COUCH AND ORR.

For the Veening "elegraph. When the late Wigwam Convention was being beld in our city, an observer took his stand on Mount Fair-otism, where he could see all, and he sends us a view of it as follows:—

• d hasachusetts reats not on a Conch, South : arolina does not s and in O/r.

For Couch and Orr said naught but did so much. Inside the Wigwam, that some people saw, What tears their love from Copperheads could draw, While arm-in-arm they bill and coo, "My Policy" as law.

Then politicians weep, and then they cry, That men who led Rebellion treason, crime, Shail now have equal power, and stand as high. As men wno through the contest stood sublime, Who all or d, suffered, conquered for all time, Because that is ' My Policy," my own fixed purpose, prime.

To take from Congress what is theirs to do, And vest it all in one man who, 'tis plain, First contradicts himself, then Cougress too, And then declares "My Policy" shall reign, And moves from office all true, patriot men-Who will not wask his track or join his train, And weeps for joy to know his Wigman gain; Show, truly, that those Wigwam tears were not all shed in vain

The cheers and tears, and music had their flow. With work prepared then Wigwam saw his sway; Seenred full hush, and found bis plan could go, Read out resolves, and his address straightway, Passed all right through, adjourned without delay; But had misgivings in his heart that all might not obey.

With so much done, 'tie strange to think, that on that very day The leaders to themselves, perhaps, did rather slyly

Our track is laid, the sceam is up, we can't have stop or stay. "My Policy" we must put through, or else, where is our pay? FRILADELPHIA, August 21, 1866.

COPPERHEADS AND COLORED MEN. To the Editor of The Evening Telegraph: -

Sejourning in your beautiful city, perhaps it is not proper that I should intrude upon your columns. Nevertheless, I desire to call attention to two little facts which loom up into large proportions, as showing the outrageous hypocrisy of the Judas-faced Copperheads and unworthy Andrew Johnson.

Your Rebel organs here, as well as those elsewhere, are very bolsterous about Mr. Frederick Douglass, a colored citizen of New York, joining in the procession on Monday. Yet a colored man o much darker hue is a travelling companion of the Copperhead Mogul, A Johnson; and his "d-d clerk" (as General Sherman called a Cabinet secretary), W. H. Seward, takes "great pleasure," and regards it as an "honor" to introduce the colored man aforesaid to the people who assemble along their trip to see Grant and Farragut. I refer to M. Romero, the Mexican Minister, emphatically a colored man, who would, under the Coppethead State Rights policy of class legislation in "a white man's" Government, have no rights a white man is bound to respect.

Yet these wretched party hypocrites do not how about this colored gendeman accompany-ing their master on his filthy electioneering tour to the Garden City of the Northwest—a tour made ostensibly to do reverence to the memory of the patriotic dead, but basely perverted, as no other President has ever stooped to do, to denouncing as traitors the great party which elected him, and stirring up bad blood of bad men against a loyal and industrious Congress.

Again, this Wilkes Boo h President, amongst his unumerable disgusting personal references to his humble and modest sell, calls attention to his "record," and naively assumes that we can judge of his tuture by his past. We can, thank God! We remember that in 1852, in a convertion in Nashville, he tavored Secession; we remember that he was a lifelong pro-slavery Democrat; we remember abat, according to his "record," he supported with all his exalted at flity John C. Breckinridge for President; we remember that he was soon after rapid in denunciation of traitors, and would catch them, try them, and hang them; that he was the self-impaled "Moses" of the poor negro; that he got on the popular Lincoln ticket in a subordinate position, and by a strange concidence got int a the Presidential chair, and, from the record, has left the Republican Union party. forsaken his Southern compatriots, and joined

A neavy sedge, and some bars taken from a blacksmith's shop in the neighborhood had been used with much vigor. A number of their stee wedges were driven around and between the doors without effect. CERTIFICATE OF JUDGE FOX.

Measrs Murray & Wene, Agen's Let's Safes.

Gentlemen —We had a No. 7 LILLLE'S PATENT CHILLE, I AND WEOUGHY-IRON SAFE in our office, on 1 x change street at he time of the great fire of July 4. 1866. The sale was in the second story of the building, and felt to the colar, where it lay on they unprotected for 15 days. When diging it out vesterday afternoon, we ound he bricks surrounding it too hot to bold in the books and papers in a good state of preservation. This safe probably had as severe a test as any in the Gre, as Saies of other makers in adjoining buildings had their CON TEN'S BURNED TO CINDERS.

This is the SECIND TARE HILSS AFE HAS BEEN TENTED B. FIRE, as it was in the store of F. Raharits who it was burned in February, 1861, at which time it also preserved its contents.

Our confidence in the fire-proo quainties of LILLIF'S SAFE S is increased by unpara eled this, and we have no doubt of their UPFRI RITY OVER ALL OTHERS.

Yourstruly.

EDWARD & FRED FOX.

No sate of Lillie's make was destroyed in this fire, or al cc to preserve the contents, which ful y endorses the high reputation of these Safes as being the most reliable fire proof protection made. The fo lowing important acrs are most thoroughly demonstrated in the above certificates:—

First. That Lillie's a e stands the second fire as well as the first, and both Safe and contents still fit for use, while other Safes are to r h ess after the first fire, and, if the fire is severe, books and papers have to be copied, it preserved at all, and very frequent y lost.

Second That Lillie's Safes are honestly drill-proof perfectly wedge-proof p wder-proof, and in every sens of the word, burgiar-; roof and as a further evidence, I assert that there nev r has been to this time, one of Lillie's Bank Sales robbed (that Is, Sales two metes thick). A word to the public and to my old triends and patrons :- My motto is "A nimble sixpence rather than a slow shilling." I have taken a roomy, convenient cheap store, for five sears, on Arch arrest, instead of a dear one on Chesnut My carage is done with one horse instead of three horses. Foonomy and small profits is my motto. The Sa'e Works are now removed from Troy and in successful operation near Philadelphia, in this State and I must hereafter to be able to furnish my patrons, cheaply and promptly with the best Sa'es Vaults, Locks etc , in the United States or any other country.

M. C. SADLER, Agent No. 639 ARCH STREET.

P. S -I notice much has been said latterly about dry filling, alum, etc. I have only to say that usually, and generally, LILLIE'S SAFE is free from dampness and does not mould books or papers; and will not, it perfectly manufactured, and hereaster all LILLIE'S SAFEd ill be warranted not to mould M C.
