Wor Additional City Intelligence see Third Page.] DEATH OF A RENOWNED AND AGED JOURNALIST.-We are called upon to record the demise of Charles Alexander, Esq., the oldest jenynalist, and in his time one of the most extenmve publishers of the United States. Mr. Alexander died at his residence, No. 1122 Wistar street, this morning, after a protracted illnees, in the seventieth year of his age.

He was in many respects a remarkable man, but as be had long ago passed from the field of active journalism, many of the young residents of Philadelphia have scarcely ever heard his name men-

Charles Alexander was born in Philadelphia in 3796, received an ordinary education, and at the age of aixteen years was bound an apprentice to the late Zachariah Poulson, to learn the printing business, He was apt at his calling, and became proficient in his profession.

After reaching years of discretion he commenced business for himself at the old printing office used by Benjamin Franklin, in this city, situated at the southwest corner of Seventh and Market streets, of which the old number was 53. Here he used the old press and type iormerly belonging to Franklin, and his office was an object of curiosity and delight to many visitors in those days. Subsequent to this Mr. Alexander edited and pub-

Subsequent to this Mr. Alexander edited and published the Daily Chronicle, which became the great durnal of Philadelphia, and he wielded an immense influence with his pen.

After this Mr. Alexander started the Saturday Evening Post, and with Mr. Loins A. Godey, his life-long triend, was one of the founders of the Lady's Book. He also published Graham's Magazine, and was the publisher of the Gentleman's Magazine tor the late William E. Burton, comedian and wit. He was also identified with many other journals and periodicals.

He encouraged in a proper way the efforts of the

He encouraged in a proper way the efforts of the young in the paths of literature, and was the first man in this country who managed his business in such a manner as to afford fair prices for literary compositions of merit. Mr. Alexander, we are sorry to say, died in circumstances beneath his deserts. He was poor. Our citizens will have an opportunity of paying respect to his remains some day next week. Due notice of the funeral will be given in The Evening Telegraph on Monday.

LAST NIGHT'S RIOT-FURTHER PARTICU-LARS OF THE OUTRAGE — A PREMEDITATED APPAIR,—Two of the men (Washington Hamilton and Nicholas Quinn) who were arrested last night for their participation in the riot last night, had a hearing before Alderman Lutz this morning. The principal evidence against them was that of Lieuternan Euler, or the Evit Deliver Bourse.

tenant Fuller, or the First District Poice.

He says that after the assessment books were closed, at 10 r. M. there was still quite a large and excited crowd. Just before the first shot was fired, Laeutenant Fuller was standing on the southeast corner of Moyamensing avenue and Federal street, over ooking what was going on and talking with a over ooking what was going on, and talking with a triend of his a Mr. Souder. All of a sudden, without any previous disturbance, he heard a shot fired, turned around to see whence it came, when he saw a flash from a pistor, but did not hear any report. He thes ran over to the market house and saw Haranton standing with a number of others. He said to Hamilton, "Look out,"now, Hamilton, you will kill somebody next; I know you." Hardly had he finished speaking to him, and when he was but a few reet off, Hamilton levelled a pistol at him and fired.

Soon after some one asked Fuller if he were hit. He said he thought he was hit, but he did not know by what, supposing it must have been a brick or some other missile thrown during the meice. Soon after, putting his hand to the coat-sleeve of his left arm, he left the blood trickling down his arm. He than said the was shot. He then, with a Sergeant and two or three meh, rushed over to the corner, where James Falby's tavern was kept, to arrest the crowd who had made the rioting. They held him and his men at bay for a few minutes, and then, retreating into the tavern, closed the doors.

Lieutenant Fuler and his men then smashed in the door and entered in pursuit of the noters, who rushed out at the rear in their frantic efforts to es-eape, in a small room leading out of the bar-room the principal rioters were found. Here Hamilton, Quinn, Folyard Degan, Robert Smain, and Em-manuel Corell were confured. The latter after manuel Corell were captured. The latter, after he was taken, was handed over to some unauthorized person, who, it is alleged, represented in meet as an efficer, and who allowed Corell to escape.

During the progress of the riot and before the capture of the rioters, a gun was discharged from the attic window, the contents of which, No. 7 shot, took effect in the head and face of Mr Mr. Shaffer, it is feared, will totally lose

Mr. Souder, the gentleman who was with Lieutenant Fuller at the time he was shot, can fully identify Hamilton as the man who shot him. The evidence against Hamilton was of the most direct nature, and he was held in $3000 ball for an assault and battery, with intent to kill, upon Lacutenant Fuller, and $2000 additional to answer the charge of rioting. Hamiltonial to answer the charge of rioting. ton, it is alleged, is a troubles me character, and is well known to the police. His quarrelsome disposition frequently leads him into wouble, and it is hoped that the fullest penalties of the law will be executed aroun his hoad.

After the doors of the tavern were broken open the crowd within rushed out of the back door, and scampered off in all directions.

Quinn, who was found in the house with Hamil-ton and the others when it was broken into, also had a hearing before Alderman Lutz this morning. Offi-cers Hoover and Tucker, who also appeared against Hamilton, appeared against Quinn, and the evidence in the case was so strong against him that Alderman Lutz held him in $2000 bail to answer the charge of As before stated, the whole affair was a precon-certed scheme. The roughs who started it came prepared to do murderous work, and it was only by the determined brayery of the officers of the police that we were spared the task of chronicling a fearful massacre. As it was, there were quite a number of persons shot and injured otherways during the pro-persons shot and injured otherways during the pro-gress of the riot.

Besides those mentioned in another column, Mr.s.
W. Ical was shot in the face, and had his chin torn rather badly with the shot.

Mr. Charles Anderson, Jr., was shot in the eye, and it is teared will lose the use of it.

John Watson was shot in the toot, inflicting a very painful though not very serious wound.
So ends the record of another of those disgraceful affairs that every now and then will occur even in a city as well regulated as ours.

POLITICAL MEETINGS AND MOVEMENTS. POLITICAL MEETINGS AND MOVEMENTS.—There will be a splendid torchlight procession tonight of the loyal Republican voters of the Second Congressional District. Efforts are being made to make this display one of the finest turn-outs of the season. As the time of election draws near, no efforts should be spared to bring out the full strength of the party, and to make these demonstrations tremendous successes. From present indications, tonight's display will be well worth witnessing.

The Myers' Campaign Club of the Sixteenth Ward

The Myers' Campaign Club of the Sixteenth Ward will turn out in great force to night, under the gallant leadership of William M. Bunn, their Marshal. The entire organization, numbering over three hundred strong, will curn out with torches and transparencies, and show the people what the gallant Sixteenth Ward can do in the way of a torchicht procession. Professor Pro-ser's Band will accompany the Club in their parade, and add some of the most beautiful airs to the other attractions of the

There will be a mass meeting of the friends of the National Union party held at Penn Square this evening. Generals Dix, Granger, Rousseau, and eadman are expected to address the meeting.

EXTRAORDINARY UNDERTAKING.—Wanamaker & Brown, the popular clothiers, are carrying on at this time one of the most extensive improvements ever made in this city. They have not only enlarged their store to twice its former size, and beautified it, but are now in the midst of one of the most difficult operations ever performed in this city. We refer to the entire removal of the front of their building on Market street, of over thirty feet wide and six stories high, It has all been taken down by the skilful management of John McClure, Esq., and is to be replaced by a splendid fron structure fully up to the spirit of the times. These kind of improvements are worthy of special note, as displaying a strength of nerve, a spirit of enterprise, and disposition to add to the handsome editices of our city. We hape our merchants along Market maker & Brown, the popular clothiers, are carrying our city. We hope our merchants along Market street will in a similar way after and improve their

NATIONAL AND POLITICAL PERIL,-Rev T. De Witt Taimage, pastor of the Second Reformed Dutch Church, Seventh street, above Brown, will deliver a discourse on the above subject to-morrow evening. The announcement that he would preach the anniver-ary Sermon of the Maternal Association of Philadelphia is therefore a mistake.

FOUND.-Lieutenant Franks, of the Seventh District Police, found a pocket-book containing a small sum of money. It now awaits an owner at the Eleventh Ward Station House, Third street, below

OUR NATIONAL GAME.-The great match OUR NATIONAL GAME.—The great match for the championship of America, between the Athletic Club of this city, and the Atlantic of Brooklyn, will be played on Monday atternoon, on the grounds of the former, Fitteenth and Columbia avenue. This will, beyond doubt, be the most exciting contest of the season, as both nines are in excellent trim, and each feel confident of carrying off the much coveted honors. The main stand will be reserved exclusively for ladies. Gates open at 1 o'clock, and the game will commence at 2 o'clock.

"VOTE EARLY AND VOTE OFTEN."-There was a practical illustration of this admonition in the person of a man named James Adams. He was evidently bent on obeying its teachings to the very letter. James resides in the Thirteenth Ward, tut is not satisfied with his single vote in that one place, so he made strenuous efforts to get a sessed in several more districts. The consequence of this was that as the assessment poil at Eighth and Race streets James was summarily arrested and taken before Alderman Jones, who held him in $600 to answer the charge of misdemeanor,

CASE OF ROBBERY,-A man named Andrew A len was arrested last evening at Delaware area Alen was arrested inst evening at Delaware avenue and Market street, on the charge of robbing a man or some forty dollars in money, a gold, watch, and other valuables to the tune of $200 in all. The affair occurred last Wednesday vignt, when Allen and the plaintiff in the case went on a bender together, near Third and Shippen streets. The following morning both Allen and the valuables were missing, and the charge was entered against Alien for stealing them. Alderman Godbou held Alien in $1000 to answer.

A PAIR OF BELLIGERENTS .- A couple of pugnacious individuals who have no respect for blue cloth and brass button, were arrested last even-ing at Eightleenth and Market streets. It appears that these two rufhans, John Pryle and M. McAndrews, made a violent assault upon Officer Glahn, and used him rather roughly. He procured assistance, and arrested them both. They had a hearing before Alderman Jones on the charge of assault and battery, and were held by him for a turther hearing.

THE GERMANIA ORCHESTRA beld their annual election on Fuesday, September 25, when the following officers were elected:—C. M. Schmitz, Leader; G. Droughman, President; G. F. Stotte, Secretary; C. Boetager, Treasurer; R. D. Coxe, Counsellor; G. Bastert, Business Manager, They have received a large assor ment of new music from Europe, and will commence their public rehearsals on November 10.

SUDDEN DEATH .- An unknown man, about fitty years of age, took longings at the Baitimore House, at the corner of Broad and Christian streets, near the depot, on Thursday night. Not making his appearance all day yesterday his room was burst open last evening, and he was found in his room dead. He had evidently died from natural causes. He was dressed in black coat and pants, and a stringd yest. striped vest.

PUGNACIOUS, -- Jeremiah McCarty was suddealy brought up with a round turn yesterday evening for including in the amusement of knocking down a peaceable citizen at Fifth and Green streets. The said citizen, named J. Smith, was formerly a police officer. It is supposed to be the settlement of an old grudge. McCart- was held in $600 bail by Alderman Toland, to answer the charge of assault

SPOILED FOR A FIGHT.-William Mc Gonigle was arrested at Sixta and Chesnus streets yesterday evening, as he was acting in a very violent and unruly manner. He made, it is alleged, an assault upon a citizen, and used very threatening language. Quite a crowd gathered around, and Wilham was taken into custody, and was held in $800 bail by Alderman Patchel to answer for his

ATTEMPT TO ROB.-Last night one of the police officers found the door of the establishment No 385 York avenue, above Wood street, open. In the lock was a skeleton key, which had been used to open it. On examination nothing was found to be disturbed. The thief evidently was scared away by the police before he had succeeded in his

STILL ANOTHER ROW.-Last night appears to have been fruitful in disturbances. At a house kept by a German named Baszier, an attack was made on the Assessors by some rowdies, and one man, named Alien Ham, was badly beaten, Several others were hurt. It was a political row, and got up on the spur of the moment. No arrests

ATTACK UPON ASSESSORS .- An attack was made upon the assessors at Eighth and Green streets, late last night, by some hangers-on of the Bushwater Chile procession. There was no one in-jured, although for a time the affair looked threatening.

AMERICAN PIANOS IN EUROPE.-The famous AMERICAN PIANOS IN EUROPE.—The lamous manufacturers of piano fortes, Messrs, Chickering & cons, are rapidly achieving a reputation in Europe second only to their own in this country. We learn that the largest house in England has applied to them for the agency for the sale of their pianos, them for the agency for the sale of their planes, with the assurance that they can sell all the instruments which the Messrs Chickering can manufacture. In addition to the flattering testimonials of Thaiberg, Gottschalk, Whell, and other noted arists, the firm has lately received similar letters from other professional people, better known in Exercise them in this country, recluding Arabella.
