BREAKNECK ROCKS.

BY R. B.

Over the stony paths,
Down through the shaded woods, By the ruined mill, I walk,
Where seldom a foot intrudes,

A LEAST WALL

The wild bird in her flight Here flutters and breaks in song, And the rattlesnake lifts his fang, And warns from the leaves among. A lonely, beautiful spot, With its fairy laughter now,

> From its low, dim aisles below. Of the hurrying rider that led, And obedient steed that ran, And the fright, and the fall, and the death, In the batting ledge's van.

These are the rade, rough charms Of Breakneck and its rocks, That in wildness and in beauty The painted canvas mocks. SOMERSET, Pa., August 1, 1866.

CITY INTELLIGENCE

[For Additional Local Items see Fifth Page.]

REPORT OF A BOARD OF VISITORS .- The Sanitary Committee of the Board of Health made a special visit on Saturday to Martinsville, in the extreme southern end of Philadelphia. The following is their report made to the Board yesterday;-The Committee, after referring to the condition 'of affairs in the vicinity of the Navy Yard, say that there is another cause for the bad air affecting the comfort of the Navy Yard officers, and often driving the crew from the upper deck of the vessels anchored in the river—an offensive and sickening odor, which your Committee inhaled a mile before they reached the source of its emanation. This was the hog-pens at Martins tille, nearly half a mile below the built-up portion of the city. Your Committee visited this infected district, located on the meadows, on the Point-house road, a most desolate and fifthy neighborhood, and altogether unsuited for families; and nothing has saved them from the influence of the dirt they live in but a pure atmosphere that comes sweeping over the rich meadows in the vicinity. This settlement contains a population of about sixty poor families of the very lowest descrip-tion in morals, and every family having another family of hogs, with scarcely an exception, containing from five to twenty-five in number, wallowing in extreme filth, while their yards and other surroundings are not only heaped up with hog and horse manure, but the ground is spotted with puddles of offensive mud and fifthy water, and having hogsheads of putrefying kitchen garbage, collected throughout the city by their slop-carts.

No description we can furnish will convey an adequate idea of the footid atmosphere we were breathing, of the number of hogs, their filth, the unusual quantity of dirt and rubbish and other refuse in the yards, the full and foul privies, the utter want of drainage, the condi-tion of the houses and their occupants, halfcivilized, and half human beings, living in rance and wretchedness, with a ditch of stag-nant water on either side, and the whole settlement subject to an overflow during the spring

It was a task of no small danger to visit this place, to brave the risk of fever and other in-juries to health, and come in contact with men and women living in such squalid wretchedness. The cholera had preceded us, and had carried off a number of the inhabitants, and we found in two houses a man and woman in the collapsed stage of the disease, dying; and should no sanitary reliet come to their assistance, this malignant disease will soon wipe out

Your Committee believe there is no other remedy for putting a stop to this disease in this ill-fated town than to remove the hogs and the other inhabitants, disinfect the place, and board it up until cold weather, and before they return have it thoroughly cleansed and disin-

But the idea occurred, what would become of the kitchen garbage removed by these filth gatherers throughout the lower district of our city? In the dirt these people are, isolated from any other population; but while they remain there, a remedy may be afforded—as it was thought best to remove the manure, cleanse and disinfect the entire settlement from time to time, watching carefully the premises during the hot months, as the only and best remedy that could be devised under the circumstances. In furtherance of this suggestion, your com-mittee ordered disinfectants to be employed at once, and continued until the Board could take further action in the case.

The report was signed by Wilson Jewell, M.D. Messrs. E. Ward and William Read.

THE ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY DOL-LAR SWINDLE .- Gotham, the centre of "swindleization," has lately perpetrated the following upon our citizens. It is but a sample of the many schemes that are afloat:—

DEPOSITORY OF THE MERCHANTS' AND MANU-PACTURERS' UNITED STATES STOCK COMPANY, NO. 556 BROADWAY, J. G. GRANGER, CORRESPOND-ING SECRETARY.—NEW YORK, August 18, 1866.— Dear Sir:—The tickets you ordered were sent by mail. They were awarded a prize valued by the company at one hundred and fittyidollars (8150). Please remit five dollars, amount due for tickets, and the prize will be sent by express. Yours, respectfully, J. D. MILLER, President.

Such a communication was received by E. K. Tryon, one of our Philadelphia detectives. That gentleman had been informed of such a paper being circulated throughout the city, and having heard parties inquiring about the matter at the Central Police Station, concluded to in-vestigate the subject, and in order to do so he replied to the communication received by him, requesting the prize to be sent to his address, and on receipt of which he would pay the money. Mr. Tryon had at once formed his opinion as to the object of the letter, but in order to expect the sent to the content of the letter. order to expose the scheme and put our citizens on their guard, he answered the communication. In reply to his letter he received the following:-

August 15, 1866—Dear Sir:—Your package will be sent to-morrow by Adams Express; cost $6; the extra dollar for return charges. Yours,
J. J. Granger, Cor. Sec.
Detective Tryon called at the Express office, and received a package, for which he paid $6.
The back of the envelope contained the words, treat to contain $150. gaid to contain $150,"

It was done up the same as any other money package. On its being opened it contained a certificate of stock of the Sandy River Petroleum Company, entitling the holder to one hun-dred and lifty shares, at one dollar per share. The capital stock of the concern was represented at $1,000,000. The worthless certificate was inat $1,000,000. The worthless derincate was in-differently engraved, and on very poor paper. It was numbered 1147, and, by appearance, one is led to believe that the paper was gotten up expressly for swindling purposes. Accompany-ing the certificate was the following:—

August 16, 1866 —Sir:—Inclosed find prize as per previous advices.

J. GRANGER, Secretary.

A number of our citizens have been victimized, and it is but proper that the scheme should be exposed. Detective Tryon intends to make further inquiries into the matter. Our citizens should hesitate about answering such commurecations, and thus prevent themselves from being made victims of.

A SHOP-LIFTEE .- A woman was arrested, vesterday, as the dry goods store of Edwin Hall & Brother, South Second street, on the charge of shop lifting. Mr. Hall testified that the defendant had been feeling at his store for six or seven years, and he had never suspected her honesty until yesterday. One of the young ladies in the store bad observed her to young ladies in the store raid observed her to slip something in the basket, and, upon examining its contents, there was found about four yards of silk goods, seven or claht yards of alpaca, and a piece of calico. Two attendants in the store testified to the theft, and the accused was held to answer in the sum of $1200.

She kept a small retail store, and the game was of the confidence order.

had become insane in the Government service. It was referred back to the Committee, with power to act.
The opinion of F. Carroll Brewster, Esq., City

Solicitor, in relation to the burial of paupers dying of injectious or contagious diseases, was read, and after some discussion tabled. The usual requisions were approved. Adjourned.

THE PENALTY OF AN ABUSIVE TONGUE. —In the Quarter Sessions, yesterday, a woman was tried and convicted of stealing from a house in which she had been employed as a domestic. in which she had been employed as a domestic. Immediately after the verdict of guilty the prosecutor spoke to the Judge privately, and asked that he would be merciful in imposing the sentence. The prisoner was told to stand up, and the Judge remarked that the prosecutor having interceded in behalf of the defendant, he would be merciful, and sentenced her to six months imprisonment. A few minutes after, when the prosecutor was standing near the prisoner, she prosecutor was standing near the prisoner, she began to abuse him, using most offensive lan-guage. He appealed to the Judge to protect him from the woman's slanders, and Judge Ludlow said that her conduct was so bad, after what had just transpired, that he felt she was not a proper subject for the clemency of the Court to exercised upon, and he changed the sentence from six months to one year.

FLAG RAISING.—A large number of the German citizens of the Tenth Precinct of the Twentieth Ward assembled yesterday afternoon at Thirty-second and Thompson streets, to participate in the ceremonies of a flag raising. The pole upon which the flag was suspended was one hundred and fifty feet in height. A large stand was erected on the sidewalk, and decorated with the national colors. A fine band of music was also in attendance. After the flag had been thrown to the breeze, the chairman of the meeting introduced Colonel John Botzeg, who made a patriotic address. He was followed by Mr. John Evans, G. Washington Reed, Christian Kneass, Theodore H. Ochischiager, and others. The meeting adjourned at a late honr in the afternoon, with cheers for President Johnson and the new party.

THE BOYS' HIGH SCHOOL .- We have been informed that the Boys' High School will be opened on the first of September, at which time the vacation expires. A meeting of the Board of Controllers will be held previous to that time, for the purpose of receiving the report of he Committee on High School in reference to the new Principal and Professors. The committee have not yet decided upon all the Professors, but we understand there will not be many changes. Mr. George Inman Riche will be recommended as the Principal. There were seven or eight applicants for this position, and bout one hundred for the different Professorships.

Joseph Eyal has been committed by Alderman Tittermary on the charge of stealing a horse and wagon belonging to a resident of New Jer-sey. The accused is alleged to have been hired the complainant, and to have driven off a horse and waren and offered it for sale. When arrested, he took the matter very philosophically, and remarked that he was out of work, and that by the time he got released perhaps he would have a better chance of geiting something to do.

PLEASANT WEATHER.—Yesterday was one of the finest of the season. The thermometer, from six o'clock in the morning until three o'clock in the atternoon, ranged from 65 to 75 degrees, and the weather being clear, the atmosphere was quite exhilarating. During the day the promenades were thronged, and the retail quarters crowded with shoppers. Many of our citizens who have been spending the summer at the watering places and other resorts have returned, and every train that reaches here brings others home.

ANOTHER HEARING OF A SUPPOSED BURGLAR. - In the case of Hugh Drain, charged with being concerned in the attempted robbery at Preston Hill's house, in the Twenty-seventh Ward, there was a further hearing. An at-tendant at Connelly's livery stable testified that one John Campbell nired the horse and carriage which the burglars used; that Campbell was accompanied by one other man, but it was not Drain. In the absence of one or two witnesses there was a continuance of the case.

ONE OF THE CONTINENTAL "STATUARY." —▲ young man of genteel appearance was arrested yesterday for corner-lounging, at Ninth and Chesnut streets. The Reserve officer who took him into custody testified that the defendant had made it a practice to stand at the corner of Ninth and Chesnut streets, and in front of the Continental Hotel, for a long time, and that he had repeatedly told him to leave. The accused said that he lived upon his means, and had boarded at the Continental Hotel. He was held to ball to keep the peace.

COLLECTOR OF THE PORT .- William B. Thomas, Esq., Collector of the Port, and Colonel William F. Johnston, recently appointed Collector, had a private interview yesterday in reference to the office. It was fully determined, we understand, that Mr. Thomas should retain the position until the last of this month, when Mr. Johnson would enter upon the duties of the office. This delay was asked for to give Mr. Thomas time to close up his connection with the office of Collector.

COUNTERFEITING .- James H. Walker was before Recorder Eneu yesterday, on the charge of having in his possession a plate for the printing of fifty-cent currency. The complainant, George H. Fayman, testified that he found the plate in detendant's possession. Walker, who has been acting as a Government detective, has been neld in $3000 bail for a SLIGHT FIRE.-The alarm of fire last evening about eight o'clock was caused by the ignition of a lot of rags, which had been saturated with linseed oil, and used in rubbing up turniture, in the store of Allen & Company. Chesnut street, above Twelfth. The flamewere confined to the joist and a small portion of the roof. Loss not ascertained.

Accidents,—George Weikel, a lad residing in Guillord street, above Shippen, let! from a turniture car vesterday and broke his leg. Yesterday afternoon, about 3 o'clock, Thomas Smith, aged cight years, fell into a cellar at Twenty-nist and Pine streets, and fractured
