-The National Baptist says:-We do not think the workings of open communion among Bap-tists in England will commend the practice to our denomination in this country. The departure from strict communion has brought about propositions for union with Pedobaptist churches, and here is the proposed article of faith on the subject of baptism:- "The divine matitution of baptism to be administered to infants, or if not then administered, to adults on confession of the truths of Christianity, provided that a difference of opinion upon the time and mode of administration of baptism be in itself no bar to church fellow-

Catholic. -Cardinal Andrea, for the crime of sympathizing with Italy, has been deposed from his bishopric and from an abbacy that he held. He has written to his flock, protesting against the act, and appealing from the Pope of the present to "the Pope better informed," and to the universal Church. This is a new sort of appeal for a cardinal to make. -The number of Catholic elergy in the ecclesiastical province of San Francisco, which in cludes California and, we suppose, Nevada, i ninety-eight; the number of churches and chapels, one hundred and fifteen.

-By the will of the late James H. Behon formerly of Norfolk, Va., who died abroad, about $80,000 has been left to the Bishop of Richmond for the benefit of the Catholic Church

-Rev. Asa Turner, of Denmark, Iowa, is universally spoken of as the "father" of Congregaionalism in that State. He has recently preached historical discourse commemorative of the progress of these churches during the term of his residence in the West. He was one of what is called the "New Haven company" of young preachers who went to Illinois in 1836. The territory of Iowa was organized in 1838, and the next year Turner crossed the river and planted his standard in the town of Denmark In 1840 he had formed three churches, with pastors, and an aggregate of one hundred and ton members. At the end of the first decade they had increased to forty-eight churches, with 1604 members; and in 1860 to one hundred and fifty-one churches, with above five thousand church members. They have formed themselves into eleven associations, one of which is for German and one for Welsh churches. Their benevolent contributions last year were $12,408. In 1842 they began to agitate for a college, and in 1848 commenced instruction in Iowa College, at Davenport. Owing to various difficulties the College was removed to Grinnell. In September, 1859, instruction, which had been suspended for a time, was resumed, and the catalogue of 1866 records a faculty consisting of a president, five pro-fessors, a principal of the ladies' department, three stated lecturers, and two hundred and ten pupils in all the departments. At the present time measures are in very successful progress to give the College a liberal endowment -The new Congregational Church at Washington, D. C., Rev. Dr. C. B. Boynton, pastor, has recently broken ground for its new edifice on the corner of Tenth street, near the Patent Office. The location is high and eligible, and the building is to be about eighty-five by one bundred and fifty feet on the ground, including lecture-room. It is to be of stone, and will cost about $100,000. The membership is small, consisting largely of Government employes, but the enterprise is well backed up by the liberality of the denomination throughout the country. Dr. Boynton is not only a truly earnest and evangelical preacher, but eminently sound and outspoken on the great questions that are now agi-tating the country. This congregation furnishes another rallying-point for the liberal and pro-gressive moral opinion of the capital, the en-couragement of which is of vast importance to the nation at large, as well as to that particular locality. Yet, says the Evangelical Messenger, "there is danger that the Congregationalists will fall behind all others at Washington. The work of church building is being rapidly pushed forward at this time by various sister denomina tions in the Federal city. The Lutherans are n the act of erecting a church that will cost $75,000; the Baptists have nearly completed one costing $100,000, and one man has paid it all. The Wesley Chapel Society is making efforts to secure $200,000 in order to erect a 'Metropolitan Church.' The Episcopalians and Roman Catholics are also moving in the same direction.

-Of the 516 members of the late National Congregational Council, 421 were born in New England, and the fathers and mothers of nearly all the rest were born in New England; and yet the council was gathered from 25 different States

-The First Church in New Haven, Connecticut, has raised $10,000 to be invested for the benefit of its retiring pastor, Rev. Dr. Bacon, besidee which they propose to pay him an annuity of $1000. -The number of Congregational churches in Michigan have been increased the past year by ten or eleven, not withstanding the loss of one or two by death or transfer. -Rev. Silas McKeen, D.D., has closed his pastorate with the Congregational church at

Bradford, Vermont, after a ministry of fifty-two

—At the call of the Bishop, several gentlemen interested in the erection of a church at Atlantic City met at the Mansion House Hotel, on Thursday, August 9. The meeting was opened with prayer by the Bishop, and after the appointment of a secretary, a full and free inter-change of opinion was had on the subject of the erection of a church building. The decision was unanimous as to the necessity of the proposed building, and the importance of collecting funds, so that the good work might proceed without delay. An executive committee, consisting of twelve gentlemen, was appointed for the purpose of collecting tunds; and the Bishop was requested to prepare an appeal in behalf of the object.

-The Northampton (Mass.) Free Press says that the Right Rev. F. D. Huntingdon, D. D., Bishop elect of Maine, may fairly be considered as belonging to the Church Militant. On Friday morning he despatched, on Mount Holyoke, rattlesnake over four feet in length and eight inches in circumference, the snake being coiled under the feet of his horse ready to spring, when discovered. A portion of the rattles were lost in the conflict, making it impossible to state the age. Dr. Huntington says, however, that he has been engaged in a warfare with "the old serpent" all his life, and he thinks he has fairly got him this time. -Bishop McIlvaine has heard from Bishop Bedell, under date of July 19. He was then on the coast of England, expecting to arrive at Falmouth that night. The voyage had been very calm and agreeable. He says:—"My throat still remains weak and occasionally painful, forbidding exertion and preventing any freedom of use in conversation." He expected to be in Paris before the Sunday following date, and thence to go at once to the mountain air of Switzerland. Mrs. Bedell continued quite feeble, but seemed a little improved by the voyage. -During the tenth quarterly session of the Schuylkill and Lehigh Convention, held re-cently, Grace Church, Allentown, Pa., was con-secrated by Bishop Fotter, of New York, and the corner-stone of another new church was laid at Allentown Furnace, by the Rev. E. N. Potter, -Bishop McIlvaine, of Ohio, reports for the last year 539 candidates confirmed by himself, and 287 by Bishop Bedell, making in all 826. Six admitted to the order of deacons, and four presbyters. He laments the small number of candidates coming forward to the ministry.

-The Journal of Convention furnishes the following summary of the statistics of the diocese of Vermont:—Families, 1423; Individuals, 5498; Baptisms (adults 47, infants 151). 198; Confirmed, 73; Communications, 2399; Sun

-The Bishop of Michigan, in his annual ad dress, records a larger amount of work than in any former year. He reports the whole number confirmed in forty-two parishes and seven other places at 751.

-The Rev. Francis D. Hoskins, having signed the charge of Grace Church, Honesdale, has accepted the rectorship of Christ Church,

Towanda, in this State. —W. H. Milburn, the celebrated blind preacher, has accepted a call to the temporary rectorship of the Trinity (Episcopal) Church in Lutheran.

-A correspondent of the London Christian Work, writing from Berlin, states that it is tes titled from various parts of the country, that the churches have never been so crowded for a long series of years, and never were the congre gations more attentive and devout. I was told that in one of the provincial towns two hundred Jews attended one of the services in the Lutheran Church-a service conducted, too, by a man who faithfully preaches Christ and Him crucified. The soldiers evince, too, a readiness to receive and use the Scriptures and religious books that is very gratifying. Visitors at the hospitals here in Berlin are asked for Testaments or prayer-boo's, in decided preference to books of amusement. There are not a few carnest Christians, too, in the army. The authorities of all grades show, also, every disposition to facili-Carlstian work. They regard it, even where the heart does not speak, as a proper thing-and what a gain that is! The Viennese papers made great mockery of the day of humiliation here. Some of the expressions employed were almost blasphemous; and, singular to say, the Austrian army suffered a signal defeat on that day,

-A German Lutheran Church has been organized in Southwark, and Rev. H. Grahn, of Bernville, Pa., elected pastor. The parish school connected with this church has long been held under the auspices of Zion and St. Michael's Churches. During the past twelve months the Lutherans have erected the new St. Stephen's Evangelical Lutheran Church in West Philadel-phia; also remodelled St. Mark's English Lu-theran Church, on Spring Garden street, and erected a fine church in Germantown.

-It is stated in a high church paper that in Iceland a new Bishop of the National Lutheran Church is to be consecrated by an American and a Scotch Bisnop in order to revive "the Apos-tolic succession of an undoubted title,"

Methodist.

-The speech of the Rev. Robert Wallace, Dubiin, in the Conference at Leeds, sets forth the difficulties under which Methodism is maintained in Ireland. The Fenian excitement had done an injury which many years could not repair. The operations of Methodism are carried on in a country where seventy-seven and a half per cent. of the population belong to the Roman Catholic Church, and this Church is well organized, under talented leadership. is well organized, under talented leadership. extending all over the kingdom, watching every individual, from peer to peasant, so that no one could join the Protestants without incurring bitter persecution. And yet Methodism had scattered into every part of the country. Their aim "was not to have grand churches and congregations in favored localities, but to carry the Gospel of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ to every part of the land. There are one hundred and ten circuit ministers in Ireland, and twenty-five missionaries, and these ministered to one thousand five hundred societies. The ministers in Ireland have to contend for ever and ever with discouragements. Whatever may be the success attending their ministrations, it is their fate to see year by year their society melting away under the tide of emigration, and to some extent to see the ground cut away from under their fect. It is a most discouraging thing for a Methodist preacher to labor under the consciousness that, notwithstanding all his labors and all his successes, he should be going back-

-Dr. McFerrin, Secretary of the Missionary Board, in a communication explanatory of the debt of the Missionary Society of the Church South, states that the debt is $60,000; that no part of it was created by employing chaplains in the Confederate armies, but was occasioned the failure of the collections to meet the authorized drafts upon the treasury. A part of debt was created before the war. During the war funds were collected to meet the indebtedness; all these funds were in Confederate money, and, to make them the more secure, they were bonded; but when the Confederacy exploded, money and bonds exploded likewise, and proved to be worthless. The collections were in Confederate money, and could only be vested in Confederate securities. Hence the failure. "The way of transgressors is hard."

-The Asbury Methodist Episcopal Church (colored), in Washington, D. C., laid the cornerstone of a new editice on the 5th inst. A large audience listened to the very interesting and impressive exercises. The building stands on the site of the former one will cost about $15,000, and will be completed by the 1st of ber. Over $6000 has already been raised for the enterprise. The society is very prosperous, 140 members having been added during the present pastorate of Rev. Richard P. Bell.

-Rev. W. F. Warren, lately connected with the Methodist Biblical Institute in Bremen, Germany, reached New York on the 21st ult. Warren returns to assume a professorship in the Methodist General Biblical Institute, near Bosion. Professor Warren is bringing out a new work on Systematic Divinity, which is eagerly looked for by others besides Methodists. -Camp-meetings are in progress in a number places within a few miles of New York, on Long Island, New Jersey, and up the North river. The camp-meeting at Morristown, New Jersey, which began on the 20th instant, Is expected to be a great occasion, and the greatest gathering of Methodists ever witnessed in East Jersey. The Annual Meeting of the National Asso.

ciation of Local Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church, will be held in Brooklyn, New York, Sept. 29th. Delegates from this and other cities are requested to send their names to the Rev. John Cottier, No. 7 Maiden lane, New York.

-The Northwestern Christian Advocate has returns of recent revivals in the Methodist Churches of Illinois, Iowa, Michigan, Wiscon-sin, Indiana, and Minnesota, which show 9008 converted, 1233 reclaimed, 1377 joined by letter, and 10,408 joined on trial.

-A few Sundays since, eighty persons were re-ceived into the Green Street Methodist Episcopal Church, in full communion, out of eighty-two who joined on probation six months ago.

-The Rev. L. C. Matlack has been employed by the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, in this city, in the place of the Rev. Mr. Brindle, released on account of ill health. -A new Methodist church is now being built at Morristown, N. J.; it will be completed in the course of six months. A camp meeting commenced at this place on Tuesday. -The General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Canada, meets in Orono, east of Toronto, Wednesday, August 22d. -The camp meetings held at Pennsgrove, and other points in New Jersey, by the Methodists have been, it is said, very successful.

Presbyterian.

-Twenty-five churches of the New School Presbyterian Church have received each from 50 to 159 members. These twenty-five highly favored churches are not in any one section of the Church, but scattered all over it. They belong to thirteen different synods, churches report additions of from 25 to 50 mem bers each. Thus, of the 10,000 additions, more than half are reported by 115 of the churches. It the remaining 1400 churches had gained even one-half as many members as the 115, the sum total of additions would have been over

49,000. -The Rev. William E. Jones, of Genesee, N. Y., has received a unanimous call from the First Presbyterian Church of Cedarville, New

-The Rev. J. T. Cooper, D. D., of the United Presbyterian Church, has arrived in this city from California, in good health.

Missions.

-Aletter from Bishop Gobat, for twenty years Bisnop of Jerusalem, gives an encouraging ac-count of the progress of religion in that city. Its population now is about fourteen thousand. There are four regular services every Sunday in four different languages, and two prayer meetings during the week. An orphan asylum con-tains forty-three boys, who are fed, clothed, and taught, beside twelve or fifteen other scholars. The Bishop has eleven schools in other parts of the country.

-The Committee on Evangelization of the Vaudois Synod, shut up among the Alps, are actively engaged in missionary work at 23 stations, with 59 agents. The sum total received by the Committee of Evangelization amounts to 128,000 francs in round numbers. England has given 80,000 francs; America, 32,000; France, 4000; Sweden about as much.

-In a letter to the Central Christian Advocate, Rev. Peter Cartwright says:-"I have spent sixty-two years a regular itinerant preacher, and have never lost six months of that time by sickness, and have never received the small sum or salary allowed but two years out of that sixty-two years." -The American Board of Foreign Missions holds its annual meeting this year, September 25th. at Pittsfield, Mass. Rev. Dr. Todd is Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements, -A letter from Rev. Dr. Martin, missionary from the Presbyterian Board to Pekin, says that the Chinese empire is open to its very centre to all who choose to enter.

-A new society has been formed in England, called the Palestine Christian Union to the Arabe, among whom a spirit of religious inquiry, it is said, is rapidly spreading.

-The obligations of the Board of Foreign Missions falling due between the present time and the 1st of October amount to $12,000. There is in the treasury $1000.

—The disbursements up to July 1 from the missionary treasury amounted to $500,000, just one-half of the appropriated "million."

Bistory turnishes no parallel to the patriotism, courage, and fidelity of those men who, from the beginning of the Rebellion to the end, fought the good fight and kent the faith.

The question to be decided is whether loyalty is to be proscribed and punished in the persons of patriots like these, or treason rewarded and honored in the persons of the guilty authors and agents of the Rebellion. Shall the loyal masses or the baffled and decated traiters govern the country. In these goest issues all are vitally concerned, and our Southern compatriots have instinctively turned towards the spot whence the Great Charter of American Liberty was first proclaimed, and propose within the sacred shadows of Independence Hall, to renew their vows of fidelity to the principles of that immortal creed, and to take counsel with their Union friends.

On behalf of the loyal men of the Commonwealth, or that immortal creed, and to take counsel with their Union friends.

On behalf of the loyal men of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, this Committee hereby gratefully extend a cordial we come to these patriots and friends from the southern States. All who come will the received with open arms and warm hearts.

The Union men of the entire Commonwealth are cordially and earnestly invited to come here and honor the eccasion with their presence, and to enable all to coufer together upon the present and future of our imperiled country.
