THE WORLD OF FASHION.

Autumn Bonnets-The Latest Revolution -First New Styles from Europe, Etc. Styles of bonnets for early fall have re-cently been imported from Paris. Many of them differ materially from the summer styles. Most of the new bonnets are intended particularly for evening, and are used as pattern hats by the city milliners. There is little doubt that the next arrival of Parisian bonnets-which will be in time for the general opening next month-will bring changes in the shape and mode of trimming. Then the White French felt, in round hats and in bonnets, is, in some respects, a novelty. When this material is tastefully trimmed it is quite attractive. The white left hats have an unassuming look, and, though costly, are not tashion for the fall will be definitely esta-

There is a new shape, narrow and long at the sides, nearly flat on the top of the head, and drooping in front. Another is a small square of lace or silk upon a stiff frame, tastefully trimmed, having long lace streamers, and only covering the crown of the head. Among opera hats is a unique style, consisting of a small circle formed of five large velvet leaves, with loops of a black chain falling below it, and wide streamers of gossamer lace (either white or black, to suit the fancy of the wearer) attached at the side, and floating gracefully over the shoulders. One in form of the Gipsy Queen has the edge pointed, resembling a star, and when finished with lace, flowers, and pendants, is very pretty.

Some of the bonnets are without wide strings, but have a band of velvet, with a fall of lace or crystal pendants, in place of strings, in a long loop in front. Among the many bonnets recently imported these are likely to attract attention.

A beautiful evening hat is of Fanchon shape, made of marabout-a white, soft, wavy down-with a wealth of cherry-colored velvet, flowers and green leaves around the edge, It is troo! It is troo! both back and front. A cherry-colored velvet I heard a child across band forms the inside trimming at the top; streamers of velvet ribbon of the same color, a yard and a half long, float at the sides, and the strings are of white lace, finished on the edge with narrow point lace. The wholesale price of this bonnet is thirty-six dollars.

Another pretty hat is of Fanchon shape, the centre of marabout, and the edge consisting of two or three rows of velvet leaves. garnet colored, and shaded from the lightest to the darkest hue, with a fall of marabout at the back. Velvet leaves form the face trimming, and instead of strings there is a band of velvet with a tall of lace in front.

A decided novelty is a brown velvet bonnet, the front close fitting, very much like the cottage shape, with a turban crown. It is trimmed plainly, a small white ostrich feather on one side, near the front edge, a strip of brown velvet on the opposite side of the crown, a velvet band the only inside trimming, with strings of white moire.

There are also bonnets with crowns resembling some of the snapes in straw now worn. There is, besides, the more than usual variety of round hats, among which, as novelties, are the Douro, a turban; the Moscow, also a turban, made of French felt, in white, black, or drab; and the Nelson.

Although very few flowers are used in decorating the pattern hats recently im-ported, yet the flowers on exhibition are varied, rich, and beautiful, and doubtless will be employed profusely later in the season. There is a new trimming-ostrich fringe, about two inches wide. It is formed of ostrich feathers, headed with jet beads. It will make rich trimming, but will be expensive as well as elegant.

Plumes to be worn on the round hats are of all hues, and are more showy than usual. Black and white plumes are thrown quite in the shade by the displays of orange, red, blue, green, purple, etc.

It is likely that much trimming will be fashionable this fall on bonnets and on all apparel for ladies .- N. Y. Evening Post.

AMUSEMENTS.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.-Ristori, the greatest tragedienne in the world, appears for a limited number of nights at the academy, commencing on the 12th of November. Mr. Grau announces from New York that Madame Adelaide Ristors, the celebrated tragedienne, accompanied by the members of the fine dramatic company lately organized for the above establishment, and her suite, will embark at Brest, France, on board the French transatlantic steamship Pereire, on Saturday, the 1st of September, for New York. It is expected that the distinguished party will arrive among us on the 12th proximo, and soon atterwards commence the fulfilment of Ristori's engagements throughout the United States and Havana. The enterprise of forming the Ristori company was difficult, and attended with a very heavy outlay of money; indeed, it is asserted that were it not for the existence of a very troubled state of society in Italy, consequent on the agitations of the war with Austria, the management would have found it utterly impos siple to obtain the services of such an assemblage of talented artistes as will attend Madame Ade laide to our shores.

As matter possessing very considerable interest, we publish for the information of the public all the particulars concerning the distinguished strangers, commencing with a list of the artistic personnel of the Ristori Dramatic Company which is composed of the following:-Signore Adelaide Ristori, Antoinetta Zammarini, Adele Gianmartini, Maria Malagoli, Marietta Bergou-zoni, Maria Greppi, Luigia Glech, Virginia Casati, Annetta buti, Graziosa Glech, Rosida Fontana.

There are also the Signori Giovanni Carboni, Giacomo Glech, Achine Cottini, Ludovico Mamini, Gulio Buti, Giovanni Maria Borghi, Antonio Maiagoli, Napoleone Mazzidolfi, Carlo Buti, Pietro Ferrari, Paolo Vega, Cesare Ristori, Francesco Lisara, Giovanni Tessero, Frederico Verzura, Luigi Troiani, Andrea Baltana, Asdrubale Corsi, Achille Gilberti.

The following are the names of authors who have written expressly for Madame Ristori and her dramatic company:—Paolo Giscometti. Er-nest Legouve, Guiseppe Montane, Ippolito d'Astelli, and their plays will be produced in America. Giutio Tareano, Francesco den 'On-garo, Gastao Carri and Napoleone Giotti are the writers who have translated for Madame Ristori the dramatic oher demores of English, German, and French poets, and which will be represented during their engagement in this country. The administrator of the Italian dramatic company is Mauro Corticelli. Of the members of the company Signora Antonieta Zammarini and Achille Cottin are members of the Belech-Bon company, which is renowned in Europe. Mr. Grant has also made the acquisition of Ludovico Mancint, a very distinguished artists, who is as great in comedy as in tragedy. It was very difficult to induce this gentleman to relinquish his engagement in Naples and undertake a journey to America.

Friend is played for the last time here to-night. To-morrow evening Miss Noemie de Marguerittes appears in Fanchon. Next Monday the fall and winter season will be inaugurated by Mad'he Felicita Vestvali. NEW CHESNUT STREET THEATRE. - Our Mutuai

THE WALNUT STREET THEATRE.—An immeuse audience assembled last evening to witness the performance of the great Butlay Family. DEche le Perilleuse takes the place of the Miarara Leap, and is really more fearful than its predecessor in appearance. M. Henri Agoust appears each evening in his unrivalled scance of ingeles. juggiery. New and beautiful tableaux are presented each evening, and these with the premiere danseuse, Senorita Rosita, divide the affections of the ladies. The great Spiral Mountain Feat and a comic pantomime are also given every Next Monday evening. Mr. J. S. Clarke, the favorite comedian, will commence a six nuchts' engagement at the Walnut, and he will be followed by Miss Kate Bateman.

THE NEW AMERICAN THEATRE. - The Worrell Sisters met with a very flattering reception last evening, and everything passed off in a pleasant manner. The Eloes is repeated to-night. It is a piece which displays the talents and accomplishments of the Worrell Sisters to fine advantage. Sophie, Irene, and Jennie appear in beautiful dances and pleasing songs in every act of the piece.

THE CHAMPIONSHIP.—The great match game of billiards at Sansom Screet Hall, this evening, will be immensely attractive. Ladies and gentle-men can contemplate this ancient game with all its modern mutations as practised by two of our most eminent "Knights of the Cue." M. Victor Estephe is to coptest with E. J. Plunkett for the champion cue of Pennsylvanis, and the game will be a remarkably fine one.

Mr. Nasby at Last Gets His Post Office. CONFEDRIT X ROADS (which is in the State uv Kentucky), August 12, 1866.

At last I hev it! Finally it come! After five weary trips to Washington, after much weary waiting and much travail I hev got it. I am now Postmaster at Confedrit X Roads, and am dooly installed in my new position. Ef I ever hed any doubts ez to A. Johnson bein a better man than Paul the Apostle, a look at my com-mission removes it. Ef I ketch myself a feelin that he deserted us onnecessarily five years ago, another look and my resentment softens into pity. Ef I doubt his Democrisy I look at that blessed commission and am reassured, for a President who cood turn out a wounded Federal soldier and appoint sich a man ez me must be

The next mornin I took possesshun uv the "Am I awake or am I dreamin," thought I. No! no! it is no dream. Here is the stamps, bere is the blanks, and here is the commission!

I heerd a child across the way singin-"I'd like to be a angel.
And with the angels stand."

I woodn't, thought I. I woodn't trade places with an angel even up. A offis with but little to do, with four erocerys within a stone's throw, is ez much happiness ez my bilers will stand without bustin. A angel 4 sooth! PETROLEUM V. NASBY, P. M.
