CORONER'S INQUEST ON THE LATE HARTman Homoton. An inquest was held yesterday upon the body of Mr. Henry Hartman, who died on Tuesday, at his residence. No. 1305 Wood street, from injuries insucted on Sunday. The deceased was engaged in a difficulty about two clock on Sunday afternoon at Race and Juniper streets, with a man named Charles Smith, during which he (Hartman) received a severe cut on the side of the head, but still was able to stalk home. About a colocal two man paged walk home. About 4 o'clock, two men, named George K, Kern and John T. McCormick, went to Hartman's house, and after a short time a fight ensued, during which Hartman was knecked down and taken home in an insensible condition, and remained so until he died. The three men connected with the affair were ar-

Gorton G-vit, who saw the first fight, testified as follows:—I saw a difficulty at Jumper and Race streets, at 2 o'clock on Sauday afternoon; some one made the remark, "There comes Hartman across Broad street, drank;" Hartman went down face to Juniper; I was talking to a man named McCuliough, and ne said, "Look there! Hartman is getting thumped!" I harried across, and saw Smith strike Hartman with his cane; after I got up to them, I heard Smith say, "I have had a fight with you twice; I will kill you this time!" They came together, and Hartman cot Smith down on a slep, and then Smith strack Ha tran on the side of the head with a cane, making a cut back of the car.

Churles H. Potts territor that the Charles H. Potts testified that he saw the difficulty at Juniper and Race streets; saw Smith strike Hartman on the head with a cane; Hartman went away after being struck, but witness did not notice where he went to.

L. McCullough testified that he knew Hartman and C. E. Smith, and saw them on Sunday at southeast corner of Juniper and Race streets; they were fishting, and Smith fell over a cellar door, and Hartman over him; saw Smith, strike, door, and Hartman over him; saw Smith, strike.

door, and Hartman over him; saw Smith strike Hartman once with a cane; Hartman then went towards his home, with Smith's crutch in his hand; did not see any one else strike Hartman. Z. T. Hartman, son of the deceased, testined C. I. Hattman, son of the deceased, testined that on last Sunday afternoon McCormick and Kern came to the house and asked if the old man was in. I told them no, that he had just gone to my brother's. My father then came up, and one of them called me a flar. Kern came up and struck me, and McCormick made a passis my father; the two they can towards Thurston. at my father; the two then ran towards Thir-teenth street, and I followed them, my father coming after us. At the carner of Thirteenth and Wood streets McCormick struck at me and

I knocked him down; my father and McCormick clenched, and while in that situation Kern came up behind him (my father) and struck him on the head; my father fell, and McCormick and Kern ran. When I got home my father was insensible, and he remained so until he died. Had no conversation with my father about the first field. Helena M. Martin, daughter of the deceased, testified that her father was sitting on his sten about four o'clock on Sunday, and McCormics and Kern were persuading him to go with them, and while disputing about a crutch both of them struck at my father; after getting across the street, McCormick struck my prother and Kern struck my father, knocking him in the gutter he was brought home insensible, and remained so until he died. Dr. Shapleigh, who made a post-mortem examination, testified that he found a lacerate wound on the left side of the head, three inches behind and above the left ear; the skull was fractured at the base; the fracture extended through both temporal bones; the deceased came to his death in consequence of compression of the brain; he did not think, if Hartman had received the wound while engaged in the fight with Smith, he could have walked home; he thought the wound must have been indicted when in the fight at Thirteenth and Wood streets, later in the day. The jury rendered the following verdict:-"That the said Hartman came to his death from the effects of injuries received during a scuile with George N. Kern and John T. McCormics, on September 9, 1856, in Wood street, near Thir

McCormick and Kern were committed to prison, and Smith was discharged.

HEARING IN THE CASE OF AN ALLEGED STEAMBOAT BURNER .- At the Central Station, yesterday, a further hearing was had in the case of Adams, who is charged with conspiring with Washington French and others to burn the steamship Meleor, with intent to defraud certain insurance companies. Captain J. A. Denny was the only witness examined. He testified in subwas owned, so far as he knew, by Gilbert Adams, Michael Heniy, and O. W. Davis. The fire took place at Chester, on the 15th of November last, Witness had had a conversation with defendant (Adams) at the Continental Hotel in this city. The conversations in reference to the burning of the steamer were with French, who wanted him to do it, but he declined, and said he would not have anything to do with it. The arrangement was made with Samuel Denny, brother of witness, but the Captain did not know when it was to be done, nor where. After the burning an interview took place between Captain Denny and Washington French, in which the latter said that the job was well done. The steamer was entirely destroyed as she lay at Weidner's wharf, Chester, and the Captain had gone ashore before the fire broke out. In respect to the compensation for setting the vessel on fire, witness said that no sum was named. He had gone to New York, at the instance of Mr. Adams, to see about the insurance, and there said he did not know how the boat was destroyed. He had since made a different statement in this city to Mr. Cuyler. In answer to questions by defendant's counse, he admitted that he had called at the Girard House yesterday morning to see Mr. Adams and wire, but said that the former was not in. He, however, met him subsequently in the street, and Adams said he would like to see him after the hearing, as he did not suppose he ought to

Mr. Cuyler was called on by the counsel for Mr. Adams to produce an affidavit made by the witness a short time ago, but declined, as he had taken it as counsel for one of the insurance companies, and it was his own private

In consequence of the absence of Samuel Denny, the Captain's brother, with whom the arrangements were made, as alleged, to the boat, and ether material witness the hearing was continued over until Monday

THE LATE JOSIAH RANDALL.-The mem bers of the Bar held a meeting yesterday in the Supreme Court room, for the purpose of testiving their respect for the late Joseph Randali, Justice Read presided, with William L. Hirst as Secretary. Peter McGall submitted the following resolutions, and in doing so paid a high tribute to the worth of the deceased, both as a earnestness which characterized all his profes-most honored members.

Besoived, That the Bar of Philadelphia will ever cherish the memory of their departed brother, who, for more than half a century, adorned the profession by his learning, his telents, and his virtues. His attainments, both in the profession and out of it, were varied and extensive; his forensic abilities and skill of a distinguished order; and his integrity and probity of character beyond reproach. He possessed, in a remarkable degree, those qualities both of head and heart which command respect. both of head and heart which command respec secure confidence, and attract esteem and friend ship. The sorrow which we feel on this occa-sion is shared by the public. In the decase of Mr. Randall, Philadelphia mourns the loss of one of her heat, most influential, and useful citizens, and the country an honest and storling patriot, whose aspirations were ever for his

HEARING OF A PICKPOCKET. - Michael Voods had a hearing yesterday, before Alderman Beitler, on the charge of picking the pocket of Mrs. Taggert, while riding in one of the south street passenger cars. Defendant and another were in company, and after the theft they left the car and were pursued. Defendant ran toroug Sarron street into Gaskill, and threw the stole portemonnale into the cellar, where it was sound. Solomon L. Biliz, one of the pursuers was turned upon by Woods, and assaulted violently, and a threat made to knock his brains out with a paying stone, which Woods had picked up. Woods was held in $3000 to answer. Mr. Bluz, who is an Israelite, when called to the witness stand to testify, desired to be sworn by the uplifted hand with his hat on. The Alder man told nim he must be sworn on the Old Tes tament, or remove his hat if he wished to be sworn with the utilitied hand. He declined to remove his hat, and would not be sworn on the "Old Testament" unless it were separate from the "New Testament," which he said he did not believe in. The magistrate was about to commit him, but finally swore him as he desired to be.

CORNER-STONE LAID,-Yesterday aftertoon, at the corner of Atamingo street and trankford road, in the presence of a large crowd, was laid the cornerstone of a new house of worship for the Cumberland Street Baptist Church. The new church, of which Rev. George L. C. Hanna is pastor elect, will be a handsome collice, measuring 46 by $1 feet, with pressed brick front, brown stone elevation, and a capatitation about 200 worships of The Company of city for about 800 worshippers. The exercises began with reading of the Scriptures and invocations by Rev. Mr. Cheshire, of the Falls of mylkill Bantist Church. Addresses follow ev. William Catheart, of the Second Banhist Church, Rev. Mr. Cheshire, and Rev. Reuben Jeffrey, D. D. After prayer by the Rev. P. P. Coulson, of the Frankfort Baptist Charch, the corner-stone was deposited in its place by Rev. Joseph Bucknell, founder of the Cumber-land Street Church. Benediction was pro-nounced by Rev. Mr. Cheshire. During the exercises a collection for the Building Fund was taken up. The choir of the church was in attendance, and sang several hymns in good

PARADE OF THE REPUBLICAN INVINCI-BLES.—In accordance with orders, the Republican Invincibles made a street parade last evening. Ten companies were out, and their band enlivened the occasion with their usual excet lent music. The wards in the upper and western sections of the city were visited, much to the delight of the patriotic residents therein. It was a beautiful sight, the eight hundred torches borne in line, the fine marching of the men, and their excellent discipline. They were warmly greeted throughout the various wards they passed, and returned to their quarters delighted with the incidents of the evening.

RUNAWAY .- A fine horse attached to a buggy belonging to Dr. Torner ran away yester-day afternoon, at four o'clock, from the corner or Eighth and Locust streets. The Doctor had just alighted, and was in the act of ringing the door-bell, when the horse took fright from the noise occasioned by the passing of a city railroad car. He dashed furiously up Locust street, and brought up at a blacksmith's shop, above Ninth. Here the buggy turned over, and the shafts were broken. The horse was cut about the feet and somewhat bruised. Fortunately no person was injured.

MASS MEETING OF BRICKLAYERS,-Last evening a mass meeting of Bricelayers was held at the National Guards' Hall, under the auspices of the Trades Union. Au address was delivered by Mr. Fincher, of the Trades' Review, in which he took the ground that mechanics can only secure and maintain their rights by co-operation-by connecting them selves with Unions established for the protection and benefit of all.

ACCIDENT.—A baker named McLaughlin, who resides on Frankford road, near North treet, was knocked down and run over yester day by his wagon, at Sixth street and Girard avenue, and was severely injured. A lad named Komig, residing at Seventh and Jefferson streets. was also run over by the wagon, and had his law broken, besides being otherwise injured.

LAUNCH,-A schooner, intended for the Carolina trade, will be faunched at 4 o'clock this alternoon, from the ship-vard of John Cooper, foot of Palmer street, Eighteenta Ward. he is owned by Captain Joseph Golden, and is 102 feet long, 23 feet beam, and 8 feet hold.
