ALMANAC AND DIARY.

SHORT METRE-ILLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS FOR THE WEAK.

August. Monday, 20.—Annual Parade of the Caledonian Glub in Costume. A beautiful display of Scotch legs, and the weather being cold the Club all gor "blue" on the occasion, including the legs.

Tuesday, 21 .- Delegation of Missouri Indians wait on President Johnson. It is supposed that these savages, having heard of the John-son Wigwam, have come on to see the display of Radical Scalps.

Wednesday, 22.—A professional thief gives a Philadelphia lawyer $25 to defend two unknown burglars for the honor of the "Profession." On hearing that they only robbed a Dary he told the lawyer to let them alone, they were not the cream of the profession.

Thursday, 23.—A Convention of Spiritualists at Providence. Communication in the shape of a piece of Poetry was received from Andrew Jackson, ex-President of the United States, and from another party the plan for a patent Window Fastener, Both[productions were very wear.

Friday, 24.—A white crow makes its appearance ar Manayunk. On account of its beautiful white-ness the sportsmen are trying to "spot" it. Saturday, 25.—Series Column Day. The Editor hears much of the "Close'or the Season." but, in view of the appearance of himself and others, thinks things look like the old Clothes of the Season.

> "THE END OF THE SEASON." BY OUR BACHELOR CONTRIBUTOR.

The Summer Season's over: No more I haunt the Springs or Shores, No more I lie beneath the Trees, And suffer fear of rural Boars.

I feel no headache warning, Of sunstroke 'neath the skies of fire: I dance no more till morning With mortal Maids who must perspire.

No more I haunt the Stables, To learn how Racing-matters go; No more I sleep on Tables. Because "the House is crowded so !"

No more the Milk and Honey They promise there so full are mine, But I, for much less money, Can at Home much better dine!

No more the famous Waters Disgust my taste and make me ill; No Marriageable Daughters Are now thrust at me, "will or nil."

Sweet Blondes and Brunettes haughty, No more with dressed-up Tradesmen flirt, No more their Nags (2.40) Dash by and cover me with dirt!

The dread Mosquito, singing, No more torments me with his ways, Nor, sharper Bills a-bringing, By landlords in the settling days.

The Sea its rocks are scathing, As heretofore; but Beauty bright No more goes in a-bathing In togs that render her a Fright!

I see no white sails dotting Old Ocean's bosom, blue and bread; I go no more a-yachting, And lose my dinner-overboard !

Bluffed, badgered, bored, and bandied, No more am I; I'm Home at last; And own up-to be candid-I'm very glad the Season's past !

AT HOME, August 24. Mr. Series Editor: -Pm home; so is my wife (she often wished I was when the was at the watering place); so is my children; and the first thing I did after naving clean sheets put on the Leds, was to have the afternoon sheets (of course I mean THE EVENING TELEGRAPH) put in the box door, and now as I sip my tea with no brass bands blowing and pounding in my ears, no brass warter also "blowing" in my cars as to how much troubte he had to secure the little piece of chop, which I paid ninety dollars a week for myself and little family to look at; no one to snatch the choice dishes off the table. just as you are making up your mind to eat; no report passed around that Mr. De Jones, a newly arrived guest, is down with the Cholera: nothing, in fact, to cause a depression of the healthful spirits or a malformation of the purse: but in my own hired house, the landlord of which says he will not raise the rent, I sit down to take the first comfortable meal, the first comtortable read, the first comfortable digestion of material and mental food that I have had for six weeks. I have been for the space of time alluded to what the Rev. Mr. Willets calls "a Mental Dyspeptic." I read and knew nothing; I looked and saw nothing; I listened and heard nothing of a definite character; I have had one continuous Night-mare; and the only real and substantial thing that reminds me of the 'Season' is this little memorandum which the dear landlord of our Hotel gave me at

ADAMS & EVARTS, Proprietors. This, Mr. Editor, if nothing else, will make a man appreciate his home, and in thankfulness I hunted over all of the Prayer Books to find some suitable expression in words for my feelings, and the "Deliverance from Pestilence" was the only one that met our case, which I read the first thing after THE TELEGRAPH to my stricken and afflicted and almost penniless family. Yours, at all seasons,

JOSIAH WEATHERUP. [ADVERTISEMENT.] ON ACCOUNT OF THE GREAT ON ACCOUNT OF THE GREAT interest manifested in I resident Johnson's trip to Chicago, and the desire of many parties to keep on his trail, the steamer Tom Smith will make an excursion in the wake of the State Rights. from Walnut Street whart to Camden, when she car-ries the distinguished traveller across the river, thus giving the excursionists a rear view of the President and his Cabinet, and perhaps of General Grant.

Organizing.

In the National Labor Convention at Wash ington, the report of the Committee on a National Organ was under consideration when last heard from. This seems to be a direct thrust at Beecher's church organ, which is reckoned the Organ of Taste among musicians, and we hope that this sectional spirit, which shows such a want of Harmony between the we sections, if not in the instruments, may not be played upon in that Key any longer, but will find a permanent Stop in the doings of the Convention.

TAN QUICKLY AND EFFECTUALLY removed in two days by L'Email de Paris, 10 be had everywhere.

If Email is out of a job, we would recommend him to try his hand on the pile of Ashes in Dock street, as that is a greater nuisance than Tau to any neighborhood, and we will allow the distinguished foreigner a week to complete the job, although he says that he "can remove Tan in two days." Now is a chance for a first-class certificate as a beautifier!

THE ATOMIZER.

Dr. VON MOSCHZISKER asserts with the atmost confidence that his system of treating LUNG, THROAT, CHEST Diseases. CATARRH, ASIHMA, and all maiades of the digestive organs, by the use of the ATOMIZER, is the only reliable one. Since the introduction of this system cases have been brought to his office. No 1631 WALNUT Street, in which every other possible means have been truitlessly employed, but readily yleided to his treatment. The ATOMIZER is at APARATUS constructed on scientific principles, which, by a mechanical arrangement, either by atmospheric pressure or steam, converts any medic he into a fine SPRAY, and readily conveys it into the BRONCHHAL TUBES or LUNGS, with the RESPIRATORY CURRENT. The medicines submitted to the scion of this APPARATUS lose nothing of their HEMICAL VALUE, as in other preparations, but are received into the RESPIRATORY ORGANS in their fall MEDICINAL STRENGTH. CARD .- A large number of tickets remaining unsold, it will be necessary to postpone the drawing until THURSDAY, the 11th of October, 1866, at which time it will positively occur.

The many swindling schemes that have been presented to the public during the past lew months, somewhat delayed our sales, until we were able to satisfy the people throughout the country that this enterpiise was genuine, and solely for charitable purposes.
