AMUSEMENTS.

Italian Opera.-Now that the election is over our citizens will have more time to attend to the necessary recreations of life. We advise all who like classical or operatic music, executed by the best ortistes in the world, to remember that on Monday evening next we shall have the inttial performance, by the Maretzek-Bergmann Italian Opera Troupe, of Ricci's great comic work, Crispino e la Comare, in which the renowned buffo, Giorgio Ronconi, will make his first appearance here. The support accorded to Signor Roncom comprises some of the very best talent of the troupe. Season tickets may be obtained any day at Trampler's Music Store. Seventh and Chesnut streets, and tickets and seats may be had at the box-office of the Academy. Academy.

Chesaut Street Theatre -Mr. John E. Owens appears in a very attractive bill to night. In addition to his great impersonation of "Uncle Solon Shingle," he will play the part of "Nan-ne-mo-ne-aw," in a mirch-provoking comedicta called The Live Indian, written expressly for Mr. Owens' amusement, and the editication of his admirers. This evening, also, Mr. Owens takes a benefit, and to-morrow afternoon he will appear at the matinee. Mr. Owens' humor is unctuous and chaste. He is a remarkably careful actor, and deserves the great patronage that is accorded him.

Arch Street Theatre.—Mr. Bandmanu has made quite a hit in his beautiful new play, called Destiny. His performance of the part of "Corporal Antoine" is a fine piece of brusque, pathetic acting, and he is warmly applauded in it. This evening Mr. Bandmann appears in Hamlet for his beneut, supported by all the favorites of the company. This distinguished tragedian can only remain with us a few nights more, and no one should fail to witness his fine acting. and no one should fail to witness his one acting.

Walnut Street Theatre-Mr. Hackett's Benefit .-Mr. J. H. Hackett appears this evening in Rip Van Winkie and Monsieur Moliel. To-morrow evening will close his brief but very successful engagement. On Monday night Mr. Edwin F. Booth, the distinguished American tragedian, appears as "lago," in Shakespeare's Othello. Mr. Booth will be supported by Miss Susan Denin, Mr. J. B. Roberts, Mr. Barton Hill, Miss Annie Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Walcott, Mr. Owen Fawcett, and Mr. Mark Brooke.

American Theatre.-Mr. Joseph Proctor] improves an excellent opportunity for the display of his remarkable inclo-dramatic abilities in his new play of Ambition; or, the Tomb, Throne, Scaffold, and Executioner. He has had large and admiring audiences every evening, and his acting has been well appreciated. Every one should see this fine historical tragedy before its with drawn to make room for other novelties. This evening Mr. Proctor's benefit is announced. He has made hosts of triends in this city, and we feel confident they will not let this announcement pass unheeded. Salle Diabolique .- Heller is determined to make us regret his departure. This is his last week, and he is tantallizing the public with a most inviting programme every night. He will perform for two nights more only. To-morrow afternoon a farewell matines will be given. Go early to the Assembly Building to-night, or secure your seats in advance. Take the chilsee that "ghosts may be played with." and although not to be "sneezed at," are nothing to be irightened at when Heller is mediumating. N. B.—Heller takes a benefit every evening, so as to be sure to have his share of the profits.

Lecture on Napoleon III -Professor Tripp, of Boston, is to deliver his celebrated lecture on the present French Emperor, in Musical Fund Hall, on Thursday evening, 18th inst., being the first of a series of free lectures to be given under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Asso-ciation of this city. Mr. Tripp was in Paris at the subversion of the Orleanist dynasty, in 1848, which brought Louis Napoleon to power; and his writings and lectures on the leading European statesmen bave met with much public

The Bateman Concerts.-The great Bateman concerts commence in tals city on Monday evening, October 22, when a series of un-equalled musical entertainments will be given the Musical Fund Hall. The troupe consists of Madame Patepa, pr.ma donna; Signor Brig-noli, Signor Ferranti, Signor Fortuna, Mr. S. B. Mills, the great planist, Mr. Carl Rosa, violinist, and Mr. J. L. Halton, musical director. The troupe are all artistes of much talent and

Academy of Music.—To-morrow evening, at the Academy, there will be a testimonial bene it given to the Philadelphia Typographical Dramatic Association, by the New York Dramatic Union. The play of London Assurance will be performed by New York Union, and the play of Family Jars by the Philadelphia Association. Excellent players are found in both associations, and the labors of these amateurs deserve support.

Lincoln Memorial Tableaux.—The great Lincoln Memorial Tableaux continues its successful career at National Hall, Market street, below Thirteenth. The paintings are very beautiful, and represent all the important events of Mr. Lincoln's history. The lecture by Samuel K. Murdoch, and the vocalization of Mad'tle Elvira de Silva, add materially to the LARGE FIRE LAST NIGHT-DESTRUCTION OF THE PENN SOAF WORKS .- Quite an extensive pre broke out last night about 11 o'clock, in the lower portion of the building known as the Penn Soap Works, corner of Wood and St. John streets. Although the alarm was immediately given, yet the flames spread so fiercely that the entire building was soon in flames,

The building, or rather buildings, four in number, were the property of Mr. John Bancroft, who tormerly occupied them in carrying on what was tormerly known as Bancrott's Soap Works. He retired some time since, and the soap works were carried on in one of the buildings fronting on Wood street, next to St. John, by a Mr. Heisler, under the name of the Penn Soap Works The business was afterwards carried on by the firm of Calm & Co., who occu pled it at the time of the are. Their loss will amount to nearly or quite $30,000, on which there is little or no incurance. They had large quantities of material and manufactured stock on hand at the time of the destruction of the building.

The other two buildings fronting on Wood street, and also the building running back, were occupied by Messrs. Gaggenheim, Dreifus & Co., manufacturers of essence of coffee, spaces, ley, stove polish, etc. Their loss will amount to about $25 000, on which there is an insurance of about $10,000.

The Humane Hose house made a parro ves cape from being destroyed, but was saved by the untiling exertions of the fire companies and citizens. It was slightly injured by dre, and there was also considerable damage by water. A large sugar warehouse opposite was considerably scorched by the flames, which were blown in its direction by a powerful wind.

There were also a number of small dwelling.

houses in the immediate neighborhood that were more or less injured by the fire and water. During the progress of the fire the front wall of the middle building fell with a great crush, nearly burying in its rouns a number of firemen. Fortunately no one was seriously hurt, though there were several who were slightly bruised. Many of them made very narrow escapes with their lives, having been on ladders which were overthrown. From the nature of the burning materials a dense and suffocating smoke almost drove the firemen away from the scene of the conflarration, and it was only by the exercise of almost superhuman efforts on their part that the fire was subdued as soon as it was.

The buildings, which are of brick, three stories in beight, were valued at $30,000, and were insured in the Fire Association for $9000. which will nearly or quite cover the loss. Two of the buildings in Wood street were destroyed, and the one running back was partially destroved. The other building in Wood street was also partially destroyed.

AN EVENT OF INTEREST TO THE LADIES. -We do not pretend to acknowledge the nece sity of its being so, but certain it is that Paris rules the tashionable world. And so long as this is the case, the votaries of fashion will be subject to Parisian sway. It therefore becomes them to know just where they can learn the latest decrees of the great empire of which Paris is the undisputed cenfre.

Mad'lle Keough, a lady who has long been known to our lady friends as the head of the establishment at No. 904 Walnut street, encouraged by the patronage which has been layished upon here in the cast has shall as the contract of the contract of the cast has been layished upon here in the cast has shall as the cast has the cast of th lavished upon her in the past, has rebuilt and refurnished her store in the most elegant and costly style. We doubt if there is in the entire country a more beautiful establishment of the kind. The proprietress has likewise increased her facilities for regularly importing, by steamer from Europe, the newest and choicest styles of hats, bonnets, and all other articles in the line of fashionable millinery. Having thus beautified her establishment and ncreased her facilities for meeting the wants of the ladies, to-morrow (Saturday), she will open her Magasin des Modes Parisiennes at No. 904 Walnut street, and we can well imagine that the event will create a sensation in the fashionable

A BAD CASE .- A man by the name of George Wellington, alias Tippy Nippers, was arrested the other day on a charge of carrying concealed deadly weapons. It is alleged that addressed a young woman by the name of Catharine Rowan, and walked along the street with her until when, on Shippen street, between Eighth and Ninth streets, he suddenly drew a revolver on her, and dragging her into an alley. ne committed an outrageous assault upon her Afterwards be attempted to drag ber along the pavement, when her screams attracted Officers McAffee and Burd, who arrested him. After the arrest he drew his revolver on Officer Burd, who, however, was to quick for him, and he was disarmed. At the hearing before Alderman Tittermany both Burd and the young woman appeared against the defendant, and he was held to ball in the sum of $1600 to answer for carrying concealed deadly weapons.

A Correction.-It appears that the following item, which is in the daily papers, is a mistaker-

ASSAULTING AN OFFICER - A man named Jacob Cartwright made an assault and battery on Officer Johnson, of the police, and beat him rather severely before he was taken in charge. The affair occurred on the att rnoon of election day, at the pols corner of Second and Noble streets. Cartwright had a hearing before Alderman Ioland, who after hearing the facts of the case, held nim in $1000 bail to

The real state of the case appears to be that Ma Caitwright had made an assault on a citizen by the same of William Mullison, knocking him down with a loaded cane, it is alteged, and for that offense he was held to answer, and not for assaulting Officer Johnson.

Case of Highway Robbery.—Three "gentlemen of the road," Charles Weisgamer, Charles Fisher, and Henry Satkin, all Germans by birth, were arrested for knocking down and robbing Mr. John Marshall, last Tuesday morning, between the hours of I and 2 o'clock. Mr. Marshall was walking along the road near Bridesburg, when the three ruffians, who are soldiers attached to the Bridesburg Arsenal, made a desperate attack on him, knocking him down, and bresking one of his ribs and other-wise severely injuring bim. They also robbed him of some $27 or $30. The three guilty par-ties were arrested yesterday, and were committed by Alderman Holmes to answer the charge of highway robberv.

AN ELECTION Row .- Quite an interesting ree fight came off at one of the polls on Second street, up town, on the day of election. It appears that a recently discharged Confederate soldier went to the boll in question and wanted to put in a vote. He was challenged by Mr. Middleton; and enraged at being balked, he and another named Henry Hays made au attack on that gentleman. Although "double banked," Mr. Middleton fought bravely, and so well that both of his assailants were discomfited, horse-foot, and dragoons, and Henry Hays was taken into custody. The Rebel escaped. Hays had a hearing before Alderman Thomas, who held him in $1000 bail to answer the charge of assault

A DESTRUCTIVE FIRE IN OUR RURAL DISTRICT-LOSS $25,000. - Between the hdurs of and 3 o'clock this morning, a fire broke out in the textensive building known as Osten's brewery. The building is located in the exreme northeastern section of the Twenty-fourth Ward, near the Montgomery county line, and in the immediate vicinity of the Christ Church Hospital.

The entire building is reported to have been destroyed, and property to the amount of $25,000 consumed. There was an insurance of ANOTHER ELECTION Row .- Whilst the election was in progress at Harrowgate, a row occurred in one of the rooms of the hotel at that place. Two rough characters by the name or Michael and Patrick Potter, it is said, gor ing to arrest them, they turned on him and beau tearing his coat off his back. They were both, bowever, arrested, and after a hearing before Alderman Holmes, they were held in $500 each to answer.

REN OVER AND KILLED .- A lad name Bishop Werreil, aged fourteen years, was ru over on the Island road, near the Blue Be tavern, Twenty-seventh Ward, on Monday atternion, by a wagon loaded with hay. The that he med vesterday. He was employed in the store of Mr. Preston Hill, near the Bine Bell.

"ELOQUENCE AND ORATORS."-John B. Gough delivered his great lecture on "E quence and Oraters" at the Academy of Music last evening, before a brilliant audience. The subject was handled by the distinguished or ator in his usual masterly style, and his remarks, were listened to with intense interest, only interru pied by vociterous applause.

The affair occurred at her tather's house. Twenty-tourth and Callowhill street, last night. shortly before midnight. It appears from his version that she got drunk, and commenced to "raise Cain," breaking things in general, and had also taken up a hatchet and struck him with it. The blow did not a, pear to injure him much. She had a hearing before Alderman much. She had a hearing before Alderman Hutchinson, who committed her in default of SHOVING THE QUEER.-Stephen Clowes was arrested yesterday morning whilst at tempting to pass a counterfeit $10 note on the Highland National Bank, of Newburg, N. Y. The note in question is a most execuable one. and the engraving on the back of the note is so coarse that no one would be deceived for moment. Clowes was arrested at Third and George streets, and committee by Alderman Wilkins in default of $500 ball to answer.
