THE CAUSE WHY SOME VESSELS ARE LOST.

To the Editor of Evening Thleghaph:-Lately the people have been startled by reading some thrilling accounts of ship wreck, or of vessels foundering at sea during the recent gales. Some exclaim, "What dreadful weather there has been at sea; the heaviest gales that were ever known !" This is not the case; the weather at sea, about this time of the year, is generally boisterous, and we may always look for hurricanes from August to October. Taey generally pass through the Tropics, following along the course of the Gulf Stream close to Cape Hatteras, thence northeasterly to the banks of New foundland, and the never-failing mercurial barometer will always indicate the approaching storm to the experienced navigator.

No doubt you have seen a ship lying at our wharves, nicely painted, yards squared by their lifts and braces, rigging tarred down, and everything in apparent good order, and in fact looking almost like a picture. Such a ship as this often gives the schoolboy the notion of following the sea, and he longs to be a sailor or captain of that ship; but, alas! "Paint and putty make fine ships,"

That ship, my readers-which is the case many times-on her arrival in home port, the Captain notified his owners that his ship required caulking or other necessary repairs preparatory to going to sea again. The owners' reply is: - "Captain, we wish to load you imme diately; the markets are good abroad, and you must load and sail on such a day, and the weather no doubt will be fine this voyage, and on your return labor and material will be much lower, and then we will give your vessel a good overhauling."

The merchant, of course, is fully insured. The Captain is a poor man, with a family depending on him, at a monthly pay of $75 to $125 per month. Now, this Captain knows that his ship is not in good condition to perform the intended voyage; nevertheless, he is obliged to go; for, if he refuses, there are always twenty others to take his command at a much less salary than he is getting. He dare not inform the insurance companies, fearful that other merchants will not employ him; and in some cases, if he did, it would not receive much attention, as many of the merchants are directors of insurance companies.

Now, this ship gets to sea and encounters heavy gales; she springs a leak; the crew becomes exhausted by pumping, the leak gaining on them, and finally are obliged to abandon the ship. By Divine Providence, after being on a raft or in a boat, and enduring much suffering, they are picked up by another vessel and landed sately. The Captain makes a protest on landing, and hastens to the owners, and assists them materially to get their insurance on the ship and cargo.

After which, the Captain asks the owners for another ship; the reply many times is, "Captain, vessel property does not pay, and we think we will get out of the shipping business; but we will inquire among our triends, and if we can get you a ship, will be happy to recommend you." No doubt this Captain has lost all his personal effects and nautical instruments, etc., which took him some years to collect, and the owners, after getting all their insurance on the vessel, which no doubt was insured for more than its real value, will not contribute to even a portion of the Captain's loss. A SHIPMASTER.

Daily News . Saturday Night  $907 \\ 720$ Saturday Evening Post IMPROVEMENTS ON EIGHTH STREET.-We shall resume our description of the improve-ments by noticing, in the first place, the elegant newly fitted-up store of the Espen Brothers, at No. 44 North Eighth street. The building, three stories in height, has been thoroughly renovated and modernized. The heavy front to the lower story has been removed and a light iron and plate-glass put in its place. By-the-way, how very essential these plate-glass windows seem to have become to show off goods to a proper advantage. Allowing the light to pass through almost absolutely unobstructed, everything in the windows seems most beautifully brightened up, and shows off to the best advantage. Besides this they are really much stronger and more lasting than the old style of bulkwindows, with their small panes and heavy sashes. Great pains (panes?) are taken to render the windows more attractive, and the stores themselves lighter and more comfortable. Espen & Brethers have spared no exertions to make their establishment as comfortable and as myiting as a lavish expenditure of money, combined with a rare display of good taste, could obtain. They have succeeded. A better lighted, better ventilated, and handsomer place could not be found in the found in and handsomer place could not be found in the street. Their stock conforms to their building, and is well worth a visit. Their trade is in laces and embroideries, lace curtains, etc. They do a large importing business, and sell at whole-sale quite extensively. Some ten or fifteen thousand dollars have been expended in improvements, and the building now commands more than three times as much rent as it did a few years ago. Those whose taste is for the light and the beautiful, we would recommend to pay the Messrs. Espen Brothers a visit. It is almost bewildering to look over the rich and costly embroideries, with their artistical and intricate designs and patient elaboration of de tails. One almost wonders at these triumphs of human skill and diligence that are here so lavisaly displayed. Here the most fastidious tastes can satistied, so endless are the varieties of patterns and styles.

There is a new institution on the street, and one that bids fair to attain a popularity as great as it is deserved. We refer to the Staten Island Dyeing and Cleaning Establishment. This is a branch of a New York house, and although but recently established, has attained a great popularity. We stopped in there the other day, and from the way the ladies patronize it, we should judge that it will not be long before they find that their fine accommodations are insufficient for their extensive orders. Their place is newly fitted up, at a cost of some eight or ten thousand dollars, and presents a light, cheerful aspect, that is very well calculated to arrest the attention. As is usual with the stores along this street, they have the modern plate glass bulk windows. They occupy the building with their extensive business, which is carried on in a very successful way. It is a great consolation to know that the ladies when their dresses have become a little faded, or the color has gone out of style, can have their beauty renewed and their colors changed to almost any of the hues of the rainbow. So great is the skill attained in this dyeing that even delicate shades of moire antique can be re-colored and renovated, so as to appear in all their pristine beauty. It certainly makes the money pockets of husbands feel better when they (the husbands) can see a way by which their wives can obtain a new dress made of an old one. It is an institution which we Amer cans ought to patrouize, and is worthy of all the success that can attend it. The Company, as we have before observed, have not long been located in the street, but in the short time they have been there, they seem to have attained a most unusual popularity.

We will now turn to the store occupied by Beicher & Reed, at No. 34. The improvements in this establishment were commenced early in last January, and have been but recently completed, the present proprietors removing into it on the 3d of last May. The entire building has been rebuilt and renovated in the most thorough manner. It was but a small two and one-half storied building before, but is now one of the finest and most imposing stores in the square. The building is owned by Mr. William Warnock, whose establishment was for so many years so well known on the street as the leading retai

Belcher & Reed have thoroughly refitted the interior, in a style which does great credit to their taste and judgment, and evinces a proper regard for the comfort of those with whom they have dealings. We cannot avoid, in passing, to notice the beauty of the interior of their store Here may be seen the most beautifully rich and costly silks, dress goods, and all kinds of dry goods of the latest styles and finest quali-The clean, well-lighted rooms, with their lotty ceilings, and admirably arranged counters, are well calculated to invite purchasers to enter. building a few years ago did not bring onehalf the rent it now commands, and it could bring at least one-half more than it does.

THE WEATHER OF THE WEEK .- We suppose that the week which closes to-day is to be dign fied with the title of Indian Summer, although the early hours of this morning resembled an Indian Winter, or some such anomalous state of the weather. We give below the record made by the thermometer at Fourth and Thesnut streets during the week, as follows:

RECEIVING STOLEN GOODS - Bernard Rafferty, who keeps a dublous kind of a place at No. 528 Shippen street, was arrested on the above charge yesterday. It seems that a gentle-man walking past his establishment yesterday saw a coat hanging from a peg which he recog-nized as one he had lost in a mysterious manner some time before. He stepped inside, explained the circumstances of the case, and demanded bis property of Rafferty. The latter refused to render up to Casar the thing that was Casar's, and consequently he was arrested on the charge of receiving stolen property. He had a hearing this morning before Alderman Butler, who held him in $600 to answer.

NEW BOOKS.-T. B. Peterson & Brothers. NEW BOOKS.—T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Fhiladelphia, Pa., have in press the following works:—"Country Quarters," by the Countess of Blessington: "Saratoga; a Story of 1787; an Indian Tale of Frontier Life;" "The Corsican Brothers," by Alexandre Dumas; "The National Cook Book," by a Lady of Philadelphia, a practical housewife; "The Freebooters," and "The White Scalper," by Gustave Aimard; "The Family Save-All," a book that every family should own, by the author of "The National Cook Book;" and "The Young Heiress," by Mrs. Trollope.

WINDOW MOULDINGS. CHARLES BURSHAM & CO...

No. 119 S. TENTH Street, Philadelphia.

AN ASSAULT AND BATTERY AND AT-TEMPTED SUICIDE.—There was considerable of a row in Heath street, near Twelth and Poplar streets, vesterday morning. An unfortunate creature, named Bridget Brady, who is subject to fits of insanity, got into a frenzy, and selzing a piece of a bed-post, beat her attendant, Mary Burk, aged seventy years, over the head with it. The cries of Mrs. Burk brought assistance, but not until she had been beaten pretty badly about the head, causing several deep gashes, from which the blood flowed freely. On examination it was found that the skull had not been fractured although these tured, although there were several perceptible dents in it. The uniortunute creature Brady was arrested. and committed by Alderman Fitch to await the result of Mrs. Burk's injuries. After she was committed to her cell this morning, Bridget Brady stiempted to commit suicide, by cutting her throat with a piece of glass. Although the wound bied freely, she is not considered dangerously hurt.

ROBBING AN ISOLATED SHANTY .- Three young fellows, about eighteen or nineteen years old, were arrested for forcible entrance into and robbing a small shanty, which is kept as a cigar and eating stand, and carrying off some cigars. They gave the names of John Williams, George Vincent, and Henry Sinclair, and are supposed to be the same parties who broke into the same place some time since, and robbed it of over thirty dollars. The shanty is situated near the Gray's Ferry Bridge, on the west side of the river, and is isolated from the rest of the bouses, and is kept by houses, and is kept by a man named James Collins, who does not sleep in it, but generally closes it about dark, before he goes nome three thieves were taken before Alderman Allen, who committed them to answer.

A FISH STORY .- James Mooney is one of those men who go down to the sea in ships; in common language, he is a sallor. Walking along the wharves this morning, James saw a time barrei of fish that looked very tempting to his eyes. As luck would have it, a push-cart was close by, so James damped the barrel of tish into the push-cart and made off with it. Unfortunately, Officer Wright, of the police, oberved his piratical movements, and arrested nim in his career on Delaware avenue, above Market street, and escorted him to Alderman Horley. After the hearing, in which it appeared that the fish was the property of a Mr. Cheseborough, James was committed in default of $500 bail to answer for his offense.

NOT CAUGHT SOON ENOUGH .- Yesterday morning, Officer Brown, of the police force, ar-rested a man by the name of William S nith for the larceny of $187 and a silver watch from a lady. The watch and the pocket-book that had contained the money were found, but the money was gone. He said that he had been compelled to spend it. Smith, it appears, is one of the lowest of the low specimens of humanity that infest our city. It is said that he is so bad a case that he could not be any worse. The articles were stolen some days since, and the thief has fived high ever since. He had a hearing before Alderman Fitch, who held him o answer the charge of larceny.

LARCENY OF A POCKET-BOOK.-That he way the charge reads on the police repett: but anybody would reasonably suppose that it was more for what the pocket-book contained than for itself that the thief committed the theft. lt, in fact, sounds something like the defense of the negro who picked up a rail upon which were several fat turkeys, which he had no idea of taking. George Vincent stole a pocket-boot, which is stated to have contained some "ready rhino," and was arrested for the offense, and taken before Alderman Cloud. Vincent was held in $1000 bail to answer.

B. Scott, Jr., has just closed one of the largest sales of works of art which has ever been held in this city; the gallery was crowded to excess, and the audience very recherche. The bidding was very animated throughout. On account of many not being able to get in the Gallery, the Messrs. Viti Brothers will offer for sale on Tuesday morning next, at 11 o'clock, at the Gallery, No. 1020 Chesnut street, the contents of five cases which arrived too late for the special sale of the 17th; and we would advise all overs of art to attend the sale.

AN UGLY BATCH.—Robert Robinson was arrested on the charge of assault and battery, and carrying concealed deadly weapons. It appears that he and two others, Cornelius De Groot and Walter Bourne, got into a general row at Eleventh and Coates street, about midnight last night. A police officer undertook to arrest Robinson, when it is alleged he drew a billy, and strack the officer. The other two men then attempted a forcible rescue of Robinson. They were all three arrested, and held to snswer by Alderman Fitch.

A SWEET TOOTH,-James Perdu was interrupted this morning whilst engaged in a sweet speculation. It appears that the same James is gutted with a sweet tooth, and conse-quently the sight of sugar or other saccharine commodities generally overcomes what little remnant of honesty there is left in him. This morning he opened a box of sugar on the wharf. and was busily engaged in absorbing its con-tents into a bag, when he was arrested and taken before Alderman Hurley, by whom he was committed to answer in the sum of $500.

WEST JARCH STREET CHERCH .- Rev. Edwin H. Nevin, D. D., who is now supplying the West Arch Street Presbyterian Church, intends delivering a sermon to-morrow evening on "Skepticism: its Causes and Care." Dr. Nevin is one of the most eloquent divines of the Presbyterian Church. The discourse should be listened to by as many of the young men of the city as can make it convenient to attend.

NOT TRUSTWORTHY .- Chauncey Leonard was arrested at Ninth and Lombard streets on the charge of defrauding a man of some $200. It appears that some man had given him the which he had obtained as bounty, to keep for him, and Leonard, it appears, kept it for nimself; at least, that is the plaintiff's story. Leonard was held to ball by Alderman Hurley to answer.

SLIGHT FIRES .- The coal office occupied by Thomas J. Oram, in Willow street below Fit teenth, took fire this morning, but was extin guished before much damage was done. About half-past 1 o'clock this morning the was an alarm of fire that proved to be at No. 235 Queen street. It was soon extinguished, and the loss was very trifling.

CHOLEBA .- The number of cases reported o the Board of Health up to noon to-day was six. The number is decreasing every day, and ere long we will have the pleasure of informing our readers that this disease has entirely disappeared from our midst.

CAMDEN AFFAIRS .- The route of the procession of the "Boys in Blue," this evening, will be as follows: -Form on Fourth street, right resting on Market: up Market to Sexth, up Sixth to Cooper, down Cooper to Second, in Second to Pearl, down Pearl to Front, up Fron to State, up State to Second, down Second to Pearl, up Pearl to Toird, down Ihird to Market, down Market to Second, down Second to Federal, up Federal to Fourth, down Fourth to Stevens, up Stevens to West, down West to Berk ey, up Berkley to Broadway, down Broadway o Pine, down Pine to Third, down Third to spruce, up Spruce to Fifth, down Fifth to Chesnut, down Chesnut to Fourth, up Fourth to Line, up Line to Fifth, up Fifth to Federal down Federal to Third, up Third to Market, up Market to headquarters of "Boys in Blue," and here dismiss.

AND WINDOW MOULDINGS. CHARLES BURNHAM & CO., No. 119 S. TENTH Street, Philadelphia, "The Dear Hear."—Before and since the time our blessed Lord opened the ears of the deaf, the curse of deafness has been on the earth, and in later days science has been laboring to remedy the evil. No small degree of success has attended these efforts. No touch indeed, opens the closed portains of sound; but instruments have been contrived to and the disordered organ, and the ingenuity manifested in their construction is wonderful. We were looking over the collection of Mr. Madeira No. 115 South Teath street and were impressed with the endless variety of instruments devised for this object. To our well-opened "auricles" the application of any one of these instruments was anything but pleasant. It seemed as if a door shut between us, and Niagara Falls in full roar was suddenly opened, and the clamor of the rushing torrest broke in upon our brain. But to those hard of hearing the effect is very different. To them the sound before loss are collected and carried distinctly to the sensorium, and the silent universe becomes full of pleasant intelligent sounds. Artificial drams even are prov ded for the afflicted, and amoug the seventy varieties of instruments exhibited it seems scarcely possible that any dearness should fail of finding relief, if not a proper remedy. Many cases of relief are known to us and we earnestly commend all who are afflicted with defect of hearing to examine the large collection exhibited at the Depositary No. 115 South Tenth street, below Chesnut—From a Relagious paper.

Governor Wells Threatens to Remove the Parish Sheriffs—The Military to Arrest the Murderers of the Late Massacre—The Rebels Threaten Re-sistance — Fearful State of Amarchy on the Red River—Nineteen Freed mem Murdered — Union Men Ordered to Leave—The Cotton and Sugar Crop.

New Obleans, October 19.—It is stated that as soon as Governor Welles returns from his home in the country the Sheriffs of the different parishes will be removed for refusing to comply with the Governor's Convention proclamation. A messenger was sent to Washington some time since to confer with the Attorney-General, who is represented as naving stated in the pre-sence of the President that the Governor had a sence of the President that the Governor had a a perfect right so to act. General Sheridan was applied to for military assistance to carry out this programme, and also to arrest several parties accused of having committed murders on the 30th of July, and against whom the civil authorities have failed to proceed.

Action has been delayed until the troops which have since arrived could be concentrated in this city. Threats are made that if the mili-tary attempt to make these arrests the various Rebel secret associations, which are known to be well armed, will resist, and overpower the military and massacre all Union men. An at-tempt was recently made to assassinate Colonel Frisbie, at his hotel in Alexandria. The Colonel is extensively engaged in cotton planting, and employs 500 negroes who formerly served in his

He was subsequently publicly notified by a committee of prominent citizens, headed by Judge Ryan, that he must leave the Parish, as they wanted no Yankers there, and hereafter they would not be allowed to cultivate planta-tions. There are nineteen cases of murder on the docket of the Alexandria Court, and the presiding Judge presents the Parish to be in such a state of anarchy that there is no prospect of bringing any of them to trial. From returns received from trustworthy parties in the different parishes, to whom application was made for correct cotton and sugar

The Police Commissioners Summoned to Appear Before Governor Swann—Indignation of the Unionists—Meeting in Baltimere—The Governor to be Resisted at all Hazards.

BALTIMORE, October 19 .- A summons from Swann was served on the Board of Police by the Secretary of State at a late hour on Thursday night, ordering them to appear before him at Annapolis on Monday next, to answer charges against them. What their response will be is unknown. They were in consultation with their counsel to-day, but decline making public their determination. One of the counsel has visited Annapolis for the purpose of examining the charges against them. The feeling of a majority of the Unionists is against the Commissioners. of the Unionists is against the Commissioners paying any attention to Swann's order.

They advise them to stay quietly in their office, discharge their duties, to act altogether on the defensive, and, if Swann attempts violence, to meet force with force. Several ex-military officers called to-day on Mayor Chaptheir services. To-night a large meeting of veterans representing the "Boys in Blue" was keld, and presided over by Brigadier General Wooliey, who advised them to stand shoulder to shoulder in this contest, as they had done in to shoulder in the contest, as the meeting was the field.

Colonel Forthz said that the meeting was called by the permission of the Commander of the "Boys in Blue," Major-General Dennison, for the purpose of taking measures to support the purpose of the city. the regularly constituted authorities of the city. and of thwarting Swann's effort to place the Rebels in power. Committees were appointed to canvass the city to-morrow and obtain the names of all who will support the Commissioners in any emergency, and to report to the "Boys in Blue" at once. The following address was unanimous!; agreed upon:-

BOYS IN BLUE.

ATTENTION! The events now transpiring in this city make it incumbent upon us once more to a semble in massed columns to resist the attempts of traitors in our midst to deprive loyal mon of this city of the contro of its affairs and leave us to the tender mercies of our deadliest enemies. You will at once report yourselves to your officers for assignment for duty, and hold yourselves ready at a moment's notice to defend our charlered rights, now being menaced and endangered by the same despicable traiters, whose ready sympathy was always and ever for Rebels in arms, and whose curses a ways followed us on every bloody field of the Maryland line.

We have fought and conquered the Rebels who curses a ways followed us on every bloody field of the Maryland line.

We have fought and conquered the Rebeis who had the manilness to face us in the field. We have now to regulate those heroes who for the last four years have stood with yard-shick and crockery ware in hand, ready to furnish their dear friends of the South with their valuable sympathy. The loval Police Board of Baltimore must be sustained at all hazards and at every cost. Be ready. Be prompt. Each Ward will report its strength and organization on Saturday night at 8 o'clock, at the headquarters of the Unconstitutional Union Central Committee.

tral Committee.

By order of the General commanding.

F. C. FABR, Colonel and Chief of Staff.

Meetings were held in several other places, and any attempt of the Governor to interfere in the local affairs of Baltimore was denounced as an attack upon the liberties of the people. There were also meetings held of the Union League. Reverdy Johnson is among the counsel engaged by the Democrats.

THE BROOKLYN NAVY YARD AND THE ELECTION.

THE ELECTION.

The following notice, posted on the gates of the Brooklyn Navy Yard, is evidently in ended to influence the workmen employed there to vote for "My Policy."

"COMMANDANT'S OFFICE NAVY YARD, "NEW YORK October 15, 1866."

"NOTICE—Workmen in the Navy Yard, who sustain the Union, and desire its full restoration, must not, for that reason, be proscribed; and any attempt, by any master or ioreman, or per-on in position to coerce them, as stated, or to induce them to vote against their convictions, will be deemed sufficient cause for dismissing the official who is guilty.

"By order of the Secretary of the Navy, "Charles H. Bell, Rear-Admiral U. S. N., "Commandant."
