FIRE AT WISCASSET, MAINE.

Thirty Families Houseless-Loss Estimated at About $100,000 - Movement for the Relief of the Sufferers ..

Wiscasser, Me., October 9.—A most destructive conflagration occurred in this village to-day, break-ing out at 3 o'clock in the morning in an old wooden house, in the upper story, occupied by families, called the Tyier Building. The origin of the fire is unknown. A strong northeast wind was prevailing at the time, which so fanned the flames that, within two hours and a half, an area of 12 acres was burned over, and it is now a pile of smouldering ruins.

The less is estimated at more than $100,000, on which there is an insurance of not more than $35,000. The burnt district comprises about two-thirds of the business portion of the town. Between flity and sixty buildings are destroyed, and about thirty famiies are made homeless.

The principal building burned was the Custom House, valued at $8000. Several fine residences were destroyed, together with valuable wharf pro-were destroyed, together with valuable whart property and storehouses.

Two elegant vachts were partially burned, and two other vessels lying at the wharves somewhat damaged Among the heaviest sufferers are Alexander Johnson, who loses $10,000, no insurance; Wm. P. Lennex, $10,000, partially insured; Arnold Greenleat, $2000, no insurance; John Topham, $7500, partially insured; Lemuel Hubbard, $4500, insured for $3000 in the Metropolitan Company, New York; John Babson, $6000, insured for $3000.

The citizens have taken measures for immediate relief.

Destruction of the City of Port au Prince -Explosion of an Arsenal-Several Vessels Burned at their Wharves, Etc.

Boston, October 9 —Letters from Port au Prince dated september 18, state that the Arsenal, contain ing a large quantity of gunpowder, took fire and exploded. The fire spread and destroyed the greater part of the town. Soveral vessels were burned. The less of life is reported as very heavy.

DESCRIPTION OF PORT AU PRINCE The city of Port au Prince, or, as it is sometimes called. Port Republican, is the capital of the Republic of Hayti. It is situated on the West coast, at the head of the Port au Prince bay. It is built on ground that rises gradually from the sea and from the way. The buildings present the appearance of an irregular amphitheatre. The houses are generally of wood and two stories in height, so constructed with a view of better withstanding earthouses. who and two stories in neight, so carinquakes, with a view of better withstanding earthquakes, with which that part of the world is often visited. In 1761 and 1770 the city was nearly destroyed by one of these terrible visitations. However, a few or the houses are built of brick and stone.

The principal buildings of note in the town are a Roman Catholic church, a college, lyceum, custom-house, mint, and hospital. A considerable trade is carried on between Port-au-Prince and the United States. Eighty-three vessels flying the United States flag, with cargoes valued at $927,904, and the port during the very layer. entered this port during the year 1857-58. The same vessels returned with cargoes, the estimated value of which was $10,961,886. The town has been often visited by large conflagrations, the principal of which were those of 1794, 1820, 1822, and 1850. The estimated population is 80,000.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

For Additional Local Items see Third Page.] ELECTION DAY - THE ASPECT OF THE

CITY DURING THE ELECTION—SCENES AND INCI-DENTS AROUND TOWN AND AT THE POLLS—RE-TURNS AT THE LEAGUE HOUSE, ETC. ETC.— Owing to our system of conducting elections, namely, the precinct system, whereby the voters are so distributed in small squads through the city that it is almost an impossibility for any number of them to congregate together at any one point during election day, there were no disturbances of any moment from the time the polis opened until the close of the same.

A stranger in the city would have had no reason to suppose that during yesterday our citizens were engaged in an election of more than ordinary in-terest, for beyond the appearance in the streets of a iew emulbuses, containing bands of music and car-riages being griven hither and thither, covered with placards containing political devices and names of candidates, the city presented its usual appearance.

Towards evening, however, the streets bugan to display evident signs of life and excitement, for a short time after the closing of the polls, thousands congregated at the different points where election returns were expected, and much enthusiasm was manifested as the returns were read at these differ-rent rendezvous favorable to the political proclivi-ties of those assembled.

No serious disturbances occurred during the evening although a few street fights took place between The main points of interest during the night were the Union League House, the Democratic Head-quarters on Walnut street, and the different news-

Below we give a summary of the notable events of the day and evening.

The glowing bondres in all the leading streets sent up a lurid glare that colored the heavy over-hanging masses of clouds with a bright fascinating hue, as lively and soul-inspiring as the good news

From 7 o'clock until the "wee sma' hours" the scene was an animated and busy one. Felegrams were constantly being received from all sections of the city, and at later hours from the State, which had to be compared with the votes of former years, and after being written in triplicate success, placed in the presented from the second story below. circulating below. the prepared frames on the second story balcony, from whence the lighted transparencies could be read at great distances. The labor was a most arduous one, but many of our leading citizens worked untilingly for hours in the labor of love afforded by chronicing the glorious results for the Union.

As Judge Kelley, on retiring from the League, appeared upon the steps, he was recognized by the populace, greeted with immense cheers, and imperiously called upon for a speech.

In response he returned his thanks for the honor done him. They had planted him, to-day, a thern in the side of Andrew Johnson, and he would prick him to the end of his official term, for President Johnson had been guilty of highly impeachable offenses. (Cheers.) The President may go out of office before 1868, (Great cheers.) The question whether he will or will not be impeacaed depends greatly upon the facility of the machinery of the Government provided by the Constitution.

This touched the hearts of the people more deeply than any of the preceding electing one of the grandest, most enthusiastic demonstrations. Throughout the night, the record continued, until, tired out with good news, Union citizens went home, content to wait until the morning for the fullest details. The Eighteenth Ward Myers Campaign Ciub, pre eded by a band of music, paraded through the streets last evening with a banner containing the Union majority in the Ward. The men presented a neat appearance, and all along the thoroughfares cheered lusuly for Geary and the whole ticket. The Republican Invincibles were out in full force, and presented their usual neat and soldier-like appearance. They marcued to the Union League House, and from there proceeded through the principal streets of the city. Their appearance in the steets was a signal that a Union victory had been achieved.

At the Sixteenth Ward precinct house, at Third and George streets, a number of politicians of the different parties engaged in riotous conduct, and before quiet was restored several blows were dealt out upon the heads of the contending parties.

Several of the participants were taken into custody, and those who were unable to obtain ball were sent below.

In the Eleventh Ward a similar disturbance took place, but the parties engaging in it, after dealing out violent blows upon their antagonists, were taken into custody and locked up for a hearing. Soon after closing the polls at the Fourth Precinct of the Twentieth Ward a prominent member of one of the political parties gave vent to his tool ings by raising a row among a number of persons on the sidewark.

A large crowd soon assembled on the spot, but the police immediately interfered and scattered them clore any serious injury had been done. In the Fifth Precinct of the Ninth Ward there was a slight disturbance among some discharged sol-diers, but the outbreak was soon quelled, and no serious injury was done to the parties engaged in

About 10 o'clock in the evening, as the Myers Campaign Club was parading through some of the atreets of the Seventeenth Ward, an attack was made upon them by persons belonging to the oppo-site party. During the disturbance several pistois were fired and bricks were thrown, causing some of the persons on the sidewalks to be injured, as well as annumber of other members of the Club. assaving party made the attack at Germantown load and Masier streets. They drove the Club for a short distance, but the members soon railied and charged on their assailants, who were in turn driven from the scene of action. The injured persons were taken to a neighboring drug store, where their wounds were dressed, after which they were taken to their places of residence by members of the party. Hon. Leonard Myers, the successful candidate for Congress in the Third District, after the announcement of his election was pade known leat execution.

ment of his election was made known last evening, was waited on by a large number of his political iriends, amounting to several thousand persons. A long tab e was spread in the rooms on the lower floor of his residence, on which was placed a fine repast. All present partook of the delicacies of the occasion with a hearty good relish. During the evening several toasts were drank to the successful candidate, who responded to the same in a few ap-propriate remarks. About 12 o'clock last night, in response to a number of his political friends, Mr. Myers made an address from the steps of his houle. Having addressed his fellow-citizens on several occasions during the evening, he excused himself from further remarks and retired amid the applause of the crowd who had assembled to congratulate him on his successful election.

ATTEMPTED MURDER. - This morning, about 9 o'clock, a serious disturbance occurred on the pavement adjoining the old Post Office. which came near terminating fataily. It ap pears that a man named Hasey, and another named Jimmy Cating, had a political discussion when Hasey pulled out a knife and made a cut at Cating, striking him in the neck and severing one of the superficial veins. Hasey then ran out Dock street, down Third to Harmony court, passed into Fourth street, and up Library street, followed by a crowd of men and boys, shouting Stop that man!" He was stopped by two gentlemen upon tha payement of the Custom House, but was reeased by them, and started on a run through the Post Office, but was intercepted at the Chenut street entrance by Officer Silverthorne, of the Che-nut Hill Police, who deserves a great deal of credit for the manner in which be

RESULTS OF GETTING INTO BAD COM-RESULTS OF GETTING INTO BAD COMPANY—Mr. William M. Barlow, a member of the bar, having business in New York, put up at the St.
Nicholas Hotel. After attending the theatre last Monday night, he stopped at Elen Hatches' Concert Saloon, on Broadway, and drank immoderately of wine at the rate of eight dollars per bottle.
At 4 o'clock yesterday morning she sent him to a botel in a hack, and in an insensible condition, the accompanying him thither until within a block of the hotel, when she stopped the hack, got out, and vamosed. Mr. Barlow was carried into his room, when it was found he had no money to pay the hackman. The night-clerk called a special detective to look over the case, and they learned that Mr. Barlow had lost a gold watch valued at $250, $300 in United had lost a gold watch valued at $250, $300 in United states legal-tender notes, and a gold pencil worth twenty dollars.

The proper steps being immediately taken, Ellen The proper steps being immediately taken, Ellen Haich was arrested, and the watch and chain found in her rossession. She refused to give them up, as she claimed that she held them as security for $14 for the bottles of wine that Mr. Barlow had not paid her for. She jurther stated that Barlow had ordered seventeen bottles of wine at her house.

At the hearing which took place yesterday, several witnesses awore to the fact that Mr. Barlow had exhausted all his means in paying for fifteen bottles of wine, and had then given his watch and chain to the keeper of the saloon in security for two bottles.

the keeper of the saloon in security for two bottles more. Ellen Hatch was held to bad in two thou-and bail to anower at Court.

FRAUDULENT VOTING .- The time-honored namission to "vote early and often" was obeyed, it appears, in some cases, and attempts made to obey it in others. There were quite a num-ber of arrests for this offense. Thomas Carey was arrested at the polls, at Front and Catharine streets, for an attempt at fraudulent voting in attempting to pass himself off for another man. He only succeeded in getting himself arrested, and held in $1600 bail by Alderman Tittermary.

John Burk was arrested at Iwelith and Jefferson streets, for voting twice the same day. It is alleged that he voted at the Fifth and Thirteenth Procurets of the Twentierh Word.

of the Twentieth Ward. He had a hearing before Alderman Fitch, who held him in $800. George Emery and George Benners were arrested at the poils, at Third and Brown streets, for an alleged attempt at illegal voting, when they were not entitled to the privilege. They were held in $1000 each by Alderman Butler.

BASE BALL.-A very interesting match of base ball was played on the grounds of the West Phradelphia Base Ball Club, between the Municipals and the members of the Spartacus. The game was well played, and was witnessed by a large number of spectators. The following is the score:—

RIOTOUS CONDUCT AT A GERMAN BALL .-On Monday night, as some Germans were having a gay and hilarious time at the lager beer saloon of Bassart, in Girard avenue, below Seventi street, there was a fight caused by some disorderly characters. It appears that Michael Roach and Frank Cush got into a quarrel with Jacob Padds, and ended in using bricks and stones on each other Padds fled inside Bassart's saloon, and the other two throwing bricks and stones through the window at him. They were all three arrested and taken before Alderman Fitch, who, after hearing the facts of the case, held Roach and Cush in $1100 bail each, and Padd in $600 bail to answer.

THE ROW AT TWENTIETH AND CATHA-RINE STREETS. — During the disturbance at the polis at the corner of Twentieth and Catharine streets, vesterday afternoon, John Lagan and Benjamin Lovett were arrested for being the principal ringleaders. Eagan, it is alleged, is the man who stabbed Sergeant Welsh in the neck. The Sergeant is hurt very dangerously, and Eagan was committed by Alderman Lutz to await the result of his injuries Lovett was held in $800 to answer the charge of motous conduct Officer Orr, who was attacked at the same time, was not very badly hurt, though very extensively bruised.

BEATING AN OFFICER .- This kind amusement appears to be decidedly on the increase. Last Monday night Joseph Hannem and William Sagers got into a drunken row at the lager beer saloon at Ridge avenue, near Ogden street, and officer A kinson attempting to interfere and arrest them, they turned on him, got his billy away from him, beat him over the head with it, and knocked him down, and then kicked him after he was down. Officer Atkinson was injured rather severely. The two rowdies were afterwards taken into custody and had a hearing before Alderman Hutchinson who held them sach in $1500 to answer.

INTERFERING WITH THE "CLOTH."-Jas S. Ferguson, in whose breast there does not exist that proper respect for law and authority that should actuate an orderly citizen, was arrested at the polls of the First Precinct, Eleventh Ward, in Callowhill street, below Second, for interfering with the police officers there stationed He was in dulging, it is said, in some very forcible language, and uttering threats against the officers when he was taken in hand. Alderman Toland held him in $1000 bail to answer the charge of inciting to riot.

A BELLIGERENT.-Robert Hamilton, who A DELLIGERENT.—Robert Hamilton, who it will be remembered appeared in connection with the riot at Moyamensing avenue and Federal streets, during the attack on the extra-Assessor's Office, at that place, was arrested on Monday evening, for an assault and battery on Lewis List, and for carrying concealed deadly weapons. He had a revolver on his person when arrested. It is saleged that he beat List very badly. The affair occurred at Fifth and Christian streets. Hamilton was held to bail by Alderman Lutz to answer.

AN ELECTION Row .- T. Makin and A McLevy wre arrested ar Front and Otter street whilst acting in a very violent and disorderly man-ner. After the arrest was made they turned on Officer O'Brien, who made the arrest, and beat him severely, knocking him down and tearing his coat. They had a hearing before Alderman Shoemaker and were held to ball; Makin in $1000 and McLery in $700, to answer for their riotous conduct

After his arrest a revolver was found on his person, and also strong letters of recommendation from prominent politicians for a position in the Custom House. He was held in $1060 by Alderman Godoou to answer.

PROFERTY RECOVERED .- The rope and PROFERTY RECOVERED.—The rope and other property which was found in the possession of John Sulivan yesterday morning and conveyed to the Second District Station House, has been identified by the owners and removed. The rope, rigging, etc., was stolen from the first wharf below the Point House. The brase-work was stolen from the factory of Lex & Co., Gloucester, N. J. The third had effected an entrance in the rear of the factory, and had removed the light brass-work from the engines.

FOURTH WARD,-In this ward matters are at present in a state of great uncertainty. It is alleged that the Republican inspectors appointed to conduct the election were ejected from the room where the votes were being received, in every Dirision except the Eighth. In this Division the Republican Inspectors were permitted to officiate, and the result was a reduction of 200 in the old Demogratic majority. It is probable that the vote in nearly crafic majority.
