[Continued rom the First Page.] the truth when he said that the American republic was no longer an experiment, when in the midst of a great civil war so great a statesman and so pure a patriot as Abraham Lincoln could be peacefully re-elected to the highest office in the gitt of a tree people. In this country it was the landed aristocracy, that organized and executed a rebellion that was expected to make the capital States independent of the labor States. Confiscation would have prevented this landed aristocracy from ever regaining dominion at home or in the North. But this act of 1882 is a dead letter upon the statute books.

dead letter upon the statute books.

And I am here reminded of the fact that, as I sat at the pleasant fireside of the great commoner, he—who lived closer to the popular heart than any Englishman since the days of Lord Chatham—pointed out to me the danger which threatened the British Government. He prophesied that his children would live to see an English revolution, unless those who owned a monopoly of English soil should yield to the popular demand for an extension of the tranchise, and for a more generous policy on the part of chise, and for a more generous policy on the part of the ruling classes towards the middle classes. Mr. Cobden also called my attention to the fact referred to in his speech concerning the "Land Tax Fraud."

"Exactly one bundred and forty-nine years ago, when the landed aristocracy got possession of the throne in the person of King William, at our glorious Revolution they got rid of all their old tenuros and services. I hese incumbrances were given up for a bona fide rent charge upon the land of four shillings in the pound, and the land was valued and assessed one hundred and torty-nine years ago, at £9,000,000, and upon that valuation a land tax is yet laid. Remember that the land owners never had their land revalued from 1696 to the present time."

The last sentences of the last speech of Richard Cobdes have a peculiar significance to the American mind, halting between two opinions on the question of impartial suffrage. He said:—

"Do you suppose it possible, when the knowledge of the principles of political economy has elevated the working classes, and when that elevation is continually progressing, that you can permanently exclude the whole means of them from the franchise? It is their interest to set about solving the problem, and, to prevent any danger, they ought to do so without any further delay."

ger, they ought to do so without any further delay."

Mr. President, I have, with less brovity than I proposed to myseli when I began, given my views apon the Congressional plan of reconstruction. This measure will receive my vote, because I believe it to be both wise and just, and sternly demanded by the necessities of the nation. It will give peace to our people; it will give permanence and power to our institutions and, as a final settlement of a long and bloody conflict, it must make the Ame.ic.in name feared at home and respected abroad.

feared at home and respected abroad.

These are perilous times in which we live, and it becomes every good citizen, as a Roman ofstor once said, to write on his forcheld his faith in the Republic, It I have not written on my forchead what I think of the great questions of the day, which threaten the integrity of the country, I have at least in plainness and sincerity expressed my opinions upon the questions which so nearly con-Whether in office or out of office, I now before whether in omice or our of omice, I now before the world piedge myself to the immortal truth of the Declaration of Independence, that "dil men are creates equal." By this sign we shall conquer! Upon this ioundation-stone of equality before the law we will build a regenerated Republic! In the Assembly, Mr. Leon Abbett, Domocrat, of Hudson, moved to postpone indefinitely the election of United States Senator.

This called out several members on the Democratic side of the House, who all contended that the present session could not legally fill the vacant seat in the Senate, because it was a mere continuation of the previous session, and the recent act of Congress required the election to take place on the second Tuesday of the term. which was long since past.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

OFFICE OF THE EVENING TELEGRAPH, (Tuesday, September 11, 1866.

The Stock Market was inactive this morning, and prices were unsettled and drooping. In Government bonds there was rather more doing. New 5-20s sold at 108@1084, a slight decline; old do. at 110%, a slight decline; and 7:30s at 105 @105 for July and June: 98 was bid for 10-40s; and 1111 for 6s of 1881. City loans were unchanged; the new issue sold at 991, and old Railroad shares were the most active on the ist. Camden and Amboy sold at 1277: Pennsyl. vania Railroad at 57@57], a decline of 4; Little Schuylkill at 37%, no change; Reading at 57%, a decline of 1 on the closing price of last evening; Lehigh Valley at 65, no change; and Catawissa preferred at 331, a decline of 1; 60 was bid tor Norristown; 57 for Minehill; 40 for North Pennsylvania; 30 for Elmira common; 42 for preferred do.; 35% for Philadelphia and Erie; and 46 for Northern Central.

City Passenger Railroad shares were in fair demand. Thirteenth and Fifteenth sold at 214@22, an advance of 4; Second and Third at 88, no change; and Chesnut and Walnut at 532, no change; 46 was bid for Fifth and Sixth: 38 tor Spruce and Pine; 68% for West Philadelphia; 184 for Hestonville; 30 for Green and Coates; 271 for Girard College; and 421 for Union.

Bank shares were firmly held at full prices. Consolidation sold at 43. 97 was bid for Seventh National; 226 for North America; 1324 for Farmers' and Mechanics': 95 for Northern Liberties: 324 for Me-chanics'; 100for Southwark; 58 for Girard: 90 for Western: 100 for Tradesmen's: 674 for City; 55 for Commonwealth: 68 for Corn Exchange; and 644 for Union.

The New York Tribune this morning says:—
"The Money Market is more active, and loans on call are made at 5 per cent. Some old loans are not marked up, and upon Governments better terms are made than upon Railway shares. which form the bulk of stock collaterals. There is an increased supply of commercial paper. Prime still passes at 5 per cent., and good at 5 @6, but there is an increasing amount of a kind which holders are ready to sell at legal rates and a little better. The Bank statement shows a material expansion in loans, $3,542,000, with an increase of circulation of $698.454, and a loss of $2,428,552 in legal-tenders. The specie shows a gain of $1.074.310, which is the proceeds of interest upon the 10-40s. The demand for money to move the crops of the West and South is steadily increasing, and at no distant day lenders of money will be able to make legal interest at call and something better upon long paper and speculative enterprises generally."

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

Court of Quarter Sessions-Judge Ludlow. Joseph Betz was charged with assault and battery upon sergeant Silas Holden; and Sergeant Holden with assault and battery upon Joseph Betz. It was a fight that occurred on the Fourth of July at the beer sqloon of ketz, in Bridesburg. The Sergeant, with several others, went to the saloon, and requested permission to take a sick man into the backwhich Betz refused to allow, because they would be obliged to pass through a room where his family we e at rea. This gave rise to angry words, which were succeeded by blows.

The Sergeant and Betz and one or two others, were slightly hurt. By the prosecution it was allowed that Betz needed and a procedure of the sergeant.

leged that Betz picked up a cluo, and knocked the Sergeant senseless, when he the Sergeant, pressed his request that he might take the sick man into the By the defense it was argued that the Sergeant was very drunk; that when Betz remonstrated with him, he violently pushed him away. Some of the Sergeant's party attacked old Mr. and Mrs. lietz, who were very azed people, and the Sergeant attacked Charles Beiz; and then the defendant atruck him with the stick. But the Sergeant was not felied by the blow; he put his hand to his eye, and crawled under the bagatelle table.

The prosecution argued that Betz, seeing that his case was a very unpleasant one, went to an Alderman in order to settle the affair by paying the Sergeant $25. The detense stated in reply to this that the Sergeant first made a proposition of this kind, demanding $50 and the costs, but Betz refused to have any settlement other than that which the law saw fit to make.

have any settlement other than that which the law saw fit to make.

The jury rendered a verdict of not guilty as to Hoiden, and guilty as to Betz-Betz to pay the costs.

Joseph Ruder pleaded guilty to a charge of assault and battery, and was fined $10 and costs.

John C. Smith was charged with burglary in breaking into the house of Mary Sunderland, and stealing clothing and other articles valued at $400. It was alleged that Mary Sunderland left her house, No. 1745 N. Fleventh street, about 2 o'clock in the atternoon, and did not return until about 6 o'clock. She then discovered that her house had been entered and the articles had been taken. From been entered and the articles had been taken. From the information she obtained from the neighbors, she was led to suspect that the defendant was the turg'ar. On trial.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

[For Additional City Intelligence see Third Page.]

AN EPISODE OF THE LATE CONVENTION. -Our readers recollect the notice of the presentation of the celebrated "gavel" that was used in the Secession Convention at Charleston, S. C., in 1860, to the Convention lately sitting in our city. The Charleston Courier gets off the tollowing in relation to this occurrence:—

"In the tuli report of the proceedings of the Musatto Convention at Philadelphia, we find the

"'Mr. Charles Gibbons, Chairmanfor the Reception "Mr. Charles Gibbons, Chairmanfor the Reception Committee, came forward, with a small gavet in his hand, and said:—"I ho d in my hand the identical gavel used in Charleston, South Carolina when the Conveation assembled there in 1869 for the dissolution of the American Union." (Densive laughter, and shouts of "Throw it away.") This is the gavet which called together that Convention which declared the American Union dissolved (Cries of Break it up" "Throw it down here," etc.) Sir, turning to Governor Hamilton I have the pleasure of tendering it to "ou for the purpose of calling together that loyal Convention which is to lay the foundation for the re-esta-lishment of that Union. Governor Hamilton accounted the girt, and then the ceremonies were acclared ended."

"The statement about the identity of the gavel is a "The statement sbout the identity of the gavel is a sheer indirection. The Philistines did not possess themselves of this souvenir. The gavel used by that Convention, as well as the President's chair and table, are now in this city. At the adjournment of that assemblace those relic-were presented by the Convention to the St Andrew's Society, who had tendered the free use of their building, and are now in the possession of their Secretary. The gavel, which has an ivory head and chony hand e, we saw yesterday. It has the word 'socession' carved yesterday. It has the word 'secssion' carved thereon, and was in the possession of the Secretary during his flanking peregrinations. The other articles of furniture never came within the scope of those who made it a part of their programme while here, not to take anything beyond their reach."

THE PARADE DOWN TOWN,-Immediately after the election of Assistant Engineer-of the Fire Department last night, the various companies formed themselves into a procession, and marched through the streets dragging their engines and hose carriages triumphantly. The discordant ringing of bells, the flaming of torches the blowing of brass instruments, and besides the ong file of red-shirted heroes, parading through the streets, struck in uson a drowsy community with an effect as picturesque as it was unex-pected. The Philadelphia, America, and Columbia Hose Companies "vexed the drowsy ear of night" until a very late hour with their Babel-like sounds, bearing at their head a very large transparency, with the motto of "Teddy's the Boy" rainted upon it. The Board of Directors of the Fire Department meet this evening, when the official vote will be announced.

ARREST OF A TILL-TAPPER -William Carroll is the name of an enterprising young man who hangs on to the rear of an ice cart as it goes its daily rounds. William, having no very distinct notions of honesty, and being rather pressed for ready money, has on several occa-sions undertaken to furnish himself with pocket money in an unlawful manner. Early in the merning, for the past three mornings, whilst serving the ice to the hotel at the corner of Girard avenue and Ella street, the said William on each occasion lean over the counter of the bar-room and abstract from the till small sums of money. This morning, fortunately for the hotel-keeper and unfortunately for himself, he was nabbed in the act and escorted to the Station House. After a hearing before Alderman Clouds, he was held in $500 bail to answer.

A PUGNACIOUS MAN .- There is an old proverb to the effect that "a man who commands himself is greater than he who takes a city," The subject of this slight notice, Henry Lyle, is not one of those who would serve as an ex-ample. Henry is a very excitable man, and his flerce passions, when aroused, find vent by get ting into violent knock-down arguments with his opposers. Yesterday morning he made a tremendous assault on a man in Pemberton street. The attention of the police being called to the place of battle, Henry was forthwith ar-rested, and this morning had a hearing before Alderman Massey, who held him in $800 bail to answer at Court.

STEALING A POCKET-BOOK.—Yesterday morning Michael Green was arrested on the charge of stealing a pocket-book containing $6 or $7. The article in question is alleged to have been taken from the pocket of a man living at the Sorrel Horse tavera, on the Darby road. Green had taken advantage to pick the man's pocket, and then hastened out to the stable to hide his ill-gotten plunder. Whilst in the act of secreting it he was seen and arrested. After a comfortable night's rest at the West Philadel phia Station House, he was presented to Alderman Allen, who, after hearing his history, committed him to answer the charge of larceny.

BOY SHOT IN THE LEG .- Last night, whilst a party of boys were playing together in a vacant lot, near Marshall and Jeffer on streets, one of them discharged a pistol, the contents of which took effect in the leg of another, inflicting rather a severe wound. When the police arrived on the scene the boy who had fired the pistol had escaped, and while making the arrest of Theodore Wheeler, one of the accessories, the wounded boy was taken to his home. Wheeler, the boy arrested as an accessory, was committed by Alderman Fitch to answer.

BREACH OF THE PEACE. - Ann McMakin was arrested on the above charge. For some time past she has been in the habit of using insulting and violent larguage towards certain persons who have the misfortune to live in proximity to her. It becoming unbearable, some of the injured parties sued out a beach warrant against her, and she was arrested vesterday, at Seventh and Chesnut streets. After a hearing before Becorder Encu, she was committed in default of $800 to keep the peace, and for assault and battery. _

RECEIVING STOLEN GOODS.-William Francis and George Lewis were arrested yesterday afternoon for receiving stolen goods. After a preliminary hearing before Recorder Eneu, they were held for a further hearing in the sum of $1000 each.

APPOINTMENT OF A PHILADELPHIAN,-Brevet Major-General E. M. Gregory, United States Volunteers, long and favorably known to our citizens, has been appointed Chief of the Freedmen's Bureau of Maryland, and entered on the discharge of his duties yesterday.

OUR NATIONAL GAME.-To-morrow afternoon the Athletic will play the Camden on the ground of the latter, at Camden. On Thursday afternoon they will play the old veters Olympic, at Twenty-fifth and Jefferson streets.

MAKING NOMINATIONS .-When candidates we nominate To rule the measures of our State, We must not choose a stingy man, To shame us by his paltry plan, Nor one who with his spendthrift ways Will all of our expenses raise; But a man of liberal miud, With true economy compined: And clearly he these traits reveals At Tower Hall who always deats! BIOKRENE, OR LIFE-REJUVENATOR.

STRENGTH TO THE WEAK-YOUTH TO THE AGED This preparation is unequalled as a rejuvenator and restorer or wasted and herr functions.
The teeble the aged and all those who have in any way impaired their vitality by excessive mental or playsical application, will find the Biokrene to be what its name implies—a life-rejuvenator, which, while it builds up the shattered constitution, will also impart to the feelings the brighness and energy which belong to youth.

The Canadian revolt is extending. By the arrival of the steamships China at Halitax, and Hermann and Hecia at New York yesterday, we have special details or the news by telegraph to the 2d of September. The English abolitionists, speaking through the columns of the London News, assail President Johnson's plan for the restoration of the Union, and undertake to announce a perpetuaion of the radical Republican rule in the nev American Congress. Indeed, it is intimated that the people will not (or should not) obey the President under certain circumstances, and that the vote of the large Union cities is of litt'e or no weight.

Napoleon explains his course relative to the acceptance of Vienna from Austria, and its sub-sequent cession to Italy, in a letter to King Victor Emanuel. His words express a generous and magnanimous sentiment, but his allusions to the future of the territory, as to be decided by universal suffrage, do not convey a very clear idea of the prospect of complete settlement.

The outlines of the Prusso-Austrian and other

German peace treaties are published.

It is asserted that Italian provincialism, both in feeling and language, is being rapidly oblite rated by the close intercommunion of the people established in the national army.

The London Times thinks that Italy can get along very well with the Pope as Chief Bishop of Rome, the temporal power being abandoned. The writer inclines to the belief that the Italian people would not fix the capital in Rome under any circumstances The "sick man" of Turkey is regarded as finally approaching his end.
