NEW NATIONAL THEATRE. NEW NATIONAL THEATRE, PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE (OPPOSITE THE JACKSON STATUE), WASHINGTON, D. C.

THE COMMENCEMENT OF THE SEASON. The Management takes pleasure in announcingito the sporting public that it is about to open the New National Theatre again (famiharly known as the White House) for the season. During the absence of the prominent performers, who have been "starring it" throughout the principal cities in the North and West, as far as Chicago, the House has been entirely repainted, refitted, and reupholstered, and is now one of the most COMFORTABLE PLACES OF AMUSEMENT in this city.

And the Management hopes that the outlay incurred in the refitting of the House will be liberally met by

AN APPRECIATIVE PUBLIC. THE OPENING NIGHT IS FIXED FOR MONDAY, SEPand as the principal Star performer is engaged

TWO YEARS, it is desired that the public should give him

but for

A BUMPER BEFORE PARTING! The Management, in response to the universal desire of the public to be made acquainted with the progress of the arrangements for the coming season, which is looked forward to with so much anxiety, is enabled to give the following particulars in regard to the

PRINCIPAL PERPORMERS. FIECES TO BE REPRESENTED, and

NOVELTIES IN PREPARATION. PROPRIETORS and MANAGERS. Randall & Wondoll

A prominent feature will also be a full and efficient including among its members the following well-known performers:-

ance.)

Besides many other Fiddlers and Blowers from all parts of the country.

The following performances are now in preparation, and will be produced in the order announced:-

THE THRILLING TRAGEDY, entitled

St. Andrew's Day in New Orleans. Translated from the French by M. Bartholomew,

This Tragedy was gotten up at great expense and if successful will be followed by others of a similar character during the season. Mr. Forrest, Tragedian, late of the Memphis Theatres. is also engaged, and will shortly appear in his picce, which had such a run in Memphis last season, entitled

The Memphis Massacre;

A New Way to Pay Old Debts. Also will be produced, with entire new scenery -A New Comedy of Errors, which had such a run by this Company the past summer through out the North and West, entitled

A Trip to Chicago.

This piece is full of local Hits, and is reckoned by critics one of the best comedies ever put on the American Stage or Railroad Car, and was received nightly with applause wherever exhibited.

During the performance the "Dromio" from Syracuse, N. Y., will make a funny speech, and he other "Dromio" won't.

Mr. Johnson, in the character of the "Duke," is perfectly splendid when he exclaims:-

"Hapless Jeff. whom the fates have mark'd
To bear the extremity of dire mishap!
Now, trust me, were it not against our laws,
Against my crown, my oath, my dignity,
Which princes, would they, may not disannul,
My soul should sue as advocate for thee.
But, though thou art adjudged to the death,
And passed sentence may not be recall'd,
But to our benor's great disparagement. But to our honor's great disparagement, Yet I will favor thee in what I can."

Notwithstanding the "Occasional" pathos pervading many parts of the play, the ludicrous position in which the "Duke" is often placed by one of the Dromios, and the ingenuity evinced by the "Dromio" from Syracuse to extricate himself and the "Duke", makes this equal to anything of Shakespeare's or Boucleault's.

The Management expect to engage some celebrated supporters of Ethiopian characters in connection with the other performances, should exhibitions of that kind seem to be popular. The management is now in negotiation with Mr. Beecher,

A CELEBRATED SUPPORTER OF ETHIOPIAN CHARACTERS. from the Plymouth Theatre, Brooklyn, and it expects soon to be happy to announce him "on the boards, Messrs. Grant and Farragut, from the "Theatre of War," have already been engaged, and other American Stars will be added to the Company from time to time, as the success of the enterprise shall warrant. The Management have also in preparation, to be produced at no distant day, several Dramas by the most popular Dramatists, and each one of which will be presented to the public with a strong cast of characters, among which might be mentioned the celebrated Irish burlesque en-

On to Canada; or, the Fenian Scare, which will be brought out entirely remodelled. regardless of expense.

The services of the celebrated CLOWN, MR. STEPHENS, are engaged for the occasion. Also, the laughable farce entitled

The Philadelphia Wigwam, which will be revived during the season, intro ducing a parody on the play of Cox and Box, called

"Dix and Vaux."

In which Richard will be himself again, as he always has been. Matinees will be held every Saturday afternoon for families and children. The performance next Saturday afternoon is to be the Scriptoral vaudeville entitled

The Prodigal Son.

Children need not be frightened at this performance, as the "Calf" will not be really killed -only "pretend."

It is expected that the well-known leading Southern actor, Mr. J. Davis, now held to an engagement in Virginia, may be released in season to appear on the boards, his first appearance since his last unsuccessful a-sumption of feminine characters in 1865.

The Management gives notice that the desire of a large portion of the public, that a new "act drop" be prepared to greet Mr. Davis upon his first appearance in public, will be taken into consideration.

The Free list is suspended.

A. W. RANDALL, CORNELIUS WENDELL, Proprietors and Managers.

23 months old, desire Board in a strictly private family; pleasant and central location. Terms must be moderate. Address T. F., Ledger Office. To be sure, provisions will not suffer much at the hands of a family of that age; but to make it more explicit, we should think the advertisement ought to state how the "23 months" is divided up among the "gentleman, wife, and child." Whether the "gentleman" is 10 months, the "wife" 10 months, and the "child" 3 months, or any other proportion which will go to make up the "gentleman, wife, and child, 23 months old;" for they are certainly a very young family, and the circumstances fully justify our curiosity.

Dr. VON MOSCHZISKER asserts with the utmost confidence that his system of treating LUNG, THROAT, CHEST Diseases. CATARRH, ASTHMA. and all meladies of the digostive organs, by the use of the ATOMIZER, is the only reliable one. Since the introduction of this system cases have been brought to his office, No. 1631 Walnut Street, in which every other possible means have been ruillessly employed, but readily yielded to his treatment.

The ATOMIZER is an AI PARATUS constructed on scientific principles, which, by a mechanical arrangement, either by atmospheric pressure or steam, converts any medicine into a fine sPRAY, and readily conveys it hito the BRONCHIAL TUBES or LUNGS, with the RESPIRATORY CURRENT. The medicines submitted to the action of this APPARATUS lose nothing of their CHEMICAL VALUE, as in other preparations, but are received into the RESPIRATORY ORGANS in their full MEDICINAL STRENGTH.
