THE GREAT ART ASSOCIATION -The Crosby Opera House Art Association have concluded to keep their subscription books open for a short time longer, is order to dispose of the remaining certificates of stock. It will be seen by the following notice from the Secretary ex-be acting how the matter stands :-"Had we been ab e to print engravings fast enough to deliver them with the certificates, there is not the least doubt that every certificate would fow have been sold. doubt that every certificate would now have been sold. But, as you are aware, it was not contemplated to deliver them until after the award on the surrender of the certificate. The great popularity of the prints, however, and the desire, in a large majority of cases to receive them at the time of subscription induced us to attempt this vast undertaking. The detention of the chromos far beyond the time calcut at by the artist has been a great disappointment; we are giad to say that we shall shortly commence the delivery of the set." Those who have not interested themselves in this great project should lose no time in securing certificates of temporary, and as soon as the proof engravings are ready for delivery the drawing will take place.
