FINE PAINTINGS.

A collection of Oil and Water-color Paintings of vast merit and consideration are now on view at Messrs, Thomas Birch & Son's Gatlery, in Chesnut street, previous to their disposal-We glean from the catalogue many important names that the paintings themselves most ably

The French and English schoo's are, perhaps, more worthily represented in this gallery at present than before at any time and place in our city. The oil paintings evince a distinguished high tone of character; nor do the water colors deserve less consideration, dizcovering a delicacy, power, and finish that we were heretofore strangers to. The sale will commence to-morrow evening, and should draw a large company.

AMUSEMENTS.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC-ITALIAN OPERA.-To-night eyerbeer's grand romantic work, Les Huguennes, will be presented in a style of splendor never before attempted here. The cast will embrace Sennora Carmen Poch, Madame Natali-Testa, Giorgio Rononi, Beilini, Mazzoleni. Antonucci, Bernardi, Fosati, Banfi Reichardt, Mancini, Scheele, and others. To-morrow night, Crispino e la Comare.

On Friday night, we take great pleasure in re marking, La Somnambula will be repeated, and an act from the Huguenots thrown in as a douceur. In Miss Hauck we shall bid farewell to a more promising, a more fascinating "Am'na" than has been seen here for years.

On Saturday afternoon-grand matinee-The Star

NEW CHESNUT STREET THEATRE-JOE JEFFER-NEW CHESNUT STEEET THEATRE—JOE JEFFERSON AT HOME.—To-night, after an absence of thirteen years from this, his native city, Mr. Joseph Jefferson will appear as "Rip Van Winkle," in the play of that name. Mr. Jefferson's name and fame and extraordinary talent are familiar all the world over; and it is the fact, not only that he is a Philadelphian, but that he is a Philadelphian whom the world delights to honor, that will render his reception this evening so immense. The management promises on its part, that every scene shall be new, consequently the enjoyment to be derived from an attendance upon Rip Van Winkle will be of no ordinary character.

New Arch Street Theatre —The new comedy, Women will Tark, is now playing with distinguished success at the New Arch Street Theatre, and Mrs. John Drew's impersonation of "Mrs. Belle Gabberton" is a delightful dramatic treat. The piece is cast in first-rate style, and is placed upon the stage in a most superior manner. It is a play of rare interest, and no one should fail to witness it.

NEW JERSEY AFFAIRS.

REPUBLICAN MEETING AT WATERFORD. -Last evening a large and enthusiastic meeting was held at Waterford, on the line of the Atlantic Railroad, about twenty-four miles from the city. The meeting was held in the open air, in front of Mr. Porter's house. The "Boys in Blue," and the "South Ward Campaign Club" of Camden were present. A "wigwam" was erected for the accommodation of the audience, but it was not large enough for the numbers present. The meeting was called to order by Griffith Porter, who officiated as chairman. He introduced Mr. Thacher, of Philadelphia, who spoke in substance as follows:-

Fellow-Citizens:—It seems to me I have seen a great many of these gentiemen before, on several occasions, in Camden county. I sha'll not trouble you with a long seech to-night, as it is getting almost too late. Our object was more to come down and make you a short visit than to make any extensive specches. There is one very important issue before the people of the North. It is a little bit of difference between the people of the United States and one of their agents down in Washington. You know that we se ect once in four years a man to be our agent to execute the laws which are passed by the people's representatives. This man whom we selected to be an agent for us has made a little mistake. He has opened a shop in Washington, and gone to cealing in policies instead of executing the laws made by the people's representatives. We don't tunk much of these policy-dealers. The peop e didn't put him there to deal in them, they put him there simply to execute the laws. The real vital and fundamental issue before the people is simply whether Andrew Johnson shall usurp the law-making power of the Government, or whether it shall remain in the hands of the people. The issue, which can be seen in a moment, is clear to every man, no matter what his poblical proclivities may be. That is Fellow-Citizens:-It seems to me I have seen a seen in a moment, is clear to every man, no mat-ter what his political proclivities may be. That is the point and the only important point in this canvass. You are to elect a Congressman from this district. What are you going to send him to Washington for? He isla representative of the people, to make laws for them If Andrew Johnson is to make the laws, what is the use of us electing Congressmen? The speaker then discussed the President's policy and the one adopted by Congress, showing conclusively that the latter was by far the wisest and judicious, and the only one that would secure to the country a permanent peace

Mr. Thacher having retired amid much applause, General Robeson, of Camden, was then introduced, who said he had come down to speak to the glassblowers of Waterford, because he was by profession a blower. He then discussed the question of representation under the new apportionment. The speaker was frequently applauded throughout his able and logical address.

Senator Ludlam, of Cumberland, was then introduced. This speaker confined himself almost exclusively to eulogizing the various nominees of the Republican party, and to the contrary of the Democratic candidates, showing them up as they have never been before, the speaker being familiar with their antecedents since he has been in the State Senate. At a late hour the vast assemblage dispersed, and wended their way homeward.

IMPROVEMENTS IN CAMDEN, -Among the many improvements in Camden at the present time, none attract more attention than that of Odd Fellows' Hall, at the corner of Fourth and Market streets. The building, with the improvements, will be 120 feet in depth by 35 feet in width, with a wing 80 by 60.

The new additions to the main building are of the same height as the old one. There will be six ante-rooms, the two upper ones used for a supper-room, and the two in the second story for cloak-rooms.

Yesterday afternoon the roof over the wine having been completed, a collation was served in the supper-room in the third story in grand style. The table was well filled with good and style. The table was well filled with good and substantial food, and in the room adjoining plenty to drink could be had. Mr. Morgan, the enterprising owner of the property, deserves a great deal of credit for the manner in which he has supplied this great desideratum.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING .- The Democrats and Conservatives held their first meeting in the Court House, last evening. The building was pretty well filled, and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed. There was also a meeting held outride in the open air, which was addressed by prominent gentlemen. The meeting in the Court House was called to order by the nomination of Samuel J. Biard to act as Chairman. That gentleman made a few fitting remarks, at the conclusion of which he introduced A. H. Slape, Esq., the nominee of the Democrats for Congressman.

The speaker then made the following declaration of principles, which he discussed at length:

1. I have never believed by the right of seces-

2. The Union is one and indivisable

8. I am in favor of equality before the law.
9. I am opposed to making the negro the equal, politically or socially, of the white man. 10. I am in favor of an economical expendi-ture of the public money, and relieving the people from the onerous duties of taxation.

11. I am for peace—a united Union and cultivation of fraternal feeling in all the States.

Addresses were also delivered by John O'Byrne The "White Boys in Blue" were in attendance, and presented a very creditable appearance, numbering about 113 fully equipped members.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

[For Additional Local Items see Third Page.]

THE EIGHTH STREET IMPROVEMENTS .-William Warnock is, pernaps, above all others, entitled to the credit of being the pioneer of the Eighth street retail trade. He began his mercantile career about thirty-five years ago in a little shop on the west side of the street, be-tween Flibert and Arch. Meeting with what was in those days a rare success, he finally removed into larger quarters on the opposite side, on the premises now known as No. 43. During the early portion of his business life he employed as a clerk for ten years Mr. E. R. Lee, who on his retirement became one of the members of the succeeding firm. About five years ago Mr. Lee became the owner of the entire business, and during these five years he has expanded it to five times its magnitude at that

Mr. Lee has recently completed, at a cost of nearly $25,000, a handsome improvement of the old stand, imparting thereby to the property a nett increase in value of about $20,000. store has now a depth of one hundred and thirty feet on Eighth street, and branches of at the rear one hundred feet to Filbert street. The ceiling has been raised from eight feet and a half to fourteen feet, thus rendering it one of the most commodious and attractive in the city. The front is handsomely constructed of brown stone, and receives additional beauty from the large New York bulk-windows, with heavy plate glass, which adorn the first floor. The door-way on Eighth street has likewise been beautifully panelled with black walnut to a depth of EIX feet from the front.

Mr. Lee, since his improvement, has increased his stock full three-fold, and is now prepared to turnish to the public everything in the line of staple and fancy dry goods, making something of a specialty of fancy articles, silks, and the like. The Filbert street store is used exclusively as a show-room for hoop-skirts, and in that respect is one of the most attractive in the city.

A BURGLAR FOILED .- About 2 o'clock this morning, a desperate attempt was made to enter and rob the house of a Mr. Derbyshire, who lives in Beach street, below Shackamaxon. The burglar pried off a board from a fence en-closure, and obtained entrance into the yard of a factory next to which Mr. Derbyshire lived, and from thence jumped over into his yard. He then procured a sep-ladder, and obtained entrance into the bath-room of the house. For tunately the door of the bath-room was locked. and in the endeavors of the burglar to force it open he awakened Mr. Derbyshire, who rau to his front window, and, raising the sash, cried out at the top of his voice, "Thief! thief!" This melodious how arrested the attention of Officer Control of the control o Officer Gray, who happened to be within hail. The officer immediately ran to the house and asked to be admitted, so that he could arrest the interloper. But Mr. Derbyshire was so scared and flurried that he was unable to do so.

In the meantime, the thief, taking advantage In the meantime, the thief, taking advantage of the opportunity given him, ran out the back way, and made a clear break for Allen street. Officer Gray saw him but for a passing instant. He vanished up Allen street, doing some tall walking. Officer Gray went after him, but owing to the darkness and the long start the burglar got off. In the meantime, the noise had attracted the attention of Officer Eaken, who, as he went to the scene of operations, saw a man emerging from the hole in the fence in which the burglar had gained entrance, and collared him. The astonished man showed a disposition to resist such familiarity, and the officer would have shot him if it had not turned out that his prisoner was a son-in-law of the gentleman who came so near being robbed. It appeared that hearing the noise, he had gone over to see what was the matter, and was unlucky enough to be mistaken for a burglar.

A BRUTAL FELLOW .- A fellow named Evan Thomas was arrested for committing an assault and battery on an old woman. The said old woman is Thomas' mother-in-law. It seems that there has been a misunderstanding for some time between the two. Yesterday afternoon Thomas undertook to drown fancied sorrows in the intoxicating bowl. When he had succeeded in getting thoroughly soaked, he started up to the residence of his abhor-rence, in Hope street, below Norris, on a war trail. Arrived there, he made a ferocious attack upon her, smashed her metaphorically. attack upon her, smashed her metaphorically, and then turned to and smashed her furniture literally. Thomas, about the time he had finished his demonstrations, was arrested, and taken before Alderman Cloud, who held him in $800 to answer at Court. It is said the prisoner is what is emphatically denominated "a hard cave."

AN INTRUDER BAYONETED. -Thomas Nichols, who keeps a place at No. 335 Front street, was arrested on a charge of assault and battery and sttempt to kill. It appears from his story that a man came into his place and commenced to quarrel with him; that being hard pushed, and the man getting the better of him, and not being strong enough to put him out, he seized a bayonet and thrust it at him. The man was not hurt very badly, it is asserted. Nichols had a bearing before Alderman Moore, who committed him in default of $1000 bail to ASSAULT ON AN OFFICER AND A FRUIT-LESS CHASE. — Officer Reeder, whilst in the neighborhood of Passyunk road and Ellsworth street, saw a couple of men, one of whom was dressed in soldier's clothes, helping along a street, saw a couple of men, one of whom was dressed in soldier's clothes, helping along a third man who was in a state of beastly intoxication. The drunken man said to his companions, "Hic-hic-let's go in and take a drink ole let; come on, frens." Just as he had got that lucid speech ont, a woman came along and said that the drunken man was her husband, and that he had in his possession then over one hundred collars; and slso that the man dressed in citizen's clothe, who was with him, had struck and beaten her, and asked Officer Reeder struck and beaten her, and asked Officer Reeder to arrest him.

He did so, but "caught a tartar." Turning on his captor, and giving him about six or seven severe blows, he showed a clean pair of heels for about a mile, when his progress was stopped, and he found himself in the grasp of the guardians of the peace. The whole occur-rence happening at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, made quite a stir amongst the peaceable citizens in the vicinity. The man, who gave the name of John Moore, and who is more renowned for his ruffienly qualities than anything else, was taken before Alderman Bonsall, who, after a hearing of the facts of the case, held him in default of $1500 bail.

BEDFORD STREET CASES .- Yesterday afternoon John Harris, James Johnson, and David Vallicu were all arrested at Seventh Bedford streets, on a charge of suspicion of lar-ceny. It is asserted that they appropriated some clothing to their own use in an unlawful manner. They had a hearing before Alderman Lutz, who committed them for a further hearing.

Last evening Victoria Burchell, alleged to be a bummeress, was arrested on the charge of the larceny of a coat from a slop-shop in Bedford street. She was arrested at Sixth and Shippen streets, and had a hearing before Alderman Tuttarmary by whom she was committed. man Tittermary, by whom she was committed to answer. The thieves and bummers of that locality are evidently looking out for cold weather.

A STABBING CASE .- About half-past eight o'clock last evening a fight was started at No. 2410 Callowhill street, between the keeper of the tavern, named John Donohue, and a man by the name of Flemming. After fighting for a while, Donohue drew a pocket-knife and stabbed Hemming twice, once in the arm and once in the region of the groin. The latter wound is a very severe and painful one, but is not considered dangerous, it is said. The wounded man was taken to the St. Joseph's Hospital. Donohue gave himself up to Officer Hamilton, of the Ninth Police District. He had a hearing before Alderman Hutchinson, and was held in $1500 bail for a further hearing. Flemming's wounds were dressed, and he is now doing well.

A PAIR OF AMAZONS.—Mary Dougherty, in whose head the bump of combativeness is rather inordinately developed, got into trouble last evening. She lives in Northampton court, and is in constant hot water with one of her neighbors in that classic place. It seems that this enemy of hers was saying something disagreeable, when she picked up a caseknife and rushed out to do battle before all the court. A short but spirited contest ensued, in which Mary put her antagonist hors de combat, and drew the first blood from a cut in the arm. Mary was arrested, however, and was taken be-fore Alderman Toland, who held her in $1000 bail to answer the charge of assault and battery.

FIRE.-This morning there was an alarm of fire telegraphed to the Central Station to the effect that a large coal oil factory, on Gray's Ferry road, below the Arsenal, was on fire.

The place at which the fire took place was Carr & O'Neall's coal oil refinery. Its origin was the catching fire of some of the inflammable gas escaping from a still in which benzine was being distilled. It occurred just about the time of the opening of the establishment and was put out without any difficulty by the workmen. Damage

"House Hunting."-The Rev. T. De Witt Talmage will deliver a lecture before the Philalethean Literary Association, on to-morrow (Thursday) evening,, at the Musical Fund Hall, on "Our New House; or, the Pleasures of House Hunting." Mr. Talmage has a fine reputation as a brilliant and original thinker. His subject is certainly an interesting one in the present dearth of dwellings, and we doubt not those who hear his lecture will be both amused and instructed.

PROPERTY SUPPOSED TO HAVE BEEN STOLEN.-Yesterday afternoon a boy who was carrying part of a set of harness, stopped on the corner of Fifth and Coates streets, and putting down his burden, he put off and left. It was picked up and taken to the Eleventh Ward Station House, where it row remains awaiting an owner. The property is supposed to have been

A NARROW ESCAPE.—About half-past 8 o'clock last evening a man (name unknown) fell overboard at the toot of the dock at Pine street. A woman who heard the splash in the water gave the alarm, and Officer Ellis, of the Harbor Police, jumped in and rescued him, or otherwise he would have been drowned.

MCCLEES & MCCANN,

The Trian of the Baltimore Police Com-

Annapolis, and, October 31.—The examination of the charkes against the Police Commissioners was continued until 6 o'clock last night, and resumed again this morning at 10 o'clock. The defense again this morning at 10 o'clock. The defense are expect to get through their evidence by noon, when there will probably be some rebusting a evidence introduced by the prosecution.

Commissioner Hinds was called to the stand yesterday by the counsel for the defense, in order that the Governor might question him, but he declined doing so, and said if he desired to examine the Commission were he would do so at their office in Baltimore.

The same conversation took pine 2 last night

The same conversation took press a last night relative to the argument of the case.

Mr. Alexander, for the Commission ers, anmounced his intention to argue the case.

Mr. Latrobe urged the importance of disp. osing of the case without delay. He said they represent the case without delay. sented 14,000 disfranchises people of Baltimore. Time pressed, and if the Commissioners were removed, as they hoped and believed they would be there was much to be done, many changes to be made, before next Tuesday, the day of election. The counsel for the defense said they did not wish to defay unnecessarily? Mr. Afrander said they represented the Union men of Baltimore and the Union sentiments of the country.

The Governer said flat, in order to secommodate the counsel, he would sit up to twelve o'clock to-night, if necessary.

Fenian Meeting in St. Louis.

St. Louis, October 31.—A large meeting of Irishmen was held at the Court House last evening, at which resolutions were alopted stronely condemning the late action of the Canadian courts in the cases of Colonel Lynch and Father McMahon, characterizing the infliction of the death pennst; for positical offences as barbarous, cruel, and in opposition to the spirit of the age and beauting teachings. to the spirit of the age and trasonne teachings of civilized nations, and expressing thanks and gratitude to President Johnson and Secretary Seward for their prompt action in behalf of Irish-American citizens.

From Washington-The India us of the Plains.

WASHINGTON, October 31. - Commissioner logy, of the Indian Bureau, had a conference this morning with General Sherman at the head-quarters of General Grant, in relation to the temper and disposition of the Indians of the great plains of the West. The new Commissioner appears to be anxious to investig ate into the truth of the various rumors in relation to the Indian troubles.

General Sherman will make a written report

SELLING LOTTERY TICKETS WITHOUT A LICENSE,—Joseph Hughes, Heary Edeli, and William Winer, charged with dealing in lottery tickets without a license, had had a hearing before Commissioner Smith this alternoon.

The case involves a test of the validity of the State law which prohibits altogether the sale of lottery tickets. Edell and Winer have furnished bail in $1000 each, and the United States test their case upon Joseph Bughes. The issue is—Can the United States enforce a revenue law which coaff its with upon Joseph Bughes. The issue is—Can the United States enforce a revenue law which conficts with State laws in letter and in spirit?

Peter Daiy sworn—I am Deputy Collecter of the Fourth District; I know defendant; I visited his place about the lat of October. In Pear's street near Broad; I asked him if he had a licease; he said he had none; I went there three times; the first time I went alone; I went there three times; the first time I went alone; I went again on the 5th with a German; defendant was writing on a slip of paper, and some women were giving him money; he was writing down figures on slips of paper; they were slips of footscap paper; I have not seen a lottery woket; I cannot know what the strips were; the papers had sats of numbers on them; I don't know the difference between a policy and lottery ticket; I can't say whether it was either a lottery or a policy ticket; lottery tickets are printed; the tickets that I saw resembled them. Dofendant said he would see about paying his license; some had said they thought he ought not to pay it, and he had not come to a decision; the second time I was there I saw these tisgets handed to people for money.

Cross-exemination—I do not say on my oath I saw either lattery or policy tickets there.

The defendant was hald in $1000 bail for his appearance at Court on the 19th or November.
