MATTERS OVER THE RIVER.

THE SUNDAY LIQUOR DEALERS COME TO GRIEF.—There is a law in force in the State of New Jersey which prohibits the sale of liquor on the Sabbath. But one might imagine that the liquor dealers were unaware of its existence, from the way in which they have been deporting themselves of late.

The authorities, however, have come to the conclusion to put an end to their illegitimate traffic, and with that view they have recently made no less than eighteen arrests of men who keep their gin-mills open on Sunday. The whole batch of transgressors were taken before Justice Caseidy, and severally held in $300 bail, ito appear at the October term of Court to answer for their misdeeds.

One of these gentlemen keeps a celebrated re-treat which is situated in a beautiful grove on the outskirts of the city. When be was brought before the Justice, he impudently asserted that he feared no law prohibiting the sale of on Sunday. He was rewarded for this defiant attitude by being compelled to hunt up bail in $2300 before he could regain his liberty. Last evening the City Council revoked his license for keeping a disorderly house.

The authorities are determined to put an end to the Sunday traffic in Camden, and the liquor dealers will find it quite as profitable in the end to submit tamely to the course of the law. re are twenty-four detectives on their track, and this large force will probably work up every available case within a week or two. Then the Camdenites can enjoy their Sabbath rest in SANITARY.-This citizens of Camden, in the commnecement of the season, set them-selves to work right vigorously to cleanse their premises and purity their houses against the approach of cholera. A Sanitary Committee was also appointed, with necessary instructions from the Council to assist in the purification of the city. At first these official gentlemen acted quite energetically in the matter-made several reports, and cleaned a number of paved streets. But as soon as the first impulse of the enterprise was over, they began to iag in their efforts, and now that hot weather is upon us, and the cholera near at hand, the streets are certainly not in a condition that is calculated to advance the sanitary character of the city or contribue to the health of its copulation. There are many nuisances that ought to be abated, and now is the proper time to renew the work

NEW CHURCH.—The new Roman Catholic church of the Immaculate Conception, which has been in process of erection for several months, is now completed, and is a fine orna-ment to the corner of Seventh and Market streets, Camden. It has been formally dedicated by Bishop Bailey, of Newark. The eoffice is 162 jeet long by 65 in width, and the style of architecture in English decorated Gothic. The walls are of Trenton brown stone. It is surmounted a tower and steeple, 180 feet high, built of solid stone. The church will seat 1500 persons, and, when entirely completed, will cost $100,000. It will be the fluest Catholic church in West Jersey, and will contain one great convenience, a good clock.

THE SEA-SHORE.-The immense rush of people to the seashore at present, makes life at Cape Island and Atlantic City gay and active. At the United Stales Hotel in Atlantic City, on Saturday evening, the great event of the season is to come off in the shape of a grand hop, which will be attended by the beauty and fashion now at that place. Governor Curtin, General Geary, and a number of other notabilities will be present. Messrs. Brown & Woelpper have made extensive arrangements for this affair, and with the choice music of the celebrated Dodworth band, it cannot fail to be a highly gratifying and delightful occasion to all who may

PROSECUTED FOR STEALING HIS OWN Horse.—A day or two ago we published an item concerning the stealing of a horse by Mr. James Berry, of West Philadelphia, for doing which he was taken before an Alderman and held in bail to answer. Mr. Berry has published the following card, which effectually disposes of the matter:-

TTO THE PUBLIC.-I NOTICE A REPORT IN

To the Public.—I Notice a Report In the evening papers of the 25th, that I have been held to ball on the charge of horse-stealing, and proceed immediately to deny the charge.

The horse has been my own property for the past few days, and in spite of a local item, stating that the animal was recovered it is still in my poss-ssion.

I bave been stabling at the Washington House for a number of years. Ar. Kelly, the proprietor, took it into his head that my horse was afflicted with the glanders, and, without consulting my pleasure, ordered her out to be shet. The boy from whom I was charged with stealing it, was employed to 'put her out of her pain," and I, as a matter of course, could not stand tamely by and see my property destroyed.

Be ore Mr. Kelly condemned my animal, I had already consulted a ski tul veterinary surgeon, who pronounced it perfectly sound.

JAMES BERRY.

A SEASIDE CONCERT .- To-morrow evening Birgfeld gives the grand seaside concert o the season at the Columbia House, Cape Island N. J. His well-known capacity for engineering such movements is sufficient guarantee that the ocean loungers will be furnished with a grand treat, whose melody will rival even the solemn and unceasing music of the sea. That there will be a large accession to the guests of the various hotels on account of this attractive entertainment, we have no manner of If any denizen of this city does not make the trip to Cape Island for the purpose of being present, it will surely be because he cannot get away, and for no other reason.

STEALING RAIMENT .- Ann McDonald, an Irish woman, was arrested yesterday, charged with stealing clothes from the yard of Mrs. Brady, in the Twenty-fourth Ward. Ann went to Mrs. Brady to get some washing to do, and says that the lady of the house told her that she had some clothes in the yard she would like to have washed, and as the servant was out, she had better get them herself. She went out and did so, and when she was bundling them up to take away, she was arrested. She was held Alderman Warren in the sum of $800 ball for a further hearing, her story not agreeing with those of the witnesses examined.

FATAL ACCIDENT .- This morning a boy named George Callender, aged thirteen years, fell through an open hatchway from the lourth to the first floor. He struck on his head, breaking his neck, and crushing his head in a shocking manner. He was almost instantly killed. The body was removed to the Central Station, where it now lies awaiting an inquest. The mother of the boy called this morning, and fainted on seeing the terrible sight. He resided in the neighborhood of Fourth and Lombard

RAID ON WASHINGTON SQUARE.-People residing in the neighborhood of this square have been greatly annoyed by the presence of profesional street-walkers, who seem to have a cided predilection for that neighborhood. Passers by are exposed to insult at the hands of these lawless and shameless offenders ugainst decency and the rights of our citizens. night the police made a raid and captured about a dozen of them, and put them in the lock-up. A STRAY WAIF.-Last night, about 9'30 P. M., a male infant was picked up in the neigh-borhood of Firth and Girard avenue. It was very kindly taken charge of by two ladies, Mrs. McCleary and Mrs. Wilson, residing on Front street, above Master. The child was apparently not over two or three weeks old.

DER SÆNGERBUND-A GRAND PIONIC ON SMITH'S ISLAND.—THE "ISLE" A BLAZE OF LIGHT, AND OVERPLOWED WITH JOLLITY. -One of the essential characteristics of the fair-haired German is a capacity for the enjoyment of the good things of this life. In this respect he perhaps excels every other component part of our heterogeneous nationality. Picnics and social reunions of all kinds are his greatest delight. He is never happy unless once or twice in the year he has a chance to enjoy himself to the fullest extent of his capacity. this reason he is well entitled to make the boast, so often heard, that "Die Deutsch companie Ish die tesht companie Dat ever came over from Die old countrie."

And yet the element of soberness and pro priety is one which almost invariably characterizes the social gatherings of our German population, especially when they are composed of the better and more respectable class.

Both these social teatures of our German friends were exemplified in a striking manner last evening. The celebrated "Sungerbund," which has of late covered itself with the laurels of successful musical warfare, on that occasion gave what was aptly termed a "Midsummer-night Picnic" on Smith's I-land. Early in the afternoon crowds of people betook themselves to that cool and refreshing retreat. The charge of fifty cents in the way of an admission fee was a well-devised scheme to keep away the disorderly element, both foreign and domestic. As the evening gradually wore on, the little steamtubs known as "John Smith," and "Tom Smith" were loaded to, their fullest capacity at each repeated trip.

At six o'clock, when we appeared upon the scene, in answer to a gentle invitation from the managers, we found a goodly company assem-bled, and by nine o'clock, although the tide of humanity had not yet ceased to flow from the city, the Island was almost, if not quite, crowded. Most of the pleasure-seekers came in the true traditional picnic style. The lord of the household was followed closely by his spouse and little ones.

Even the babies were not left behind. There were at least five hundred of that class present, as far as we could judge, without going into an exact enumeration. Nearly every family had brought with them a basket well filled with estables. Drinks, of course, were not imported, it being well known to every frequenter of the "Isle" that they could there be obtained in any imaginable quantity, and of every imaginable quality.

The Island was neatly decorated with flags and evergreens; and as soon as the sun was fairly out of sight hundreds of variously colored and variously shaped lanterns were lighted up. From the river front of the city, especially, these last presented a beautiful and attractive appearance.

Present among the guests were the members of the "Liedertaiel," of New York city, whose arrival at 7 o'clock was greeted with vociterous cheering. They were conducted to an upper story by the members of the "Sængerbund," and there regaled in the handsomest manner.

There was no established order of exercises, and consequently everybody amused himself as was most congenial to his tastes. Singing, swinging, dancing, eating—such was the order of the evening. Two bands of music were pre sent discoursing sweet strains, to which the trip of the "light fantastic toe" was almost uninter-rupted. But, perhaps, the most notable feature of the occasion was the immense amount of the German's favorite beverage that was consumed.

"For thick and frothy was the flow Of lager rolling rapidly."

And yet everything passed off pleasantly and There were but few cases of drunkenness, and no disturbances whatever, the squad of policemen present being permitted to enjoy themselves to their heart's content. A jollier, more rollicking day the Germans have not had

TRIBULATIONS OF THE "WIGWAM"- The ommittee having in charge the erection of the "Wigwan," for the accommodation of the Au-gust Convention, concluded that the Skating Park of Dr. Jansen, situated at the corner of Broad and Wallace streets, would be a delightful spot whereon to build their monstrous house. So they sought out those whom they supposed were duly authorized to lease the ground, and after striking a satisfactory bargain, proceeded the first spade of dirt was thrown, and the first piece of timber backed into the proper dimen-An enthusiastic crowd of men and boys had cathered about the spot to witness the ope rations, and for a time everything went levely

But later in the day, affairs took a new and entirely unexpected turn. This was caused by the appearance upon the scene of Lieutenant Lovaire, backed up by a posse of fifteen police-men. The Lieutenant forthwith ordered the laborers to drop their hatchets and shovels. As the men had a w. olesome dread of the uniformed gentry accompanying the Lieutenant, hatchets and shovels were dropped accordingly. The reason for this unceremonious meddling with the work on the part of the authorities then transpired, and caused no little comment n certain circles. It appears that the Doctor had graciously suffered a base-ball club to make use of his grounds during the season when the ice is too thin for skating. The gentlemen who have assumed the task of constructing the "Wigwam" very innocently imagined that the matter would be all right if they arranged it satisfactorily with the base-ball boys. It was so arranged. But it further appears that the Dector did not approve of the arrangement thus made, and for this reason he called upon the police authorities for a force sufficient to protect his property from the depredations of the "Wigwam'

There is no probability that the work upon this institution will be resumed at Dr. Jansen's Skating Park. The Doctor has personally assured us that the "Wigwam" will not, shall not, and is not going to be erected, at the corner of Broad and Wallace streets at least-not if he can help it. Some other locality will, therefor have to be fixed upon by the committee. If, in doing so, they neglect, as in the first instance, to procure the proper authorization from the proprietor, the Convention when it assembles may find itself without a local habitation

DISHONEST DOMESTIC .- Ellen Turner, reiding with a lady in Harvey street, was arrested vesterday for larceny. It seems she had been in the habit of pilfering small articles for some time past, and had been detected in doing up small parcels of tha, sugar, etc., but had excul pated herself in some manner or other. The day the lady of the house gave her the key of the refrigerator to get some provisions. There happened to be attached to the key an other that unlocked the bureau, and Ellen went first to the bureau and abstracted $10 from a quantity of money lying in a drawer. When searched she had the $10 concealed under the osom of her dress. She was committed by Alderman Thomas to answer the charge of LARCENY OF A BOAT. - Three young scamps, George Forrest, A. Flamming, and William Alexander, were arrested near the Wissabicon, charged with stealing a boat from Mr. Ryan, near Richmond. They brought the anchor which was in the boat down to the city and sold it, and then removed the oars and rowlocks and hid the boat. At the examination they admitted they intended to sell the boat itself for sixteen dollars, and buy a gun with the money. They were held by Alderman Holmes in $500 bail each to answer.

YOUTHFUL OFFENDER.-Thomas Marra. a lad twelve years of age, was arrested, charged with pilfering small articles from houses during the temporary absence of the occupants. When arrested he did not deny his thieving. He had on his person, concealed, a small pistol, was loaded when he was arrested. He was caught sleeping under an apple tree near Wissahickon. He had a hearing before A'derman Stallman, who had him sent to the House of

FOUND DEAD .- This morning the body of an unknown woman was found in the Third Ward. The body was taken to the Third Ward Station House, and the Coroner notified to hold an inquest.

THREE SCOTCH GEMS.—At the gallery of Mr. A. S. Robinson, No. 910 Chesnut street, there are now for sale three large and valuable paintings from the easel of John Wilson, the celebrated Scotch artist. Two of the pictures are in the window, and are inspected hourly by the people who pass the gallery. One is a noble landscape of "Kilchurn Castle," at Loch Aive, in the Highlands, a scene around which courters much of the historic interest that makes the land of Bruce immortal. The painting is re-markable for its serial perspective and the dis-tinciness of the objects detailed on the canvas. The middle distance is excellent, and the whole picture is made clear and well defined by a strong light thrown on the foreground.

The "Rock of Gibraltar" is another painting.

and one of the finest marines in the city. Its geographical accuracy is vouched for daily by naval officers who stop to admire it. The artis has filled the harbor with the many classified vessels of the Mediterranean, while an American man-of-war and a British frigate are turning towards the Rock. The vessels are very finely drawn, and the effect of the water curiing unde the bows of the British frigate is very tine. The light on the waves, and the beautiful variations of light and shade on the rock, are the great merits of the picture.

The third painting is a moonlight scene on the Thames, with a gipsy encampment in the centre. The wash and play of the river is exquisitely finished, and the foliage of the heavy oaks that cover the tents of the Zingari stands with singular clearness from the canvas. The hree pictures are for sale.

A NUISANCE TO THE HEALTH OF THE CITY. - We would earnestly call the attention of the Board of Health to the state of affairs in the neighborhood of Twenty fourth and Coates streets. An immense amount of refuse matter has been collecting in that locality for weeks past, and if it is not soon removed, the malaria arising from it will do much towards rendering the neighborhood uninhabitable, especially i we are to have a visit from the genuine Asiatu cholera. Let them bestir themselves in this matter as soon as possible. There is but little to be hoped for from the dwellers in the vicinity, as they are mostly of that class whose character and habits do not prompt them to pare much whether they live in cleanliness or die in filth.

ARREST OF RIOTERS.-Three of the most prominent of the rioters engaged in the affair at Twenty-sixth and South streets, were arrested on a canal boat below the Gray's Ferry bridge. They were taken by officers in a small boat, and handed over to the police of the Fifth District. When taken they were on their way to New Their names are Pat, alias 'Rat' De vinney, the ringleader, and the man the officers were endeavoring to arrest when the disturb ance took place. Thomas Nulty, and John Mona-ghan. They were brought before the Mayor this morning, and remanded for a further hear ing. Devinney is a Schuylkill Ranger, and an old offender. He was badly cut about the head, and presented a very ruffianty appearance.

RIDING ON THE RAIL.-The Thirteenth and Fitteenth Street Railway Company having concluded that their business would be facili tated by the laying of a track on Spring Garden street, from Thirteenth to Browd, commenced operations yesterday by carting to the scene a lot of rails. But the people who reside there abouts have s'rong objections to this proceed ing, and have taken the nace-sary legal measures to have it prevented. Three of the men who carted the rails were accordingly taken into custody, on the charge of misdemeanor, and when brought before Alderman Massey they were required to give bail in $600 for a further GBAND HOP AT THE SEASIDE.—A grand opportunity will be afforded those who delight to trip the light fantastic, to morrow night, at the United States Hotel at Atlantic City. From the great preparations that are being made this promises to be one of the most brilliant affairs of the season. A train will leave Camden at 2 o'clock to-morrow with excursionists for the hop. We would advise all who can leave the heat and dust of the city to do so, as this is a rare opportunity for enjoyment.

TILL-TAPPING .- A man named John Boyd was arrested this morning at 1.30 A. M., at Forty-second and Ludlow streets, charged with steal-ing $10 from the till of the tavern kept by Mr. Davis, at the corner of Forty-second and Market streets. He was held in $800 bail to answer by Alderman Warren.

CLERGYMEN owe it as a duty to their flocks, as well as to themselves, to maintain, as far as may be, a sound state of body. The days are gone when health was considered to be inconsistent with holiness. The nature of their duties imposes upon Clergymen a mode of lite not the most compatible to perfect physical health. They live a life too purely sedentary; they use the brain too much, and the muscles too little. Hence, by sympathy the secretive functions are enteebled, and act imperfectly. To remedy this, medicines are required. So thoroughly is the proprietor of MARSDEN'S VEGETABLE SANATIVE PILLS aware of the priceless value to the whole community of the services of this brauch of the learned protessions, that he will gladly turnish, free of cost, this medicine to clergymen of every denomination, not only for their own personal use, but to be given to those who are anable to purchase, whom they may encounter in their constant rounds of mercy. The Nomination of Steamaker. The Senate yesterday refused to reconsider the vote by which the nomination of Mr. Sloanaker m Collector of Internal Revenue for the First District of Pennsylvania was rejected. The vote was 28 to 5.

Jefferson Davis-Report of the Com-

The House Committee on the Judiciary have made a report, in which they say that it is notorious that Jefferson Davis was guilty of the crime of treason, according to the Constitution and laws of the United States, and the Committee are of the opinion that there are no obstacles to a speedy and impartial trial which caunot be removed by legislation.

They say the evidence in the possession of the Committee connecting Jefferson Davis with the assassination of President Lincoln, justices them in saying that there is probable cause to believe that he was privy to the measures which led to the commission of the deed; but the investigations which have been made by the War Department and by the Committee have not resulted in placing the Government in possession ot all the facts in the case.

It is probable, however, that the further prosecution of the investigation by the Committee and by the officers of the Government will result in a full development of the whole transaction.

The capture of the Rebel archives has put the Government in possession of a mass of letters, papers, and documents of various kinds, only a portion of which have as yet been examined.

Mr. Aluson (Lowa), from the Committee of Ways and Means, reported back a substitute for the Senate
bil to provide for the a-ceriainment and apportionment of the proper quota of the direct tax of 1851 between the States of Virginia and West Virginia.
He said it had been very carefully prepared in the Tressury Department, and that it had the approval of the members from West Virginia. The substitive was agreed to, and the bill as amended was pa-sed.

Mr. Hooper (Mass), from the same Committee, fix the compensation of certain collectors of customs and for other purposes. One of the amendments reported adds to the provision which fixes the compensation of the Deputy Collectors, Deputy Navai Officers, and Deputy Sarveyors of the ports of New York Boston, New Orleans, and San Francisco at $3500. Another amendment gives the custom house weeglers at the ports of Boston, Philadelphia, and Baltimore $2500 per aunum.

Mr. Eliot (Mass.) suggested an amendment to strike out of the bill which creates Corpus Christi, Texas, a port or entry.

Mr. Hooper declined to allow the amendment to

The amendments reported from the Committee on Ways and Means were agreed to, and the bill was passed; yeas 51, nays 49.

Mr. Dawes introduced a resolution giving increased extra compensation to the Globe reporters. Mr. Stevens (Pa.) called up a motion to reconsider the vote whereby the bill to authorize the building of a military and postal rai-road from Washington to New York was, in May last, recommended to the Committee on the Air Line Railroad.

Mr. John L. Thomas, Jr. (Md.) moved to lay the motion to reconsider on the table. The vote was taken by your and may and resulted in year 48. taken by yeas and nays, and resulted in yeas 48 mays 59. So the motion to reconsider was not laid on the table. The vote was reconsidered, and the bill came before the House for action. The Clerk eded to read the bill. Mr. Wentworth (III) rose to a question of privi-lege, and gave notice that after 1 o'clock he should lege, and gave notice that after I o'clock he should call for the enforcement of the rules against outsiders taking members' seats.

The Speaker directed the Doorkeeper to take notice of the complaint of the member from Illinois.

Mr. O'Neill (Pa.) moved to amend the bill by providing that a through train shall be run out of Washington at Il o'clock at night.

Mr. Scofield (Pa.) moved to amend by confining the company to the building of one line of rairoad.

Mr. John L. Thomas (Md.) spoke against the bill.

He and his State was directly interested in its de-

He said his State was directly interested in its de-reat, and, be leving that Congress had not the power to pass an act granting a charter for a road across the sod of Marvland without first getting the con sent of the State, this bill would take $60,000 a year out of the State freasury of Maryland Mr. Wentworth inquired whether Maryland had a right to tax Illinois in that way.

Mr. John L. Thomas asserted that Maryland had a right to tax freight and passengers passing over her oil, and that Illinois had the same right. Mr. Wentworth (III.) denied that.
Mr. Thomas replied that if Illinois did not exer-se that right she possessed it Mr. Wentworth said that Illinois would never claim such a right.

Mr. Thomas replied that Illinois had got what meither Mareland nor Pennsylvania had go; for her railroads—forty sections or land for every mile of

Mr. Wentworth said that all he wanted was fo Mr. Wentworth said that all he wanted was for the States between Washington and New York to state what they would take—what they would com-promise to reb the people of the country of and let the speed of travel be regulated. Maryland had claimed a great many rights. She had claimed the right to go out of the Union, but did not go, because the men of Illinois would not permit her. Mr. Stevens closed the debate. He claimed that Congress had full power over the subject, under the claime of the Constitution stving Congress the power to regulate commerce among the States. Henry to regulate commerce among the States. Henry Clay and Daniel Wetster had asserted that right,

THE SARATOGA RACES.

Run of the Three-year Olds-Bayswater the Victor-Red Wing Wins the Twoyear-old Match-The One-and-a-quarter Mile Dash.

Sanaroga, July 26. - The attendance to-day was almost as large and certainly quite as iashionable as on the previous days. The weather was beautifully fine, but the track was heavy from the rain that fell the preceding day after the racing was over. There were three races on the oilis

The first race was a match of three-year olds for a purse of $500, winners of the Derby and Travers race excluded. There were five entries. Travers race excluded. There were five entries. These were R. A. Alexander's b. h. Bayswater, D. McCoon's b. f. Dot, Moore's gr. c. by Lightning, D. McDaniel's b. c. General Ripley, and A. Bell's ch. c. Tom Woodfolk. Bayswater was the tavorite at the start, although in the pools the night before the Lightning colt had been the favorite at odds against the field. Dot, closely attended by Tom Woodfolk, made the running for the first three-quarters of a mile, when it was taken up by Bayswater, who carried it on throughout, was never headed, and won easily by a length; the Lightning colt second, Dot third, and Ripley last.

Or the fourteen entries five started, viz.:-Colonel Bush's Red Wing, by Balrownie; Morris' filly, by Eclipse; Mr. Watson's Vixen and Bonnie Doon, and Mr. Hunter's Flora McIvor. Morris' filly was treely backed against the field. Bush's filly jumped off with the lead and opened a wide gap.

The tavorite, unable to get into her stride at first, never fairly made her run until coming up the home stretch, when she passed the horses as if they were standing, and rapidly overhauled Red Wing, but the latter had gained too commanding a lead, and the winning post was too near at hand, for the other to beat her, and Red Wing won by a leagth, Morris beating Hunter by six lengths, and Watson's Pair last ot all.
