AMUSEMENTS.

THE BUISLAY FAMILY.—An immense audience visited the Walnut Street Theatre last evening to enjoy the performance of this already worldrenowned troupe. The applause was most en-thusiastic, and the "Niagara Leaps" and "Spiral Mountain" teat were cheered vociferously after successful accomplishment. The jugglery of Mr. Henri Agoust was especially pleasing and he was encored for new feats until the curiosity of his friends was satisfied, and the wonderment rendered general. The egg, orange, bottle, and plate tricks were done so fairly and neatly, as to bring down the house repeatedly. Agoust is also an admirable clown, and his attention to the tight-rope nymph, while an entire novelty, were really ridiculously funny. Through his humor, however, there could be discerned the solicitude and care of a husband. His eyes were riveted continually upon Mad'lie Rosita, while that artiste was executing her beautiful feats of equilibrium. The performance is varied pleasing tableaux by a talented company, which are fully equal to toose given by the great Keller Troupe. A comic pantomime concludes the entertainment each evening.

AT THE NEW CHESNUT STEET THEATER the new play of Baccarat continues to be very at-tractive, but it must be withdrawn after tomorrow evening, to allow the managers to produce another scenic novelty. To morrow is designated as the "Author's night," when Mr. Thomas McKeon, the a inpter of Baccarat, will take a benefit. Those thousands who have enjoyed the piece should not forget the dramatist. On Thursday evening a dramatization of Charles Dickens' novel of Our Mutual Friend will be presented with new scenery, and a fine

THE AMERICAN THEATRE is doing a fine business The stock company is better than ever before, and the leading members are already becoming favorites. The house has been handsomely renovated throughout, and the patrons have every comfort to be found in a first-class theatre. An excellent and varied dramatic entertainment is given each evening.

Mrs. Jenny Kempton, Mr. Castle, Mrs. Hays. and many other old favorites are attached to the company, with many new candidates for the favor of the public.

Communication.

To the Editor of The Evening Telegraph:-I have noticed with great pleasure the publication of the following testimonial, in several of our city papers, to the liberality and patriotism of George Kelley, our worthy Prothonotary of the District Court:-OFFICE OF "THE PROTECTIVE WAR CLAIM AND

PENSION AGENCY OF THE UNITED STATES SANI-TARY COMMISSION IN PULLADELPHIA" TARY COMMISSION IN PULLADELPHIA"

No. 1307 CHESNUT STREET, August 15, 1868—
George Kelley, Esq., Prothonotary of the Discrict Court for the City and County of Philadelphia, having during his whole term of office made large deductions from his legal fees for certifying the papers of claimants through this Agency, and in many cause of sick and reducing applicants having many cases of sick and indicent applicants having retinquished all fees whatsoever, thereby, in effect, contributing to the sold ers and hetre of soldiers con-cerned several thousand dollars—the undersigned, being so requested, most cheerfully express their public acknowledgments of the valuable aid thus rendered by him in carrying out the objects of their

W. M. FILGHMAN, Chairman. HORACE BINNEY, JR., U. C. STILLE. Directors. ATHERTON BLIGHT, R. M. LEWIS, W. N. ASHMAN, Solicitor.

Now this is just and right, and is in keeping with the character of the gentlemen controlling the truly benevolent and worthy institution named at the head of their manly certificate. It reveals two important and indisputable facts:-First, that these gentlemen aim to do justice to a generous and worthy man; and second, that Mr. Kelley deserves well of the public. Few men of his limited means have ever been known to make such pecuniary sacrifices for the benefit of others. I am heartly glad, as all his friends must be, to know that George, thel "Grey Eagle," as he is familiarly called, 18 thus | publicly accorded due credit for his noble share of the glorious work of aiding and relieving "the soldiers and the heirs of soldiers." It is no small matter for one man, who is far from being rich, to thus contribute from half-a dollar to a dollar and a half each to some three thousand eight hundred persons, as Mr. Kelley has done, to my certain knowledge, leaving but little of the emoluments of his office to go into his own pocket. George has always been a firm friend to the soldier, his country, and his party. Ever ready to battle with the Copperheads and all enemies of the country, contributing liberally of his time and money for the relief of the widows and orphans or the war, he deserves the gratitude and support or all patriotic and right-thinking men, Such a man deserves office.

He is emphatically a man of the people, and a friend of the people, as well as an honest and efficient man in office. He is the very man for the people, and just the man that ought to be renominated; and if the people of his party do their whole duty to the soldiers, to themselves, and to George Kelley, he will certainly be renominated. The fact that he has held the office for one term should not make against him, in view of the money he has so liberally spent in behalt of the soldiers and widows and orphans of soldiers, and, also, in the organization of troops for the war against the Rebellion. In consideration of what he has done for others, his party ought now to give him a chance to do something for himself. Boy IN Brue.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

[For Additional City Intelligence see Third Page.]

MIDSUMMER NIGHT FESTIVAL IN CAM-DEN .- Yesterday an immense crowd assembled at the Diamond Cottage grounds, to celebrate the Anniversary Midsummer Night Festival. A brass band from Philadelphia made a dis course of sweet sounds, and after vocal music by the Camden Mænnerchor, a beautiful silk sg, combining the American red, white, and blue with the German colors of red, black, and gold, was presented by the ladies of Camden to the Mannerchor Society.

The flag was received in a brief and effective address by Hon. James M. Scovel. He spoke of the power of Shaxespeare over the German mind. This great mind—"sitting pensive and alone above the hundred-handed play of its own imagination"—had even given name to this tival. Goethe, the speaker said, was next to Shakespeare; and Germany, too, was the home of Schiller, the lover of liberty, who was born in Wurtemburg, and died in Weimar over sixty years ago. Germany had always been the home of individual and political liberty. Political liberty was the freedom of a nation from all unjust abridgments of its rights. It was as dear to the German as to the American heart. The speaker then paid a glowing tribute to the men who fought for impartial liberty, and said that the colors of American and German nationality were most appropriately blended in this flag, for which our brothers died on every field from Roanoke to Lee's surrender. And, by the help of God, no surrender of impartial and universal liberty would be made in America at the behest of any human being. The speaker was greated with the heartiest applause.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY .- There was quite a commotion in Chesnut street, above Seventeenth, yesterday afternoon. A party of thieves had attempted to break into the three dwelling-houses. Nos. 1718, 1720, and 1722. One of the employes of Greble's marble works near by saw a man stiempting an entrance, and as soon as the burglar found be was observed he made his escape. On an examination of the premises by the sergeant of police, it was found that an attempt had been made to force all three of these houses, the inmates of all of them being out of town. The attempt was fortunately folled before anything was secured by the burgiars.

THE PLEASANT WEATHER.-For the past few days we have been singularly blessed in the weather. It is more like October weather than All of us can remember the terrible August. not days that we endured last summer about this time, and through the month of September. As a necessary consequence the cholera has begun to rest on us with a lighter weight, and the general health of the city is manifestly improved. The folks at the watering places, too, are beginning to return, and enliven the city with their presence. We see a great many faces on our promenades that have been musing for the past month or two. The theatres and other places of amusement are beginning to show the change also. We only hope the present weather may continue to bless our city. But it is an old saying that when a thing is very good, it is "roo good to last long," We hope it is not so in this case. If it continues to be as cool and pleasant as it has been for the past week, the cholera, which is committing such fearful ravages in our Western and Southwestern cities, will be almost entirely eradicated.

A TERRIBLE ACCIDENT ON THE DELA-WARE-A TUG-BOAT BURSTS HEB BOILER-ONE MAN SCALDED, IT IS SUPPOSED FATALLY, -About 7'40 o'clock this morning, as the tug-boat Tempest was towing the barque Alice out of Flansgan's dock, just below Pine street, the boiler exploded. There was not a loud report; it was more like a sudden rush of waters, and instant the smoke-stack, one of the small boats, and loose articles about the deck, and pieces of the deck and boiler were seen rushing high into the air in the midst of a column of steam. Some of the articles were sent to the distance of several hundred feet. All the deck about the engine and fire-room was torn up by the explo-sion, and the boiler was ruined. The engines escaped with a comparatively trifling damage. Lemuel Clendenning, the engineer, was scalded in a terrible manner, and is not expected to recover. He was removed to the Hospital. other hands on the boat were sit, adjusting the stern line when the explosion occurred, and escaped. The boat itself has been taken up to Neafle & Levy's machine works for repair. The real cause of the explosion is not known, as there was not much more than the usual quantity of steam on at the time.

CONNUBIAL FELICITY.—John Smith, that celebrated and notorious individual, has got intola difficulty again. This time it is in one of the cases concerning the affections. John was married, but he made a mistake. After a year, or several years trial, he found he had not got his "affinity." He therefore took to drink, and matters got worse. To so great an extent did these disagreements go, that John finally took up his bed and walked. His torsaken wife, thinking a bad husband better than none at all, sent the myridons of the law on his track, and was arrested and taken to the Station House. This morning be made the acquaintance of Alderman Toland, who held him in the sum of $800 to answer.

WANTED LIGHT .- Solomon Brodman was yesterday afternoon arrested for stealing a box of window-glass from the establishment of Shoemaker & Co., Fourth and Callowhill streets. He saw it tying in front of the store in a very tempting manner, and picking it up, was walk-ing off, when he was suddenly brought up with a round turn and looged in the Station House. This morning he had a very interesting interview with Alderman Totand, who held him in $800 to answer.

CHOLERA.-There have been eight cases of Asiatic cholera reported to the Board of Health since our report of yesterday. Of these two cases were fatal. We are informed that, owing to the wiltul neglect of Councils in refusing or neglecting to make suitable appropriations for hospital purposes, there are no accommodations at at in the municipal hospital for the reception of cholera patients. We are informed that every case that has been sent there has proved fatal from the sheer lack of means to provide for them. Many of the cases, indeed, die on their way out.

o'clock this morning, as an officer was patrolling his beat in Parrish street, near Twenty-second he saw a man whom he supposed to be asleep on the street. On endeavoring to awaken him he found he was dead. The man's name is nd he was dead. The man's name is He was taken to the Ninth District Smith. Station House, and the Coroner sent for. SUSPICION OF LARCENY .- Joseph Williams was arrested last night at Twelfth and Lombard streets, on suspicion of being engaged in a robbery that took place some time since After a preliminary hearing this morning, such evidence was elicited as required him to be committed for a further hearing.

SUDDEN DEATH .- A man named Frank Russell, aged 64 years, died suddenly this morning at No. 1078 Germantown avenue. The Coroner has been notified to hold an inquest.

A CANDIDATE.-We learn that the Hon. M. Russell Thayer has consented to be a candi date for the Judgeship of the Court of Common

GREAT PROCESSION THIS MORNING

FEMALE FENIANS PARADING THE STREETS.

Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc.

BUFFALO, August 21.-The Fenian picnic party turned out in procession in large numbers this morning, and marched through the principal streets, escorted by several Irish military companies. The soldiers were the only ones armed with guns, and as the female Fenians constitute a large proportion of the gathering, it is safe to say that no raid is contemplated on her Majesty's domains to-day.

Generals Spear, Murphy, and O'Neill arrived yesterday, and will be present at the picnic. An invitation has also been extended to the Canadian Colonel Booker and his staff, but it is hardly likely they will accept of it.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

morning in relation to the assessment of the second Ward. An application was made to Judge A'lison this in consequence of the death of James T. Harmer one of the Assessors of the Second Ward, whereby the office became vacant, the City Commissioners appointed Edward F. Hilferry to fill the office which became vacant by the decease of Mr. Harmer, and a question arises as to the powers and duties of the Assessor thus appointed. The two Assessors had made an assessment of the ward, but all the books had not been copied and returned to the City Commissioners at the time of the death of Mr. Harmer missioners at the time of the death of Mr. Harmer. Judge Allison instructed the Assessors that every assessment must be made by both Assessors joining in the performance of the duties which the law requires them to perform. That the assessment being incomplete at the death of Mr. Harmer under the provisions of the act of April 15 1834 it became the duty of the present assessors to make an assessment of the ward, in which they could both join by attesting the correctness of the same both join by attesting the correctness of the same by their joint signatures, and to which both of the assessors should make oath or affirmation. The law authorizing an appeintment to fill a vacancy oc-casioned by death or otherwise, gives the person appointed the same powers; makes him liable to the same penatties, and entities him to receive the same compensation as it he had been elected to fill the office. That inasmuch as the appointee of the the office. That inasmuch as the appointed of the City Commissioners cannot certify or make onth to the correctness of an assessment made by another per on, the present assessors should make an assessment of the Ward for themselves, and make due and proper return of the same.

William Teeney and Hannah Teeney were charged with receiving muslins and other goods, knowing them to have been stolen. The goods were werth $39, and were found in the house of defendants. They both acknowledged that they had bought and honestly paid for the goods, having bought them from a man who brought them to the house of the detendants, and claimed that he was "hard up." The price paid was $5. The jury convicted the husband and acquitted the wire.

John Wetherby, a coliceman, and Samuel Todd, were charged on cross bills with assault and batters on one another. The officer testified that ford interfered with him while attempting to make an arrest, and both struck and kicked him. The officer's prisoner got away, and Todd, escaping, took refuge in the engine house of the Spring Garden Fire Company, whereof he was a member.

He was pursued by the officer, by whom he was shot in the shoulder, accidentally, as is claimed by the officer, but maliciously and designedly, as contended by Todd. The wound inflicted is not serious, Jury out.
