SPICET METRE-ILLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS FOR THE

September. Monday, 3.—Arrival of Fattle Stewart, Parson Brownlow, Frederick Douglass, and other Re-constructed, Non-Reconstructed, and badly constructed worthies in the city.

Tuesday, 4.—Discharge of Raymond, the man of the Times, from the Republican Party, but Raymond refuses to discharge the $20,000 in his hands due the Repubs.

Wednesday, 5 .- Convention of Southern Loy-alists, now sitting in this city, adjourn to have their Photographs taken in independence Square. As to the merit of the thing, we must decide in tayor of the negative. Thursday, 6.—Illumination of the city continued. The Union League House has its roof burned off, supposed by a too free use of gas in the building by the politicians. Friday, 7 .- The President and his party get safely to Chicago. The President makes a speech. The event being rather a solemn one, Mr. Seward's speeches were not reckoned in order. Saturday, S .- SERIES COLUMN DAY. The Editor having watched the proceedings of the non-reconstructed this week, tries his hand at re-constructing some old jokes for his readers.

ONE OF MOTHER CARRY'S CHICKENS.

Latest Foreign News by Atlantic Cable. Beblin, September 8.—There is a report of a great accident at Berlin. The Prussian Chambers are broken up. No account of any other articles being damaged in the city.

THE REVOLT IN CANDY .- The Candy outbreak has had the effect of making the King of Greece a little sweet on the people. At Taffy the excitement is at the greatest.

FLOBENCE, September 8 .- Edwin Forrest is stopping at the new Water Cure at this place. (Note-Since the above was sent, we have learned that Florence, New Jersey, is meant, not Italyand the "Edwin Forrest" alluded to is probably the steamboat by that name that plies in the Delaware river. These little mistakes by the cable are sometimes very perplaxing, and are doubtless owing to the weakness of the signals.

The City of Paris sailed to-day with 2,500,000 francs on board. That, according to the last census returns, is about all the Franks there are in the city.

Returns from the Atlantic Cable Company show an annual income that will amply repay the interest on this large Sinking Fund, and great hopes are entertained that that part which was sunk last year may be grappled up.

LONDON, September 8 .- The Drait of the articles of the treaty of Peace was signed at Vienna. The amount of the Draft is not given.

LIVERPOOL, September 8.-The market for breadstuffs was firm. A little looseness was noticed in the early part of the week, and was supposed to proceed from a slight attack of Cholera Morbus. Cheese is active. Feathers are Down.

DIP-LOW-ME-SEE.

The following despatch from the Associated Press shows with what honors the Presidential party pass through Ohio, and how the Secretary of State expects to be saluted hereafter;-(From the Associated Press.)

"Tolebo, Ohio, September 4 .- Joming out of the crowd, the Secretary of State kissed a little child that was held up near his path by a fond mother. Saluted by cannon and snouts, the train started for Detroit."

The Presidential party is not expected to turn up its nose at anybody, particularly as it is looking for future favors. Yet we cannot see how it can be saluted by the "snouts" of the people, without "turning up its nose" to everybody.

OUR NON-BECONSTRUCTED SOUTHERN PRIENDS HAVING A "BRUSH" WITH THE "BLACKS."

CABALISTIC.

Since the success of the Atlantic Cable expedition, conducted by Mr. Glass, no one will be able to say that Glass is not a Conductor.

The difference between the cables of 1865 and of 1866 is, that the latter has been laid by perseverapce, the former was per severapce lost.

THE PRESIDENTIAL CATECHISM-

Called the Shorter. Now that the custom of catechising Presidents s coming in vogue, and as President Johnson is often a little nonplussed by questions sprung upon him at Railroad Greetings and Town Hall receptions, by irresponsible persons, we have at some trouble prepared a Catechism (without the advice and consent of the Senate), which we present with the hope that the study of it will become common with persons looking towards the Presidency, and that interrogators in future will contine themselves to the questions in the book.

THE PRESIDENTIAL CATECUISM. What is the chief end of Man? Man's chief end is to get into office, and enjoy it forever. Q. What rule is given to direct us how to get

A. Always to consult the popular side, and never think a thought or study a principle that does not look to that end. What do Presidential Tours principally

A. A Presidential Tour principally teaches that the best kind of speech is one that makes the crowd laugh, occupies all the time, and says nothing. Q. What is a Speech?

A. A speech is a collection of words, such as Great Republic, General Grant, the Union, Brothers' Blood, Southern Brethren, Un-represented States, and "I'm from Tenness

Q. Are there more kinds of Speeches than one?
A. Yes. There is the Speech jocose, commonly called the "Seward style," and the Speech palaver, called the Johnsonian, or spread-eagle style, and the Smoky Speech, or Grant style. Q. How many persons ought to speak on a Preidential Tour

A. Three. The Railway Porter who carries your trunk, the Conductor who punches your ticket, and the Hotel Clerk who takes your money.
Q. Should no other speeches be made on these

A. None, else you may get into trouble. Witness Delmonico's, Cleveland, Detroit, and other places, when disagreeable allusions were made to New Orleans. Freedmen's Bureau, Treason, Jeff. Davis, and other things of the past.
Q. Do the above questions embrace all that is necessary to be known in this connection?

Yes. For it you know any more, you had better treat it as a joke, or say that you never thought a thought or studied a principle but that it had reference to the juture in the White

AN EXOTIC-BAISED UNDER THE GLASS.

"NO ACCOUNT."

Many correspondents have written to us asking why we did not give an account of the reception of the President and party in Philadelphia by the Mayor, as it was referred to by Mr. Seward in one of his speeches in New York. In reply, we would state that we sent our reporter up to the Mayor's Office, and through the kindness and attention of the boy who sweeps out, we are enabled to give a correct copy of the proceedings of the occasion, copied from the paper now on file, in possession of the party aforesaid. It runs thus:-

To his Excellency Andrew Johnson, President of the United States.

MORTON, Mayor. (Signed) ADVICE TO MR. HAMMILL, Who Didn't Win the Two Thousand Pounds at the Sculling Match. Go well forward, and "feather" your oar As long as you can; but, when no more You're able to row, and your oar works o'er, You'll settle down with pleasure to rest.

Nursery Rhyme

It you haven't forgotten to feather your nest.

FOR LITTLE BOYS IN BLUE, Richard Peliz Receiver of Taxes; Did Richard Pettz Receiver of Taxes?
If Richard Pettz Receiver of Taxes, Receiver of Taxes ought to Pelt Richard.

CON. PICKED OUT OF A COMMON SEWER .- Why is the Grover & Baker Sewing Machine such a favorite with the ladies? Ans. Because there is such a good "Feller" connected with it.
