow evening a grand hop will take place. The programme for the festival is as follows:
