CITY INTELLIGENCE.

THE AMERICAN UNION COMMISSION .-The tollowing extracts, taken from a letter written by an estimable lady of our own State, now serving the American Union Commission of Pennsylvania and New Jersey in Georgia, will be read with interest, and lead many benevolent hearts to contribute freely to the good work in which they are engaged in pro-viding for the impoverished women and children of the South, and especially for the widows and orohans of loyal men who did all they could to maintain the integrity of the nation against the assaults of its enemies :-

ATLANTA, Ga, October 6, 1806 - Since the school-houses built by the Commission have been completed and thoroughly furnished with d sks, completed and thoroughly furnished with d.sks, books, maps, and every appliance, our teachers have collected around them five hundred poor dependent children, taken from the tents, shanties, and alleys of this desolate city. This is following out the injunction of our blessed Saviour, to care for the little ones. How tender was His coincitude for them when upon earth; and how honorable their distinction when he made them emblems of the redeemed in glory!

The majority of these children were deprived by the way of their natural projectors, and are now dethe war of their natural protectors, and are now de-pendent upon the charity of others. I wish you could hear, as we very often do, these little ones tell their experience with sorrow and suffering. It is enough to melt the beaut of a stone to listen as, in their artless way, they tell of inther's anx ery and fear of the Rebel gang in their vicinity, and of how father kept hims-if hid away in some dark or narrow place for days, often weeks, and of his try-ing to escape from his enemies. Sometimes they succeeded in getting away, and a long time after, in a mysterious manner, they were rejoiced to hear that father was safe, and in the Union army. The next rews tood them he was wounded and in the hospital, and if he lived would be a cripple for life; then to lowed days and nights of anxiety and Another will say—My father tried to get away, but was captured and brought back, forced into the army or thrust into prison, and we had to leave our home; the soldiers told us we must go. Many of these children can tell or scenes they winessed that would make you start back with horror. They have would make you start back with horror. They have seen the midnight as-assim, the consuming fire, the torturing and hanging of prisoners, their own exile from home, and its attendant privations and many sorrows. And why all this? Because these were brave men, who chose to suffer rather than willingly assail our dear old flag. And now the children of these heroic men (martyrs) are calling for help. Will their neighbors, and enemies who persecuted them and deprived them of their fathers, sympathize with them now? No!—They tell them—You loved the Yankees; your lather preferred to the for them; now you also can go to the Yankees. And shall we refuse to care for the offspring of brave and persecuted men?

Why is it that our Northern friends are so slow to understand that it was the truly loyal who suffered most—and suffer still? For their adhesion to the Union they suffered and lost all they had to lose, before the Federal aimy could reach and rescue them. Hundreds of them were murdered, and many died from exposure, and their little ones are here with none to care for them. We have gathered them in the schools. They apprecia the kindness of the Commission, are very sudious, and improve rapidly. But the work has but just commenced, and now let it go on vigorously. Let us educate and elevate their little ones. This it is that purifies the very fountain of scolety, "for the child is father to the man." This is laying the axe at the very root of the tree. This is building from the right source. The foundation is now laid by Northern hands; let us not grow weary; let not the work stop while the building is in course of erection, and prove a stigma Why is it that our Northern friends are so slow to illding is in course of erection, and prove a stigma to its projectors.

If the citizens of Pennsylvania and New Jersey will sustain their Commission one year longer the city might, probably, be able to take care of the schools, but this coming year, we who are here see and know that they cannot do it. At present the people are taxed to the utmost, and still more is needed to buy bread for hundreds of destitute women and children. The unprecedented drought of the past season makes provisions scarce and nightering and consequently a heavy tax is required. priced, and consequently a heavy tax is required to give each family bread.

I am happy to inform you that our scholars are almost entirely the children of parents who opposed the war. I might fill sheets in describing every day incidents and scenes of sorrow and destitution, that perhaps would seem almost incredible, but that I have made my letter so long already, I will leave a description of our thinly clad and barefooted calldescription of our thing

Contributions to the Commission, in money or clothing, will be gratefully received by Samuel V. Merrick, President, William Struthers, Trea-surer, No. 1022 Market street, and Joseph Par-ker, Secretary, Tract House, No. 1210 Chesn ut

A MURDEROUS ASSAULT.-John Eagan was arrested on a very serious charge. He committed an assault and battery upon a man, and inflicted injuries that may prove fatal. He was arrested at No. 2121 Prym street, and had a hearing before Alderman Lutz, who committed bim to await the result of the injuries.

FINE CLOTHING HOUSE,

Nos. 603 and 605 CHESNUT St., Phila.

Foreign and Domestic Fabrics Made-to Order, Reasonable, Serviceable, and Fashionable.

THE GREAT SALE OF WORKS OF ART AND VERTU, which will commence to morrow morning, at the auction rooms of B. Scott, Jr., No. 1020 Chesnut street, is attracting considerable attention among cosmoisseurs and the public generally. Another examination of the collegtion, aided by the printed catalogue, which was published to-day, has enabled us to realize even more fully than before the race value and interest of the articles on exhibition. They are not all novelries in this country, it is true, but many of the most curious and delicately wrought certainly partake of this character; while, taken as a whole, the collection has never been sur-passed, even if it has ever been equalled or ap-proached, by a similar collection.

Not less noticeable is the great variety of the display. From the exquisite marble and bronze statuary down to the imitations in wax of different varieties of fruit, there lies, necessarily, a very wide range, in which the means and tastes of almost every admirer of art can find a source of gratification. That the public thoroughly appreciate the labors of the Brothers Viti, to whom they are indebted for this cannoe to cul-tivate a passion for choice and claborate workmanship, is evinced by the throng of people which has already filled the gallery of Mr. Scott. To-morrow morning, at 11 o'clock, the sale will commence, and during the two days of its continuance we may look for the liveliest and most generous competition in an effort to secure some of these gems of art.

REPUBLICAN MEETING IN CAMDEN. The first of a series of meetings given under the auspices of the Union League of this city, was held at the Court House last evening. The hall was filled to overflowing, many of the fair sex being present. The "Boys in Blue," an organization consisting of about one hundred iwenty members, were present, also the South Ward Campaign Club. They presented a fine appearance, being fully equipped, and were accompanied by an excellent band, who enlivened the occasion by discoursing patriotic

The orator of the evening, Mr. J. Goforth, of Philadelphia, entertained the audience for an hour and a half by one of the best speeches that has been delivered in the Court House for many a day. He was frequently applauded through-out his able and logical address. At the conclusion of his remarks, Hon. Alexander G. Cat-tell was introduced, but owing to the lateness of the hour he only made a short address. We have verbaum reports of the speeches, but cannot, from want of space, give them to our

The First District Legislative Republican Convention of New Jersey met at the hall of the Union League, Camden, last evening, for the purpose of nominating an Assemblyman, when Hon. G. W. Cartis, the present incumbent, was renominated by acclamation. Two Inspectors and Registers from each ward were also nominated. FAST DRIVING IN THE PARK.—There is a class of young men who trequent the Park who are always inclined to annoy the authorities and enganger the lives of pedestrians by the reckless manner in which they drive through. It is not very long since we had to record a terrible accident that happened from this cause, in which a respectable citizen lost his life. In spite of the repeated warnings that have been given, the practice is still indutged in, and frequent arrests are made of guilty parties. There were three arrests made yest rday afternoon of young men, giving the names of John Williams, John Jones, and John Thomas. They were fined by Alderman Hutchinson, and dismissed with a reprimand.

A DISORDERLY HOUSE.-The authorities made a descent upon a disorderly house No. 622 North Front street, about noon yesterday. The place is the resort of disorderly characters, thieves, bummers, and the worst kind of the lower strata, it is said. The neighbors being unable to endure it any longer, made complaint against it as a nuisance to the neighborhood. Sergeant Murray accordingly paid the house a visit and arrested the proprietor, Matthias Benner. He had a hearing before Alderman Toland, who held him to bail in the sum of $1000 to answer.

A DAINTY TIT-BIT. -There was a roughand-tumble light at Sixth and Lombard streets yesterday afternoon, between two drunken negroes. Before they could be separated one of them, named Seymour Wheeler, got his op-ponent's nowe between his teeth, and held on to it in true bull-dog style until he bit it off. man who was minus a nose was taken to Dr. Coomb's office and had his wound dressed. Wheeler was arrested, and had a hearing before Alderman Butler, who held him in $800 to answer the charge of mayhem.

A WORTHY INSTITUTION.—The season of suffering ter the old, poor, and infirm is fast ap-proaching. One of our most worthy institu tions for the relief of such is the Penn Asylumtor the Relief of Indigent Widows and Single Women. The ladies of this institution intend holding a fair at Assembly Buildings, on the 22d instant, having for its object the relief of the inmates of the Asylum, and it is hoped that our citizens will come forward and subscribe liberally, as they have on former occasions.

DISAGREEABLE MUSIC.-William Toosey who has a very disagrecable way of blowing his own trumpet during the quiet hours of the Sab-bath, was, siter many ineffectual efforts on the part of the police authorities to get him to stop, arrested at Front and Queen streets on the charge of creating a nuisance. It is but reasonable to suppose that if the running of the cars on Sunday annoys the public, the discordant notes from a tin horn are no improvement. He was committed by Aiderman Pottinger.

A TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.-Patrick Mc-Donough, one of the workmen at the rolling mill of Mr. Robbins, in Beach street, above Palmer, met with a fatal accident at about 7 o'clock this morning. He was standing by one of the pulleys arranging the belt of the shatfing, the belt caught his clothing, and in an instant he was entangled in the machinery, and one leg was torn from his body, and his entrails, torn and bleeding, protruged from his body. The injuries are of a mortal character, and he cannot live many hours.

A TILL-TAPPER.-While the attendants at the grocery store, on the corner of Eighth and Coates streets were looking on at the firemen's parade, yesterday atternoon, a young thicf naned Bob Vance sneaked in, and getting behind the counter, got the money drawer open and rifled it of about $7. He was seen, however, as he was making off with his ill-gotten gains and arrested. He had a bearing before Alder-man Plankinton, and was held in $300 bail to answer.

CASE OF PERJURY .- Matthew Higgens was arrested yesterday on a charge of perjury. It appears that the prisoner had vouched on cath for a man who had voted twice the same day on last election. He was arrested at his residence in Camac street, on a warrant issued by Aiderman Fitch. He had a hearing, and owing to want of proper witnesses, he was noted for a further hearing.

CHOLERA.-There were eight new cases of cholera reported to the Board of Health since our report of yesterday. As will be seen by a reference to our previous reports, a material decrease in the number of cases is observable.

Rumor states that a certain New York city politician, who figured conspicaously in the Philadelphia Convention, left town last Friday morning with about $20,000, which was obtained under "queer" circumstances. The National Bank of the Metropolis of this city is reported as the victim. The cashier of this bank is a large stockholder in a National Bank at Memphis, Tennessee, and held deposited here some $115,000 belonging to this institution, which, when called for, produced a sensation. The matter was after considerable delay arranged by the payment of $75,000 in cash, and notes for the balance of about $40,000. Taese are now, said to be over due, and between the two trials rumor says this Washington bank will be seriously criopled. The cashier is to leave for New York to day.
