

NEW ORLEANS MASSACRE.

Official Report of Major-General Baird.

The Police Could Have Suppressed the Riot Had They Not Been the Rioters.

The Responsibility of the Crime Fixed Upon the Rebel Authorities.

Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc.

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF LOUISIANA, NEW ORLEANS, La., August, 1866.—Lieutenant Colonel George Lee, Assistant Adjutant-General: I have the honor to submit for your information...

patrol referred to, in commenting upon it, remarked that while the Department Commander would doubtless give the rioters the best of it...

men, while the colored men passed on to the Mechanics Institute. There were very few persons injured in the riot...

THIRD EDITION TRENTON.

The New Jersey Legislature and Miss Hamilton.

They Make a Complimentary Visit This Morning.

Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc.

LEISURE CAUCUS TO-DAY. J. M. Scovel Defines His Position. Alexander G. Cattell Unanimously Nominated for United States Senator.

The Constitutional Amendment to be Ratified.

Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc.

THE BOOK TRADE SALES IN NEW YORK. The fourth day of the trade sale yesterday morning was attended by a large number of buyers...

lation required for the general security and public welfare of the people is entrusted to Congress...

Proceedings of the Legislature. Debate on the Bill to Ratify the Constitutional Amendment.—Speech of Mr. J. M. Scovel.

I bear again to doubt, as I doubted in the Senate in February last.

Proceedings of the Legislature. Debate on the Bill to Ratify the Constitutional Amendment.—Speech of Mr. J. M. Scovel.

On Friday night, July 27, a meeting of radical persons was held in the Mechanics Institute...

At the time when I located the troops in the centre of the city, and cleared the crowds from the adjacent streets, I was of course ignorant of most of the particular incidents of the riot...

Most of these killed received one or more pistol shots, and of the wounded, Dr. Hartshull found fifty-nine...

RENTON, N. J., September 11.—Governor Ward's message was read to the Legislature yesterday afternoon, as follows:—Governor Ward's Message.

RENTON, September 11.—In the Senate this morning President Scovel called Senator Horner, of Ocean county, to the chair, and then offered a bill for the ratification of the Constitutional amendment...

RENTON, September 11.—Governor Ward's message was read to the Legislature yesterday afternoon, as follows:—Governor Ward's Message.