ENGLISH OFERA .- Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, the Bichings opera Troupe were complimented last evening with the largest and most brilliant house of the season, and the performance was one of the most enjoyable operatic entertainments we have ever ttended. The Bohemian Girl has never been half as well rendered in Philadelphia, and its wonderfully beau-Mfal melodies, fine choruses, admirable trios, quartettes, to., were given with a irestiness, a spirit, and a finish traly retreshing. Miss Richings, Mr. Castle, and Mr. Campbell were all encored most rapturously in their

Campbell were all encored most rapturously in their principal solos, and the applaness throughout the evening was of the most hearty and enthusiastic character. Auter's delight ul opera of Fra Diacolo will be per-formed this evening, with one of the most powerful casts it has ever had in Philadeiphia in its English dress. Miss Herings, Miss Harrison, Mr. Castle, Mr. Seguin, Mr. H. C. Peakes, Mr. Campbell, and Mr. Wylie all appear in it, and in such talented hands the performance cannot but be a brilliant success. Miss Ekchings' benefit is announced for to-morrow working, and if she should be rewarded as she deserves to be, an overflowing house will be present on the occa-sion. No artist lancer harder to please the public, and, addeed, some succeeds in doing so more successfully ; and her many sumifers in Fuliadelphia should testify their appreciation of her efforts, by giving a good account of themselves at her benefit.

THE ITALIAN OPERA .--- We are informed that the subscription books for the Bergmann-Maretzek-Renconi-

Poch Italian Opera Troupe will positively be opened at Trumpler's next Monday week, the 8th proxime. Mr. George Hood will receive and register orders for subscriptions at the Box Office of the Academy.

THE NEW CHESNUT .- John E. Owens had another brilliant reception last night. His assumption of the character of "Caleb Plammer" is inimitable. Every one should witness this noble triumph in the Thospian art. Dots or, the Cricket on the Hearth, will be repeated this evening, with Mr. Owens. Miss Josle Orton, and Mr. I. W. Jennings in the priocipal rous. The His-piest Day in My L7s is also given with Owens and Orton in spiendid parts.

ABCH STREET THEATRE -The Florences have a gorgoous programme to-night. Inshavogue and the Fankse Housekeeper introduce both artists in the most favorable sight To-marrow evening the Florences take their fareweil benefit, and we have no doubt that "Willie and his wife" will have a bumper. "Smire" must not be noglected in this little arrangement. On Monday evening Mrs. John Drew will produce the last Leadon sensation. ca led the Fast Family, with new scenery and a grand cast

AT THE WALNUT, John Brougham presents his own splendid and sparkling comedy, called Playing with Fire. in which he sustains the character of "Dr. Savage Miss Annie Grabam, Mesaames Walcot and Chapman, Mesars, Walcot, Fawcett, and Chapman also appear in the cast. The deta is of Dr. Colton's entertainments will be found in another

HELLER'S NOIREES DIABOLIQUES are increasing in popularity. His audiences are large and fashionable. His execution of Bobert Houdin's master work, 'the flowering and fruit-bearing oranise tree,' is really won-derful in meatness and effect. This is the finest piece of diabierie ever performed in this country.

CARNCROSS & DIXEY sive the fourth representation of their new side-splitting burlesque of the opectres' Frolic

this evening, besides a large number of new acts, and a musical and mirih provoking melange. The entertam-ments at the "Family Resort" are attractive, and, we are giad to observe, are fully appreciated. AT VALER'S WINTER GARDEN, in Vine street, below

He had a hearing before Alderman Jones, who held him in five hundred dollars to answer.

THE STATE FAIR. Doings To-day - The Races, SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE EVENING TELEGRAPH.]

EASTON, Pa., September 27 .- The sky to-day is one unbroken field of azure, the sun is shining respiendently, and the atmosphere is mild and balmy, while thousands are improving the occasion by winding their way in all directions to the State Fair grounds. The various roads leading to the Fair are overcrowded with vehicles loaded with passengers, and everything is bright, chcerful, and animated.

The Committee have reconsidered their action of last night, and have determined this morning to close the Fair at the time first announced-Friday afternoon.

The track is in fair condition, and a number of exciting trots will take place to-day. The exhibition of matched horses will occur between 11 and 12 o'clock; the pacing match between 12 and 12, between five entries, mile heats, best three in five. That between three-year old colts between 12 and 3 o'clock. Premium, fifty dollars. dollars.

Also, at the same hour, between four-year old colts, premium $75; grand trot between four entries, premium $200. From 3 to 44 o'clock, best two in three to harness.

Gamblers are plenty, and unsophisticated ones are fleeced. Every ten minutes in the day a countryman bet a handsome gold watch and chain against $100 on three cards at monte, and singular to say, lost his timepiece. The police were informed, but the gambler made tracks and secured the watch.

FROM WASHINGTON THIS AFTERNOON.

The Trial of Jeff. Davis Postponed. [SPECIAL DESPATCH TO EVENING TELEGRAPH.] WASHINGTON, September 27.

Samuel Tyler, of Frederick, Maryland, one of the counsel of Jeff, Davis, had an interview yesterday with the Attorney-General in regard to the trial of Davis. It is understood that Judge Underwood and Chief Justice Chase have come to the conclusion that because of the legislation of the last Congress the adjourned Court cannot be held next month; consequently the case of Davis must be postponed.

There was not much happiness arising from the marrage-mutual jealousy, crimination, and re-crimination causing constant quarrelling. A little over two years ago she shot him, attempting to kill him. She was tried and convicted for th's offense and sentenced to fifteen months' imprisonment During her imprisonment Holland's first and real wife came over from England, and finding him out, went to live with him, but took a severe cold, from the effects of which she died just about the time. effects of which she died just about the time, "Sailor Boy," his second which got out of prison, about eight months ago. The latter then took up her quarters with Hol-land until a former acquaintance of her's, whom she knew before she married Holland, came to see her. This new, or rather old thend and "sailor Boy" took possession of the house, and Holland did not dare to enter it. It appears, also, that this friend, who possession of the house, and Horand did hot date to enter it. It appears, also, that this friend, who goes by the name of John Jones, alias Kelley, had made a violent assault and battery upon Holland about the time of his marriage, and had leit him lying for dead. He escaped, and eluded the pursuit of the ponce at the time. Last Saturday Holland found this Jones, alias Kelley in his house and did not date to a in. He Kelicy in his house and did not dare to go in. He had "Sailor Boy" arrested for threatening him, and also had Jones, alias Kelley, arrested on the old charge of assault and battery with intent to kill. When the parties appeared at Alderman White's office, after some talk, they came to an agreement. Jones and "Sailor Boy" were married (her marriage with Holland being illegal), and the whole party went on their way rejoicing.

A MISEBABLE WRETCH.—A fellow named Joseph Anderson was arrested yesterday at second and Race, on the charge of malicious mischiet. It appears that he had hired a mass to drive him in a hack to a certain place, but before he reached his point of destination he was seen to jump out and put off in another direction. A police officer, seeing him leave without notifying the driver, gave chase, and captured him at Second and Race, and stopped the hack driver. The officer asked the driver if he had any one in his carriage. He rephed he had. The officer told him to look. He did so, and what a sight met his as onished eyes! All the interior of the car-riage was a mass of runs. On searching the prisoner, it was iound that he had form off the unsets, limings, and whatever he could put his handa on, and had his pockets breast, etc., stuffed out A MISEBABLE WRETCH .--- A fellow named on, and had his pockets breast etc., stuffed out with his plunder. He was arrested and taken before Alderman Godbou, who held him in $800 to answer the charge of maticious mischtef.

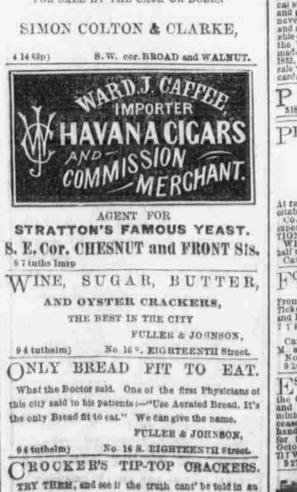

A SOLDIER FOR SELECT COUNCIL .-- It is with pleasure that we notice the nomination of a tried and gallant soldier for Select Council, Colone tried and gallant soldier for Select Council, Colonel John Kelley is a native of Wheeling, Virgina, although for many years he has identified h maell with Philadelphia and her interests. At the com-mencement of the war, he entered the service in the National Guards, and went to Baltmore in 1861 with that regiment. He was Lieutenant-Colonel of the 7th West Virginia Infantry, under General Ke ley this inther, and subsequently with Generals Lander and Shiolds, and in the 2d Corps, and served with great credit in many battles. He has recently beep one of the firm of A. H. Franciscus & recently been one of the firm of A. H. Franciscus & Co, in Market street. Colonel Keller is entit ed to the support of every Union man in the Sixin Ward, irrespective of party.

THE RESULTS OF THE STORM.—The numerical systems of the store of the st Fortunately there was no one in the building at the time. The river Schuylkill has risen considerably and is at present very high.

A COWARDLY BELLIGEREST .--- William Baker is an individual who is possessed of a very quarrelsome disposition, but from all accounts does not powers a corresponding smount of courage, if we may judge from accounts we hear of him. It ap-pears that at Front and Brown streets William made an assault on a woman, striking her with his flat. He was arrested and taken before Alderman Toland, who held him in 3000 to answer.

SAFE AND RELLABLE .-- We would invite SAFE AND KELLABLE,---We would invite special attention to the certificates published in an-other coumn in favor of the great "Evans & Watson Inside Door Safe." For backers and morchants this Safe is superior to any in use. This fact is at-tested by trial, and by hundreds of witnesses. The wery structure of their Safe will convince any one of its merits when thoroughly understood,
