GUY FAWKES' DAY .- The 5th of Novem ber in England is devoted to very similar enjoy ments as the 4th of July is with us. The great difference is that the origin of the celebration cannot measure itself in importance with the anniver-sry of Independence. In the year 1604 Robert Catesby, a Koman Catholic, conceived the plan of blowing up the Houses of Parliament, and thus destroying at a blow King, Lords, and Commons, in order to revenge the severity of the penal laws against the Catnolics. A mine was dug under the Houses of Parliament, and a meeting of the House having been appointed, Guy Fawkes, one of the conspirators, was ap-pointed to fire the train with a slow match. There were, however, several Catholic peers in the House, among others Lord Monteagle, who, a few days before the time appointed, received an anonymous letter, which it eventually trans-pired was written by Dame Dorothy Setby, en-treating his absence from Parliament, and warning him of a terrible impending danger.

This aroused his suspicions, and a search having been made, Guy Fawkes was found among a quantity of powder barrels under the house, with materials for ignition on his person. When arrested he boldly avowed his purpose, and was consequently condemned and executed January 30, 1608. Ever since, the boys carry about an efficy of Guy Fawkes on this anniversary, which they burn in some public place in the evening, accompanying the condagration with a display of breworks. When carrying the figure about it is customery for the to chant verses composed for the occasion, each according to the inspiration of his own muse, but invariably commencing-

"Please to remember The fifth of November, The gunpoweer treason and plot. We don't see the reason Why gunpowder treason Should ever be forget."

ARREST OF A BURGLAR.-James Davidson, a professional burglar, was arrested about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon on a charge of bur glary. During the temporary absence of Mr. Potts, who resides at the northwest corner of Thirteenth and Wallace streets, Davidson effected an entrance into the house through the front door, by means of a skeleton key. A couple of little boys in the neighborhood saw Davidson enter, and, suspecting something wrong, gave

He, seeing himself detected, attempted to brough the rear of the house. He ran out of the back door, and jumping the fence of the yard, tried to conceal nimself in the watercloset of a neighboring house. He was discovered, however, and by representing that he was only trying to escape from some person with whom he had a difficulty, he got clear, and then ran down Bankson street.

When be had gone a short distance persons began to suspect the true state of the case, and hue and cry being raised, he was pursued as far as Ridge avenue and Melon street, where he was captured by a Mr. Ross, and handed over to two policemen, who took him in charge and escorted him to Alderman Hutchinson's office. After a hearing of the case, he was held in the sum of $3000 ball to answer the charge of burglary. This morning he was taken to the Mayor's office, to allow the police authorities to take a close view of his person, in order that he might be identified in case of any future operations.

ROBBERY.—Last Friday night, between 12 ind I o'clock, a German, who had come down from Holmesburg to go on a "bender" in thisesty, stopped in his peregrinations at a saloon in Second street. He soon became most gloriously "tight," and when he started up to go home several men officiously proffered their services to help him along. They took him out, and, instead of turning his face homewards, they led him to a vacant lot, and there made an appropriation of his waten and other valuables George Detterline, who is said to be one of the party concerned, was arrested and taken before Alderman Clouds, who, after hearing the facts of the case, held him in $1000 bail to answer.

A HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—Between 2 and 3 o'clock yesterday morning a gentleman was walking along Seventeenth street, near South, with a new hat under his arm, when a of ruffians sorang out on him and knocked him down, and beat him with a blackjack. They then stole from him his new hat and his cap, and left him. As soon as he recovered sufficiently from his beating he gave the alarm, and had the two men arrested. They gave the names of John Gallagher and Mickey Bogan. After a hearing before Alderman Lutz that magistrate committed them to answer the charge of highway robbery.

BORROWED RAIMENT. - Last Saturday evening Brodus Meyer, a German who is em-ployed in the establishment of Engel & Wolff, on Washington lane, was arrested on a charge It appears that he took advantage of farceny. It appears that he took advantage of the temporary abence of some workmen employed in the vicinity, to confiscate their clothing. He was unlucky enough to be caught clothing. He was unfucky enough to be caught at it, and was arrested and taken before Alder man Hutchinson, wao held him in $800 bail to SHOVING THE QUEER.-Daniel McAlcer, while on a drunken Prolic last Saturday night stopped at a saloon at Eighteenth and Lombard streets, and in payment for some liquor, it is said, attempted to pass a counterfeit fractional note. He was arrested and taken before Alder man Swift, who fined him for being drunk, and committed him to answer the charge of an at tempt to pass counterfest money.

AN IMMENSE INHERITANCE FOR SOME-RODY.—The descendants of Joseph Willson, of Yorkshire, England, to the number of about one States, met a few days ago at the Astor House, in New York, and adjourned after forming an organization which is to be known as the "Ingraham Association," and whose object is to be to prosecute the Ingraham jamily's claim to the site of the flourishing city of Leeds, in England. Mr. W. J. P. Ingraham, of Philadelphia, is President of the Association. One of the heirs of this Leeds property spent many years in searching for titles, and bad nearly completed his task when, last spring, he died. The family intend to pursue the work until they shall establish their claim, and in so doing they expect aid from capitalists in Leeds, who are anxious to find somebody that can give them titles to the land whereon they have built. The estimated value of the land in dispute is $100,000,000. The claimants are sanguine of specess; but others believe the claim is about as good as that of Anneke Jans to the estates of LARCENY OF CLOTHING, ETC .- George Harris was arrested yesterday for the larceny of a quantity of clothing and other articles from a gentleman in Chester. It was supposed that a professional by the name of Benson had taken the articles in question, viz., two pairs of cloth pants one dress trock coat, two vests, an overcoat, a value full of underclothing and and a silver watch with chain attached. George Harris, the person arrested yesterday, it is said, has coniessed to the taking of the articles. They were all recovered, and were sent down to Chester this morning. Harris had a hearing before Alderman Swift, who held him to answer the charge of larceny.

A DISORDERLY HOUSE. - Catharine Murphy, who keeps a disorderly house at Black berry alley and Spruce street, was arrested last night, together with some five or six of her nymphs and a couple of men, one black, the other white. It is said that Catharine has been a great sunoyance to the neighborhood, on account of the disorderly characters who frequent her place, and make night hideous with their discordant melodies. When the police made the descent on them last night, they were very disorderly and noisy. They had a hearing before Alderman Swift, who held them to answer.

LLOYD'S RAILROAD GUIDE. -We have received the November number of this invaluable publication, and find it, as usual, replete with important information to travellers. great advantage of having in a compact form a reliable time-table of the great railroads of the country cannot be too highly estimated, and this is secured by Lloy's Guide. It contains several illustrations, among which we find a fine steel engraving of Hugh Rice, Esq., a pro-minent New York merchant, and a good view of Philadelphia as seen from the Delaware

A LARGE HAUL OF BASE-BALL PLAYERS. -Yesterday afternoon a large gang of young fellows were arrested on a vacant lot at I wentyeighth and Tasker streets, whilst playing base-ball. This practice of playing ball on Sunday, to the annoyance of every one in the neighbor hood, became so unbearable that, on complaint or the citizens, the police authorities resolved to put an effectual quietus upon it. Accordingly number of officers dressed themselves in itizen's clothing, and surrounded the players. They arrested some thirty-tour young fellows, were taken before Alderman Swift, who held them to answer.

CARRYING CONCEALED DEADLY WEArons.—At a late hour last Saturday night Thomas J. Reed, a benevoient individual, who was kindly attending to the comfort of a drunken companion, at Eleventh and Oilve streets, in an exaggerated style of friendship, got into a slight difficulty. An officer attempted to arrest 'his protege, who was acting in a nois manner, when Reed, it is said, interfered, and drew a billy. He was arrested for this offense, and taken before Alderman Massey, who, after hearing the facts in the case, committed him in detault of $700 bail to answer.

A THIEF WITH A SWEET LOOTH,-A German named A. Oehlschlager "took advantage of an opportunity" to purioin a bag containing cight bounds of sugar from one of the passenger cars of the Ridge avenue railroad. The sugar was the property of Mr. J. Nichots, the Super-intendent of the road, who had the thief arrested. He had a hearing before Alderman Massey, who held him in $700 bail to answer.

A DANGEROUS FELLOW. - William Miller was arrested yesterday morning, about 1 o'clock, at Seventh and Cherry streets, on a charge of carrying concealed deadly weapons. t is alleged that he was in a state of exhiliration, and was talking very loudty when he wa On his person he had a revolver. He had a hearing before Alderman Godbou, who held him in $1000 bail to answer.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?-We have received the third part of the Roll of Henor from the War Department. It contains some curiosities in the way of names. There are no less than ten George Washingtons, all of whom belonged to the colored troops. There are also representatives of General Taylor and many more of our illustrious men amongst those who "fought bravely."

SABBATH BREAKING. -- There were some eighty-five boys and young men arrested yester-day for various small offenses in Lieutenant Connelly's district. Most of them were for pitching pennics and corner-lounging. A determined effect will be made to put a most effective stop to all such notsances in the future. They were taken before Alderman Swift, who held them to answer.

FROM BALTIMORE THIS P. M.

Judge Bartol's Writ of Habeas Corpus,

The Jail Warden Refuses to Make a Return.

Petition for the Arrest of the Warden.

Argument on the Time Allowed by Law in Which to Make a Return.

The "Conservatives" Don't Like Grant.

What He Told the Governor.

Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc.

[Continued from the First Page.] This proposition appears to meet with but little favor on the part of the Radicals, who clearly have the upper hand at present, and are not disposed to yield voluntarily any of their ground to their opponents. At nine o'clock this morning Judge Bartol sat in Chambers at the Court-house awaiting a return to the writ of habeas corpus in behalf of the new Commissioners and Sheriff.

The Court-room was packed with a large throng, while the streets in the neighborhood were almost blocked up by the crowd of people. There was no excitement, however, a general feeling prevailing was that it would be best to await patiently the due course of the law, Messrs, Schley and Latrobe, counset for the new Commissioners, are in court, but the counsellors for the old Board were not present. A collog ty ensued between the Judge and the counsel as to the requirement of the law.

No return had yet been made to the Court, which the Judge stated was granted about 5 o'clock on Saturday, but for some reason had not been served until this morning. The Court further stated, that by a provision of the code of Maryland, three days' time was given within which to make a return. Mr. Schley said he was aware of this provision of the statute, but that over and above this was the common law, which required an immediate return. He was willing, however, to give a reasonable time for a return.

The Court then quietly awaited the appearance of the prisoners. After a lapse of an hour and a half Mr. Horwitz, counsel for the Sheroff. stated his belief that there was no intention to comply with the writ. Mr. Alexander, sen or counsel for the old Commissioners, then ap peared and stated his belief that the Warden of the jail was in consultation with counsel, and that some time would be necessary to prepare a return. (Laughter.)

He believed a return would be made, but could not say when, or what it would be.
Mr. Horwitz then stated that he would apply for a writ commanding the Sherid or, in this case, one of his deputies, as the officer himself was in custody, to produce in court at once the body of his client and of his custodian, under that provision of the code which gives this power, when there is reason to believe, as there is in this case, that the custodian intends to evade the writ. The Judge asked Mr. Alexander whom he represented? Mr. Alexander - I represent the Commissioners, who have deep interest in preserving the peace of the city, and in the proper conduct of this case. He had reason to believe that a return would be made about noon, and that there would then be no necessity for any jur-ther proceedings in the case. He thought the best interests of all would be best subserved by a postponement of all proceedings until 12 or

Mr. Schley arose, and said that he would endeaver to speak calmly, although it was with feelings of much warmth. No man in Baltimore was more anxious than himself to preserve the peace and prevent a riot or outbreak of any kind. He desired to have the matter settled without any trouble, and even without any argument, as it was a subject on which the minds of men naturally became excited. Still, he could not overlook the fact that three citizenthe State had been deprived of their liberty. and that, after the lapse of an hour and a halafter the appointed time, no return had been made to the process commanding the produc-tion of their bodies in this court. He therefore staten that he was about to prepare affidavits on which to base petitions in behalf of Messrs. Young and Valliant, similar to the one made by Mr. Horwitz in behalf of the Sheriff.

Mr. Rogers, Deputy State's Attorney, ap-peared, and stated that he had reason to believe that the Warden was engaged with his counsel in preparing his return. On occasions many suggestions naturally arise, by which much time is con-sumed, and it was only reasonable to give the necessary delay. Besides, it might be that there could be no possible contumacy on the part of the Warden, as there was no legal preumption that these men were now in his cus

At this point there was another long delay in the proceedings, counsel for the new Commis-sioners and Sheriff being occupied in the preparation of their affidavits and petitions, This morning, at 10 o'clock, General Grant had an interview with Governor Swann and other leading conservatives, at the Governor's residence. The result was rather unsatisfactory to the conservatives, as they are now swearing furiously against General Grant, whom they charge with having gone over to the radicals. The exact result of the interview has not vet been divulged, and this is the only indication of its nature which I have.

FROM ANOTHER CORRESPONDENT.

[SPICIAL DESPATCH TO THE EVERING TELEGRAPH.] BALTIMORE, November 5 .- All is quiet, but an mmense number of people are in the streets and around the Court House.

Captain James, Warden of the jail, refused this morning to deliver the new Commissioners Young and Valliant, and Sheriff Thompson, to the officers who demanded them on a writ of habeas corpus issued by Judge Bartol.

Soon afterwards Milton Whitney, counsel for Captain James, appeared in the City Circuit Court, where Judge Bartol was sitting in waiting, in a crowded court-room, with the counsel on both sides present, and stated on behalf of his client, that he, Captain James, the Warden of the jail, could not deliver the prisoners at that time, but would, if possible, return them into Court at 12 o'clock noon, or give reasons why he could not do so.

At 12 o'clock precisely, the prisoners not appearing, William Scaley, counsel for them, arose and, supported by affidavits, demanded of Judge Bartal the issuance of a writ for the arrest of Captain James, to bring him before the Court on a charge of contempt, and to show cause why he had not opeyed the writ of habess corpus in surrendering the prisoners.

Schley is now going on with his argument to show why James should be immediately arrested, and brought before Court for contempt. He is defining the nabeas corpus law, which some content, with James' counsel, gives him three days to respond to the writ of habeas corpus in delivering the prisoners, and others assert that it justifies an immediate sur-

This argument, and reply of the opposite counsel, will consume much time and cause suca a delay as to prevent the new Commissioners having time to manage or conduct the election to-morrow. It James should be arrested, this will also consume much time, and if the new Commissioners and Sheriff be surrendered, the arguments in trying the case will occupy two days. In any event, therefore, it seems now that they cannot act, and the old Police Board will be master of their position until after the

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

Court of Oyer and Terminer-Judges Allison and Ludlow.—This morning, William McGuire, charged with the murder of Maggie Baer, was trought up for trial.

When this case was first called up for trial, it was no postponed until the following term. When it was again called up, the prisoner's counsel alleged that the prisoner was insane, but objected to have the trial carried on. A jury was called to try the issue or the prisoner's sanity, and rendered a vertice of or the prisoner's sanity, and rendered a verdict of lunacy.

During the June term of the present year, counsel for the defendant alleged that he had been restored to sanity, submitted testimony in support of the alegation, and asked the Court to appoint a day for his trial. It was alleged that the Court had aked for the day of trial the 20th of September last. There having been no Oyer and Terminer during the September term, the case went over till the term.

District Attorney Mann said the prisoner could not be arraigned, on account of the verdict of an sanity; and, the question being raised as to the fixing of a day for trial, he ordered the records of the proceedings in the case to be read.

The records were searched, but no such order was found. It was then proposed that the prisoner's counsel should in this instance allege the restoration of the prisoner to sanity, and apply for a jury to try the issue, as they had in the lirat place alleged and proven insunity, having the case postponed for so long a time. The defense declined to do this, but merely suggested the sanity of the prisoner, whereupon the Court ordered a jury to be called to try the issue of the prisoner's sanity.

The jury was empannelled and the trial began.

George W. Carley sworn—I am related to the prisoner, and visited him often; since January last the prisoner has much improved in demonner, and I believe be has recovered his mind.

Dr. Smith sworn—I am ubysician of the prison, I have been there since Motivire came; I have seen him on two or three occasions during the last month; I have had very little oppowersation; with him it was perfectly rational; there was nothing a out his character that was wild; he is at no employment his character that was wild; he is at no employment his character that was wild; he is at no employment his character that was wild; he is at no employment his character that was wild; he is at no employment his character that was wild; he is at no employment his character that was wild; he is at no employment his could say, in answer to the question, "low do you do?" Very well," is a very respectful manner. It is my opinion that he is perfectly sane.

Mr. Grub—I am I rison-keoper; I have had charge of the prisoner; saw nothing strange or anything wrong about him; my opinion is that he is sane.

The jury, without returns from their meats, rondered a vertice that the prisoner is now of sound mind.

The prisoner was then arraigned upon the charge of killing Naggie Baer on the 2d of April, 1834 at the Continental theatre, and pleaded not guilty.
