EHORT METRE-ILLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS FOR THE WEAK,

September. Monday, 24.—Fenians in Massachusetts disband, and rive the funds in hand to charitable insti-tutions. Head (Centre Stephens is not reck-oded a "charitable institution."

Twesday, 25.—Democratic meeting at Bedford, Pa. A Democratic speaker colorized J.
Wilkes Bootn, and prophesied of a time when a monument would be ruised to him higher than Linceln's. A prophet like that, we should think, would be no profit to any party. Wednesday, 26 .- Opening of the State Fair at Ea ton. A machine exhibited for Miking Cows, in which the milk is watered to a proper consistency at the same time. "Consistency, thou art a jewel,"

Thursday, 27 .- City Councils meet. Myth Kameriv threatens to smack another myth-over the mouth. The President says that tha-kind of discussion is out of order. We should think the myth was also out of order, very

SPIRIT OF THE NEW YORK PRESS.

Dislocated and Re-sett EXPRESSLY FOR THE SUPPER-TABLE SERIES. The first article adapted to the weather (on account of its coolness) that arrested our eye in the Times was the following:-

EFF A DENTIST WANTS A YOUNG MAN TO teach him his profession gratis. Applicants will state their age, occupation, and if able to support themselves for six months. Address "Denrist," office of New York Times.

One would imagine that in seeking for a Young Man who is to teach this Dentist his profession, some special stress would be laid on his previous avocations. We could understand a Dentist advertising for a Perfumer to teach him extracts, or for a Sawyer to file teeth, or for a Druggist with some knowledge of Gums, Human or Arabic. But no, the Young Man is simply expected to teach this Dentist "his profession gratis," and to support himself for six months besides. The coolness of the offer is beyond belief.

GENTLEMEN AND LADIES HAVING cast off Clothing can dispose of the same by calling at No. 164 Chatham Street.

The bare idea-and it certainly is a bare ideathat citizens of New York have cast off their clothing, and adopted the Paradisiac dress, is startling to one's nerves. Can it be that a new religious sect, advocating Total Abstinence from Worldly Garments, has sprung up in their midsta Will these people, each with a bundle of their now useless clothing under their respective arms, proceed in solemn procession to No. 164 Chatham street, to dispose of the same?

the washing of a few ladies and WOMAN WISHES the washing of a few ladies and gentlemen at her residence, No. 262 East Twelth street, top floor,

We have all heard of the "Turkish Baths" in New York, but this is a still newer arrangement, and perhaps cheaper. The advantage of the "top floor, front room," we suppose is, that the ladies or gentlemen can dry the sooner, and in greater privacy from the passers-by in the street, as the woman who washes them evidently has limited accommodations.

A SMALL FAMILY OF FOUR ADULTS want two superior Gres. Best city references required. Apply at No. 12 West Thirty-fifth street.

That is a very natural want. Even it they were "superior boys" that were wanted, we would not wonder at it. Our astonishment is that any family (with so many adults in it) would make their family wants so public as to advertise them in the Heraid.

A GOOD MEAT AND PASTRY COOK DEsires a Situation; understands French and Spa-msh Dishes. can be seen for two days at No. 114 E. Houston street, near Second avenue, basement.

That may be, but does she understand "China Dishes" would be our greatest concern, and does she understand that they will break with careless handling? Very desirable knowledge on the part of a Cook.

HOME WANTED-BY A YOUNG GERman in a Private Family, where he can give plane lessons to children in compensation for Board.

What kind of an ownership, we would inquire, must a man have in his family, before he can call it his "Private Family?" How does a private family differ from a public one? We suppose a man owns a Private Family when he has no mother-in-law residing with him.

FF WANTED - A WOMAN (WIDOW) TO serve up in a Restaurant; must know her business, Apply at No. 54 Rungers street.

Horrible! Don't talk of Canmbalism or the King of the Cannibal Islands any more. We don't believe that he would be as particular as to specify whether a person should be a widow or not, that he was going to "serve up." People pretend to shudder at the number of "Horse Soup" restaurants now in operation in Paris. We think them nothing compared to running across this establishment, where widows are served up with so little thought. We suppose they supply their own Sauce,

WANTED-BY AN ENGLISH GIRL, A situation as Seamstress; can cut and fit ladies and children; is willing to make herself generally useful. Can have the best of reservoices from her last place. Call at No. 175 I weight street.

Can "cut and fit" them to what ?--to their beds If they (the children) should become too long? Or is the idea to cut and fit the ladies to the children, or pice versa-that is, short mothers to

DAUST EVENING TELEGRAPH.—PHILADELP IIA, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1860 short children, and long mothers to tall children? We do not believe she would be recks oned very useful here, if all of her accomplish. ments were embodied in "cutting and fitting ladies and children." EF WANTED-A YOUNG MAN DESIRES A position in a banking-house or broker's office; has had some experience; salary no object. Address W. D., Box 2943.

This is better, and easier understood. We like the candor of this young man; he has had some experience in a banking house, and he know that salary is no object; in fact, wouldn't begin to pay. All we have to say is, we hope he will get a situation in New York, and not be forced to come to this city.

BF A BEAUTIFUL PAIR OF TWINS, ALSO a biack-eyed girl, to be adopted out. Wanted, a little girl, from three to five years old; also, a boy, from six months to one year old. No. 714 Greenwich street, near Perry. street, near Perry.

This is a dealer in live stock-human. The slave-trade is abolished. We are, therefore, to suppose these twins, etc., are white. No price attached.

EF A PROVIDENT YOUNG WOMAN WANTS a situation as Cook; thoroughly understands her business. Best of city reference given. Call at No. 100 West Nineteenth street. No country folks need

This is hard on those country folks who are n the habit of putting at the bottom of their advertisements, "No Irish need apply," This young woman is certainly provident in thus providing against being run down by green country people.

TT MRS. T. A. CARROLL, No. 294 FOURTH avenue, up starrs, will open, on Weanesday, September 26, with all the latest styles of the season. What will she open, her trunk? And will she open it with the "latest styles?" What are they? One way we know is with a "jimmy," another way is with the or linary key, another way is by an "open sesame," such as Helier practises in opening his boxes, but as no price is advertised, we cannot think it an ordinary exhibition.

in our phitosophy." ASTONISHING-MADAME MORROW, seventh daugater, beats the world; in telling name and magic iseness beats everything ever known; tells your thoughts on entering her room. No. 181 Ludlow street, five doors from Houston street.

Surely, in the language of Shakespeare (had he lived in these times), "there are more things in the New York papers than were ever dreamt of

With this "Astonishing" extract we must close; we can offer no explanation about this seventh daughter, except that it would not be difficult to tell the thoughts of everybody who reads her advertisement, as well as enters her room, and that is, that she is an "unpardonable humbug."

MUSICAL NOTES.

From the Janttor of the Academy of Music, we have gleaned the following information relative o coming Opera Season:-

Sr. Patricko Moriatti, whose performances on the Organ (barrel) used to draw such crowds of beauty and fashion near the Dock Street Market, is dangerously ill at his residence in Bedford street. His malady is said to be Organic. The Old Gentleman who plays the Clarionet n the neighborhood of Market Street Bridge, and along the Schuylkill, is an Irish Nobleman (not, as has been erroneously stated, a Blessing) in disguise. He travels for a bet, the terms of which are, that he is to take in a hundred dollars a year in bad money for ten years. This is his tenth year, and he thinks he will win the bet. CEWDGLMPCS AP THOMAS, the Welsh Bard, is coming to this country. He will be received by the Liwgimntrsmstrath of Philadelphia, and his performance on the Qthmdathrurgwstlyn, or Welsh Harp, will be the most interesting musical event of the season. He is native of Moelgwystrnwbstwith, and his father was the inventor of the Bsnwrw Cymrstgggllwust. An ingenious mechanic has lately constructed an improved set of Scottish Bagpipes. The improvement consists in the bag being so situated that the music goes into it, instead of into the Public Ear.

It addition to their historical interest, the Tableaux contain fathird life-size Potraits of the prominent Statesmen and principal Officers of the Army and Navy Navy.
